And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam. ³ And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men; and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, mighty men of valour.	b sec ch. 11. 20.

cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, ⁹ fight ye not against the LORD, the God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.

¹³ But Jeroboam led an ambush round, to come behind them; so they were in front of Judah, and the ambush was behind them. ¹⁴ And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind. And they cried unto the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets. ¹⁵ And the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. ¹⁶ And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. ¹⁷ And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter; so there fell down slain* of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.

¹⁸ Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time; and the children of Judah prevailed, because ¹⁹ they relied upon the LORD, the God of their fathers.

¹⁹ And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him; Beth-el and its towns, and Jeshanah and its towns, and ²⁰ Ephraim and its towns. ²⁰ And Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah. And ²¹ the LORD struck him, and he died.

²¹ But Abijah waxed mighty; and he married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.

²² And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are written in the Story† of the prophet ²³ Iddo.

Reign of Asa—(2) Suppression of idolatry; (6) military defences; (9) victory over Zerah the Cushite and his great army.

^{14.} AND ^a Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.

² And Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God; ³ for he took away the foreign altars and ^b the high places, and ^c brake down the images, and cut down the Asherim; ⁴ and he commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. ⁵ Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun-images. And the kingdom was quiet before him.

⁶ And he built the fortified cities in Judah; for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest. ⁷ Therefore he said unto Judah:

Let us build these cities, and make around them walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is before us; because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered. ⁸ And Asa had an army that bare targets and spears; out of Judah three hundred thousand, and out of Benjamin, that bare shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand; all these were mighty men of valour.

¹¹ And Asa ^f cried unto the LORD his God, and said: O LORD, in ^g helping there is with thee no difference between the mighty and the powerless. Help us, O LORD our God; for ^h we rest on thee, and ⁱ in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.

¹² AND ^k the LORD smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. ¹³ And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them unto ^l Gerar; and the Ethiopians were overthrown, so that they did not recover themselves; for they were routed, before the LORD and before his host. And they carried away very much spoil. ¹⁴ And they smote all the cities round about Gerar; for ^m the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they spoiled all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them. ¹⁵ They also smote the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance and camels; and they returned to Jerusalem.

Reign of Asa—The prophet Azariah's exhortation; (8) Asa's further reformation; (9) great assembly at Jerusalem, attended by many from the northern kingdom; and (11) renewal of the national covenant with God.

^{15.} AND ^a the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded; ² and he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him: Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin! ^b The LORD is with you, while ye are with him; and ^c if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but ^d if ye forsake him, he will forsake you. ³ Now ^e for many days Israel hath been without the true God, and without ^f a teaching priest, and without law; ⁴ but ^g when in their trouble they turned unto the LORD, the God of Israel, and

26, 3.

10 And ^g the fear of the LORD was upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah; so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. ^a And some of the Philistines brought unto Jehoshaphat presents and tribute-silver; also the Arabians brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred he-goats. ^a And Jehoshaphat became great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles and cities of stores. ^a And he had much business in the cities of Judah; and the men of war, mighty men of valour, in Jerusalem.

14 And these are the numbers; of them according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the prince, and with him mighty men of valour three hundred thousand. ^a 15 And next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred and fourscore thousand. ^a 16 And next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, ^a who willingly offered himself unto the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour. ^a 17 And of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valour, and with him men armed with bow and shield two hundred thousand. ^a 18 And next to him Jehozabad, and with him a hundred and fourscore thousand ready prepared for the war. ^a 19 These waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

Reign of Jehoshaphat—(1) His marriage-alliance with Ahab; (2) their joint expedition against the Syrians; (4) the prophet Micaiah's warning; (33) death of Ahab; (ch. 19, 1) the prophet Jehu's reproof to Jehoshaphat.

18. AND ^a Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and ^b he became son-in-law to Ahab. ^a And after certain years^a he went down to Ahab, to Samaria. And Ahab killed sheep and oxen in abundance for him and for the people that were with him; and he persuaded him to go up to Ramoth-gilead. ^a And Ahab, the king of Israel, said unto Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah: Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he answered him: ^a I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 And Jehoshaphat said unto the king of Israel: ^a Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day. ^a Therefore the king of Israel gathered ^a the prophets together, four hundred men, and said unto them: Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said: ^a Go up; and God will deliver it into the king's hand.

6 But Jehoshaphat said: ^a Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may inquire of him? ^a 7 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat: There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I ^a hate him; for he never prophesied ^a good unto me, but always evil; Micaiah the son of Imla. And Jehoshaphat said: ^a Let not the king say so. ^a 8 And the king of Israel called to a certain officer, and said: Fetch quickly Micaiah the son of Imla.

9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, sat each of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they sat in a place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and ^a all the prophets prophesied before them. ^a 10 And Zeedekiah the son of Chenaanah had made for himself

Reign of Jehoshaphat—(1) His further religious reforms ; and (5) provision for the administration of justice.

⁴ AND Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem. And he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hill-country of Ephraim, and brought them back unto the LORD, the God of their fathers.

⁵ And he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city. ⁶ And he said to the judges: Take heed what ye do; for ^a ye judge not for man, but for the LORD ^b who is with you in the matter of judgment; ⁷ wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it; for ^c there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor ^d respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

⁸ And also in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat ^e set some of the Levites and the priests, and of the chiefs of the fathers of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for lawsuits. And they returned to Jerusalem. ⁹ And he charged them, saying: Thus shall ye do ^f in the fear of the LORD, faithfully and with a perfect heart. ¹⁰ And ^g what cause soever shall come to you from your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, about statutes and about judgments, ye shall even warn them; that they be not guilty before the LORD, and ^h wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren; this do, and ye shall not be guilty. ¹¹ And behold, Ananiah, the chief priest, is over you ⁱ in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, for all the king's matters; and the Levites are officers before you. Deal courageously; and the LORD be ^k with the good.

Reign of Jehoshaphat—(1) Invasion of Moabites and others; (2) national fast and assembly, and (3) the king's prayer; (4) the Lord's answer by the prophet Jahaziel; (5) destruction of the invaders.

20. AND it came to pass after this, that the children of Moab and ^a the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. ² And they came and told Jehoshaphat, saying: There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea: from Syria; and behold, they are in ^b Hazazon-tamar, (which is ^c Engedi).

⁵ And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD, before the new court; ⁶ and he said:

O LORD, the God of our fathers! Art not thou ^f God in heaven? And ^g thou rulest over all the kingdoms of the nations. And ^h in thy hand there is power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee. ⁷ Didst not thou, our God, ⁱ drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and ^k give it to the seed of Abraham, ^l thy friend, for ever? ⁸ And they have dwelt therein, and have built for thee a sanctuary therein, for thy name, saying: ⁹ If ^m evil come upon us, sword, judgment or pestilence or famine, and we stand before this house and before thee (for thy ⁿ name is in this house), and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and save.

¹⁴ And upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, the Levite, of the sons of Asaph, ^u was the Spirit of the LORD in the midst of the congregation; ¹⁵ and he said:

Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat! Thus saith the LORD unto you: ^v Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for ^w the battle is not yours, but God's. ¹⁶ To-morrow go ye down against them; behold, they come up by the ascent of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. ¹⁷ Ye ^x shall not have to fight in this battle; set yourselves, stand ye; and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem! Fear not, nor be dismayed! To-morrow go out against them; ^y for the LORD is with you.

²⁰ And they rose early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Tekoa. And as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said: Hear ye me, Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem! ^e Believe in the LORD your God, and ye shall be established; believe his prophets, and ye shall prosper. ²¹ And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the LORD, both ^a praising in the beauty of holiness ^{*}, as they went out before the army, and saying, Praise ye ^e the LORD! For his mercy endureth for ever.

²² And when they began to sing aloud and to praise, ^f the LORD set liers-in-wait against the children of Ammon, Moab and mount Seir, who were come against Judah; and they were smitten. ²³ For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, utterly to slay and destroy them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

²⁴ And Judah came upon the lofty place in the wilderness; and they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies, fallen to the earth, and none had escaped. ²⁵ And Jehoshaphat and his people came to plunder the spoil of them; and they found among them in abundance, with the dead bodies, both riches and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away. And they were three days in plundering the spoil, it was so much. ²⁶ And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah [i. e. Blessing]; for there they blessed the LORD. Therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Berachah, unto this day.

²⁷ Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go back to Jerusalem with joy; for ^g the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. ²⁸ And they came to Jerusalem, with ^h psalteries and harps and trumpets, unto the house of the LORD.

²⁹ And ⁱ the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. ³⁰ And the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his ^k God gave him rest round about.

General character of Jehoshaphat's reign; (35) his alliance with the king of Israel; (37) the prophet Eliezer's reproof.

³¹ AND ^a Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah; he was thirty and five years old when he became king, and he reigned twenty and five years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.

³⁵ And after this ^e Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, joined himself with Ahaziah, the king of Israel, who did very wickedly; ³⁶ and he joined himself with him to make ^f ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion-gaber. ³⁷ Then Eliezer the son of Dodavah of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying: Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, the LORD hath broken thy works. And the ships were broken, so that they were not able to go ^g to Tarshish.

Reign of Jehoram—(4) His murder of his brethren; (8) revolt of the Edomites and of Libnah; (11) Jehoram's idolatry; (12) the prophet Elijah's letter; (16) invasions by the Philistines and Arabians.

^{21.} AND ^a Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead. ² And he had brethren, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah and Jehiel and Zechariah and Azariah and Michael and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat, the king of Israel*. ³ And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah; but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn. ⁴ And when Jehoram was risen up to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and some also of the princes of Israel.

⁵ Jehoram ^b was thirty and two years old when he became king, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. ⁶ And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of ^c Ahab to wife; and he did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD. ⁷ Howbeit the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and ^d as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

⁸ In ^e his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made for themselves a king. ⁹ Then Jehoram went forth, with his captains and all his chariots with him; and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites who compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots. ¹⁰ But the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah, unto this day.

Then did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers.

¹¹ Also he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and seduced Judah.

¹⁶ And ¹ the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians that were near the Ethiopians; ¹⁷ and they came up into Judah, and brake into it; and they ¹⁸ carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was not a son left him, save ¹⁹ Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.

¹⁸ And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease; ¹⁹ and it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his suffering; so he died of sore diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

²⁰ Thirty and two years old was he when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years; and he departed ²¹ without being regretted. ²² Howbeit they buried him in the City of David, ²³ but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

Reign of Ahaziah—(3) His conviction with the house of Ahab; (7) his death, and Athaliah's usurpation of the throne.

22. AND the inhabitants of Jerusalem made ^a Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead; for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, reigned. ² Forty and two years old ^{*} was Ahaziah when he became king, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was ^b Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

And ^d Azariah the son of Jehoram, the king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab, at Jezreel, because he was sick. ⁷ And the ruin of Ahaziah ^e was from God, by coming to Joram; for when he was come, he ^f went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, ⁸ whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. ⁹ And it came to pass, that when Jehu was ^h executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and he ⁱ found the princes of Judah and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah ministering to Ahaziah, he slew them. ¹⁰ And he sought Ahaziah; and they caught him, (for he was hidden in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu. And when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who ^k sought the LORD with all his heart.

And the house of Ahaziah had no one able to hold the kingdom. ¹⁰ And ¹ when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed-royal of the house of Judah.

¹¹ But ^m Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in the chamber for beds. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not. ¹² And he was with them hidden in the house of God six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

2. Jehoshabeath.

End of Athaliah's usurpation, and restoration of the throne to the line of David; (16) renewal of the national covenant with God; (17) destruction of idolatry in Jerusalem; and (18) restoration of divine worship.

23. AND ^ain the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. ²And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chiefs of the fathers of Israel; and they came to Jerusalem. ³And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God.

And he ^asaid unto them: Behold, the king's son shall reign, as ^bthe LORD said concerning the sons of David. ⁴This is the thing that ye shall do: The third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be ^ckeepers of the doors; ⁵and the third part at the king's house; and the third part at the gate of the foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD. ⁶But let none come into the house of the LORD save the priests and ^dthey of the Levites that minister; they shall go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD. ⁷And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever cometh into the house, he shall be put to death; and be ye with the king when he cometh in and when he goeth out.

⁸And the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded. And they took each his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the divisions*. ⁹And Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears and the bucklers and the shields that king David had, which were in the house of God. ¹⁰And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the house, near the king round about. ¹¹And they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown and ^ethe testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said: Long live the king!

¹²And Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king; and she came to the people, into the house of the LORD. ¹³And she looked, and behold, the king stood upon his stand* at the entrance; and the princes and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land were rejoicing and sounding with trumpets, also the singers with the instruments of music, and such as taught to sing / praise. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and said: Conspiracy, conspiracy! ¹⁴And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them: Lead her forth outside the ranks; and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said: Slay her not in the house of the LORD. ¹⁵And they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entrance ^fof the gate of the horses, by the king's house, they slew her there.

¹⁶And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they should be the LORD's people. ¹⁷And all the people went to the house of Baal, and brake it down, and brake in pieces his altars and his images; and ^hthey slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

²⁰And ^lhe took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors over the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD; and they came through the upper gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.

²¹And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. And they slew Athaliah with the sword.

Reign of Joash—(5) Repair of the temple; (17) apostasy of the king and people; (20) Zechariah's protest; (21) his murder, by the king's command; (23) Syrian invasion.

24. JOASH ^awas seven years old when he became king, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

²And Joash ^bdid what was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

³And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

¹ And it came to pass after this that Joash was minded to repair the house of the LORD. ² And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them: Go out unto the cities of Judah, and ³ gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God, from year to year; and see that ye hasten the matter. But the Levites hastened not.

¹³ And it came to pass that at the time the chest was brought to the king's officers, by the hand of the Levites, and ¹⁴ when they saw that there was much money, then came the king's secretary and the high priest's officer, and they emptied the chest; and they took it and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. ¹⁵ And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also workers in iron and brass; to repair the house of the LORD. ¹⁶ And the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in its state, and strengthened it.

¹⁷ And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; ¹⁸ and they made of it vessels for the house of the LORD, vessels to minister and to offer with, and dishes and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.

¹⁹ And Jehoiada waxed old, and was full of days, and died; he was a hundred and thirty years old when he died. ²⁰ And they buried him in the City of David, among the kings, ²¹ because he had done good in Israel, and towards God and his house.

²² And ²³ after the death of Jehoiada, the princes of Judah came and made obeisance to the king. And the king hearkened unto them; ²⁴ and they left the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim* and the idols. And ²⁵ there was wrath against Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass. ²⁶ Yet ²⁷ He sent prophets among them, to bring them again unto the LORD; and they testified against them; but they would not give ear.

²⁸ And ²⁹ the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said unto them: Thus saith God, ³⁰ Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD? And ye do not prosper; ³¹ because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.

³⁶ And it came to pass at the end of the year, that ³⁷ the host of Syria came up against him; and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them unto the king of Damascus. ³⁸ For the army of the Syrians ³⁹ came with a small company of men, and the LORD ⁴⁰ delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

Reign of Amaziah—(5) His preparations for war, and victory over the Edomites; (14) his idolatry, and (15) God's rebuke by a prophet; (17) his disastrous war with the king of Israel.

25. AMAZIAH ^a became king when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

³ And it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father. ⁴ But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law in the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying: ^b The fathers shall not die because of the children, neither shall the children die because of the fathers, but they shall die every man for his own sin.

¹⁵ And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent unto him a prophet, who said unto him: Why hast thou sought after ^g the gods of the people which could not deliver their own people out of thy hand? ¹⁶ And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said unto him: Art thou made of the king's counsel? Forbear; why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said: I know that ^h God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened unto my counsel.

²¹ And Joash, the king of Israel, went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah, the king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, (which belongeth to Judah). ²² And Judah was routed before Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. ²³ And Joash, the king of Israel, took Amaziah, the king of Judah, the son of Joash, the son of ^l Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he brake down the wall of Jerusalem, from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits; ²⁴ and he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, and the hostages; and he returned to Samaria.

²⁵ And ^mAmaziah the son of Joash, the king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the king of Israel, fifteen years. ²⁶ Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, the first and the last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

²⁷ And after the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; but they sent to Lachish after him, and slew him there. ²⁸ And they brought him upon horses, and buried him with his fathers in the City of ⁿJudah.

Reign of Uziah—(6) His successful wars, (9) buildings and other works, and (11) military power; (16) his pride, usurpation of priestly functions, and (19) punishment.

26. AND all the people of Judah took ^aUzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

² He built ^bEloth, and restored it to Judah, after the king* slept with his fathers.

⁴ And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah did. ⁵ And he sought God, in the days of Zechariah, who ^chad understanding in the visions of God; and as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

⁶ And he went forth and ^dwarred against the Philistines; and he brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of ^eJabneh, and the wall of Ashdod; and he built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines. ⁷ And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Meunims. ⁸ And the Ammonites ^fgave tribute to Uziah; and his name spread abroad to the entrance of Egypt; for he became strong exceedingly.

¹⁶ But when he became strong, ^hhis heart was lifted up, even to ruin; for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and ⁱwent into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense. ¹⁷ And ^kAzariah the priest went in after him, and with him fourscore priests of the LORD, valiant men; ¹⁸ and they withstood Uziah the king, and said unto him: It is not for thee, Uziah, to burn incense unto the LORD, but ^mfor the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; it is not for thine honour from the LORD God.

¹⁹ Then Uziah was wroth, and he ^{took} a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, ⁿthe leprosy rose up in his forehead, before the priests, in the house of the LORD, beside the incense-altar. ²⁰ And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked upon him, and behold, he ^{was} leprous in his forehead; and they thrust him out from thence; yea, he himself too hastened to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.

²¹ And ^oUzziah the king was a leper unto the day of his death; and he dwelt in a ^pseparate house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the LORD. And Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

²² Now the rest of the acts of Uziah, the first and the last, did ^qIsaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, write. ²³ So Uziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial-place of the kings; for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

Reign of Jotham—(3) His fortifications and other buildings; (5) subjugation of the Ammonites.

27. JOTHAM ^a was twenty and five years old when he became king, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did; howbeit he ^b entered not into the temple of the LORD; but the people yet did corruptly.

⁵ And he fought with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And ^c the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay to him, both the second year and the third. ⁶ So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

Reign of Ahaz—(1) His wickedness; and chastisements by the (5) Syrians, (6) Israelites, (17) Edomites, and (18) Philistines.

28. AHAZ ^a was twenty years old when he became king; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not what was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father; ² but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and ^b made also molten images for ^c the Baals. ³ Moreover he burnt incense in ^d the Valley of the son of Hinnom, and ^e burnt his sons in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel. ⁴ He also sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

⁵ Wherefore ^f the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they ^g smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus.

And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter. ⁶ For ^h Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men; ⁱ because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. ⁷ And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah, who was next to the king*. ⁸ And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons and daughters; and they took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

⁹ And a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out in face of the host that were coming to Samaria, and said unto them: Behold, ^k because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that ^l reacheth up unto the heavens. ¹⁰ And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for ^m bondmen and bondwomen unto you. But are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God? ¹¹ So now hear me, and deliver back the captives again, whom ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

¹² And certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those that came from the war, ¹³ and said unto them: Ye shall not bring in the captives hither; for whereas we have offended against the LORD, ye intend to add to our sins and to our guilt; for our guilt is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

¹⁴ So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation. ¹⁵ And the men who have been ⁿ expressed by name rose up and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them and shod them, and ^o gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them; and they carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, ^p the City of palm-trees, beside their brethren. And they returned to Samaria.

the Edomites came and smote Judah, and carried away captives.

¹⁸ The ^r Philistines also invaded the cities of the lowlands, and of the South of Judah, and took Beth-shemesh and Ajalon and Gederoth, and Shochmo and its villages, and Timnah and its villages, also Gimzo and its villages; and they dwelt there.

²⁰ And ^t Tilgath-pilneser, the king of Assyria, came unto him; and he distressed him, but strengthened him not; ²¹ for Ahaz had ^u despoiled the house of the LORD, and the house of the king and of the princes, and had given to the king of Assyria; but it helped him not.

²² And ^x in the time of his distress he trespassed yet more against the LORD, this king Ahaz. ²³ And ^y he sacrificed unto the gods of Damascus, which smote him; and he said: Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them, that ^z they may help me. But they ^a were the ruin of him and of all Israel.

²⁴ And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and ^b cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God; and ^c he shut up the doors of the house of the LORD; and he made for himself altars in every corner of Jerusalem. ²⁵ And in every several city of Judah he made high places, to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers.

Reign of Hezekiah—(5) Purification and (20) re-dedication of the temple.

²⁹ HEZEKIAH ^a became king when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of ^b Zechariah.

² And he did what was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done.

³ He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, ^c opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. ⁴ And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the East street, ⁶ and said unto them:

Hear me, ye Levites! ^d Sanctify now yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the sanctuary.

⁶ For ^e our fathers have trespassed and done what was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and ^f have forsaken him, and ^g have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and have turned their backs. ⁷ Also ^h they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps; and have not burned incense nor offered burnt-offerings in the sanctuary unto the God of Israel. ⁸ And the ⁱ wrath of the LORD hath been upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, ^k to astonishment and to ^l hissing, as ye see with your eyes. ⁹ For lo, ^m our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. ¹⁰ Now it is in my heart to make a ⁿ covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us. ¹¹ My sons, now be not negligent; for the LORD hath ^o chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister unto him, and burn incense.

¹² And the Levites arose: Mahath the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehalelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; ¹³ and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; ¹⁴ and of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. ¹⁵ And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to ^p the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD, ^q to cleanse the house of the LORD.

teenth day of the first month they made an end. ¹⁸ And they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said: We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering with all its vessels, and the shewbread table with all its vessels. ¹⁹ And all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign, profaned in his transgression have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.

²⁰ And Hezekiah the king rose early, and gathered the chief men of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. ²¹ And they brought seven bullocks and seven rams, and seven lambs and seven he-goats, for a sin-offering, for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. And he commanded the priests, the sons of Aaron, to offer them on the altar of the LORD. ²² And they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood and ^x sprinkled it on the altar; likewise they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar; they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood upon the altar. ²³ And they brought near the he-goats for the sin-offering, before the king and the congregation, and they laid their ^y hands upon them; ²⁴ and the priests killed them; and ^z they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, ^a to make an atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded the burnt-offering and the sin-offering for all Israel.

²⁷ And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, ^h the song of the LORD began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of David, the king of Israel. ²⁸ And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all until the burnt-offering was finished. ²⁹ And when they had made an end of offering, ⁱ the king and all that were present with him bowed down and worshipped. ³⁰ And Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise unto the LORD, ^k in the words of David and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

³¹ And Hezekiah answered and said: Now

ye have consecrated yourselves unto the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and every one of a free heart brought burnt-offerings. ³² And the number of the burnt-offerings which the congregation brought was threescore and ten bullocks, a hundred rams, and two hundred lambs; all these for a burnt-offering to the LORD. ³³ And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.

³⁴ But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings; wherefore ^m their brethren the Levites helped them, till the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for ⁿ the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. ³⁵ And also the burnt-offering was in abundance, with ^o the fat of the peace-offerings, and ^p the drink-offerings for the burnt-offering.

So the service of the house of the LORD was set up. ³⁶ And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people; for the thing was done suddenly.

Reign of Hezekiah—(1) Great Passover celebration, to which all Israel are invited; (ch. 31. 1) destruction of idolatry throughout the country.

30. AND HEZEKIAH sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover unto the LORD, the God of Israel. ² For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover ^a in the second month; ³ for they could not keep it ^b at that time, ^c because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. ⁴ And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation. ⁵ So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover unto the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem. For they had not done it for a long time as it was written.

⁶ So the runners went, with the letters from the hand of the king and his princes, throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying:

Ye children of Israel, ^d turn again unto the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac and

Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of ^a the kings of Assyria. ^b And he will not ye ^c like your fathers and like your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD, the God of their fathers; so that he ^d gave them up to desolation, as ye see. ^e Now ^f he ye not stiffnecked, like your fathers; yield yourselves ^g unto the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever; and serve the LORD your God; ^h that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you. ⁱ For when ye turn again unto the LORD, your brethren and your children ^j shall find compassion before them that lead them captive, ^k even to return into this land. For the LORD your God is ^l gracious and merciful; and ^m he will not turn away his face from you if ye ⁿ return unto him.

¹⁰ So the runners passed from city to city through the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, even unto Zebulun. But ^p they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them. ^q Nevertheless ^r some from Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. ¹² Also in Judah was ^s the hand of God, to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.

¹³ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of Unleavened bread, in the second month, a very great congregation. ¹⁴ And they arose and took away ^t the altars that were in Jerusalem; and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. ¹⁵ And they killed the passover on the fourteenth of the second month. And the priests and the Levites were ^u ashamed; and they sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD. ¹⁶ And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses, the man of God; and ^v the priests sprinkled the blood, from the hand of the Levites.

¹⁷ For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified; ^w therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one not clean, to sanctify them unto the LORD. ¹⁸ For a multitude of the people, many from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves; ^x but they ate the passover otherwise than it was written. For Hezekiah prayed for them, saying: The good LORD pardon every one ^y who ^z prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, but not according to the purification of the sanctuary; ²⁰ and the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and forgave the people.

²¹ And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept ^a the feast of Unleavened bread seven days with great gladness. And the Levites and the priests celebrated the LORD day by day, with instruments of praise unto the LORD. ²² And Hezekiah spake ^b comfortably unto all ^c the Levites that were well instructed in the good knowledge of the LORD. And they did eat the feast-offerings seven days, sacrificing peace-sacrifices, and ^d making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers.

²⁵ And all the congregation of Judah, and the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced. ²⁶ And there was great joy in Jerusalem; ^h for since the time of Solomon the son of David, the king of Israel, there was not the like in Jerusalem. ²⁷ And the priests the Levites arose and ⁱ blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and ^k their prayer came into His holy dwelling-place, into heaven.

31. And when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and ^l brake the images in pieces, and cut down the Asherim^m, and brake down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, also in Ephraim and Manasseh, until they made an end.

Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.

Reign of Hezekiah—(2) Restoration of the temple services; and (4) of the provisions for the same, and for the priests and Levites.

² AND Hezekiah appointed ^a the divisions^t of the priests, and the Levites, according to their divisions^t, every man according to his service; the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister and to give thanks and to praise in the gates of the courts; of the LORD. ³ And

9 more are with us than with him; 8 with him is ^aan arm of flesh, but ¹with us is the LORD our God, to help us and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah, the king of Judah.

9 After ^kthis Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, sent his servants to Jerusalem, (but he was by Lachish, and all his power* with him), unto Hezekiah, the king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying:

10 Thus saith Sennacherib, the king of Assyria: Whereon do ye trust, that ye abide in the stronghold [†]in Jerusalem?

11 Doth not Hezekiah incite you, to deliver you to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria? 12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it? 13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of those lands at all able to deliver their lands out of my hand? 14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? 15 And now let not Hezekiah deceive you or incite you in this manner; neither yet believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom hath been able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He [†]also wrote letters to rail on the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against him saying: As the gods of the nations of the lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand.

18 And they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them and to trouble them; that they might take the city. 19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, ^mthe work of man's hand.

20 And ⁿbecause of this, Hezekiah the king, and ^othe prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven. 21 And ^pthe LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valour and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he entered into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels made him fall there by the sword.

22 Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all; and he protected them on every side. 23 And many brought gifts unto the LORD, to Jerusalem, and ^qpresents to Hezekiah, the king of Judah; so that he was ^rmagnified in the sight of all the nations from thenceforth.

Reign of Hezekiah—(1) His sickness and recovery; (27) his wealth and prosperity; (28, 31) his pride and humiliation.

24 IN ^athose days Hezekiah was sick even to death, and he prayed unto the LORD; and he spake unto him, and gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done unto him, for ^bhis heart was lifted up; ^cand there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem. 26 But ^dHezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart; and he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them ^ein the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour; and he made for himself treasuries, for silver and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant vessels; ²⁸and storehouses for the increase of corn and wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks. 29 And he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for ^fGod had given him very much substance.

30 This ^gsame Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the City of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works. 31 Howbeit in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who ^hsent unto him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to ⁱtry him, to know all that was in his heart.

32 And ^kthe rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his pious deeds, behold, they are written in ^lthe Vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the ^mbook of the kings of Judah and Israel. 33 And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in ²⁴And his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house. ²⁵And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon. And the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

Reign of Josiah—(1) His piety, and (3) extermination of idolatry, in Jerusalem and throughout Judah, and (6) in the land of Israel.

34. JOSIAH ^a was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

⁴ And ^e they brake down the altars of the Baals, in his presence; and the sun-images that were on high above them he cut down; and the Asherim† and the carved images and the molten images he brake in pieces and made into dust, and ^f strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed unto them; ⁵ and he burnt ^g the bones of the priests upon their altars. And he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem. ⁶ And in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even unto Naphtali, he† searched their houses round about. ⁷ And when he had broken down the altars and the Asherim‡, and had ^h beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the sun-images, throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.

Reign of Josiah—(8) Repair of the temple; (14) discovery of the book of the law; (19) Josiah's inquiry of the prophetess Huldah concerning the judgments threatened therein, and (23) the Lord's answer; (29) public reading of the law; and (31) renewal of the national covenant with God.

⁸ AND ^a in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land, and the houses, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. ⁹ And they came to Hilkiah the high priest; and they delivered ^b the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the threshold had gathered from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem*. ¹⁰ And they gave it into the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and amend the house; ¹¹ even to the artificers† and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for the beams, and to floor* the houses† which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

¹² And ^c the men did the work faithfully. And the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to preside; and all the Levites that had skill in instruments of music; ¹³ also some over the bearers of burdens, and overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service; ^d and some of the Levites were scribes and officers and porters.

¹⁴ And when they brought out the money that had been brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD, by the hand of Moses. ¹⁵ And Hilkiah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe: I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

¹⁹ And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes. ²⁰ And the king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and ^e Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying: ²¹ Go, inquire of the LORD for me and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found. For great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.

²² And Hilkiah, and they whom the king sent, went to Huldah ^f the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of ^g Hasrah, keeper of the robes, (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second part), and they spake to her according to that.

²³ And she answered them: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me, ²⁴ Thus saith the LORD, Behold, ^h I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. ²⁵ Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched. ²⁶ But as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say unto him: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard: ²⁷ Because thy heart is tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place and against its inhabitants, and hast humbled thyself before me, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, even I also have heard thee, saith the LORD. ²⁸ Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, and thine eyes shall not look on all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon its inhabitants.

So they brought the king word again.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.

³³ And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries which the children of Israel had; and he made all that were present in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. All his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

Reign of Josiah—Great Passover celebration.

35. AND ^a Josiah kept a Passover unto the LORD in Jerusalem; and they killed the passover ^b on the fourteenth of the first month.

² And ^c he set* the priests in their charges, and ^d encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD. ³ And he said unto ^e the Levites, who taught all Israel, who were holy unto the LORD: ^f Put the holy ark ^g in the house which Solomon the son of David, the king of Israel, built; there is no ^h burden for you upon the shoulder. Now serve ye the LORD your God, and his people Israel, ⁴ and prepare yourselves, by ⁱ the houses of your fathers, in your divisions [†], according to ^k the writing of David, the king of Israel, and according to ^l the writing of Solomon his son. ⁵ And stand in the sanctuary, according to the classes of the families of the fathers, for your brethren the sons of the people, and the division of the families of the Levites. ⁶ And kill the passover, and ^m sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brethren, to do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.

⁷ And Josiah ⁿ gave to the sons of the people sheep, lambs and kids, all for the passover offerings, for all that were present; to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks; these were of the king's substance. ⁸ And ^o his princes gave willingly to the people, to the priests and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave unto the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle and three hundred oxen. ⁹ And Conaniah and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chiefs of the Levites, gave unto the Levites for passover-offerings five thousand small cattle and five hundred oxen.

¹⁰ So the service was prepared; and ^p the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions^{||}, according to the king's commandment. ¹¹ And they killed the passover; and ^q the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites ^r flayed them. ¹² And they set apart the burnt-offering, that they might give according to the classes of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as ^s it is written ⁶ in the book of Moses; and so ^t did they with the oxen. ¹³ And ^u they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance; but the other holy offerings ^u they boiled in pots and in caldrons and in pans; and they divided them speedily among all the people.

¹⁴ And afterwards they made ready for themselves and for the priests; because the priests the sons of Aaron were engaged in offering the burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. ¹⁵ And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the ² commandment of David, and Asaph and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and ⁹ the doorkeepers were at every gate; they had not to depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

¹⁶ So all the service of the LORD was prepared on that day, for keeping the Passover, and for offering burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. ¹⁷ And the children of Israel that were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of Unleavened bread seven days.

¹⁸ And ^a there was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. ¹⁹ In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept.

Josiah's resistance to the king of Egypt, and (13) death in battle; (24) the national mourning for him.

²⁰ AFTER ^a all this, when Josiah had restored the temple, Necho, the king of Egypt, came up to fight at Charchemish, by the Euphrates; and Josiah went out against him. ²¹ And he sent ambassadors to him, saying: What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? Not against thee thyself come I this day; but against the house* wherewith I have war; for God commanded me to make haste. Forbear thee from God, who is with me, that he destroy thee not.

²² But Josiah would not turn his face from him; but he disguised himself, that he might fight with him; and he hearkened not unto the words of Necho from the mouth of God; and he came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. ²³ And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants: Take me away, for I am sorely wounded. ²⁴ His servants therefore took him out of that chariot, and put him into the second chariot that he had; and they brought him to Jerusalem. And he died, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers.

And ^b all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. ²⁵ And Jeremiah ^c lamented for Josiah; and all ^d the singing men and the singing women spake of Josiah in their lamentations, to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel; and behold, they are written in the lamentations.

Reigns of (1) Jehoahaz, (2) Jehoiakim, (9) Jehoiachin, and (11) Zedekiah— (12) The wickedness of the king and people; (17) their destruction by the Chaldeans; (18) transportation to Babylon of treasures and people; and (21) desolation of the land for seventy years.

36. AND the ^a people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's stead, in Jerusalem. ² Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he became king, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

³ And the king of Egypt put him aside at Jerusalem; and he condemned the land in a hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. ⁴ And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem; and he turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

⁵ Jehoiakim ^b was twenty and five years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem.

And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. ⁶ Against ^c him came up Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon; and he bound him in fetters, to ^d carry him to Babylon. ⁷ Nebuchadnezzar ^e also carried part of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

¹⁰ Jehoiachin ^g was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem. ¹² And he did what was evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. ¹³ And ^m he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God; and ⁿ he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the LORD, the God of Israel.

¹⁴ Moreover all the chiefs of the priests and the people transgressed very much, according to all the abominations of the heathen; and polluted the house of the LORD which he had hallowed in Jerusalem. ¹⁵ And ^o the LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to them, by his messengers, rising up betimes and sending, because ^p he had compassion on his people and on his dwelling-place; ¹⁶ but ^q they derided the messengers of God, and ^r despised his words, and ^s mocked at his prophets, until the ^t wrath of the LORD arose against his people, till there was no remedy.

¹⁷ And ^u he brought upon them the king of the Chaldees, who slew their young men with the sword, in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man or ancient; he gave the whole into his hand. ¹⁸ And ^x all the vessels of the house of God, the great and the small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, the whole he brought to Babylon. ¹⁹ And ^y they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

²⁰ And ^z them that were left from the sword carried he away to Babylon, ^a where they were servants* to him and his sons, until the reign of the kingdom of Persia; ²¹ to fulfil the word of the LORD ^b by the mouth of Jeremiah, until ^c the land had enjoyed its sabbaths; as long as it lay desolate ^d it kept sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.

Proclamation of Cyrus allowing the Jews to return to their own land.

²² BUT ^e in the first year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, that the word of the LORD, by the mouth of ^f Jeremiah, might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of ^g Cyrus, the king of Persia, that he made a proclamation† throughout all his kingdom, and also in writing, saying:

²³ Thus saith Cyrus, the king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth hath the LORD, the God of heaven, given to me; and he hath charged me to build for him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Who is there among you of all his people? The LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.

Cyrus's proclamation; (5) the departure of the Jews from Babylon; (7) the restoration of the temple treasures.

² Thus saith Cyrus, the king of Persia: The LORD, the God of heaven, hath given to me all the kingdoms of the earth; and ^d he hath charged me to build for him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. ³ Who is there among you of all his people? His God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel (^e he is the God) which is at Jerusalem. ⁴ And whosoever remaineth, in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him, with silver and with gold, and with goods and with beasts, besides ^f the freewill offering for the house of God that is at Jerusalem.

⁵ Then rose up the chiefs of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests and the Levites, with all ^g whose spirit God had stirred up, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem. ⁶ And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods and with beasts, with

⁹ And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers of silver, nine and twenty knives, ¹⁰ thirty cups of gold, silver cups of a second class four hundred and ten, other vessels a thousand. ¹¹ All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. The whole did ^k Sheshbazzar bring up, with the captives that were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

A list of the first company of Jews who returned from Babylon, with Zerubbabel.

2. NOW ^a these are the children of the ^b province that went up out of the captivity, of those who had been carried away, ^c whom Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, had carried away to Babylon; and who came back to Jerusalem and Judah; every one unto his city; ² who came with ^d Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, ^e Seraiah, / Reclaiiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, ^f Mizpar, Bigvai, ^h Rehum, Baanah.

The number of the men of the people of Israel:

³ The sons of Parosh, two thousand a hundred seventy and two. ⁴ The sons of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two.

⁵⁸ All the ^f Nethinim, and the sons of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

⁵⁹ And these were they who went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsa, Cherub, ^g Ad-dan, and Immer, but could not show their fathers' house and their lineage, whether they were of Israel: ⁶⁰ The sons of Delaiah, the sons of Tobiah, the sons of Nekoda, six hundred fifty and two.

⁶⁴ The ^o whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and sixty; ⁶⁵ besides their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven. And there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. ⁶⁶ Their horses were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; ⁶⁷ their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

⁶⁸ And ^p some of the chiefs of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God, to set it up in its place; ⁶⁹ they ^q gave after their ability unto the treasure of the work sixty and one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand manehs* of silver, and one hundred priests' garments†.

Restoration of (2) the daily sacrifices and (4) sacred festivals; and (7) commencement of the rebuilding of the temple.

3. AND when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. ² Then stood up ^a Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and ^b Zerubbabel the son of ^c Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is

^d written in the law of Moses, the man of God. ³ And they set the altar upon its bases; for fear was upon them because of the people of those countries. And they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the LORD, burnt-offerings morning and evening. ⁴ And they ^e kept the feast of Tabernacles, as it is written; and they ^f offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; ⁵ and afterwards the ^g continual burnt-offering, both of the new moons and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were kept holy, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. ⁶ From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the LORD.

But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not laid; ⁷ but they gave money to the masons and to the carpenters; and ⁸ food and drink and oil, to them of Zidon and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of ^h Joppa, ⁱ according to the permission of Cyrus, the king of Persia.

⁹ And in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity to Jerusalem; and ^m they appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to preside over the work of the house of the LORD. ¹⁰ Then stood ⁿ Jeshua, his sons and his brethren, and Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of ^o Judah, together, to preside over the workmen in the house of God; and the sons of Henadad, their sons and their brethren the Levites.

And all the people ^u shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. ¹³ But ^v many of the priests and Levites and chiefs of the fathers, old men, who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and Opposition of the Samaritans; (11) their letter to the king of Persia; and (17) the king's decree forbidding the rebuilding of the temple.

4. AND the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building the temple unto the LORD, the God of Israel; ² and they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chiefs of the fathers, and said unto them: ^a Let us build with you; ^b for we, like you, seek your God; and we sacrifice unto him ^c since the days of Esar-haddon, the king of ^d Assyria, who brought us up hither.

³ But Zerubbabel and Jeshua, and the rest of the chiefs of the fathers of Israel, said unto them: ^e Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD, the God of Israel, as ^f king Cyrus, the king of Persia, hath commanded us.

⁷ And in the reign of ^h Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.

¹³ This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto Artaxerxes the king. Thy servants, the men beyond the river, and so forth: ¹⁴ Be it known unto the king, that the Jews who came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, they are building the ^k rebellious and wicked city, and have set up the walls and joined the foundations. ¹⁵ Now be it known unto the king, that if this city be built and the walls set up, they will not pay ^l toll, tribute, and custom, and in the end thou wilt damage the kings. ¹⁶ Now because we eat salt from the palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's injury, therefore have we sent and certified the king; ¹⁷ that search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers. So shalt thou find in the book of the records and know that this city is a rebellious city, and damaging to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; ¹⁸ for which cause was this city destroyed. ¹⁹ We certify the king that if this city be built and its walls set up, by this means thou shalt have no portion beyond the river.

²⁰ Then the king sent answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, that dwelt in Samaria, and the rest beyond the river: Peace, and so forth. ²¹ The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me. ²² And I commanded and search hath been made, and ²³ it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and rebellion and sedition have been made therein. ²⁴ There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ²⁵ ruled over all ²⁶ beyond the river; and toll, ²⁷ tribute, and custom was paid to them. ²⁸ Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built until a commandment shall be given from me. ²⁹ Take heed now that ye fail not to do this. Why should harm grow to the damage of the kings?

³⁰ Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem, unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force and might. ³¹ Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. And it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius, the king of Persia.

God of Israel, even unto them. ² Then rose up ^c Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

³ At the same time came to them ^d Tatnai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them: Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? ⁴ Then said we unto them, after this manner, what were the names of the men that were building this building.

⁵ But ^e the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, so that ^f they did not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius^g; and then they sent back a letter concerning this.

⁶ The copy of the letter that Tatnai, the governor beyond the river, and Shethar-boznai, and ^h his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the river, sent unto Darius the king. ⁷ They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus:

Unto Darius the king, all peace. ⁸ Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is being built with great stones, and timber is being laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. ⁹ Then asked we those elders; thus we said unto them: Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? ¹⁰ We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that are the chief of them. ¹¹ And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which ^k a great king of Israel built and set up. ¹² But ^l after our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, ^k he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away to Babylon. ¹³ But in the first year of ^l Cyrus, the king of Babylon, king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. ¹⁴ And ^m the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and carried to the temple at Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon; and they were delivered unto ⁿ Sheshbazzar, by name, whom he had made governor;

¹⁵ and he said to him: Take these vessels, go, carry them to the temple that is at

Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place. ¹⁶ Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and ^o laid the foundation of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. And since that time even until now hath it been in building, and it is ^p not finished. ¹⁷ Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, ^q let search be made in the house of the king's treasures, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so that ^r a decree was made by Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

⁶. Then Darius the king made a decree, and ^s search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. ² And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written: ³ In ^t the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree as to the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be built, a place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; ^u its height threescore cubits, and its breadth threescore cubits; ^v with ^w three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber; and ^x let the expenses be given out of the king's house. ⁵ And also let ^y the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, ^z which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, each to its place, and be placed in the house of God.

⁸ Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: That of the king's goods, of the tribute beyond the river, the outlay be diligently given unto these men, that they be not hindered. ⁹ And that which they have need of, both young bullocks and rams and lambs, for the burnt-offerings to the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine and oil, according to the appointment of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail; ¹⁰ that ^c they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven, and ^d pray for the life of the king and of his sons.

¹¹ Also I have made a decree, that ^e who-soever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged thereon; ^f and let his house be made a dunghill for this. ¹² And let the God who hath caused his ^g name to dwell there destroy all kings and people that shall put to their hand to alter or to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. ¹ Darius have made a decree; let it be done diligently.

Completion, and (16) dedication of the temple; and (19) celebration of the Passover.

¹⁴ AND ^a the elders of the Jews built; and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they built, and finished, ^b according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and ^c according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and ^d Artaxerxes, the king of Persia. ¹⁵ And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king.

¹⁹ And the children of the captivity kept the Passover ^k upon the fourteenth of the first month. ²⁰ For the priests and the Levites were ^l purified together, all of them were pure; and they killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. ²¹ And the children of Israel, who were come back out of captivity, and all such as ^m had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, did eat, ²² and kept the ⁿ feast of Unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and he had ^o turned the heart of the king of Assyria* unto them, to strengthen their hands

Return of another large company of Jews from Babylon, about sixty years later, under Ezra, with a commission and presents from the king.

⁷. AND after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes, the king of Persia, Ezra ^a the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, ² the son of Shalum, the son of Zadok, the son of Abitub, ³ the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, ⁴ the son of Zerahiah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, ⁵ the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest, ⁶ this Ezra went up from Babylon. And he was ^b a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given. And the king granted him all his request, ^c according to the hand of the LORD his God upon him.

⁸ And he came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. ⁹ For upon the first of the first month began he to go up from Babylon; and on the first of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God upon him. ¹⁰ For Ezra had ^f prepared his heart to ^g seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and ^h to teach in Israel statutes and judgments.

¹² Artaxerxes, ⁱ the king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect; ^k and so forth. ¹³ I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and their priests and Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee. ¹⁴ Forasmuch as thou art sent by the king and by his ^l seven counsellors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of thy God which is in thy hand, ¹⁵ and to carry silver and gold which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto the God of Israel, ^m whose habitation is in Jerusalem, ¹⁶ and ⁿ all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the 27 Blessed ^b be the LORD, the God of our fathers, ^c who hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem; ²⁸ and hath ^d extended mercy unto me, before the king and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes!

And I was strengthened as ^e the hand of the LORD my God was upon me; and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

8. And these are the chiefs of their fathers, and their genealogy, who went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom. Of the sons of Ithamar; Daniel. Of the sons of David; ³ Hattush. 3 Of the sons of Shechaniah (of the sons of ⁴ Pharosh); Zechariah; and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males a hundred and fifty. 4 Of the sons of Pahath-moab; Elihoenai the son of Zerariah, and with him two hundred males. 5 Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son of Jahziel, and with him three hundred males. 6 And of the sons of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. 7 And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him seventy males. 8 And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him eighty males. 9 Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males. 10 And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and with him a hundred and sixty males. 11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males. 12 And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakatan, and with him a hundred and ten males. 13 And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, and with them sixty males. 14 And of the sons of Bigvai; Uthai and ¹⁵ Zabbud, and with them seventy males.

¹⁵ And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there we abode in tents three days. And I viewed the people, and the priests, and I found there none of the ⁴sons of Levi. ¹⁶ And I sent for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding. ¹⁷ And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief, at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo, and to his brethren, ⁸ the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God.

whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were expressed by names.

²¹ And I ^a proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might ^a afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a ^p right way for us and for our little ones, and for all our substance. ²² For ^q I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way; because we had spoken unto the king, saying: "The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath are ^r against all them that forsake him. ²³ And we fasted and ^t besought our God about this; and he was ^u intreated of us.

²⁸ And I said unto them: Ye are ^y holy unto the LORD; and ^z the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD, the God of your fathers. ²⁹ Watch ye and keep them until ye weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the chiefs of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. ³⁰ And the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver and the gold and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

³¹ And we departed from the river of Ahava on the twelfth of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem. And the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and the lie-in-wait by the way.

³² And we came to Jerusalem; and we abode there three days. ³³ And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels ^a were weighed, in the house of our God, by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them were Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites; ³⁴ by number and by weight of every one; and all the weight was written at that time.

³⁵ And the children of those that had been carried away, who were come out of the captivity, ^b offered burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel; twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering; all a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

³⁶ And they delivered the king's ^c mandates to the king's lieutenants, and to the governors beyond the river. And they furthered the people, and the house of God.

Intermarriages of the Jews with the heathen; (3) Ezra's distress and prayer; (ch. 10. 1.) the people's repentance and reformation.

9. AND when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying: The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not ^a separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, ^b according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites; ² for ^c they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons; so that ^d the holy seed have ^e mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands; yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

³ And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and ^f plucked off the hair of my head and my beard, and sat down ^g astonished. ⁴ Then were assembled unto me every one that ^h trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until ⁱ the evening sacrifice.

⁵ And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my humiliation; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and ^k spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, ⁶ and said:

O my God, I am ^l ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God! For ^m our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guilt is ⁿ grown up unto the heavens. ⁷ Since the days of our fathers are ^o we in great guilt unto this day; and for our iniquities ^p have we, our kings and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, by the sword, by captivity, and by plunder, and by confusion of face, as it is this day.

⁸ And now for a little space ^q there hath been favour from the LORD our God, to leave us ^r an escaped remnant, and to give us ^s a nail ^t in his holy place; that our God may ^u lighten our eyes, and give us a little

"reviving in our bondage. ⁹ For we are bondmen, ^x yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but ^y hath extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia; to give us a reviving, ^z to set up the house of our God, and to repair its desolations, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

¹⁰ And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken thy commandments, ¹¹ which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, ^a The land unto which ye go to possess it is an unclean land, with the filthiness of the peoples of the lands, with their abominations, who have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness; ¹² now therefore ^b give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor ^c seek their peace or their wealth for ever; that ye may be strong, and ^d eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. ¹³ And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that thou our God ^e hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us deliverance like this, ¹⁴ should we ^f again break thy commandments, and ^g join in affinity with the people of these abominations, wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

¹⁰. Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down ^k before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children; for the people wept very sore.

² And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra: ¹ We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the peoples of the land; yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. ³ Now therefore let us make a ^m covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord and of those that ⁿ tremble at ^o the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. ⁴ Arise, for the matter resteth with thee; ^p we also are with thee; be of good courage, and do it.

⁵ Then Ezra arose, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, ^q to swear that they would do according to this word; and they swore. ⁶ And Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib. And when he came thither, he ^r did eat no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

⁹ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within the three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month; and ^t all the people sat in the street ^{*} of the house of God, trembling, because of the matter, and for the great rains.

¹² And all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice: As thou hast said, so must we do; ¹³ but ^z the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without; neither is this a work for one day or for two; for we are many that have transgressed in this thing. ¹⁴ Let now our princes stand for all the congregation, and let all those in our cities who have taken foreign wives come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof; until ^a the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be turned from us.

¹⁶ And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chiefs of the fathers, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by names, were separated, and sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. ¹⁷ And they made an end with all the men that had

²⁵ And of Israel: Of the sons of Parosh; Ramiah and Jeziah and Malchiah and Miamin and Eleazar and Malchijah and Benaiah. ²⁶ And of the sons of Elam; Mattaniah, Zechariah and Jehiel and Abdi and Jeremoth and Eliah. ²⁷ And of the sons of Zattu; Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah and Jeremoth and Zabad and Aziza.

²⁸ And of the sons of Bebai; Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. ²⁹ And of the sons of Bani; Meshullam, Malluch and Adaiah, Jashub and Sheal and Ramoth. ³⁰ And of the sons of Pahath-moab; Adna and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezaleel and Binnui and Manasseh. ³¹ And the sons of Harim; Eliezer, Ishijah, Malchiah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, ³² Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. ³³ Of the sons of Hashum; Mattenai, Mattathah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. ³⁴ Of the sons of Bani; Maadai, Amram and Uel, ³⁵ Benaiah, Bedeiah, Chelluh, ³⁶ Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, ³⁷ Mattaniah, Mattenai and Jaasau ³⁸ and Bani and Binnui, Shimei ³⁹ and Shelemiah and Nathan and Adaiah, ⁴⁰ Machnadebai, ⁴¹ Shashai, Sharai, ⁴² Azareel and Shelemiah, Shemariah, ⁴³ Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. ⁴⁴ Of the sons of Nebo; Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Judan and Joel, Benaiah.

⁴⁴ All these had taken foreign wives; and some of the wives had given birth to children.

THE

BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

Nehemiah's information concerning the distressed condition of Jerusalem; (4) his grief and prayer.

1. THE words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah.

And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year^a, as I was in Shushan the palace^b, that ^a Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah. And I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

⁴ And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I ^c sat down and wept and mourned for days, and fasted; and I prayed before the God of heaven ^d and said:

I beseech thee, ^d O LORD, the God of heaven, the great and terrible God, ^e who keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments, ^f let thine ear now be attentive, and ^g thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant which I pray before thee now, ^h day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants; and ⁱ confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee; both I and my father's house have sinned. ^j We ^k have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments nor the statutes nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.

⁸ Remember, ^k I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, ^l If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations; ^m but ⁿ if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments and do them; though some of you were

² AND it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of ^a Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him; and ^b I took up the wine and gave it unto the king. And I had not been beforetime sad in his presence; ² so the king said unto me: Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? This is nothing but ^c sadness of heart. And I was very sore afraid; ³ and I said unto the king: ^d Let the king live for ever! ^e Why should not my countenance be sad, when ^f the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and its gates are consumed with fire?

⁷ I also said unto the king: If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river*, that they may send me forward till I come into Judah; ⁸ and a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the king's forest†, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace‡ which appertaineth ^k to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, ^l according to the good hand of my God upon me.

⁹ And I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters.

And the king had sent the captains of a force and horsemen with me.

¹⁰ And Sanballat ^m the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it; and it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

¹¹ And I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. ¹² And I arose by night, I and some few men with me; but I told not a man what my God had put in my heart to do for Jerusalem. And there was no beast with me save the beast that I rode upon. ¹³ And I went out by night by ⁿ the Valley Gate, even before the Dragon Well, and to the Dung Port; and I viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were ^o broken down, and its gates which were consumed with fire. ¹⁴ And I went on to ^p the Fountain Gate, and to ^q the King's Pool; but there was no place for the beast under me to pass. ¹⁵ And I went by night by the ^r brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and returned.

¹⁶ And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; nor had I as yet told it to the Jews, neither to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work. ¹⁷ Then said I unto them: Ye see the distress that we are in; how Jerusalem lieth waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more ^a a reproach. ¹⁸ Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had said unto me. And they said: Let us rise up and build. And ^t they strengthened their hands for the good work.

¹⁹ But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the Ammonite servant, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, ^u they laughed us to scorn and despised us, and said: What is this thing that ye do? ^v Will ye rebel against the king? ²⁰ And I answered them, and said unto them: The God of heaven, ^w he will prosper us; and we his servants will arise and build; but ^x ye have no portion nor right nor memorial in Jerusalem.

unto him built ^f the men of Jericho. And next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri. ³ And ^g the Fish Gate did the sons of Has-senaah build; they laid its beams, and ^h set up its doors, its bolts and its bars. ⁴ And next to them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next to them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next to them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. ⁵ And next to them the Tekoites repaired; ⁱ but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord. ⁶ And ^k the Old Gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts and its bars. ⁷ And next to them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon and of Mizpah, unto the ^l throne of the governor beyond the river. ⁸ Next to him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. And next to him repaired Hananiah, the son of ^m one of the perfume-makers; and they fortified Jerusalem unto ⁿ the broad wall. ⁹ And next to them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem. ¹⁰ And next to them repaired ⁿ Jedaiah the son of Harumaphi, even over against his own house. And next to him repaired Mattush the son of Hashabnah. ¹¹ Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahath-moab, repaired a second portion, and ^o the Tower of the furnaces. ¹² And next to him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters. ¹³ The ^p Valley Gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of ^q Zanoah; they built it, and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto ^r the Dung Gate. ¹⁴ And the Dung Gate repaired Malchiah the son of ^s Rechab, the captain of the district of ^t Beth-haccereim; he built it, and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars. ¹⁵ And ^u the Fountain Gate repaired Shallum the son of Col-hozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts and its bars; and the wall of the pool of ^z Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the City of David. ¹⁶ After him Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the captain of the half-district of Beth-zur, repaired, as far as over against the sepulchres of David, and to the ^y pool that was made, and unto the House of the warriors. ¹⁷ After him repaired the Levites, Rehun the son of Bani. Next to him repaired

Hashabiah, the captain of the half-district of Keilah, in his part*. ¹⁸ After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the captain of the half-district of Keilah. ¹⁹ And next to him Ezer the son of Jeshua, the captain of Mizpah, repaired a second portion over against the going up to the armoury, at the ² turning. ²⁰ After him Baruch the son of ^a Zabbai earnestly repaired a second portion, from the corner unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. ²¹ After him Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz repaired a second portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. ²² And after him repaired the priests, ^b the men of the Jordan-circuit. ²³ After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their own house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maseaijah the son of Ananiah, by his own house. ²⁴ After him Binnui the son of Henadad repaired a second portion, from the house of Azariah unto the turning, even unto the corner. ²⁵ Palal the son of Uzai repaired over against the turning, and the tower which standeth forward from the king's upper-house, that was by the ^c court of the prison. After him repaired Pedaiah the son of Parosh. ²⁶ And ^d the Nethinim who dwelt in ^e Ophel repaired as far as over against ^f the Water Gate toward the east, and the tower that standeth forward. ²⁷ After them the Tekoites repaired a second portion, over against the great tower that standeth forward, even unto the wall of Ophel. ²⁸ From above the ^g Horse Gate repaired the priests, every one over against his own house. ²⁹ After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer, over against his own house. And after him repaired Shemaiah the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate. ³⁰ After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah; and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, a second portion. After him repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, over against his own chamber. ³¹ After him repaired Malchiah the son of Zorphi, unto the place of the Nethinim and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the ascent of the corner. ³² And between the ascent of the corner and the Sheep Gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

mocked the Jews; ² and he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said: What do these feeble Jews? Will they allow it to them? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish to-day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish which are burned? ³ And Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said: Even that which they build, if a fox go up then he shall break down their stone wall.

⁶ But we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof; for the people had a mind to work.

⁷ And it came to pass, when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians and the Ammonites and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were being repaired, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth; ⁸ and they ^e conspired all of them together to come to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder it.

⁹ But ^f we made our prayer unto our God; and we set a watch against them day and night, because of them. ¹⁰ And Judah said: ^g The strength of the bearers of burdens faileth, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build at the wall.

¹² And it came to pass, when the Jews who dwelt near them came, and said unto us ^h ten times, From all the places where ye return they will be upon us; ¹³ I set in the lower places behind the wall, in the highest places, I even set the people according to their families, with their swords, their spears and their bows. ¹⁴ And I looked and rose up, and said to the nobles and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people: ⁱ Be not ye afraid of them; ^k remember the Lord, the ^l great and terrible, and ^m fight for your brethren, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

¹⁵ And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us ⁿ and that God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. ¹⁶ And it came to pass from that day, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held the spears and the shields, and the bows, and the corslets; and the captains were behind all the house of Judah. ¹⁷ And they who built at the wall, both they who bare the burdens and those who loaded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other held a weapon, ¹⁸ and the builders had every one his sword girded by his side, and built. And ^o he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

¹⁹ And I said to the nobles and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people: The work is great and extended, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. ²⁰ In what place ye hear the sound of the trumpet, thither assemble yourselves unto us. ^p Our God will fight for us.

²¹ And we laboured in the work; and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

²² Also at that time I said unto the people: Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and be for labour in the day.

²³ And neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes; *saving that every one put them off for washing.

Nehemiah's proceedings for redressing the wrongs of the poor.

⁵ AND there was a great ^a cry of the people and of their wives against their ^b brethren the Jews. ² And there were some that said: We, our sons and our daughters, are many; therefore let us get corn, that we may eat and live. ³ Also there were some that said: ^c We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might get corn, because of the dearth. ⁴ There were also some that said: We have borrowed money for ^d the king's tribute on our lands and vineyards; ⁵ yet now ^e our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children; and lo, we ^f subject our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are in subjection; neither is it in the power of our hand to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.

⁶ And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. ⁷ And I consulted with myself; and I rebuked the nobles and the rulers, and said unto them: ^g Ye exact usury, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. ⁸ And I said unto them: We after our ability have ^h redeemed our brethren the Jews, who were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren; or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace and found no answer.

⁹ Also I said: The thing that ye do is not good. Ought ye not to walk ⁱ in the fear of our God ^k because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? ¹⁰ I likewise and my brethren and my servants have lent to them money and corn. I pray you, let us ^l remit this loan. ¹¹ Restore ^m ye, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth ⁿ part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye have lent to them.

¹² Then said they: We will restore, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, ⁿ and I took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. ¹³ Also ^o I shook my bosom and said: So God shake out every man from his house and from his labour who performeth not this promise; even thus be he shaken out and emptied. And all the congregation said Amen, and praised the LORD. And ^p the people did according to this promise.

¹⁴ Moreover from the day that I was appointed to be their governor ^q in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year ^q even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, for twelve years, ^r I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor. ¹⁵ But the former governors: that were before me were chargeable upon the people, and took of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the ^s fear of God. ¹⁶ Yea, also I continued ^t in the work of this wall; neither bought we any land; and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

¹⁷ And there were at my table of the Jews, both a hundred and fifty rulers, and those that came unto us from among the nations that were about us. ¹⁸ And ^u what was prepared daily was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all wine. But for all this I required not the bread of the governor, because the ^v service was heavy upon this people.

¹⁹ Remember for me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

Plots of the Jews' enemies against Nehemiah—(15) Completion of the city wall.

6. AND it came to pass, ^a when Sanballat and Tobiah and ^b Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and there was no breach left therein, (^c though at that time I had not set in the doors, in the gates), ² that Sanballat and Geshem ^d sent unto me, saying: Come, let us meet together in ^e the villages, in the plain of ^f Ono. But ^g they thought to do me mischief.

³ And ^h I sent messengers unto them saying: I am doing a great work, and I cannot come down. Why should the work cease whilst I leave it and come down to you?

⁴ But they sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

⁵ And Sanballat sent his servant unto me in that manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand, ⁶ wherein was written: It is reported among the nations, and ^g Gashmu saith, ^k that thou and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words; ⁷ and thou hast also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah! And now it will be reported to the king according to these words. But now come, and let us take counsel together.

⁸ And I sent unto him, saying: There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thine own heart. ⁹ For they all were making us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be slackened from the work, that it be not done.

But ^l now, my God, strengthen thou my hands.

¹⁰ And I came unto the house of She-maiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said: Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple; for they are coming to slay thee; even to night they are coming to slay thee.

¹¹ And I said: ^m Shall such a man as I flee? And who like me is there that would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in. ¹² And I perceived, and lo, ⁿ God had not sent him; but he spake the prophecy against me, and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. ¹³ To this end was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and ^o it might be to them for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

¹⁴ Remember ^p thou, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Neodiah, and the rest of the prophets, who would have put me to fear.

⁶⁶The whole congregation together was forty and two thousand three hundred and sixty; ⁶⁷besides their manservants and their maidservants; these were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven; and they had two hundred forty and five singing-men and singing-women. ⁶⁸Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; ⁶⁹camels, four hundred thirty and five; six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

Public reading and exposition of the law; (14) celebration of the Feast of Tabernacles.

AND ^awhen the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

⁸And all the people gathered themselves together as one man into the street that was before ^bthe Water Gate; and they spake unto ^cEzra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel.

²And Ezra the priest ^dbrought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, ^eupon the first day of the seventh month. ³And he read therein before the street: that was before the Water Gate, from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, even those that understood. And the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

⁴And Ezra the scribe stood ^fupon a high stage of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah and Shema and Anaiah and Urijah and Hilkiah and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah and Mishael and Malchiah and Hashum and Hashbadana, Zechariah, Meshullam. ⁵And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people stood, and when he opened it, all the people stood. ⁶And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And ⁷all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with the ^hlifting up of their hands; and they ⁱbowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces to the ground.

⁷And Jeshua and Bani and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, ^kcaused the people to understand the law. And the people were in their place. ⁸So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

⁹And ^lNehemiah (who is the Tirshatha^g), and Ezra, the priest, the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people: ^mThis day is holy unto the LORD your God; ⁿthis mourn not nor weep. For all the people were weeping, when they heard the words of the law. ¹⁰And he said unto them: ^o Go your way, eat the fat and drink the sweet, and ^p send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared; for the day is holy unto our Lord; and be ye not sad; for the ^q joy of the LORD is your strength.

¹¹ And the Levites stilled all the people, saying: Hold your peace, for the day is holy; and be ye not sad. ¹² And all the people went their way, to eat and to drink, and to send portions, and ^r to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

¹³ And on the second day were gathered together the chiefs of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to consider the words of the law. ¹⁴ And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in ^s booths in the Feast of the seventh month; ¹⁵ and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying: Go forth unto the mount, and ^t fetch olive-branches* and wild olive-branches† and myrtle-branches and palm-branches and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

¹⁶ So the people went forth and brought them; and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street; ^u of the Water Gate, ^v and in the street; ^w of the Gate of Ephraim. ¹⁷ And all the congregation of them that were come back out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths. For since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day the children of Israel had not done so. And there was very ^y great gladness.

¹⁸ And ^z day by day, from the first day unto the last day, there was reading in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, ^a according unto the manner.

Day of national fasting, humiliation, and prayer; (38) the people's solemn covenant to keep God's commandments, and to maintain his worship.

9, AND on the twenty and fourth day of ^a this month the children of Israel were assembled, with fasting, and with sack-clothes ^b and earth upon them. ² And ^c the seed of Israel separated themselves from all foreigners; and they stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. ³ And they stood up in their place, and ^d read in the book of the law of the LORD their God the fourth part of the day; and a fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God.

⁴ Then stood up on the stairs* of the Levites, Jeshua and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani and Chebani; and they cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God. ⁵ And the Levites, Jeshua and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said:

Stand up, ^e bless ye the LORD your God for ever and ever! And blessed be ^f thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. ⁶ Thou, ^g even thou, art LORD alone. ^h Thou hast made heaven, ⁱ the heaven of heavens, with ^k all their host, the earth and all that is upon it, the seas and all that is in them; and thou ^l preservest them all. And ^m the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

g Deu. 1. 8. And thou didst ^o bid them to go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

¹⁶ But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and ^h hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, ¹⁷ and ⁱ refused to obey; neither were they mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion ^k appointed a captain ¹⁸ to their bondage. But thou art the ^l God of pardons, ^m gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness; and ⁿ thou forsookest them not. ¹⁹ Yea, ^o when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations, ²⁰ yet thou in thy ^p manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness. ^q The pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; nor the pillar of fire by night, to show them light and the way wherein they should go.

the hand of those who distressed them. And in the time of their distress, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies ^h thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies. ²⁹ But when they had rest, ⁱ they did evil again before thee; and thou didst leave them in the hand of their enemies, and they had dominion over them. And again they cried unto thee, and thou heardest them from heaven. And ^m many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies.

³⁰ And thou didst testify against them, that thou mightest turn them again unto thy law; but they dealt proudly, and hearkened not to thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, ⁿ which if a man do, he shall live in them; and they ^o withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. ³¹ Yet many years didst thou bear with them, and ^p didst testify against them by thy spirit through thy prophets; but they would not give ear.

And thou gavest them into the hand of the peoples of the lands. ³² But for thy great mercies' sake ^q thou didst not utterly consume them nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.

³³ And now, our God, the great, the ^r mighty, and the terrible God, ^s who keep-est covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee that hath come upon us; ^t on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, ^u since the days of the kings of Assyria unto this day. ³⁴ But ^v thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, and ^w we have done wickedly; ³⁵ and our kings, our princes, our priests, and our fathers, have not kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against them. ³⁶ For they have ^x not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

³⁷ Behold, ^y we are servants* this day; and the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it; ³⁸ and ^z it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins; also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure; and we are in great distress,

38 And because of all this we ^c make a sure covenant and write it; and our princes, Levites and priests, seal unto it³⁸.

10. Now those that sealed were Nehemiah, the Tirshatha^t, ^a the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah, ^b Seraiah, ^b Azariah, Jeremiah, ³ Pashur, Amariah, Malchijah, ⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah: these were the priests.

¹⁴ The chief of the people: ^c Parosh, Patah-moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷ Ater, Hizkijah, Azzur, ¹⁸ Hodijah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰ Malpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹ Meshzebeel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hashub, ²⁴ Hallohesb, Pileha, Shobek, ²⁵ Rehun, Hashabiah, Maasiah ²⁶ and Ahijah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷ Malluch, Harim, Baanah.

²⁸ And ^d the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the doorkeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, ^e and all they that had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons and their daughters, ^f every one having knowledge and having understanding, ²⁹ clave to^g their brethren, their nobles, and ^g entered into a curse and into an oath, ^h to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; ³⁰ and that ⁱ we would not give our daughters unto the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; ³¹ and ^k as to the peoples of the land who bring wares or any grain on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath or on the holy day; and that we would leave the ^l seventh year and the ^m exaction of every debt.

³² Also we made ordinances for us, ⁿ to lay on ourselves yearly the third part of a shekel, for the service of the house of our God, ³³ for ^o the shewbread and for the continual meal-offering and for the ^p continual burnt-offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy gifts, and for the sin-offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.

³⁴ And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for ^q the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, ^r as it is written in the law; ³⁵ and ^s to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD; ³⁶ also ^t the first-born* of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, ^u unto the priests that minister in the house of our God; ³⁷ and that we should bring ^x the firstfruit of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all trees, new wine and oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and ^y the tithe of our ground unto the Levites, that they, the Levites, might take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. ³⁸ And the priest, the son of Aaron, shall be with the Levites when the Levites take tithes; and the Levites shall bring up ^z the tithe of the tithe unto the house of our God, to ^a the chambers, into the treasure-house. ³⁹ For the children of Israel and the children of Levi ^b shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine and the oil, unto the chambers^t, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the doorkeepers and the singers. And we will not ^c forsake the house of our God.

11. AND the princes of the people dwell at Jerusalem; and the rest of the people ^a cast lots, to bring one out of ten to dwell in Jerusalem, ^b the holy city, and the nine parts to dwell in the cities. ² And the people blessed all the men that ^c willingly offered themselves to dwell at Jerusalem.

³ Now ^d these are the heads of the province who dwell in Jerusalem; and in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession, in their cities; to wit, ^e Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and ^f the Nethinim, and ^g the sons of Solomon's servants.

⁴ And ^h at Jerusalem dwelt some of the sons of Judah, and of the sons of Benjamin. Of the sons of Judah: Athaiah the son of Uziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the sons of house of God. 23 For there was the king's* command concerning them, and there was an allowance for the singers, concerning the matter of every day.

24 And Pethaliah the son of Mesheza- beel, of the children of ^p Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And as to the villages in their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at ^q Kirjath-arba and its villages, and at Dibon and its villages, and at Jekabzeel and its villages, 26 and at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Beth-pheret, 27 and at Hazar-shual, and at Beer-sheba and its villages, 28 and at Ziklag, and at Mekonah and in its villages, 29 and at En-rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth, 30 Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, at Lachish and its fields, at Azekah and its villages. And they dwelt from Beer-sheba unto the valley of Hinnom.

31 And the sons of Benjamin from Geba dwelt at Michmash and Aija and Beth-el, and their villages, 32 at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, 33 Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, 34 Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, 35 Lod, and Ono, 7 the valley of craftsmen.

²² As to the Levites, in the days of Eliashib, Joiada and Johanan and Jaddua, the chiefs of the fathers were recorded; also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. ²³ The sons of Levi, the chiefs of the fathers, were written in the book of the ^o chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son* of Eliashib. ²⁴ And the chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Je-like them, to praise and to give thanks,

^p according to the commandment of David,
^q the man of God, ^r ward over against ward.
²⁵ Mattaniah and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Me-

of Ezra the priest, * the scribe.

Dedication of the city walls.

²⁷ AND at ^a the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem to make the dedication with gladness;
both ^b with thanksgivings and with singing,
with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

²⁸ And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of ^c the circuit round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of ^d the Netophathites; ²⁹ also from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth; for the singers had built for themselves villages round about Jerusalem. ³⁰ And the priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates and the wall.

³¹ And I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies [†] and processions; whereof one went on the right hand, upon the wall, toward ^e the Dung Gate; ³² and after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, ³³ and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, ³⁴ Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, ³⁵ and some of the priests' sons ^f with trumpets: Zechariah
the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; ³⁶ and his brethren, Shemaiah and Azarcel, Milalai,

Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel and Judah, Hanani, with ^g the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe before them. ³⁷ And ^h at the Fountain Gate, and over against them*, they went up by ⁱ the stairs of the City of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even unto ^k the Water Gate eastward.

³⁸ And the second company[†] went in the opposite way, and I after them, and the half of the people, upon the wall, from beyond ^l the Tower of the furnaces even unto ^m the broad wall; ³⁹ and ⁿ from above ^o the Gate of Ephraim, and above ^p the Old Gate, and above ^q the Fish Gate, and ^r the Tower of Hananeel, and the Tower of Meah, even unto the Sheep Gate; and they stood in ^s the Prison Gate.

⁴⁰ And the two companies[†] stood in the house^{||} of God; and I, and the half of the rulers with me: ⁴¹ and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, Elioenai,
Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets;
⁴² and Maaseiah and Shemaiah and Eleazar and Uzzi and Jehohanan and Malchijah and Elam and Ezer. And the singers ^t sang loud, and Jezrahiah the overseer ⁸.

⁴³ And that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy: also the wives and the children rejoiced; and the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.

Provisions for the maintenance of Divine worship.

⁴⁴ AND at that time men were appointed over ^a the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities ^b the portions by the law for the priests and Levites. For Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited. ⁴⁵ And both the singers and the doorkeepers kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, ^c according to the commandment of David and of Solomon his son. ⁴⁶ For in the days of David and Asaph of old, there were the chiefs of the singers, and the songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God. ⁴⁷ And all Israel, in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the doorkeepers, every day its portion; and ^d they consecrated for the Levites; and the Levites consecrated for the sons of Aaron.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

Ahasuerus's great feast; (10) deposition of the queen.

1. NOW it came to pass in the days of

^a Ahasuerus, (the same Ahasuerus who ruled ^b from India even unto Ethiopia, ^c a hundred and seven and twenty provinces), ² in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in ^d Shushan the palace^e, ³ in the third year of his reign, he ^e made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him; ⁴ when he showed the riches of the glory^f of his kingdom, and the honour of his excellent majesty, many days, even a hundred and eighty days.

⁵ And when these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace; both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace; ⁶ with white, green, and blue hangings^g, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of white marble. ⁷ The couches were gold and silver, upon the pavement of red and blue and white and black marble. ⁷ And they gave drink in vessels of gold, the vessels being diverse one from another, and the royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king. ⁸ And the drinking was according to the law; none did compel; for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. ⁹ Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which the king Ahasuerus had.

¹⁰ On the seventh day, when ^h the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, ⁱ Harbona, Bigtha and Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas, the seven eunuchs that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, ¹¹ to bring Vashti the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was fair to look on. ¹² But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the hand of the eunuchs. And the king was very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

¹³ And the king said to the ⁱ wise men, ^k who knew the times (for thus was the word of the king^j, before all that knew law and judgment; ¹⁴ and the next unto him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the ^l seven princes of Persia and Media, ^m who beheld the king's face, and who sat first in the kingdom): ¹⁵ What must be done unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the hand of the eunuchs?

¹⁶ And Memucan answered before the king and the princes: Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. ¹⁷ For the queen's act will come abroad unto all the women, so that they will despise their husbands in their eyes, when they say: The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not. ¹⁸ The princesses also of Persia and Media will say it this day unto all the king's princes, who have heard of the deed of the queen. And there will be contempt and anger enough! ¹⁹ If it please the king, let a royal commandment go forth from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, ⁿ that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before the king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another that is better than she. ²⁰ And the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great); and all the wives ^a shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

²¹ And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan. ²² And he sent letters into all the king's provinces, ^p into every province according to its writing, and to every people according to their language, that ^q every man should rule in his own house, and speak according to the language of his people.

Choice of Esther as queen.

2. AFTER these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and ^a what had been decreed against her. ² Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him: Let fair young virgins be sought for the king; ³ and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together every fair young virgin unto Shushan the palace*, to the house of the women, unto the hand of ^b Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women; and let the things for their purification^t be given; ⁴ and let the maiden who pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the saying pleased the king; and he did so.

⁸ So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace^l, to the hand of Hegai, that Esther also was brought unto the king's house, to the hand of Hegai, the keeper of the women. ⁹ And the maiden pleased him, and ^o she obtained favour in his sight; and he hastened the things for her purification, with such things as belonged to her, and the seven maidens that were selected to be given her, out of the king's house. And he removed her and her maidens to the best part of the house of the women.

¹² And when each maiden's turn drew nigh to go in to the king Ahasuerus, after she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women; (for thus were the days of their purifications accomplished: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with things for the purifying of the women); ¹³ then thus came the maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. ¹⁴ In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the hand of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, keeper of the concubines. She came in unto the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she were called by name.

¹⁸ Then the king ⁱ made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, Esther's feast. And he made a release* to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state^t of the king.

Mordecai's discovery of a conspiracy against the king; (23) which is recorded in the chronicles of the kingdom.

¹⁹ AND when virgins were gathered together a second time, and Mordecai sat ^a in the king's gate; (²⁰ Esther had not declared her kindred or her people; as Mordecai had charged her; for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, as when she was brought up with him); ²¹ in those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, ^b Bigthan and Te-of all that had happened to him, and the account of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasures, for the Jews, to destroy them. ⁸ Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show to Esther, and to inform her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people. ⁹ And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

¹⁰ And Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai: ¹¹ All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into ^o the inner court, who is not called, ^{there} is one law for him, to put him to death, except him ^a to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: and I have not been called to come in unto the king these thirty days. ¹² And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

¹³ And Mordecai commanded to answer Esther: Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape, in the king's house, more than all the Jews. ¹⁴ For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, ⁱ relief and deliverance will arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed. And who knoweth ^k whether thou art come to the kingdom for a time like this?

¹⁵ And Esther bade to answer Mordecai: ¹⁶ Go, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan; and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink ^{three} days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise. And so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and ^m if I perish, I perish. ¹⁷ And Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

⁵, And it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on ⁿ royal apparel, and stood in ^o the inner court of the king's house, in front of the door of the house. And the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, opposite to the door of the house. ² And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that ^p she obtained favour in his sight; and ^q the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. And Esther drew near, and touched the head of the sceptre. ³ Then said the king unto her: ^r What is thy matter, queen Esther; and what is thy request? ^s It shall be even given thee, to the half of the kingdom. ⁴ And Esther answered: If ^{it seem} good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. ⁵ Then the king said: Cause ye Haman to make haste that he may do as Esther hath said.

And the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. ⁶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine: What is thy petition? And it shall be granted thee. And what is thy request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be done. ⁷ And Esther answered and said: My petition and my request is; ⁸ If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to do my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them; and I will do to-morrow according to ^t the king's word.

Mordecai's elevation, and Haman's humiliation.

⁹ AND Haman went forth that day joyful and with a glad heart. But when Haman observed Mordecai in the king's gate, ^u that he stood not up nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai; ¹⁰ but Haman restrained himself. And when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. ¹¹ And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and ^b the multitude of his sons, and all wherein the king had magnified him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. ¹² Haman said moreover: Yea, Esther the queen letteth no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she prepareth but myself; and even for to-morrow am I invited unto her with the king. ¹³ Yet ^c all this availeth me nothing so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

¹⁴ Then ^d said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him: Let a gallows* be made of fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon. And go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

⁶, On that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring ^e the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king. ² And it was found written, that ^f Mordecai had told of ^g Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, of the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

³ And the king said: What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered unto him: Nothing hath been done for him.

⁴ And the king said: Who is in the court?

And Haman was coming into ^o the outer court of the king's house, ^p to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had set up for him. ⁵ And the king's servants said unto him: Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said: Let him come in; ⁶ and Haman came in. And the king said unto him: What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart: ^q To whom will the king delight to do honour more than to myself?

¹⁰ And the king said to Haman: Make haste, take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sitteth at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. ¹¹ And Haman took the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride on the horse through the street of the city; and he proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

¹⁴ And while they were yet talking with him, the king's eunuchs came, and hasted to bring Haman unto ^x the banquet† that Esther had prepared.

Haman's overthrow and death; and (ch. 8. 1) Mordecai's exaltation in his place.

7. AND the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. ² And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet* of wine: What is thy petition, queen Esther? And it shall be granted thee. And what is thy request? And it shall be done, to the half of the kingdom.

³ And Esther the queen answered and said: If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. ⁴ For we are ^a sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage. ⁵ And the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen: Who is he, and where is he, who hath filled his heart to do so? ⁶ And Esther said: A certain adversary and enemy: this wicked Haman!

And Haman was terrified before the king and the queen. ⁷ And the king arose in his wrath to go from the banquet of wine into the palace garden. And Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. ⁸ And the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the couch whereon Esther was. And the king said: Will he even force the queen before me in the house? The word came out of the king's mouth, and they covered Haman's face.

⁹ And ^b Harbonah, one of the eunuchs before the king, said: Behold also, ^c the gallows which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth fifty cubits high in the house of Haman. And the king said: Hang him thereon. ¹⁰ So ^d they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8. On that day the king Ahasuerus ^e gave the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther told ^f what he was unto her. ² And the king took off ^g his signet which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

ch. 1. 11. ^aJews. ⁴Then ^bthe king held out the golden sceptre to Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king, ⁵and said: If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing is right before the king, and I am good in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote, to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. ⁶For how can I endure to see ^cthe evil that shall come unto my people, or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

⁹And ⁱthe king's scribes were called, at that time, in the third month, (that is the month Sivan,) on the three and twentieth day thereof. And it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, and to the lieutenants and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are ^jfrom India unto Ethiopia, a hundred twenty and seven provinces; to every province ^kaccording to the writing thereof, and to every people according to their language; and to the Jews according to their writing and according to their language.

¹³The copy of the writing to be given for a decree in every province was published unto all the peoples; and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. ¹⁴The couriers, riders of the royal coursers, went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace*.

¹⁵And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king ^qin royal apparel, blue and white, and ^rwith a great crown of gold, and a robe of fine linen and purple.

And ^sthe city of Shushan shouted aloud and was glad. ¹⁶The Jews had ^tlight and gladness and joy and honour. ¹⁷And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and ^ua good day. And ^vmany of the peoples of the land became Jews; for ^wthe fear of the Jews fell upon them.

The Jews' complete deliverance and triumph on the day appointed for their destruction.

9, AND ^ain the twelfth month, (that is, the month Adar), on the thirteenth day of it, when ^bthe king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them; (though it was turned to the contrary, that ^cthe Jews themselves had power over them that hated them); ²the Jews ^dgathered themselves together, in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as ^esought their hurt. And no man could withstand them; for ^fthe fear of them fell upon all the peoples.

⁵And the Jews smote all their enemies with the smiting of the sword and slaughter and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them. ⁶And in Shushan the palace^h the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. ⁷And Parshandatha and Dalphon and Aspatha ⁸and Poratha and Adalia and Aridatha ⁹and Parmashta and Arisai and Aridai and Vajezatha, ¹⁰the ⁱten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they. But ^jon the spoil they laid not their hand.

¹¹On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace^k, was brought before the king. ¹²And the king said unto Esther the queen: The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace*, and the ten sons

THE BOOK OF JOB.

Job's condition and character.

1. THERE was a man in the land of ^a Uz whose name was ^b Job; and that man was ^c perfect and upright, and one who ^d feared God and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sons and three daughters. ³ And his substance was seven thousand sheep and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen and five hundred she-asses, and very many servants; and this man was ^e the greatest of all the men of the East.

4 And his sons went and held a feast in the house of each on his day; and they sent and invited their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. ⁵ And it was so, when the feast-days went round, that Job sent and ^f sanctified them; and he rose up early in the morning and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said: It may be that my sons have sinned and cursed ^g God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

Job's first trial, and (20) its issue.

6 NOW there was a day ^a when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD; and Satan ^b also came among them. ⁷ And the LORD said unto Satan: Whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD and said: From ^c going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the LORD said unto Satan: ^c Hast thou observed my servant Job? For there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and upright man, one who feareth God and escheweth evil. ⁹ And Satan answered the LORD and said: Doth ^d Job fear God for nought? ¹⁰ Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath, on every side? Thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his cattle have spread abroad in the land. ¹¹ But ^e put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse: thee to thy face! ¹² And the LORD said unto Satan: ^f Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thy hand.

¹³ And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating, and drinking wine, in their eldest brother's house. ¹⁴ And a messenger came unto Job, and said: The oxen were ploughing, and the asses feeding beside them; ¹⁵ and ^g the Sabeans attacked and took them; and the servants they have smitten with the edge of the sword; and only I alone escaped to tell thee.

¹⁶ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said: ^h The fire of God fell from heaven, and burned up the flocks and the servants, and consumed them; and only I alone escaped to tell thee.

¹⁷ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said: The ⁱ Chaldeans made out ^k three bands, and fell upon the camels, and took them; and the servants they smote with the edge of the sword; and only I alone escaped to tell thee.

¹⁸ While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said: Thy sons and thy daughters were eating, and drinking wine, in their eldest brother's house; ¹⁹ and behold, there came ^l a great wind from beyond the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the youths, and they died; and only I alone escaped to tell thee.

²⁰ And Job arose, and ^m rent his mantle, and ⁿ shaved his head; and he fell down upon the ground and worshipped; ²¹ and he said: ^o Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither; the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD! ²² In ^p all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly*.

Job's second trial, and (9) its issue.

2. AGAIN ^a there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan also came among them to present himself before the LORD. ² And the LORD said unto Satan: From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD and said: From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

³ And the LORD said unto Satan: Hast thou observed my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and upright man, one that feareth God and escheweth evil? And still ^b he holdeth fast his integrity, though thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause. ⁴ And Satan answered the LORD and said: Skin for skin; and * all that a man hath will he give for his life; ⁵ but put forth thy hand now and touch his ^c bone and his flesh, and he will curse [†] thee to thy face. ⁶ And the LORD said unto Satan: Behold, he is in thy hand; only spare his life.

⁹ And his wife said unto him: ^e Dost thou still retain thine integrity? Curse [‡] God, and die. ¹⁰ But he said unto her: Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What, ^f shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?

In all this Job sinned not with his lips.

Visit of Job's three friends, and (13) their silent condolence.

¹¹ AND three of Job's friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him; and they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the ^a Temanite, and Bildad the ^b Shuhite, and Zophar the ^c Naamathite: and they made an appointment together to come ^d to mourn with him and to comfort him. ¹² And when they lifted up their eyes afar off and knew him not, they lifted up their voice and wept; and ^e they rent every one his mantle, and ^f sprinkled dust upon their heads towards heaven.

¹³ And they ^g sat down with him upon the ground, seven days and seven nights; and none spake a word to him: for they saw that the affliction was very great.

Job's passionate outburst of grief and despair.

3. AFTER this Job opened his mouth, and cursed his day. ² And Job spake and said:

³ Perish ^a the day I was born!
And the night that said, There is a man-child conceived!

⁴ Let that day be darkness!
Let not God seek for it from above!
Neither let light shine out upon it!

⁵ Let darkness and ^b the shadow of death claim it!

Let clouds settle upon it!

Let darkenings of the day terrify it!

⁶ That night, let darkness seize upon it!

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year!

Let it not come into the number of the months!

⁷ Lo, let that night be barren!

Let no joyful sound enter therein!

⁸ Let them curse it that curse the day,

Who are skillful to rouse the dragon*!

⁹ Let the stars of its twilight be dark!

Let it wait for light, and have none,

And let it not see the dawning of the day†!

¹⁰ Because ^e it shut not up the doors of my mother's womb,

Nor hid trouble from mine eyes.

¹¹ Why ^d did I not die from the womb,

Come forth from the belly and die?

¹² Wherefore did the knees succour me,

And why the breasts, that I should suck?

¹³ For now I had lain down and been quiet;

I had slept; then had I been at rest;

¹⁴ With kings and councillors of the earth,

Who ^e built for themselves ruins;

¹⁵ Or with princes who had gold,

Who filled their houses with silver:

¹⁶ Or like a hidden untimely birth I had not been,

Like infants that never saw light.

¹⁷ There the wicked cease from troubling,

And there the weary are ^f at rest;

¹⁸ The prisoners together are at ease,

They hear not the task-master's voice;

¹⁹ The small and the great are there;

And the servant is free from his master.

²⁰ Wherefore ^g is light given to the miserable,

And life unto ^a those bitter of soul;

²¹ Who [†] long for death, but it cometh not;

And dig for it more than for hidden treasures;

²² Who rejoice exceedingly,

And are glad, when they find the grave;

²³ To a man ^k whose way is hidden,

And [‡] whom God hath hedged in?

²⁴ For my sighing cometh before my food,

And ^m my groanings are poured out like water.

²⁵ For I feared a fear, and it hath come upon me,

And what I dreaded hath come to me.

²⁶ I was not safe, nor was I at ease, nor was I at rest;

And trouble came.

First speech of Eliphaz—(2) He rebukes Job's complaints; (7) asserts the inseparable connection between sin and suffering; (12) relates a vision which revealed to him the sinfulness of man's contending with God; (ch. 5. 1) shows that the cause of affliction is in man himself; (8) exhorts to submission to God; (18) and extols its blessings.

4. And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said :

2 If a word be essayed to thee, wilt thou be offended?

But who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many,

And ^a thou hast strengthened the weak hands;

1 Thy words have upholden the stumbling, And the sinking knees hast thou strengthened.

5 But now it is come to thee, and ^b thou faintest;

It toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not thy piety thy confidence,

Thy hope, even ^c the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who hath perished being innocent?

And where were the righteous cut off?

8 As I have seen, ^d they that plough iniquity, And sow mischief, reap the same.

9 By ^e the blast of God they perish,

And ^f by the breath of his anger are they consumed.

10 The roar of the lion and the voice of the fierce lion,

And ^g the teeth of the young lions, are broken.

11 The stout lion perisheth* for lack of prey, And the lioness's whelps are scattered.

12 Now a word was secretly brought to me, And mine ear caught a whisper thereof.

13 In ^h thoughts from the visions of the night, When deep sleep falleth on men;

14 Fear came upon me, and ⁱ trembling, Which made all my bones to shake.

15 And ^k a spirit passed before my face; The hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I did not discern its form:

An image was before mine eyes; There was silence; and I heard a voice:—

17 Shall ^l a mortal be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?

18 Behold, he ^m putteth no trust in his servants,

And ⁿ his angels he chargeth with folly:

19 Much more them that dwell in ^o houses of clay,

Whose foundation is in the dust, Who are ^p crushed before* the moth!

20 From morning to evening they ^q are destroyed,

They ^r perish for ever without any one heeding.

21 Is not their excellency in them taken away†?

They die, even without wisdom.

5. Call now; is there any that will answer thee?

And to whom among the holy ones ^s wilt thou turn?

2 For ^t vexation killeth the foolish, And envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I myself have seen ^u the foolish† taking root;

But suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His ^v children are far from safety, And they are crushed in the gate,

And ^w there is no deliverer;

5 Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, And taketh it even out from the thorns;

And the robber swalloweth up‡ their substance.

6 For affliction cometh not forth from the dust,

Nor ^x doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 For man is ^y born unto trouble,

As the sparks fly upward.

8 But as for me, unto God would ^z I seek, And ^a unto God would I commit my cause:

9 Who ^b doeth great things and unsearchable,

Marvellous things, without number;

10 Who ^c giveth rain on the face of the earth, And sendeth waters on the face of the fields;

11 To ^d set up on high those that are low; And mourners are exalted to prosperity.

12 He frustrateth the devices of the crafty, So that ^e their hands shall not perform the enterprise.

13 He ^f taketh the wise in their craftiness, And the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong;

14 They ^g meet with darkness in the day time,

And they grope at noon-day, as in the night.

15 And he saveth the poor from the sword out of their mouth,

And from the hand of the mighty.

16 And the poor hath hope,

And iniquity stoppeth her mouth.

17 Behold, ^h happy is the man whom God correcteth;

18 Behold, ⁱ happy is the man whom God

12. 5—11.

i Pro. 3. 11—13.	Therefore ¹ deliver not thou the chastening of the Almighty :	⁶ Is that which is tasteless eaten without salt ?
m Deu. 32. 39; 11os. 6. 1.	¹⁸ For ^m he woundeth, and he bindeth up ; He smiteth, and his hands make whole.	Or is there flavour in the white of an egg* ?	* or, in juice of purslain.
n Ps. 34. 19; 91. 3 —10; Pro. 24. 16.	¹⁹ He ⁿ will deliver thee in six troubles, Yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee :	⁷ Those things my soul refuseth to touch, They are as loathsome food to me.
o Ps. 33. 19; 11ab. 3. 17, 18.	²⁰ In ^o famine he will redeem thee from death,	⁸ Oh that I might have my request, And that God would grant my longing !
p Ps. 91. 5 —7; 144. 10.	And ^p in war from the power of the sword ;	⁹ That ^e God would please to destroy me !	e ch. 3. 20, 21.
q Ps. 31. 20. r Jam. 3. 5—8.	²¹ Thou ^q shalt be hidden when ^r the tongue scourgeth ; And thou shalt not be afraid of destruction when it cometh ;	That ^d he would let loose his hand and cut me off !	d Ps. 32. 4
	²² At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh ;	¹⁰ And ^e it should yet be my comfort, Yea I would exult, in pain which spareth not,	e ch. 3. 22.
s Eze. 34. 23; Dan. 6. 22.	And ^s of the beasts of the earth thou shalt not be afraid,	That I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
	²³ For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field,	¹¹ What is my strength, that I should hope ?
t Hos. 2. 18.	And ^t the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.	And what my end, that I should be patient ?
	²⁴ And thou shalt know that thy tent is in peace,	¹² Is my strength the strength of stones ?
	And thou shalt visit thy pastures, and shalt miss nothing.	Or is my flesh of brass † ?	† or, copper.
u Ps. 112. 2; 128. 3 —6.	²⁵ Thou shalt know also that ^u thy seed is numerous,	¹³ Is not my help within me nothing, And recovery driven away from me ?
	And thine offspring as the green herb of the earth.	¹⁴ The ^f afflicted hath kindness from his friend,	f ch. 19. 21; Gal. 6. 2.
x ch. 42. 16, 17; Ps. 91. 16.	²⁶ Thou ^x shalt come to the grave in a full age,	Or he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
	As a shock of corn is carried in in its season.	¹⁵ My ^o brethren have been deceitful, like a brook,	o Ps. 41. 9; Jer. 9. 4, 5.
	²⁷ Lo this, we have searched it out ; so it is ;	Like ^h the channel of brooks which pass away ;	h Jer. 15. 13.
	Hear it, and know thou ^{it} for thy good.	¹⁶ Which are blackish ‡, by reason of ice ; And wherein the snow is hidden ;	‡ or, turbid.
	Job's answer —(2) He justifies his complaints by the greatness of his sufferings ; (8) desires death as a relief ; (14) describes his bitter disappointment at the unkindness of his friends ; (ch. 7. 1) again complains of his misery ; and (7) expostulates with God on the severity of his afflictions.	¹⁷ What time they wax warm ¶, they fail, When it becometh hot, they vanish.	¶ or, are made fluid.
	6. AND Job answered and said :	¹⁸ The paths of their course are turned aside §,	§ or, The caravans turn aside on their way.
	² Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed,	They go up into the waste, and perish ;	s or, The caravans turn aside on their way.
	And all my calamity laid in the balances !	¹⁹ The caravans of ⁱ Tema look,	i Ge. 25. 15; Is. 21. 14.
	³ For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea ;	The companies of ^k Sheba hope for them ;	k Ge. 10. 7; Eze. 27. 22.
	Therefore my words have been rash.	²⁰ They are ^l confounded, because they trusted in them ;	l Jer. 14. 3, 4.
a Ps. 38. 2; Lam. 3. 12, 13.	⁴ For ^a the arrows of the Almighty are within me,	They come thither, and are ashamed.	m ch. 2. 11 —13.
	The poison whereof drinketh up my spirit :	²¹ So now ye are nothing ;
b ch. 30. 15; Ps. 88. 15, 16; 2 Cor. 5. 11.	The ^b terrors of God array themselves against me.	Ye see terror, and ye ^m are dismayed.
	⁵ Doth the wild ass bray over fresh grass ?	²² Have I said, Give ye unto me,
	Or loweth the ox over his fodder ?	Or, From your substance make a present for me ;
		²³ Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand, Or, Ransom me from the hand of the violent ?
		²⁴ Teach ye me, and I will be silent ; And cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
		²⁵ How ⁿ forcible are right words ! But what doth your upbraiding reprove ?	n Pro. 12. 18; 25. 11.
		²⁶ Do ye think ^o to reprove words ? But the words of one in despair are ^p as wind.	o Is. 29. 21. p ch. 8. 2.

	27 Ye would even cast lots for the fatherless, And ye dig a pit for your friend.	And that thou shouldest set thy heart upon him?
	28 But now be pleased, look upon me; For I will not speak falsely to your face.	18 And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, And try him every moment?
	29 Return, I pray, and let there be no wrong;	19 How long wilt thou not look away from me,
q ch. 27. 4 —6.	Yea, return ye, still ^a my righteousness is in it.	Nor let me alone till I swallow my spittle?	k ch. 9. 29 —31.
r ch. 12. 11.	30 Is there wrong in my tongue? Cannot ^r my taste discern perverse things?	20 Have I ^k sinned, what do I unto thee, Thou Observer of men?	k ch. 6. 4; 16. 12.
* or, a service. s ch. 14. 6; Le. 23. 50.	7. Hath not man a warfare* upon earth? And are not his days ^k like the days of a hireling?	Why ⁱ hast thou set me as a mark for thee, So that I am a burden to myself?
t Le. 19. 13.	2 As a servant panteth for the shadow, And as ^t a hireling looketh for his wages;	21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, And ^m put away mine iniquity?	m 2 Sam. 24. 10.
u Deu. 28. 67.	3 So am I made to possess months of vanity, And wearisome nights are appointed to me.	For soon shall I lie down in the dust; And thou wilt seek me, but I shall not be.
x ch. 2. 7; 8; 17. 14. * or, crusts.	4 If ^u I lie down, then I say: When shall I arise, and the night be gone? And I am full of tossings until the dawn.	Bildad's first speech —(2) He maintains the justice of God, who (4) after punishing sin, (5) will restore the penitent; and (8) appealing to wise sayings of the fathers, (11) he describes the short-lived prosperity of the ungodly, and (20) the enduring happiness of the righteous.
y Is. 28. 12.	5 My flesh is ^x clothed with worms and clods† of earth, My skin healeth up, and breaketh out afresh.	8. AND ^a Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:	a ch. 2. 11.
z ch. 17. 15.	6 My ^y days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, And are spent ^z without hope.	2 How long wilt thou speak these things , And the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?
a Ps. 78. 39; Jan. 4. 14.	7 Remember Thou that ^a my life is a breath, Mine eye shall no more see good.	3 Doth ^b God pervert judgment, Or doth the Almighty pervert justice;	b ch. 34. 10 —12; Ge. 18. 25; Eze. 18. 25.
b ch. 13. 27.	8 The eye that seeth me shall behold me no more: Thine ^b eyes will be upon me, but I shall not be.	4 If thy sons sinned against him, And he delivered them into the power* of their transgression?	* Heb. the hand.
c ch. 14. 10 —14. * Heb. Sheol.	9 As the cloud consumeth away and vanisheth, So ^c he that goeth down to the grave* shall not come up;	5 If ^c thou wilt seek unto God, And make supplication to the Almighty;	c ch. 22. 23, 30.
d ch. 20. 9; Ps. 103. 16.	10 He shall return no more to his house, And ^d his place shall know him no more.	6 If thou art pure and upright, Surely now he will awake for thee, And make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous;
e ch. 10. 1.	11 Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit, I will ^e complain in the bitterness of my soul.	7 Though thy beginning was small, Yet thine end shall become very great.
f Dan. 2. 1; Mt. 27. 19.	12 Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, That thou settest a watch over me? 13 When I say, My bed shall comfort me, My couch shall ease my complaint;	8 For ^d inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, And mark what their fathers have searched out;	d Deu. 32. 7.
g ch. 3. 20 —22. A ch. 10. 20; 14. 6.	14 Then ^f thou scarest me with dreams, And terrifiest me through visions: 15 So that my soul chooseth strangling, Death, rather than my bones.	9 For ^e we are of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days upon earth are a shadow.	e ch. 14. 2; 1 Chr. 29. 15; Ps. 102. 11.
h Ps. 8. 4; Heb. 2. 6.	16 I ^g waste away; I shall not live alway: Let ^h me alone; for my days are vanity.	10 Shall not they teach thee and tell thee, And utter words out of their heart: 11 Doth the rush shoot up without mire? Doth the flag grow without water?
	17 What ^h is man, that Thou shouldest magnify him,	12 Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down, It withereth before any herb. 13 So are the paths of all that forget God;

	19 Yea, thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid ;	18 He looseth the bond * of kings, And girdeth their loins with a fetter†.	* or , girdle.
m Le. 26. 16; Lam. 4. 17.	And many shall make snit unto thee.	19 He leadeth priests captives, And overthroweth the mighty.	† or , a cord.
n Pro. 11. 7.	20 But ^m the eyes of the wicked shall fail, And refuge vanisheth from them, And ⁿ their hope is as the breathing out of life.	20 He ^p depriveth of speech the trusty, And taketh away the judgment of the aged.	p ch. 32. 9.
	Job's answer —(2) He rebukes the arrogance of his friends, and (4) says the unfortunate are commonly despised by the prosperous, (6) while the wicked enjoy undisturbed peace—He then (7) surpasses his opponents in setting forth God's incomprehensible wisdom and power.	21 He ^q poureth contempt upon nobles, And weakeneth the strength † of the mighty.	q Ps. 107. 40. † Heb. looseneth the gir- dle.
	12. AND Job answered and said :	22 He ^r discovereth deep things out of dark- ness, And bringeth forth to light the shadow of death.	r Dan. 2. 22; 1 Cor. 2. 10; 4. 5. s Ps. 107. 38, 39.
	2 No doubt that ye are the people, And with you wisdom shall die !	23 He ^s increaseth the nations, and he de- stroyeth them ;
a ch. 13. 2.	3 I also ^a have understanding as well as you, I am not inferior to you :	He giveth enlargement to the nations, and he leadeth them away.	t Ps. 76. 12.
	Yea, who knoweth not such things as these ?	24 He ^t taketh away the understanding of the chiefs of the people of the land, And ^u causeth them to wander in a path- less waste ;	u Ps. 107. 40.
b ch. 17. 2, 14; 37. 35; 92. 7. c Ps. 34. 15; 91. 15.	4 I am one ^b mocked by his neighbour, One who ^c called upon God, and whom he answered ;	25 They ^x grope in the dark, even without light, And he ^y maketh them to stagger † like a drunkard.	x ch. 5. 14. y Is. 19. 14. † or , to wander.
	A mockery is the just, the upright man .	13. Lo, mine eye hath seen it all, Mine ear hath heard and understood it.	z ch. 12. 3.
d Ps. 17. 14; 37. 35; 92. 7. * or , who bringeth God in his hand.	5 Contempt for misfortune is in the thought of the secure, Ready for those whose feet totter.	2 What ^z ye know, do I also know ; I am not inferior to you.	a ch. 23. 2.
	6 The ^d tents of robbers are in peace, And they that provoke God are secure, Into whose hand God bringeth*.	3 But ^a I will speak to the Almighty, And I desire ^b to make my plea to God.	b Is. 1. 18 —20. c Ps. 119. 69.
e Dan. 5. 23; Ac. 17. 28. † Heb. of all the flesh of man.	7 But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee, And the birds of the air, and they shall tell thee ;	4 But ^c ye are forgers of lies, Physicians ^d of no value are ye all.	d ch. 16. 2.
f ch. 34. 3.	8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee, And the fishes of the sea shall declare unto thee.	5 Oh that ye would altogether hold your peace ! And ^e it would be your wisdom.	e Pro. 17. 28.
	9 Who knoweth not by all these, That the hand of the LORD hath done this ?	Job's answer continued —(6) He charges his friends with pleading for God at the expense of truth; and (13) turning away from them, he appeals to God; but (20) deprecates his strict judgment on a frail and short-lived creature.
	10 In ^e whose hand is the soul of every living thing, And the breath of all mankind †.	6 HEAR now my defence, And hearken to the pleadings of my lips.
	11 Doth ^f not the ear try words, Even as the mouth tasteth its food ?

7 Will ye speak what is wrong for God,
And for him speak deceit?
8 Will ye be partial for his sake,
Or will ye contend for God?
9 Is it good that he should search you out?
Or can ye deceive him, as one may deceive
a man?

10 He ^a will surely reprove you,
If ye do secretly accept persons.
11 Shall ^b not his majesty make you afraid,
And ^c his dread fall upon you?

12 Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
Your bulwarks are bulwarks of mire.

13 Hold your peace from me, and let me speak;
And let come on me what will.

14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth,
And ^d put my life in my hand?

15 Lo, he slayeth me, but in him I hope*;
Yet ^e will I defend my ways before him.

16 Even this shall be ^f my salvation;
That a hypocrite† shall not come before
him.

17 Hear attentively my speech,
And my declaration in your ears.

18 Behold now, I have ordered my cause;
I know that I shall be justified.

19 Who ^g is he that will contend with me?
For then I will hold my peace, and will give up the ghost.

20 Only do not touch two things unto me,
Then will I not hide myself from thee:

21 Withdraw ^h thy hand far from me,
And let not thy terror make me afraid.

22 Then call thou, and I will answer,
Or I will speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sins?

Make ⁱ me to know my transgression and my sin.

24 Wherefore ^k hidest thou thy face,
And ^l holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou terrify a driven leaf,
And wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?

26 For thou writest bitter things against me,
And ^m makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.

27 And thou ⁿ putttest my feet in the stocks,

And ^o watchest all my paths;
Thou settest a bound about the soles of my feet;

28 Although he, as a rotten thing, consumeth,
As a garment that the moth eateth.

14. Man, born of woman,
Is of few days, and ^p full of trouble.

2 He ^q cometh forth like a flower, and he is cut down,
And he ^r fleeth, like a shadow, and con-tinueth not.

3 Even ^s upon such an one dost thou open thine eyes;
And ^t bringest thou me into judgment with
thee?

4 Who ^u can bring the clean out of the unclean?
Not one.

5 If his days are determined,
If the number of his months is with thee,
And thou hast appointed his bounds which he cannot pass;

6 Turn ^v from him, that he may rest,
Till he shall accomplish*, as ^w a hireling,
his day.

7 For there is hope for a tree, if it be cut down,
That it will revive again, and that its sprout
will not fail;

8 Though its root wax old in the earth,
And its stock die in the ground;

9 Through the scent of water it will bud,
And bring forth boughs like a sapling.

10 But man dieth and wasteth away, Yea, man giveth up the ghost, and ^x where is he?

11 As the waters flow off from a sea†,
And a river diminisheth and drieth up;

12 So man lieth down, and he riseth not;
Till ^y all the heavens are no more, they shall not ^z awake,

Nor be aroused from their sleep.

13 Oh that thou wouldest hide me in the grave‡,
That thou wouldest keep me secret ^a until thy wrath turn away,

That thou wouldest appoint me a set time,
and remember me!

14 If a man die, ^b shall he live again?
All the days of my warfare will I wait,
Till my change come.

15 Thou ^c wilt call, and I will answer thee, Thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For ^d now thou numberest my steps,
Thou watchest over my sin.

17 My ^e transgression is sealed up in a bag,
And thou sewest up ^f mine iniquity.

18 But surely the mountain falling cometh to nought,

And the rock is removed out of its place;
19 The waters wear away the stones,
Its floods wash away the dust of the earth;
So thou destroyest the hope of man;

20 Thou crushest him for ever, and he passeth away,

	Thou changest his countenance and sendest him away.	17 I will show thee, hearken thou to me, And that which I have seen I will declare ;
A Ps. 39.6 ; Ecc. 9. 5.	21 His sons come to honour, but ^h he knoweth it not, And they are brought low, but he heedeth them not.	18 Which wise men have told From their fathers, and have not hidden ; 19 Unto whom alone the land was given, And ^o no stranger passed among them.	o Joel 3. 17.
	22 Only for himself shall his flesh have pain, And for himself shall his soul mourn.	20 All the days of the ^p wicked man, he is in pain, And numbered years are laid up for the oppressor.	p Is. 57. 20, 21.
	Second speech of Eliphaz—(2) He charges Job with presumption and impiety; (14) maintains that no man is righteous before God; and (17) describes the misery of the wicked man—tormented by his own conscience, and overthrown in the midst of his prosperity.	21 A dreadful sound is in his ears ; In ^q his prosperity the destroyer cometh upon him.	q 1 Sam. 25. 36—38 ; Ae. 12. 22, 23 ; 1 Thes. 5. 3.
	15. AND Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said :	22 He hath no trust that he shall return out of darkness, And he is spied out for the sword.
	2 Shall a wise man answer with windy knowledge,	23 He ^r wandereth about for bread, saying, Where is it ?	r ch. 30. 3, 4 ; Ps. 59. 15.
a Hos. 12. 1.	And ^a fill his belly with the east wind ;	He knoweth that ^s the day of darkness is ready at his hand.	s ch. 18. 5, 6, 32 ; Ecc. 11. 8.
b Col. 4. 6.	3 To ^b reason with unprofitable talk, And with words wherewith he can do no good ?	24 Trouble and anguish make him afraid, They prevail against him, like a king ready for the battle.
c Mal. 3. 13—15. d Lk. 18. 1 ; Jam. 4. 2.	4 Yea, ^c thou castest off fear, And ^d restrainest prayer before God.	25 Because he stretched out his hand against God, And strengthened himself against the Almighty ;
e ch. 9. 20.	5 For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, And thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.	26 He ran upon him with stiff neck, With the thick bosses of his bucklers ;
	6 Thine ^e own mouth condemneth thee, and not I, And thine own lips testify against thee.	27 Because ^t he covered his face with his fatness, And gathered fat on his loins ;	t Deu. 32. 15 ; Ps. 73. 7.
f ch. 38. 4 ; Pro. 8. 24, 25.	7 Art thou the first man that was born, And wast thou brought forth f before the hills ?	28 And he dwelt in desolated cities, In houses which none inhabit, Which are ready to become stone-heaps ;
g Deu. 29. 29 ; Ps. 25. 14 ; Jer. 23. 18 ; Ro. 11. 34.	8 Hast ^g thou listened to the secret of God ? And dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself ?	29 He shall not be rich, nor ^u shall his substance continue ; Nor shall their possessions extend upon the earth ;	u ch. 20. 22 —28.
h ch. 13. 2.	9 What ^h knowest thou that we know not, What understandest thou which is not with us ?	30 He ^x shall not depart out of darkness ; A flame shall dry up his branches, And by the breath of his mouth shall he pass away.	x ch. 18. 5, 6.
* Heb. greater in days.	10 Both the grayheaded and the ancient are among us, Older* than thy father.	31 Let him not, being deceived, trust in vanity* For vanity† shall be his recompence ;	* or, Let him not trust in evil ; he deceiveth himself. † or, evil.
f Ps. 35. 19.	11 Are the consolations of God too small for thee, And the word that speaketh gently with thee ?	32 It shall be accomplished before his day, And his branch shall not be green.
	12 Why doth thy heart carry thee away, And why do ⁱ thine eyes wink ;	33 He shall shake off, like the vine, his unripe grapes, And shall cast off, like the olive-tree, his blossom.
k ch. 14. 4 ; Ps. 51. 5 ; Pro. 20. 9.	13 That thou turnest thy spirit against God, And utterest such words out of thy mouth ?	34 For the assembly of hypocrites† is desolate, And fire consumeth the tents of bribery.	† or, the profane.
l ch. 4. 18, 19 ; 25. 6.	14 What ^k is man that he should be pure, And one born of a woman that he should be righteous !	35 They ^y conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity, And their inward part prepareth deceit.	y Ps. 7. 14 ; Is. 59. 4.
m Ps. 14. 3 ; Ro. 1. 28 —30. n ch. 34. 7.	15 Behold, ^l He putteth no trust in his holy ones, Yea, the heavens are not pure in his sight.
	16 How ^m much less the abominable and filthy, Man, who ⁿ drinketh iniquity like water !

Job's answer—(2) He complains of the aggravation of his sufferings by his friends; and (10) describes by the strongest figures the terrible sufferings with which God has visited him; but (ch. 17. 3) still desires to appeal to Him; though (13) he looks for no rest but in the grave.

16. And Job answered and said:

2 I have heard many such things;

Miserable ^a comforters are ye all.

3 Shall the vain words have an end?

Or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 I also could speak like you,

If your soul were in my soul's stead;

I could heap up words against you,

And ^b shake my head at you.

5 But I would strengthen you with my mouth,

And the sympathy of my lips should relieve.

6 If I speak, my grief is not relieved,

And if I forbear, what am I eased*?

7 But now he hath made me weary;

Thou hast made desolate all my company.

8 And thou hast filled me with wrinkles†;

It is become a witness,

And my leanness riseth against me,

It beareth witness to my face.

9 His wrath teareth, ^c and it pursueth me,

He gnasheth upon me with his teeth,

Mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes at me.

10 They ^d gape upon me with their mouth,

They ^e snite upon my cheeks reproachfully,

They ^f array themselves together against me.

11 God ^g delivereth me up to the ungodly,

And casteth me into the hands of the wicked.

12 I was at ease, but he shattered me;

He also took hold of my neck and shook ^h me to pieces,

And ⁱ he set me up for his mark.

13 His arrows† compass me round about,

He ^k cleaveth my reins, and spareth not,

He poureth out my gall upon the ground.

14 He breaketh me with breach upon breach,

He runneth upon me like a mighty man.

15 I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin,

And ^l defiled my horn in the dust.

16 My face is red with weeping.

And ^m on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 Although no violence is in my hands,

And my prayer is pure.

18 Earth, ⁿ cover not thou my blood,

And let my cry have no resting-place.

19 Even now, behold, my Witness is in heaven,

And my Testifier is on high.

20 My friends are my ^o mockers;

But mine eye poureth out tears unto God;

21 That one might plead for ^p a man with God,

As a son of man for† his fellow!

22 When a few years are come,

Then I ^q go the way I shall not return.

17. My breath is corrupt,

My days are extinet,

The ^r graves are ready for me.

2 Verily there are ^s mockers with me;

And mine eye dwelleth upon their provocation.

3 Lay down† now, be thou surety for me with thyself;

Who is he that ^t will strike hands with me?

4 For thou hast hidden their heart from understanding;

Therefore thou wilt not exalt them.

5 Whoso denounceth his friends for a prey,

Even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 He hath set me for ^u the peoples' byword,

And I am become one to be spit on in the face;

7 And mine ^v eye is become dim with grief,

And all my members are as a shadow.

8 The upright shall be astonished at this,

And the innocent will stir up himself against the hypocrite†.

9 But the righteous ^w shall hold on his way,

And he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.

10 But as for you all, pray, come on again;

And I shall not find a wise man among you.

11 My ^x days are past,

My purposes are broken off,

The cherished thoughts ^y of my heart.

12 They put night for day,

The light is short because of ^z the darkness.

13 If I wait, the grave* is my house,

I ^a make my bed in the darkness.

14 I have said to corruption, Thou art my father,

To ^b the worm, My mother, and my sister!

15 And where then is my hope,

Yea, my hope, who shall see it?

16 They shall go down to the bars of the pit†,

When our rest together is in the dust.

Job's reply—(2) He proves by undeniable facts that suffering does not always attend sin, but that the wicked often enjoy unbroken prosperity until their death, and (32) are carried to the grave in honour.

21. AND Job answered and said:

² Hear ye attentively my speech,
And let this be your consolations.
³ Suffer me that I may speak,
And after I have spoken, ^a mock on.
⁴ As for me, ^b is my complaint to man?
Or why should not my spirit be impatient?

⁵ Look on me, and be astonished,
And ^c lay your hand upon your mouth.
⁶ Even ^d when I remember, I am afraid,
And trembling taketh hold of my flesh.

⁷ Wherefore ^e do the wicked live,
Grow old, yea, become mighty in power?
⁸ Their seed with them is established in their sight,

And their offspring before their eyes.
⁹ Their houses are safe from fear,
And ^f the rod of God is not upon them.
¹⁰ His bull gendereth and faileth not,
His cow calveth and casteth not her calf.
¹¹ They send forth their little ones like a flock,

And their children dance.
¹² They shout to the timbrel and harp,
And rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
¹³ They spend their days in prosperity,

And ^g in a moment go down to the grave*.
¹⁴ And ^h they say unto God, Depart from us,
For we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.

¹⁵ What ⁱ is the Almighty that we should serve him?
And ^k what are we profited if we pray unto him?

¹⁶ Lo, their good is not in their hand:
The counsel of the wicked is far from me †.

¹⁷ How often is the lamp of the wicked put out?
And their destruction cometh upon them?
God † distributeth sorrows in his anger.

¹⁸ They ^m are as stubble before the wind,
And as chaff that the whirlwind carrieth away.

¹⁹ God layeth up his iniquity ⁿ for his children;

Let Him requite it, that he may know it;
²⁰ Let his eyes see his destruction,
And ^o let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

²¹ For what is his concern in his house after him,

When ^p the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

²² Shall ^q any teach God knowledge,
Seeing ^r He judgeth those that are high?

²³ One dieth in his full strength,
Being wholly at ease and quiet;

²⁴ His breasts* are full of milk,
And the marrow of his bones is moistened;

²⁵ And another dieth in bitterness of soul,
And ^s hath not tasted good:

²⁶ Together they ^t lie down in the dust,
And the worms cover them.

²⁷ Behold, I know your thoughts,
And the devices ye wrongfully imagine against me.

²⁸ For ye say, ^u Where is the house of the prince?

And where ^v are the dwelling-places of the wicked?

²⁹ Have ye not asked the wayfarers,
And do ye not know their tokens?

³⁰ That ^w the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction?

They shall be brought forth † to the day of wrath.

³¹ Who will declare his way to his face?
And who shall requite him what he hath done?

³² Yet he is brought to the graves,
And watch is kept over the tomb;

³³ The clouds of the valley are sweet unto him,
And ^y all men draw after him,

As there were innumerable before him.

³⁴ How ^z then comfort ye me in vain?
Seeing ^a in your replies there remaineth falsehood.

Third speech of Eliphaz—(2) He maintains that God rewards virtue and punishes vice solely as such; (5) he charges Job with heinous crimes, (10) which have brought his calamities upon him; and (12) with denying God's government of the world; and (21) exhorts him to repentance; which (23) shall bring great blessing.

22. AND Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said:

² Can ^a a man be profitable unto God
For it is himself the wise man profiteth.

³ Is it a pleasure to the Almighty that thou art righteous,

Or a gain to him that thou makest thy ways perfect?

⁴ Will he reprove thee for fear of thee?
Will ^b he enter into judgment with thee?

⁵ Is not thy wickedness great?
And thine iniquities without end?

⁶ For thou hast ^c taken a pledge from thy brother for nought,

And stripped off the clothing of the naked.

⁷ Thou hast not given water to the fainting to drink,

⁸ But as for the mighty man, he had the earth*.

⁹ Widows thou hast sent away empty,
And the arms of ^d the fatherless have been broken.

¹⁰ Therefore ^e snares are round about thee,
And sudden fear troubleth thee;

¹¹ Or ^f darkness, that thou canst not see;
And the flood of ^g waters covereth thee.

¹² Is ^h not God in the height of heaven?
And behold the height‡ of the stars, how high they are!

¹³ And thou sayest, ⁱ How doth God know?
Can he judge through the dark cloud?

¹⁴ Thick clouds ^k are a covering to him, that he seeth not;

And he walketh on the arch of heaven.

¹⁵ Wilt thou observe ^l the ancient way,
Which wicked men trod;

¹⁶ Who ^m were taken away before the time,
Whose ⁿ foundation was overflown with a flood;

¹⁷ Who ^o said unto God, Depart from us,
And what doeth the Almighty to them?

¹⁸ Yet he filled their houses with good;
(But ^p the counsel of the wicked is far|| from me.)

¹⁹ The ^q righteous see it, and are glad,
And the innocent laugh them to scorn:

²⁰ Is not our adversary cut off§!

And their residue a fire consumeth!

²¹ Acquaint now thyself with him, and ^r be at peace;

Thereby good shall come unto thee.

²² Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth,
And ^s lay up his words in thy heart.

²³ If ^t thou return to the Almighty,

Thou shalt be built up;

If thou put away iniquity far from thy tents,

²⁴ And cast to the dust thy precious ore,
And the ^u gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks;

²⁵ Then will ^v the Almighty be thy precious ores,
And plenty of silver¶ unto thee.

²⁶ For then shalt thou ^w delight thyself in the Almighty,
And ^x shalt lift up thy face unto God.

²⁷ Thou ^y shalt make thy prayer unto him,
and he will hear thee,
And ^z thou shalt perform thy vows.

²⁸ Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee,
And light shall shine upon thy ways.

²⁹ When ^{men} are cast down, thou shalt say,
There is lifting up;

And ^b he will save the humble person.

³⁰ He ^c will deliver him that is not innocent,

And he is delivered through the pureness of thy hands.

Job's answer—(2) He repeats his desire to bring his cause before God, (6) who upon hearing his defence would acquit him; but (13) he fears that God has decreed his destruction.

23. AND Job answered and said:

² Even to-day my complaint is bitter*;
My stroke is heavier than my groaning.

³ Oh ^a that I knew how I might find him,
That I might come even to his seat!

⁴ I would order my cause before him,
And fill my mouth with arguments;

⁵ I would know the words he would answer me,
And mark what he would say to me.

⁶ Would he contend with me with great power?

No, but he would give heed to me.

⁷ There the righteous might argue with him;
And I should be delivered for ever from my judge.

⁸ Behold ^b I go eastward, but he is not there,

And westward, but I perceive him not;

⁹ Northward, where he worketh, but I behold him not;

He ^c hideth himself in the south, and I see him not.

¹⁰ But he ^d knoweth the way that I take;
When ^e he hath tried me / I shall come forth as gold.

¹¹ My ^f foot hath held fast to his steps,
His way have I kept, and have not turned aside.

¹² Neither have I put away the commandment of his lips,

I ^h have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my own law.

¹³ But he is in one mind†, and ⁱ who can turn him?

And ^k what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.

¹⁴ For he performeth what is ^j appointed for me;

And many such things are with him.

¹⁵ Therefore am I troubled at his presence,
When I consider, I am afraid of him.

¹⁶ And God ^m maketh my heart faint,
And the Almighty troubleth me;

¹⁷ Because I was not cut off before the darkness.

Neither hath he covered‡ the darkness from my face.

Job's answer continued—(1) In contrast with his own punishment, he describes the prosperity of evil doers—(2) merciless oppressors of the poor and weak, (14) murderers, and (15) adulterers; (19) who do not meet with their deserved retribution in this life.

24. WHY, seeing ^a times are not hidden from the Almighty,

Do not they that know him see his days?

2 ^b Some remove ^b landmarks;

They violently take away a herd, and pasture it.

3 They drive away the ass of the fatherless,

They ^c take the widow's ox for a pledge.

4 They turn the needy out of the way,

The ^d poor of the land are made to hide themselves together.

5 Behold, ^e as wild asses in the wilderness,

They go forth to their work, ^f seeking for the prey;

The desert is to them food for the children.

6 They reap his fodder in the field,

And they glean the vineyard of the wicked.

7 They pass the night naked without clothing,

And have no covering in the cold.

8 They are wet with the storm of the mountains,

And embrace the rock for want of shelter.

9 They seize the fatherless from the breast, And take a pledge of the poor.

10 Naked they go about without clothing,

And hungry they carry the sheaf.

11 They press out oil within their walls,

They tread the winepresses, but suffer thirst.

12 Men ^g groan from out of the city,

And the soul of the wounded crieth out;

Yet God layeth not folly to them*.

13 There are those that ⁱ rebel against the light;

They know not the ways thereof,

Nor abide in the paths thereof.

14 At early dawn riseth the ^k murderer,

He killeth the poor and needy;

And in the night he is as the thief.

15 And the ^l eye of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight,

Saying, ^m No eye shall see me;

And he disguiseth ⁿ his face.

16 In the dark ⁿ they dig through houses;

They shut themselves up in the daytime;

They know not the light.

17 For the morning is to them all ^o as the shadow of death,

For they know the terrors of the shadow of death.

18 He is light [†] upon the face of the waters;

Their portion is cursed upon the earth;

He turneth not unto the way of the vineyards.

19 As drought ^o and heat consume the snow waters,

So the grave ^p doth sinners.

20 The womb shall forget him,

The ^q worm shall feed sweetly on him,

He ^r shall be no more remembered;

And ^r wickedness shall be broken as a tree.

21 He despoileth the barren ^s that beareth not, And doeth not good to the widow.

22 He draweth the mighty by his power, He riseth up, and no ^t man is sure of life.

23 He giveth to him security, and he is sustained,

And ^s his eyes are upon their ways.

24 They ^t are exalted for a little while, and they are gone;

They are laid low, and they die, like all,

And are cut off, as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it be not so, who will make me a liar,

And make my speech nothing worth?

Bildad's third speech—He sets forth (2) the majesty and holiness of God, and (4) the frailty and sinfulness of man.

25. AND Bildad the Shuhite answered and said:

2 Dominion ^a and fear are with Him,

He maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is ^b there any number of his armies?

And upon whom doth not ^c his light arise?

4 How ^d then shall man be just with God?

And ^e how shall he be pure, that is born of a woman?

5 Behold even the moon, and it shineth not, And the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man, a worm,

And the son of man, ^f a worm!

Job's answer—(2) After noticing the foregoing speech, (6) he again descants on God's power and majesty, and dominion over all creation.

26. AND Job answered and said:

2 How ^a hast thou helped the powerless! How hast thou saved the arm without strength!

3 How hast thou counselled the unwise; And ^b how hast thou abundantly declared wisdom?

4 To whom hast thou uttered words? And whose spirit ^c came from thee?

5 The shades ^d tremble, Beneath the waters, and their inhabitants.

Job's final speech—(2) He holds fast the assurance of his own integrity, and (8) describes the miserable and hopeless end of the wicked man.

27. AND Job continued his parable ^{ll}, and said :

2 As ^a God liveth, ^b who hath taken away

And the Almighty, ^c who hath vexed my soul;

3 As long as my breath is in me,
And ^e the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

When God taketh away his soul?

9 Will ^h God hear his cry,
When trouble cometh upon him?

10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty?

Will he at all times call upon God?

11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God,
What ⁱ is with the Almighty will I not conceal.

12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it;

Why then are ye thus altogether vain?

13 This ⁱ is the portion of a wicked man with God,
And the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.

14 If ^k his children multiply, ^l it is for the sword,
And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in the pestilence,
And ^m his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust,
And prepare raiment as the clay;
17 He may prepare ⁿ it, but ^m the just shall wear it,
And the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house like a moth,
And ⁿ like a booth ^o that the watchman
maketh.

19 The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered;
He ^o openeth his eyes, and he is no more.

20 Terrors ^p overtake him like waters,
A tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The ^q east wind carrieth him away, and he is gone,
Yea, it hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God casteth upon him, and spareth not;
He would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men ^r clap their hands at him,
And hiss him out of his place.

Job's final speech continued—(1) He shows that though man can search out the earth's hidden treasures, (12) the wisdom of God is far beyond his comprehension; and that (25) man's wisdom consists in the fear of God and turning away from evil.

28. SURELY there is a vein* for the silver,
And a place for the gold, which they refine.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth,
And copper is molten out of stone.

3 He ^s putteth an end to the darkness;
And he searcheth out, to the very end,
Stones of darkness and of the shadow of death.

4 He openeth out a shaft, away from the dweller ^t above;
Forgotten of the foot,[§]
They hang down, they swing, far from men.

5 As ^u for the earth, ^v out of it cometh bread,
And beneath, it is turned up as ^w by fire.

6 Its stones are the place of sapphires,
And it hath lumps of gold.

The words of Job are ended.

Speech of Elihu—(2) Constrained to speak by his disapproval of the speakers on both sides, (ch. 33. 8) he censures Job's self-justification and complaints of God; and (14) affirms that God's chastisements are designed to warn the sufferer, to teach him self-knowledge and to lead him to repentance.

32. SO these three men ceased from answering Job, because he was ^a righteous in his own eyes. ² Then was kindled the anger of Elihu the son of Barachel ^b the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram; against Job was his anger kindled, because he justified himself rather than God; ³ also against his three friends was his anger kindled; because they found no answer, and yet ^c condemned Job. ⁴ But Elihu had delayed answering Job, because they were older than he. ⁵ When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, then his anger was kindled. ⁶ And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said:

Array thyself against me, take thy stand.

⁶ Behold, I, like thyself, belong to God,

I also was ^d formed out of the clay.

⁷ Behold, my ^e terror shall not make thee afraid,
ch. 4. 19; e ch. 9. 34; 13. 21.

Nor shall my burden be heavy upon thee.

⁸ Surely thou hast said in mine ears,

And I heard the sound of thy words :

⁹ I ^f am pure, without transgression,

I am innocent, and there is no iniquity in
me;

¹⁰ Behold, ^g he findeth occasions against me,

He ^h counteth me for his enemy;

¹¹ He ⁱ putteth my feet in the stocks,

He ^k observeth all my paths.

¹² Behold in this thou art not just; I will answer thee;

For God is greater than man.

¹³ Why dost thou ^l strive against him?

Because ^m he giveth no account of any of his matters.

¹⁴ For ⁿ God speaketh once,

Yea twice, but man perceiveth it not*.

¹⁵ In ^o a dream, in a vision of the night,

When deep sleep falleth upon men,

In slumberings upon the bed;

¹⁶ Then ^p he openeth the ears of men,

And sealeth their instruction;

¹⁷ That ^q he may withdraw man from his purpose,

And he may hide pride from man.

¹⁸ He keepeth back his soul from the pit,

And his life from perishing by the sword†.

¹⁹ And he is ^r chastened with pain upon his bed,

And with strife in his bones continually;

²⁰ And ^s his spirit abhorreth bread,

And his soul dainty food;

²¹ His ^t flesh wasteth away, that it cannot be seen,

And ^u his bones that were not seen stick out; -

²² And ^v his soul draweth near to the grave,

And his life to the destroyers.

²³ If there be a messenger; with him, an interpreter‡,

One out of a thousand,

To show unto man his duty;

²⁴ Then ^w will He be gracious unto him, and say :

Deliver him from going down to the pit,
I have found a ransom.

²⁵ His flesh becometh fresher than in childhood,

He ^x shall return to the days of his youth.

²⁶ He shall pray unto God,

And He will be favourable unto him,

And ^y he shall see His face with joy;

And ^z He will render unto man his righteousness.

²⁷ He will sing unto men and say,

I ^a sinned and perverted what was right,

And it was not becoming for me§;

²⁸ He ^b hath delivered my soul from going into the pit,

And my life beholdeth the light.

Elihu's speech continued—(2) He argues that piety gives nothing to God that calls for his reward; and (3) that prayer is often not answered because it is offered in a wrong spirit.

35. AND ELIHU spake moreover and said :

2 Thinkest thou this to be right,
My righteousness, sayest thou, is more than God's?

3 For ^athou sayest, What advantage is it unto thee,

What will it profit me more than my sin?

4 I will answer thee,
And thy friends with thee.

5 Look ^bunto the heavens and see,
And survey the skies, which are high above
thee.

6 If thou sinnest, what doest thou ^cagainst
Him?

And if thy transgressions be multiplied,
what doest thou unto him?

7 If ^dthou be righteous, what givest thou to him?

Or what receiveth he from thy hand?

8 Thy ^ewickedness may hurt a man like thyself,

And thy righteousness may profit a son of man.

9 By ^freason of the multitude of oppressions they cry aloud,

They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty :

10 But none saith, Where is God my Maker,
Who ^ggiveth songs in the night ;

11 Who teacheth us more than the beasts
of the earth,

And maketh us wiser than the birds of heaven?

12 There ^hthey cry aloud, but He answereth
not,

Because of the pride of evil men.

13 Surely ⁱGod will not hear vanity,

Nor will the Almighty regard it.

14 Although ^kthou sayest thou discernest him not,

Yet the cause is before him ;

Therefore wait thou for ^lhim.

15 But now, because his anger visiteth not,
And he taketh no strict account of the transgression ;

16 Therefore ^mJob openeth his mouth
without reason,

He multiplieth words without knowledge.

Elihu's speech concluded ; (2) He shows the merciful purposes of God's chastisements, and (21) exhorts to penitential submission, (22) in the contemplation of God's infinite power, wisdom, and goodness.

36. ELIHU also added and said :

2 Suffer me a little, and I will show thee,

For I have yet to speak ^aon God's behalf.

3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar,
And will ^bascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly ^cmy words are not falsehood,
One perfect in knowledge is with thee.

5 Behold, God is mighty, but he ^ddespiseth not,

^eHe is mighty in strength of understanding.

6 He ^fpreserveth not the life of the wicked,
But ^ggiveth right to the afflicted.

7 He ^hwithdraweth not his eyes from the righteous ;

But, ⁱwith kings on the throne,

^kHe doth even establish them for ever, and they are exalted.

8 And if, bound in fetters,

They be held in cords of affliction ;

9 Then ^lhe sheweth them their doing,

And their transgressions, that they have acted proudly.

10 And he ^mopeneth their ear for instruction,
And ⁿcommandeth that they turn from iniquity.

11 If they obey and serve ^ohim,

They ^pspend their days in prosperity,

And their years in pleasures ;

12 But if they obey not,

They perish by the sword^{*},

And ^qdie without knowledge.

13 So the hypocrites in heart ^rlay up wrath,

They ^scry not for help when he bindeth them.

14 Their soul dieth in their youth,

And their life among the unclean.

15 He delivereth the afflicted in his afflic-tion,

And openeth their ears in their oppression.

16 Even so he doth allure thee away from the jaws of distress,

To ^ta broad place where there is no strait-
ness ;

And the supply of thy table shall be full of fatness.

17 But thou art full of the judgment[†] of the wicked ;

So judgment and justice shall take hold on
thee.

18 For beware lest he in wrath take thee away with a stroke ;

Then a great ransom cannot deliver thee[‡].

19 Will he esteem thy riches ?

No, not gold, nor all[§] the forces of wealth.

20 Long not for the night,

When peoples are cut off from their place.

21 Take heed, turn not to iniquity ;

For this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.

Or who begetteth the drops of dew?

²⁹ Out ^z of whose womb cometh the ice? And the hoar frost of heaven, who gendereth it?

³⁰ The waters lie hidden as in stone, And ^a the face of the deep holdeth fast together.

³¹ Dost thou bind the sweet influences^{*} of the ^a Pleiades,

And dost thou guide the Bear with her young?[‡]

³³ Knowest thou ^b the ordinances of the heavens?

Dost thou set their dominion in the earth?

³⁴ Dost ^c thou lift up thy voice to the clouds,

That a flood of waters may cover thee?

³⁵ Dost ^d thou send forth lightnings, that they may go,

And say unto thee, Here we are!

³⁶ Who ^e hath put wisdom in the reins? Or who hath given understanding to the mind?

³⁷ Who numbereth the clouds by wisdom? Or who poureth out the bottles of heaven,

When the dust is poured into a hard mass,

And the clods cleave fast together?

³⁸ Dost ^f thou hunt prey for the lions, And fill the appetite of the young lions;

³⁹ When they crouch in their dens, And lie in the thicket for ambush?

⁴⁰ Who ^g provideth for the raven its prey, When its young ones cry for help unto God, And they wander about for lack of food?

⁴¹ Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth?

Dost thou mark the calving of the hinds?

⁴² Dost thou number the months they fulfil,

15 Behold now behemoth*, which I made with thee;

He eateth grass like the cattle.

16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins,

And his force in the muscles of his belly;

17 He bendeth his tail like a cedar,

The sinews of his flanks are knit together;

18 His bones are like pipes of brass†,

His bones are like bars of iron.

19 He is the chief of the ways of God;

He who made him giveth him his sword.

20 Surely the mountains bring him food,

Where all the beasts of the field play.

21 He lieth under the lotus-trees,

In the covert of reeds and marsh;

22 The lotus-trees cover him with shade,

The willows of the brook compass him about.

23 Behold, the river overfloweth, he startleth not,

He is confident though Jordan rush into his mouth.

24 In his sight let one take him,
Let one pierce his nose with hooks!

41. Wilt thou draw out leviathan‡ with a hook?

Or press down his tongue with a cord?

2 Wilt thou put a rush-ropc into his nose,

Or pierce his jaw with a hook?

3 Will he make many supplications to thee?

Will he speak soft things to thee?

4 Will he make a covenant with thee?

Wilt thou take him for a slave for ever?

5 Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?

And bind him for thy maidens?

6 Will partners§ bargain for him?

Will they divide him among the merchants?

7 Wilt thou fill his skin with darts,

And his head with fish-spears?

8 Lay thy hand upon him,

Remember the battle, do no more.

9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain;

Even at the sight of him is not one cast down?

10 None is so fierce that he will stir him up.

Who then is able to stand before Me?

11 Who^a hath first given to me, that I should repay him?

Whatsoever is under^b the whole heaven is mine.

12 I will not be silent about his parts,
And his strength§, and his comely array.

13 Who can uncover the face of his garment?

Who can come within his double jaws?

14 Who can open the doors of his face?

His teeth are terrible round about.

15 His strong shields are his pride,
Shut up together as with a close seal;

16 One is so close to another

That no air cometh between them;

17 They are joined one to another,
They stick together, so that they cannot be sundered.

18 By his sneezings a light shineth,
And his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go forth flames,
Sparks of fire leap out;

20 Out of his nostrils goeth forth smoke,

As out of a heated pot or caldron;

21 His breath kindleth coals,

And a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22 In his neck lodgeth strength,

And terror danceth before him.

23 The flakes of his flesh cleave together,

Firm upon him, they cannot be moved.

24 His heart is firm as a stone,

Yea, firm as the nether millstone.

25 When he riseth up the mighty are afraid,

They are beside themselves through terror.

26 If one reacheth him with the^c sword, it shall not hold;

Nor spear, nor dart, nor coat of mail*;

27 He esteemeth iron as straw,

Brass† as rotten wood.

28 The arrow shall not make him flee,

Slingstones are for him turned to stubble;

29 Clubs are counted as stubble,

He laugheth at the shaking of the spear.

30 Sharp scales are under him,

He spreadeth sharp pointed things‡ upon the mire.

31 He maketh the deep to boil like a caldron,

He maketh the sea like a pot of ointment;

32 He maketh the path behind him to shine,

One would think the deep hoary.

33 Upon^d earth there is not his like,

He is made without fear;

34 He beholdeth every high thing,

He is king over all the sons of pride.

Job's second acknowledgment of God's wisdom and supremacy, and (3) penitent confession of his own ignorance and presumption.

2 I know that^a thou canst do all things,
And^b no thought can be withholden from thee.

THE PSALMS.

PSALM I.

The characteristics of the godly man, and his blessedness, (4) contrasted with the condition and destiny of the wicked.

¹ BLESSED* is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked, Nor standeth in the way of sinners, Nor ^a sitteth in the seat of scorners;
² But ^b his delight is in the law of the LORD,
And ^c in his law doth he meditate day and night.
³ And he is like a tree ^d planted by the water-courses,
That ^e yieldeth its fruit in his season, And whose leaf shall not wither;
And all that he doeth shall ^f prosper.

⁴ Not so are the wicked,
But are ^g like the chaff which the wind drieth away.

⁵ Therefore the wicked shall ^h not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
⁶ For ⁱ the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous,
But ^k the way of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM II.

The conflict between the powers of this world and the kingdom of God—(1) The nations and their rulers revolt against Jehovah; (4) who mocks and confounds their designs; (7) the anointed King proclaims his rights and power; (10) and the rebels are counselled to submission.

¹ WHY ^a do the nations rage,
And the peoples meditate a vain thing?
² The ^b kings of the earth set themselves,
And ^c the rulers take counsel together,
Against the LORD and against his ^d Anointed, saying:

 3 Let us break their bands asunder,
 And cast away their cords from us.
 4 He that sitteth in the heavens c shall laugh,
 The Lord shall have them in derision.
 5 Then shall he speak unto them in his anger,
 And confound them in his wrath :
 6 Yet have I set s my king
 Upon o Zion, my holy hill.
 7 I will declare the decree :
 The LORD hath said unto me, h Thou art
 my Son,
 This day have I begotten thee.
 8 Ask i of me, and I will give the nations for thine inheritance,
 And the ends of the earth for thy possession.
 9 Thou k shalt break them with a rod of iron.
 Thou l shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

10 And now, ye kings, be wise,
 Be instructed, ye judges of the earth !
 11 Serve m the LORD with fear,
 And rejoice n with trembling.
 12 Kiss o the Son, lest he be angry,
 And ye perish in the way ;
 For p soon may his wrath kindle.
 Blessed t are all who put their trust in him.

PSALM III.

The Psalmist, (1) in danger and distress, (3) calls to remembrance God's former mercy, and (5) relies upon his help.

A Psalm of David, a when he fled from Absalom his son.

1 LORD, b how many are my foes !
 Many are rising up against me ;
 2 Many are saying of my soul,
 There c is no salvation for him in God.
 Selah.

3 But thou, O LORD, art d a shield around
 me,
 My e glory, and f the lifter up of my head.
 1 I cry unto the LORD with my voice,
 And g he answereth me from his h holy hill. Selah.

5 I i laid me down and slept ;
 I awaked, for the LORD sustaineth me.
 6 I k will not be afraid of ten thousands of people
 That have set themselves against me round about.

7 Arise, l O LORD ! Save me, O my God !
 For thou smitest all mine enemies upon the cheek,
 Thou breakest the teeth of the wicked.

8 Salvation m is the LORD'S ;
 Thy blessing n be upon thy people ! Selah.

PSALM IV.

Prayer under persecution ; (2) Rebuke and warning to the persecutors—(6) The psalmist's own safety and peace in God.

For the Chief musician. On Neginoth*. A
 Psalm of David.

1 ANSWER me when I call, a thou God of my righteousness !
 In b my distress thou gavest me enlargement ;
 Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.

2 Ye sons of men, how long shall c my glory be turned to shame ?
 How long will ye love vanity, will ye seek d falsehood ? Selah.

3 But know that e the LORD hath set apart
 the godly one for himself ;
 The f LORD heareth when I call unto him.

4 Stand g in awe, and sin ye not ;
 Commune h with your own heart upon your bed, and i be still. Selah.

5 Offer k the sacrifices of righteousness,
 And l put your trust in the LORD.

6 Many are saying, Who will show us any good ?
 LORD, m lift thou upon us the light of thy countenance.

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart,
 More than in the time when their corn and their wine abound.

8 In peace will I n both lie down and sleep,
 For o thou, LORD, alone makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

Prayer (1) for protection from enemies, and (10) for the manifestation of God's righteousness in the destruction of the wicked.

For the Chief musician. Upon Nehiloth†. A
 Psalm of David.

1 GIVE a ear to my words, O LORD,
 Consider my meditation !
 2 Harken unto the b voice of my cry, c my King and my God ;
 For unto thee do I pray.

3 In the morning shalt thou d hear my voice, O LORD,
 In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and e will look up.

4 For f thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness,
 Evil shall g not dwell with thee.

5 The foolish h shall not stand in thy sight,
 Thou i hatest all the workers of iniquity.
 6 Thou wilt k destroy them that speak

PSALM VIII.

God's manifested glory in creation; and (4) his gracious appointment of man as head and king of this lower world.

For the Chief musician. Upon the Gittith.†
A Psalm of David.

1 O LORD our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

Thou b who hast set thy glory over the heavens!

2 Out c of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou founded strength,
Because of thine enemies,
To still d the enemy and the avenger.

3 When I behold thy heavens, e the work of thy fingers,
The f moon and the stars, which thou hast prepared;

4 What g is man, that thou art mindful of him,
And the son of man, that thou visitest him;

5 And h makest him a little lower than God i,

And crownest him with glory and honour!

6 Thou i makest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands,

Thou k dost put all under his feet;

7 Sheep and oxen, all of them,
Yea, and the beasts of the field,

8 The l birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
Whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.

9 O LORD, our Lord,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth!

PSALM IX.

Thanksgiving to God (4) the righteous Governor of the world, (5) who punishes the wicked and (9) defends the oppressed; and (13) prayer for deliverance from trouble.

For the Chief musician. Upon Muth-labben.†
A Psalm of David.

1 I WILL praise the LORD a with my whole heart,

I will show forth all thy wonderful works;

2 I will be glad and b rejoice in thee,

3 I will sing praise to thy name, O c thou Most High!

3 When mine enemies are turned back,
They d stumble and perish at thy presence.

4 For e thou hast maintained my right and my cause;
Thou satest on the throne judging righteously.

5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen*, thou hast destroyed the wicked,
Thou hast f blotted out their name for ever and ever.

6 The enemy hath come to an end in ruins for ever;

And thou hast destroyed cities,
Even the remembrance of them hath perished.

7 But g the LORD sitteth enthroned for ever;
He h hath prepared his throne for judgment:

8 And i he will judge the world in righteousness,

He will minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness.

9 And the k LORD will be a refuge for the oppressed,

A refuge in times of trouble.

10 And l they that know thy name will trust in thee;

For thou, LORD, m hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

11 Sing ye praise to the LORD, n who dwelleth in Zion,

Declare o among the peoples his doings.

12 For He p who maketh inquisition for blood, remembereth them,

He q forgetteth not the cry of the suffering.

13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD;
Behold my suffering from them that hate me,

Thou r who liftest me up from the gates of death!

14 That I may show forth all thy praise,
In the gates of the daughter of Zion;

And s rejoice in thy salvation.

15 The t heathen are sunk down in the pit which they made,

In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

16 The LORD hath made himself known,
He executeth judgment;

The wicked hath been snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion Selah†.

17 The wicked shall be turned into hell;
All the nations u that forget God.

18 For v the needy shall not always be forgotten,
Nor the hope of the lowly perish for ever.

PSALM X.

*Complaint of proud and cruel oppressors; and
(12) prayer to God for help.*

1 WHY ^astandest thou afar off, O LORD,
And ^bhidest thyself in the times of trouble?
2 Through the pride of the wicked the lowly is hotly persecuted;
Let ^cthem be taken in the plots that they have devised.

3 For the wicked ^dboasteth of his heart's desire,
And, greedy of gain, he renounceth*, he contemneth ^ethe LORD.

4 The wicked, according to the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God;
God is not in all his ^fthoughts.
5 His ways are always ^gfirm;
Thy judgments are far above out of his
sight:

As for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.
6 He ^hsaith in his heart: I shall not be moved,
For I shall never be ⁱin adversity.

7 His ^kmouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression,
Under ^lhis tongue is mischief and iniquity.

8 He sitteth in ^mthe lurking-places of the villages,
In ⁿthe secret places he slayeth the innocent,

His eyes lurk for the wretched.
9 He ^olieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den,
He lieth in wait to catch the poor;
He doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10 He croucheth, he boweth down,
And the wretched fall by his strong ones.
11 He saith in his heart: God hath forgotten,
He ^phideth his face, he will never see it.

12 Arise, O LORD! O God, ^qlift up thy hand!
Forget ^rnot the humble.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked ^scontemn
God,
And say in his heart, Thou wilt not require it?

14 Thou ^thast seen; for thou beholdest mischief and spite,

To requite it with thy hand.
The wretched committeth it unto thee; .
Thou ^uart the helper of the fatherless.
15 Break ^xthou the arm of the wicked, and the evil man,
Seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

16 The ^yLORD is King for ever and ever;
The ^znations are perished out of his land.
17 LORD, ^athou hearest the desire of the humble:
Thou ^bpreparest their heart,
Thou ^ccausest thine ear to hear;
18 To ^djudge the cause of the fatherless and the oppressed;
That the man of the earth may no more oppress.

PSALM XI.

The answer of faith to timid counsels and de-sponding fears.

For the Chief musician. A Psalm of David.

1 IN the LORD put I my trust:
How ^asay ye to my soul,
Flee as a bird to your mountain;
2 For lo, ^bthe wicked bend the bow,
They make ready their arrow upon the string,
To shoot privily at the upright in heart.
3 When the foundations[†] are destroyed,
What can the righteous do?

4 The ^cLORD is in his holy temple,
The LORD's ^dthrone is in heaven:
His ^eeyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.

5 The LORD ^ftrieth the righteous;
But the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.

6 Upon ^gthe wicked he will rain snares,
Fire and brimstone and scorching wind are ^hthe portion of their cup.

7 For the LORD is righteous, he ⁱloveth
righteousness,
His ^kcountenance doth behold the upright.

PSALMS, XXX, XXXI.

b Ps. 25, 2.	And hast not made my foes b to rejoice over me.	Thou t hast redeemed me, O LORD, thou God of truth.	i Ps. 71, 25.
c Ps. 103, 3; Ex. 15, 25.	2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, And thou hast c healed me.	6 I have hated them that regard k lying vanities;	k Jon. 2, 8; Jer. 2, 5; 8, 19.
d Ps. 56, 13; 86, 13.	3 O LORD, d thou hast brought up my soul from the grave*.	But as for me, in the LORD do I trust.
* Heb. Sheol.	Thou hast kept me alive that I should not e go down to the pit.	7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy;
e Ps. 28, 1, 7; Ps. 97, 12; 1 Chr. 16, 4.	4 Sing f unto the LORD, ye his saints, And give thanks to his holy name f .	For thou hast seen my affliction, Thou hast taken knowledge of the t troubles of my soul	i Ps. 69, 19.
* Heb. his holy memorial.	5 For a moment is passed in his anger, Life in his favour i ;	8 And thou hast m not shut me up into the hand of the enemy;	m 1 Sam. 17, 41—51; ch. 24.
Cor. In his favour is life.	At eventide weeping cometh to lodge, But in the morning is rejoicing.	Thou n hast set my feet in a large place.	n Ps. 18, 19.
	6 And as for me, in my prosperity I said, I shall never be moved.	9 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; For I am in trouble;
g Ps. 80, 17.	7 O LORD, g in thy favour thou hadst made my mountain to stand strong;	Mine e eye is wasted with grief, Yea, my soul and my belly.	o Ps. 6, 7.
h Ps. 104, 25.	Thou h didst hide thy face, and I was troubled.	10 For my life is spent with sorrow, And my years with sighing;
	8 To thee, O LORD, I call, And unto the LORD I make supplication:	My strength faileth because of mine iniquity,	p Ps. 32, 3; 102, 3—5.
	9 What profit is there in my blood, When I go down to the pit?	And p my bones are wasted.	q Ps. 22, 6.
i Ps. 6, 5; Is. 38, 18.	Shall i the dust praise thee? Shall it declare thy truth?	11 I q am become a reproach from all mine enemies,	r Ps. 88, 8, 18; Job 19, 13, 14.
	10 Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me; O LORD, be thou my helper.	And r greatly to my neighbours, And a terror to mine acquaintance:
k 2 Sam. 6, 14; Jer. 31, 4, 13.	11 Thou k hast turned for me my mourning into dancing,	They who saw me in the street fled from me.	s Ps. 88, 4, 5.
l Is. 61, 10.	Thou hast loosed my sackcloth, And l girded me with gladness;	12 I s am forgotten, as a dead man out of mind,
m Ps. 103, 1—5.	12 That my m glory may sing praise to thee, And not be silent.	I am like a broken vessel.	t Jer. 20, 10.
	O LORD, my God, I will give thanks unto thee for ever.	13 For t I have heard the slander of many, Terror n on every side:	u Jer. 6, 25; 20, 3, 4; 46, 15; 49, 29.
	PSALM XXXI.	While they x took counsel together against me,	x 1 Sam. 23, 19, 20; Jer. 11, 19; Mt. 27, 1.
	Prayer for deliverance from danger and distress, with complaints of mental and bodily affliction, and the malice and slander of enemies, and alienation of friends—(14) Confidence in God, and praise for his goodness to the righteous.	They plotted to take away my life.
	For the Chief musician. A Psalm of David.	14 But as for me, I trusted in thee, O LORD, I said, Thou art my God.
a Ps. 25, 2; 71, 1—5.	1 IN a thee, O LORD, have I trusted, Let me never be ashamed;	15 My times are in thy hand:
b Ps. 143, 1.	Deliver b me in thy righteousness;	Deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from my persecutors.
c Ps. 86, 1.	2 Incline c thine ear to me, deliver me speedily.	16 Make v thy face to shine upon thy servant;	y Ps. 4, 6; Num. 6, 25, 26.
	Be thou my rock of stronghold,	Save me, in thy mercy.
d Ps. 71, 3.	For d a place of refuge to save me.	17 Let z me not be ashamed, O LORD!	z Ps. 25, 2.
e Ps. 18, 2.	3 For e thou art my rock and my fortress,	For I call upon thee:
f Ps. 25, 5, 11.	And f for thy name's sake	Let the wicked be ashamed,
g Ps. 23, 15; 1 Sam. ch. 23.	Thou wilt lead me and guide me.	Let a them be silent in the grave*.	a 1 Sam. 2, 9.
h Lk. 23, 46; Ac. 7, 60.	4 Thou wilt bring g me out of the net that they hid for me;	18 Let b the lying lips become dumb,	* Heb. Sheol.
	For thou art my stronghold.	Which speak grievous things against the righteous,	b Ps. 12, 3; Prov. 12, 19.
	5 Into h thy hand I commit my spirit;	Proudly and contemptuously.
		19 How e great is thy goodness,	c Ps. 26, 7—10; 1 Cor. 2, 9.
		Which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee,
		Which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee,
		Before the sons of men!

PSALM XXXIV*.

The safety of the righteous, under God's protection, even in great peril, (21) contrasted with the fate of the ungodly.

A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech, ^a who drove him away, and he departed.

¹ I WILL bless the LORD at all times,
His praise shall be continually in my mouth.

² My soul shall ^b make her boast in the LORD ;

The ^c humble shall hear, and be glad,

³ Magnify ^d the LORD with me,
And let us exalt his name together.

⁴ I ^e sought the LORD, and he answered me,
And he delivered me from all my fears.

⁵ They looked unto him, and ^f were enlightened ;
And let not their faces be ashamed.

⁶ This ^g afflicted one cried, and the LORD heard,
And ^h saved him out of all his troubles.

⁷ The angel of the LORD ⁱ encampeth around them that fear him,
And delivereth them.

⁸ Taste and see that the LORD is good :

Blessed ^j is ^k the man that trusteth in him.

⁹ Fear ^l the LORD, ye his saints !

For ^m there is no want to them that fear him.

¹⁰ Young lions ⁿ : do lack and suffer hunger,
But ⁿ they that seek the LORD shall not want any good.

¹¹ Come, ye children, hearken unto me,
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.

¹² Who is the ^o man that desireth life,
That loveth ^o many days, that he may see good ?

¹³ Keep ^p thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile ;

¹⁴ Depart ^q from evil and do good,
Seek ^r peace and pursue it.

¹⁵ The ^s eyes of the LORD are towards the righteous,

And ^t his ears ^u open to their cry.

¹⁶ The ^v face of the LORD is against them that do evil,

To ^x cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

¹⁷ The righteous cry, and ^y the LORD heareth,
And he delivereth them out of all their troubles.

¹⁸ The ^z LORD is nigh to the broken of heart,
And he saveth the contrite in spirit.

¹⁹ Many ^a are the afflictions of the righteous,
But ^b the LORD delivereth him out of them all ;

²⁰ He keepeth all his bones,
Not ^c one of them is broken.

²¹ Evil shall slay the wicked,
And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.

²² The LORD ^d redeemeth the soul of his servants,
And none of them that trust in him shall be condemned.

PSALM XXXV.

Prayer for help against malicious enemies, and thanksgiving for deliverance.

A Psalm of David.

¹ STRIVE ^a thou, O LORD, with them that strive with me,

Fight ^b against them that fight against me :

² Take hold of shield and buckler,

And stand up for my help ;

³ And draw out the spear,

And ^c stop the way against my pursuers ;
Say unto my soul, I am thy salvation.

⁴ Let ^d them be confounded and put to shame that seek my soul,
Let them ^e be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt.

⁵ Let ^f them be as chaff before the wind,
And let the angel of the LORD thrust them down.

⁶ Let their way be ^g dark and slippery, his holiness.

2 Beautiful ^d for elevation, ^e the joy of the whole earth,
Is mount Zion, ^f on the sides ^g of the

The ^h city of the great King.

3 God ⁱ ^h is known in her palaces for a re-

4 For lo, ⁱ the kings were assembled,

They ^k were troubled, they hasted away ;

6 Trembling ^l took hold upon them there,
Pain, as of a woman in travail.

1 HEAR this, all ye peoples,
Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world ;
2 Both men of low and men of high degree,
Rich and poor, together !

3 My ^a mouth shall speak wisdom,

5 Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil,

6 Those who trust in their wealth,
And boast themselves in the abundance of their riches.

7 No man can by any means redeem a brother,

Nor ^c give to God a ransom for him :
8 (Yea, costly is ^d the redemption of their soul* ,

And it faileth for ever :)

9 That he should still live on for ever,
And ^e should not see corruption †.

10 For he shall see it ;
Wise ^f men die ;

Together the fool and the brutish perish,
And ^g they leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is that their houses are for ever,

Their dwellings to all generations ;
They ^h call their lands after their own names.

12 But ⁱ man, being in honour, abideth not,

PSALM LII.

Rebuke of a malicious and deceitful enemy—(5) God's judgment upon him—(6) The joy of the righteous.

For the Chief musician. Maschil [†] of David, ^a when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David came to the house of Ahimelech.

The goodness of God endureth continually.
² Thy ^c tongue deviseth mischiefs,
Like ^d a sharpened razor, working deceit.
³ Thou lovest evil rather than good,
Lying ^e rather than to speak righteousness.
Selah.

⁴ Thou lovest all ^f devouring words,
O deceitful tongue!

⁵ God ^g will also destroy thee for ever,
He will take thee away, and ^h pluck thee out of thy dwelling place,
And ⁱ uproot thee out of the land of the living. Selah.

⁶ And the ^k righteous shall see, and fear,
And ^l will laugh at him:
⁷ Behold the man that made not God his strength,
But ^m trusted in the abundance of his riches,
And strengthened himself in his wickedness.

⁸ But I am ⁿ like a green olive-tree in the house of God;
¹ ^o trust in the mercy of God, for ever and ever.

⁹ I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast done it;
And I will ^p wait on thy name, for ^q it is good, before thy saints.

PSALM LIII.

Widely spread corruption; and (4) oppression of the righteous—(5) God's vindication of his people

For the Chief musician. Upon Mahalath [†].
Maschil [†] of David.

¹ THE ^a fool saith in his heart, There is no God.

Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity;

There ^b is none that doeth good.

² God looked down from heaven upon the children of men,

To see if there be any that understandeth, that seeketh after God.

³ Every one of them is turned back,
They are altogether become corrupt,
There is none that doeth good, no not one.

⁴ Have the workers of iniquity ^c no knowledge,

Who eat ^d my people as they eat bread?
They call not upon God.

⁵ There ^e were they in great fear, where no fear was;
For God scattered the bones of him that besieged thee;

PSALM LIV.

*Prayer to God against wicked and cruel enemies ;
(1) confidence in his help.*

For the Chief musician. On Neginoth*. Maschil† of David, ^a when the Ziphims came and said to Saul, Doth not David hide himself with us?

¹ SAVE me, O God, ^b by thy name,
And by thy might judge me.
² Hear my prayer, O God,
Give ear to the words of my mouth.
³ For strangers are risen up against me,
And ^c oppressors seek after my soul§;

Selah.

⁴ Behold, ^e God is my helper,
The ^f Lord is with them that uphold my soul¶.

⁵ He will return the evil unto mine enemies :
In thy truth cut them off.

⁶ I ^g will freely sacrifice unto thee,
I will praise thy name, O LORD, ^h for it is good.

⁷ For ⁱ he hath delivered me out of all trouble ;
And ^k mine eye hath seen its desire upon

PSALM LV.

*Bitter sufferings from violence and treachery ;
(16) prayer for deliverance.*

For the Chief musician. On Neginoth*. Maschil‡ of David.

¹ GIVE ear to my prayer, O God,
And ^a hide not thyself from my supplica-
tion ;

² Attend unto me and answer me ;
I ^b mourn in my complaint, and moan aloud ;

³ Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked.
For they cast iniquity upon me§,
And in anger they lay wait for me.

⁴ My heart is writhing within me,
And ^d the terrors of death are fallen upon
me ;

⁵ Fear and trembling are come upon me,
And horror overwhelmeth me.

⁶ And I say, Oh that I had wings like a dove !

I would fly away, and be at rest ;

⁷ Lo, ^e I would flee afar off,
I would lodge in the wilderness : Selah :

⁸ I would hasten my escape,
From ^f the stormy wind and tempest.

⁹ Destroy, O Lord ; ^g divide their tongues ;
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.

¹⁰ Day and night they go round it, upon its walls ;
And mischief and sorrow are in the midst
of it ;

¹¹ Wickedness is in the midst of it,
Oppression and deceit depart not from its streets*.

¹² For it is not an enemy that reproach-eth me,
Or I should bear it ;
Nor is it he that hated me that acteth
proudly against me,
Or I would hide myself from him.

¹³ But thou, a man mine own equal,
My ^h familiar and my intimate friend.

¹⁴ We took sweet counsel together,
And walked to the house of God in the company.

¹⁵ Let death seize upon them,
Let them ⁱ go down alive into the grave†
For wickedness is in their dwellings, in the midst of them.

¹⁶ As for me, ^k I will call upon God,
And the LORD will save me.

¹⁷ Evening † and morning and at noon will I pray and cry aloud‡,
And he will hear my voice.

¹⁸ He delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me ;
For there were many ^m against me.

¹⁹ God will hear, and will answer me them,
(He, who is ⁿ enthroned of old) ; Selah :
Them who have ^o no changes,
And who fear not God.

²⁰ He put forth his hands against those at peace with him ;
He profaned his covenant.

²¹ Smooth were the flatteries ^p of his mouth,
But his heart was war ;
His words were softer than oil,
Yet were they drawn swords.

²² Cast ^q thy burden§ upon the LORD, and he will sustain thee ;
He ^r will never suffer the righteous to be moved.

²³ But thou, O God, wilt bring them down into the pit of destruction ;
Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days :

But as for me, in thee will I trust.

PSALM LVI.

Prayers for help against enemies, mingled with joyful confidence in God.

For the Chief musician. Upon Jonathiel-mechokim*. Michtam† of David, when the Philistines took him in Gath.

1 BE merciful unto me, O God; for man would swallow me up||.

All the day fighting, he oppresseth me.

2 Mine enemies would swallow me up$ all the day.

For many are fighting against me proudly.

3 What b time I am afraid, I will trust in thee.

4 In God I will praise his word, In c God do I put my trust, I will not fear;

What d can flesh do unto me?

5 All the day e they wrest my words, All their thoughts are against me for evil.

6 They gather themselves together, f they lie in wait, They watch my steps, g when they wait for my life||.

7 Shall h they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, O God.

8 Thou tellest i my wanderings; Put thou my tears into thy bottle;

Are k they not in thy book?

9 In the day when I call upon thee then shall mine enemies turn back;

This I know, for l God is for me.

10 In God will I praise his word, In the LORD will I praise his word.

11 In God do I put my trust, I m will not fear;

What can man do unto me?

12 Thy n vows are upon me, O God;

I will render thanksgivings unto thee.

13 For o thou hast delivered my soul from death;

Willt not thou keep my feet from stumbling?

That p I may walk before God in the light of life.

PSALM LVII.

Prayer and praise to God amidst enemies and dangers; (7) assurance of deliverance.

For the Chief musician. Al-taschith†. Michtam* of David, a when he fled from Saul in the cave.

1 BE merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me,

For in thee doth my soul seek refuge;

Yea, b in the shadow of thy wings will I seek refuge,

Until c the calamities be overpast.

2 I will cry unto God most high,

Unto God d who performeth all things for me.

3 He will send from heaven, and save me, When he that would swallow me up* revileth me: Selah:

They ^e bless, each with his mouth,
But in their inward part they curse. Selah.

⁵ My ^f soul, wait thou in silence only upon God,

For ^g my expectation is from him.

⁶ He only is my rock and my salvation,
My high fortress; ^h I shall not be moved.

⁷ In God ⁱ is my salvation and my glory;
The rock of my strength, my refuge, is in God.

⁸ Trust ^k in him at all times, ye people;

Pour out your heart before him:
God is ^l a refuge for us. Selah.

Twice have I heard this:

That ^p power belongeth unto God,
¹² And unto thee, O Lord, belongeth ^q mercy;

For ^r thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

The soul's earnest longings after God—(3) Happiness in communion with Him—(9) Triumph over enemies.

A Psalm of David, ^a when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

¹ O GOD, ^b thou art my God; ^c earnestly do I seek thee!

My ^d soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh pineth for thee,

In a dry and thirsty land, without water;
² So have I seen thee ^e in the sanctuary,

Beholding thy power and thy glory.

³ For thy lovingkindness is better than life;

My lips shall praise thee.

⁴ Thus ^f will I bless thee while I live,
I will lift up my hands in thy name.

PSALM LXV.

Praise to God for his great works in creation and in providence, and (9) especially for his bountiful goodness in the fertility of the earth.

For the Chief musician. A Psalm and Song of David.

1 PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in
Sion,
And ^a unto thee shall the vow be performed.
2 O thou ^b who hearest prayer,
Unto ^c thee shall all flesh come.
3 Iniquities have ^d prevailed against me;
As ^e for our transgressions, Thou thyself
wilt ^f cover them.
4 Blessed! ^f is he whom thou choosest, and bringest near,
That he may dwell in thy courts!
We ^g shall be satisfied with the goodness of

PSALMS, LXVI.—LXVIII.

PSALM LXVI.

A call to the whole world to praise God for his wonderful doings on behalf of his people—(13) Personal acknowledgment of special mercy.

For the Chief musician. A Song or Psalm.

¹ MAKE ^a a joyful noise unto God, all the earth!

² Sing forth the honour of his name, Make his praise glorious.

³ Say unto God, How ^b terrible are thy doings!

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

⁴ All ^c the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing† unto thee; They shall sing to thy name. Selah.

⁵ Come ^d and see the doings of God; He is terrible in his doing towards the children of men.

⁶ He ^e turned the sea into dry land; They went through ^f the river on foot; There ^g did we rejoice in him.

⁷ He ruleth by his power for ever; His eyes keep watch upon the nations;

Let ^h not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah.

⁸ Bless our God, ye peoples, And make the voice of his praise to be heard;

⁹ Who ⁱ holdeth our soul in life, And ^k suffereth not our feet to be moved.

¹⁰ For thou, O God, hast proved us, Thou ^l hast tried us, as silver is tried.

¹¹ Thou ^m broughtest us into the net, Thou laidst affliction upon our loins.

¹² Thou didst cause men to ride over our heads,

We went through fire and through water; But thou broughtest us out into abundance.

¹³ I ⁿ will go into thy house with burnt-offerings,

I ^o will pay unto thee my vows, Which my lips uttered,

And my mouth spake, ^p in my distress.

¹⁵ I will offer unto thee burnt-offerings of fatlings, with the incense of rams, I will sacrifice bullocks with goats. Selah.

¹⁶ Come, and hear, all ye that fear God, And ^q I will declare what he hath done for my soul.

¹⁷ I cried unto him with my mouth, And he was extolled with my tongue.

¹⁸ If ^r I regarded iniquity in my heart, The Lord would not hear me;

¹⁹ But God ^s hath heard me, He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.

²⁰ Blessed be God, Who hath not turned away my prayer, Nor his mercy from me.

PSALM LXVII.

A liturgical Psalm, praying that the God of Israel may be acknowledged and worshipped by the whole world.

For the Chief musician. On Neginoth†. A Psalm or Song.

¹ GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us, And ^a cause his face to shine upon us. Selah.

² That thy way may be known upon earth, Thy ^b salvation among all nations.

³ Let ^c the peoples praise thee, O God, Let all the peoples praise thee!

⁴ Let ^d the nations be glad and shout for joy!

For ^e thou wilt judge the peoples righteously, And the nations upon earth, thou wilt guide them. Selah.

⁵ Let the peoples praise thee, O God, Let all the peoples praise thee!

⁶ The ^f earth: hath yielded her produce.

May God, our own God, bless us, ⁷ May God bless us,

And let ^g all the ends of the earth fear him.

PSALM LXVIII.

A triumphal hymn, commemorating God's former deliverances, (7) when he led Israel through the desert, and victoriously into Canaan; and celebrating (23) His present entry into the sanctuary at Zion.

For the Chief musician. A Psalm or Song of David.

¹ LET ^a God arise, let his enemies be scattered,

And let them that hate him flee before him.

² As ^b smoke is driven,

So drive them away;

As ^c wax is melted before the fire,

Let the wicked perish ^d before God.

³ But ^e let the righteous be glad, let them rejoice before God,

Yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.

⁴ Sing ye unto God, sing praises to his name;

^f Cast up a highway for him who rideth ^g through the deserts,

His ^h name is JAH;

And rejoice before him.

⁵ The ⁱ father of the fatherless, and ^k the judge of the widows,

Is God ^l in his holy habitation.

⁶ God ^m maketh the solitary to dwell in a home;

He ⁿ bringeth out prisoners into prosperity;

But ^o the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

that seek after my soul*,
Let them be turned backward and put to confusion that desire my hurt.
3 Let c them be turned back for a reward of their shame
Who say, Alia, aha!
4 Let all that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee;
And let those that love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified!
5 But d as for me, I am afflicted and needy:
Make e haste unto me, O God!
Thou art my help and my deliverer,
O LORD, make no tarrying.

1 IN a thee, O LORD, do I put my trust,
Let me never be put to confusion.
2 In thy righteousness deliver me, and
b cause me to escape,
Incline c thine ear unto me, and save me.
3 Be thou my strong habitation, whereunto
I may continually resort:
Thou hast d commanded to save me;
For e thou art my rock and my fortress.
4 Deliver f me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked,
Out of the grasp of the unrighteous and violent man.
5 For thou art g my hope, O Lord GOD,
My trust from my youth.
6 On h thee have I leaned from the womb,
Thou art he that took me from the bowels
of my mother:
My i praise is continually of thee.
7 I k am as a wonder unto many;
But l thou art my strong refuge.
8 Let m my mouth be filled with thy praise
And with thy honour all the day.
9 Cast n me not off in the time of old age,
Forsake me not when my strength faileth.
10 For mine enemies speak against me, Yea, o they that watch for my soul take counsel together,
11 Saying, p God hath forsaken him;
Pursue and seize him, for there is no deliverer.
12 O q God, be not far from me,
My God, r haste to my help.
13 Let s the adversaries to my soul be confounded, let them consume away,
Let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt.
14 But as for me, t I will hope continually,
And will yet praise thee more and more.

15 My mouth shall show forth thy righteousness,
And thy salvation, all the day,
For u I know not the numbers thereof.
16 I will go v in the strength of the Lord
GOD,
I w will make mention of thy righteousness,
of thine alone.
17 O God, thou hast taught me from my youth,
And hitherto have I declared thy wondrous works.
18 And even to old age and hoary hairs, O
God, forsake me not,
Until x I have showed thy strength* unto
the age,
Thy power to every one that is to come.

19 And thy a righteousness, O God, is very high,
Who b hast done great things:
O c God, who is like unto thee!
20 Thou, d who hast showed us great and sore troubles,
Wilt e quicken us again;
And thou wilt f bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
21 Thou g wilt increase my greatness,
And thou wilt turn again, to comfort me.
22 Also I will praise thee with the psaltery,
Even thy truth, O my God!
Unto thee will I sing with the harp,
Thou Holy One of Israel.
23 My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing h unto thee,
And my soul, which thou hast redeemed.
24 My tongue also shall talk of i thy righteousness all the day;
For they are confounded, for they are brought to shame, who seek my hurt.

righteous king, that his reign may be prosperous and lasting, and his dominion universal.*

A Psalm of a Solomon.

1 O GOD, b give to the king thy judgments,
And thy righteousness unto c the king's son.
2 He d shall judge thy people with righteousness,
And thy poor with judgment.
3 The e mountains shall bring peace to the people,
And the hills, by righteousness.
4 He f shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy,
And shall g break in pieces the oppressor.

BOOK III.
PSALM LXXIII.

The Psalmist's sore perplexity at seeing the prosperity of the wicked, (17) until Divine teaching shows him the end of their course, (28) in contrast with that of the godly.

A Psalm ^aof Asaph.

¹TRULY God is good to Israel,
To ^bthe pure in heart.
²But as for me, my feet were almost gone,
My ^csteps well nigh slipped.
³For ^dI was envious at the foolish,
When I saw ^ethe prosperity of the wicked.
⁴For their death hath no pangs,
And their ^fstrength is firm.
⁵They ^gare not troubled as other men,
Neither are they plagued like other men.
⁶Therefore pride encompasseth them, as a neck-chain,
Violence ^hcovereth them ⁱas a mantle.
⁷Their ^keyes stand out with fatness,
They have more than heart imagineth*.
⁸They mock, and they wickedly speak oppression,
They speak haughtily†;
⁹They set their mouth in the heavens,
And their tongue walketh through the earth.
¹⁰Therefore his people turn hither,
And waters in fulness are ^jdrunk up by them.
¹¹And they say, ^kHow doth God know?
And is ^lthere knowledge in the Most High?
¹²Behold, these are the wicked,
And, ever prosperous, ^mthey increase in riches.
¹³Verily ⁿin vain have I cleansed my heart,
And washed ^omy hands in innocency;
¹⁴And have been smitten ^pall the day,
And chastened every morning.
¹⁵If I say, I will speak thus,
Behold, I should ^qbe faithless to the generation of thy children.
¹⁶And I meditated to know this;
It was too painful for me‡;
¹⁷Until ^rI went into the sanctuary of God,
And considered ^stheir end.
¹⁸Surely ^tthou settest them in slippery places,
Thou ^ucastest them down into ruin.
¹⁹How are they brought to desolation, ^vas
in a moment!
They pass away, they perish with terrors.
²⁰As ^wa dream when one awaketh,
So, O Lord, ^xwhen thou awakest, thou dost despise their image.

And ^d who may stand before thee when once thou art angry?
⁸ From heaven thou ^e didst cause judgment to be heard,
The ^f earth feared, and was still;
⁹ When God ^g arose to judgment,
To ^h save all the meek of the earth. Selah.
¹⁰ Surely ⁱ the wrath of man shall praise
thee,
The residue of wrath thou girdest on*.
¹¹ Vow, ^k and pay unto the LORD your
God:

Let ^l all that are round about him bring presents unto him who ought to be feared.
¹² He cutteth off the spirit of princes;
He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

PSALM LXXXVII.

Sorrow and despondency (10) conquered by the remembrance of God's former deliverances of his people.

For the Chief musician; for Jeduthun†. A
Psalm of Asaph.

¹ MY voice is ^a unto God, and I will cry, Unto God is my voice; and ^b do thou give ear unto me.
² In ^c the day of my trouble I sought the LORD:
My hand was stretched out in the night,
and ceased not:

My soul ^d refused to be comforted.
³ I ^e remember God, and I mourn,
I muse, and my ^f spirit fainteth. Selah.
⁴ Thou holdest ^g mine eyes watching.
I ^h am troubled, and cannot speak.
⁵ I ⁱ think of the days of old,
The years of ancient times.
⁶ I call to remembrance ^k my song in the night:

I ^l commune with my own heart,
And my spirit maketh search.

⁷ Will the Lord ^m cast off for ever?
And will he be favourable no more?
⁸ Is his mercy clean gone for ever?
Hath the promise failed to all generations?
⁹ Hath God ⁿ forgotten to be gracious?
Or hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.

¹⁰ And I said, This is ^o my infirmity!
But I will remember the years of the right hand† of the Most High!
¹¹ I ^p will remember the deeds of the LORD, Surely I will remember thy wonders from
of old;
¹² And I will meditate on all thy work,
And muse on thy doings.

¹³ Thy way, O God, is in holiness:
Who ^q is a great God as our God?
¹⁴ Thou art ^r the God that doest wonders, Thou madest known thy strength among the peoples.
¹⁵ Thou ^s didst with thine arm redeem thy
people,
The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah.

¹⁶ The ^t waters saw thee, O God,
The waters saw thee, they were afraid,
Yea the depths quaked.
¹⁷ The clouds poured out water,
The skies uttered a voice;
Yea thine ^u arrows went abroad.

PSALM, LXXVIII.

31 And the wrath of God came upon them,
And slew the stoutest of them,
And laid low the young men of Israel.

32 For all this, ^k they sinned still,
And believed not in his wondrous works.

33 And he consumed ^l their days in vanity,
And their years in terror.

34 When ^m he slew them, then they sought
him,

And they returned and sought earnestly after God :

35 And they remembered that ⁿ God was their rock,

And the most high God ^o their redeemer.

36 But they deceived ^p him with their
mouth,

And they lied unto him with their tongue.

37 And their heart was not right with
him,

Neither ^q were they faithful in his covenant.

38 But ^r he, full of compassion, forgave the iniquity, and destroyed them not ;

And many a time he turned his anger
away,

And did not stir up all his wrath.

39 For ^s he remembered that they were flesh,

A ^t breath that passeth away, and cometh not again.

40 How oft did they ^u rebel against him
in the wilderness,

Grieve him in the desert !

41 Yea, ^v again and again they tempted God,
And grieved ^w the Holy One of Israel.

42 They remembered not his hand,
The day when he delivered them from the enemy :

43 How ^y he set his signs in Egypt,
And his wonders in the field of Zoan.

44 He ^z turned their rivers into blood,
So that they could not drink of their streams.

45 He ^a sent the gad-fly among them, and consumed them ;

Also frogs, ^b and wasted them.

46 He ^c gave also their increase unto the caterpillar,

And their labour unto the locust.

47 He ^d destroyed their vines with the hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost.

48 And he gave up their cattle to the hail,
And their herds to the lightnings.

49 He sent upon them the fierceness of his anger,

Wrath and indignation and distress,
By sending evil angels among them ^t.

50 He made a way for his anger ;

He spared not their soul from death,
But gave their life over to the pestilence ;

51 And he ^e smote every firstborn in Egypt,
The ^f firstlings of strength in the tents of ^g Ham.

52 And he made ^h his people to go forth,
like a flock,

And guided them in the wilderness, like a herd.

53 And he ⁱ led them on safely, and they feared not ;

But the sea ^k overwhelmed their enemies.

54 And he brought them to ^l his holy border.

This mountain, ^m which his right hand won,

55 And he drove ⁿ out nations before them ;
And he ^o allotted them an inheritance by line,

And made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.

56 But ^p they tempted and rebelled against God, the Most High,

And kept not his testimonies :

57 And they ^q turned back, and dealt trea-cherously, like their fathers ;

They turned aside ^r like a deceitful bow.

58 For ^s they provoked him to anger with their ^t high places,

And moved ^u him to jealousy with their graven images.

59 God heard ^v this, and was wroth,
And he greatly abhorred Israel.

60 And ^w he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh,
The tent he had pitched among men ;

61 And he delivered ^x his strength into captivity,

And his glory into the enemy's hand.

62 And he ^y gave his people over unto the
sword,

And was wroth with his inheritance.

63 His young men, the fire consumed,
And his virgins were not praised in song*.

64 His ^z priests fell by the sword,

And his ^a widows made no lamentation.

65 And the Lord ^c awoke, as one sleeping,
Like a mighty man that shouteth aloud
from wine ;

66 And he ^d smote his foes backward,
He gave them to eternal reproach.

67 And he ^e rejected the tent of Joseph,
And chose not the tribe of Ephraim ;

68 But ^f he chose the tribe of Judah,

The mount of Zion, ^g which he loved.

69 And he ^h built up his sanctuary like the heights,

Praise to God for the salvation of Israel; (2) manifesting his glory to the whole world.

A Psalm.

^a Ps. 96, 1;
Is. 42, 10.
^b Ps. 72, 18.
^c Is. 59, 16.

For ^b he hath done marvellous things,
His ^c right-hand and his holy arm hath gotten him the victory.
² The LORD ^d hath made known his salvation,
^e His ^e righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.
^f He hath ^f remembered his mercy and his faithfulness towards the house of Israel;
^g All ^g the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.

^h Ps. 95, 1.

⁴ Make a joyful noise unto ^h the LORD,
all the earth!
Break forth, and rejoice, and sing praise ^t.
⁵ Sing; unto the LORD ⁱ with the harp,
With the harp and the voice of a psalm;
^k With ^k trumpets and sound of cornet,
Shout ye before the King, the LORD.
⁷ Let ^l the sea roar, and the fulness thereof,
The world, and they that dwell therein.
⁸ Let the floods ^m clap their hands,
Let the mountains be joyful together,
⁹ Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge
the earth;
With righteousness will he judge the world,
And the peoples with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

The majesty, power and holiness of Israel's divine King—The blessings of his government.

Let the peoples tremble;
^b He ^b sitteth above the cherubim,
Let the earth be moved.
^c The ^c LORD is great in Zion,
And he is high above all the peoples.
^d Let them praise ^d thy great and terrible name;
^e Holy ^e is He.
^f And the ^f King's strength loveth judgment;
Thou dost establish equity,
Thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

⁵ Exalt ye the LORD our God,
And worship at ^g his footstool;
Holy is He.

⁶ Moses and Aaron among his priests,
And Samuel among them that called upon his name,
They ^h called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

⁷ He ⁱ spake unto them in the pillar of cloud;
They kept his testimonies,
And the statute ^j that he gave them.
⁸ Thou answeredst them, O LORD our
God;
Thou wast a forgiving God,
Though taking ^k vengeance on their doings.

⁹ Exalt ye the LORD our God,
And worship at ⁱ his holy mount;
For the LORD our God is holy.

A Psalm of David.

¹ I ^a WILL sing of mercy and judgment,
Unto thee, O LORD, will I sing*.

² I will ^b behave myself wisely in a perfect way.
When wilt thou come unto me?
I will ^c walk within my house in the integrity of my heart,
³ I ^d will not set any wicked thing before mine eyes.

I hate the work of them that turn aside,
It shall not cleave to me.
⁴ A froward heart shall depart from me,
I ^e will not know a wicked person;

PSALMS, CHII, CIV.

And all that is within me, bless his holy name!

² Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits!

³ Who ^b forgiveth all thine iniquities,
Who ^c healeth all thy diseases,

⁴ Who ^d redeemeth thy life from destruction,
Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness
and tender mercies,

⁵ Who ^e satisfieth thy mouth ^{*} with good things;

Thy ^f youth is renewed like the eagle's.

⁶ The LORD ^g executeth righteousness,
And judgment for all the oppressed.

⁷ He ^h made known his ways unto Moses,
His acts unto the children of Israel.

⁸ The LORD is ⁱ merciful and gracious,
Slow ^k to anger and plenteous in mercy.

⁹ He will not always chide,
Neither ^l will he keep his anger for ever.

¹⁰ He ^m hath not dealt with us according to our sins,
Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.

¹¹ For ⁿ as the heavens are high above
the earth,
So great is his mercy toward them that fear
him.

¹² As far as the East is from the West ^t,
So far hath he ^o removed our transgressions from us.

¹³ Like ^p as a father pitieth his children,
So the LORD pitieth them that fear him.

¹⁴ For he knoweth our frame,
He ^q remembereth that we are dust.

¹⁵ As for man, ^r his days are as grass,
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth;
¹⁶ For ^s the wind passeth over it, and it is gone,

And ^t its place knoweth it no more.

¹⁷ But ^u the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,

And his righteousness unto children's children;

¹⁸ To ^v such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his commandments to do them.

¹⁹ The LORD hath established his throne
in the heavens,

And his ^w kingdom ruleth over all.

²⁰ Bless the LORD, ^x ye his angels,
That excel in strength, that do his commandments,

Hearkening unto the voice of his word!

²¹ Bless ye the LORD, all ^y his hosts,

His ^b ministers, that do his pleasure!

²² Bless the LORD, all his works,
In all places of his dominion!

Bless the LORD, O my soul!

PSALM CIV.

Praise to the Almighty Creator and Preserver of all things; which universally display his power, wisdom and goodness.

¹ BLESS ^a the LORD, O my soul!

O LORD, my God, thou art very great,
Thou art ^b clothed with honour and majesty.

² Who coverest thyself with ^c light, as with
a mantle,
Who stretchest ^d out the heavens, like a curtain ^{*};

³ Who ^e layeth the beams of his chambers
in the waters,
Who maketh clouds his chariot,
Who ^f goeth about upon the wings of the wind;

⁴ Who maketh ^g the winds his messengers ^t,
The flaming fire his ministers.

⁵ He set the earth on its ^h foundations;
It ⁱ shall not be removed for ever.

⁶ Thou ^k coverest it with the deep, as with
a garment,
The waters stood above the mountains;

⁷ At thy rebuke they fled,
At the voice of thy thunder they hasted
away—

⁸ The mountains rose, the valleys sank—
Unto ^l the place which thou hadst founded for them.

⁹ Thou ^m didst set a bound, that they cannot pass over;
That ⁿ they return not, to cover the earth.

¹⁰ He sendeth springs in the valleys;
They flow between the mountains;

¹¹ They give drink to every beast of the field,

The wild asses quench their thirst.
¹² Above them dwell the birds of heaven,
Which sing among the branches.

¹³ He ^o watereth the mountains from his chambers:

The ^p earth is filled with the fruit of thy works.

¹⁴ He ^q causeth grass to grow for the cattle,

And herb for the service of man,
Bringing forth bread out of the earth;

¹⁵ And with ^r wine he maketh glad the heart of man,

With oil making his face to shine,
And with bread he strengtheneth man's heart.

1 Ge. 41. 11
-16, 25.

10 The word of the LORD had proved him.
20 The king sent and loosed him,
The ruler of the peoples, and let him go free.

11 He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his substance;
22 To bind his princes at his pleasure,
And to teach his senators wisdom.

23 And Israel came into Egypt,
And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
24 And he made his people fruitful exceedingly,
And he made them stronger than their enemies.

25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
To deal subtilly with his servants.
26 He sent Moses his servant,
And Aaron whom he had chosen.

27 They showed among them his signs,
And wonders, in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
And they rebelled not against his word.

29 He turned their waters into blood,
And caused their fish to die
30 Their land swarmed with frogs,
In the chambers of their kings.

31 He spake, and the gadfly came
And gnats* in all their borders.
32 He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.

33 And he smote their vines and their fig trees,
And brake the trees of their borders.

34 He spake, and the locusts came,
And the caterpillars, and that without number,
35 And they ate up every herb in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.

36 And he smote every firstborn in their land,
The prime of all their strength.

37 And he brought them forth, with silver and gold;
And there was not a feeble person among his tribes.

38 Egypt was glad when they departed,
For the dread of them had fallen upon them.

39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
And fire to give light in the night.

40 They asked, and he brought quails,
And he satisfied them with the bread of heaven.

41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out,
They ran in the dry places, like a river.

PSALM CVI.

Praise and prayer, introducing (6) a confession of Israel's ungrateful returns for God's mercies, (7) in Egypt, and at the Red Sea, (13) in the desert, and (34) after their settlement in Canaan; concluding with (40) an acknowledgment of the justice of God's chastisements, and (47) a prayer for restoration.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD!
Give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good,
For his mercy is for ever.

2 Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD?
Who can shew forth all his praise?
3 Blessed are they that keep judgment,
He that doeth righteousness at all times.

4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favour thou bearest unto thy people,
Visit me with thy salvation;
5 That I may see the good of thy chosen,
That I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation,
That I may glory with thine inheritance.

6 We have sinned, with our fathers,
We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers in Egypt considered not thy wonders,
They remembered not the multitude of thy mercies;
But rebelled at the Sea, at the Red Sea.
8 Yet he saved them, for his name's sake,
To make known his mighty power;
9 And he rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up;
And he led them through the depths, as through the wilderness.

10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them,
And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.

11 And the waters covered their enemies,
There was not one of them left.
12 Then believed they his words,
They sang his praise.

13 They soon forgot his doings,
They waited not for his counsel;

BOOK V.

PSALM CVII.

A call to all who have experienced God's protection and deliverance to praise him for his merciful answers to their prayers.

1 GIVE ^a thanks unto the LORD, for he is good,
For his mercy is for ever.

2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom ^b he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;

e Ps. 106. 47: Ezr. 39: 27, 28.	3 And ^e gathered them out of the lands, From the East and from the West, From the North and from the South.	23 They that go down to the sea in ships, That do business in great waters,	a Ps. 142. 8: Jon. 1. 4.
d Deu. 32. 10.	4 They ^d wandered in the wilderness, in a desert-way, They found no city of habitation.	24 These see the works of the LORD, And his wonders in the deep.
e Ps. 50. 15.	5 Hungry and thirsty, Their soul fainted in them.	25 For he commandeth, and ^e raiseth the stormy wind, Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
f Ps. 77. 20: Ezra 8: 21-23.	6 And they ^e cried unto the LORD in their trouble; He delivered them out of their distresses,	26 They mount up to the heaven, They go down again to the depths, Their ^e soul is melted because of trouble;	z Ps. 110. 28: Jos. 2: 11.
g Jer. 31. 14: Mt. 5. 6: Lk. 1. 33.	7 And he ^f led them forth by a right way, That they might go to a city of habita- tion;	27 They reel and stagger like a drunken man, And are at their wit's end.
A Is. 9: 2: Lk. 1: 79.	8 Let them praise the LORD, for his mercy, And his wonderful works to the children of men!	28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, And he bringeth them out of their dis- tresses;	y Ps. 69: 9: Mt. 8: 26.
i Is. 63. 10, 11: Lam. 5: 42.	9 For ^g he satisfieth the longing soul, And filleth the hungry soul with good.	29 He ^y maketh the storm a calm, So that the waves thereof are still;
k 2 Chr. 33: 10. Lk. 7: 50.	10 Such as sat ^h in darkness and in the shadow of death, Bound in affliction and iron;	30 Then are they glad because they are quiet; And he bringeth them to their desired haven.	z Ps. 22. 22, 25: 111. 1.
l Ps. 103. 45: Ne. 9. 37.	11 Because they ⁱ rebelled against the words of God, And contemned ^k the counsel of the Most High;	31 Let them praise the LORD for his mercy. And his wonderful works to the children of men;
m Is. 63. 5.	12 And he ^l brought down their heart with labour, They fell down, and there was ^m no helper.	32 And let them exalt him ^z in the congre- gation of the people, And praise him in the assembly of the elders!
n Ps. 146. 7.	13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble; He saved them out of their distresses;	33 He ^a turneth rivers into a wilderness, And water-springs into dry ground;	a 1 Ki. 17. 1-7: Nah. 1: 4.
o Is. 45. 1, 2. * or, copper.	14 He ⁿ brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, And brake asunder their bands.	34 A ^b fruitful land into barrenness, For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.	b Ge. 13. 10, 13: 19. 25: Deu. 29: 25.
p Ps. 57. 17: Jer. 2: 19.	15 Let them praise the LORD for his mercy, And his wonderful works to the children of men!	35 He ^c turneth the wilderness into a pool of water, And a dry land into water-springs.	c Ps. 114. 8: Is. 41. 18.
q Job 33. 19, 30.	16 For he brake ^o the gates of brass*, And cut asunder the bars of iron.	36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, And they prepare a city of habitation;	d Ex. 1: 7; Deu. 28. 4.
r 2 Ki. 20. 4, 5: Mt. 8: 8.	17 Fools, ^p because of their way of trans- gression, And because of their iniquities, are af- flicted;	37 And sow fields, and plant vineyards; And they yield fruits of increase.	e Ex. 9: 3 -7: Deu. 7: 14.
s Ps. 56. 13: 103: 4. * or, their pits.	18 Their ^q soul abhorreth all manner of food, And they draw near to the gates of death.	38 And he ^d blesseth them, and they multi- ply greatly; And he suffereth ^e not their cattle to de- crease.	f 2 Ki. 10. 32.
t Ps. 116. 17: 11b. 13: 15.	19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble; He saveth them out of their distresses;	39 Again ^f they are diminished and brought low, Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.	g Job 12. 21-25.
	20 He ^r sendeth his word, and healeth them, And ^s delivereth them from their destruc- tions.	40 He ^g poureth contempt upon princes, And causeth them to wander in a pathless waste;	h Ps. 113. 7: 8: 1 Sam 2: 8.
	21 Let them praise the LORD for his mercy, And his wonderful works to the children of men!	41 And he ^h setteth the poor on high from affliction, And he maketh families, like flocks.	i Ps. 52. 6.
	22 And let ^t them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving, And recount his works with rejoicing.	42 The ⁱ righteous see it and rejoice, And all ^k iniquity shutteth her mouth.	k Job 5. 16.

PSALMS, CVII.—CIX.

1 Hos. 14. 9.	⁴³ Whoso ² is wise, let him observe these things, And let them understand the mercies of the LORD.	³ And they have encompassed me with words of hatred, And fought against me ^c without cause. ⁴ For my love they are my adversaries : But ^d I give myself unto prayer ; ⁵ And they have rewarded me evil for good, And hatred for my love.	^c Ps. 69. 4; John 15. 25. ^d Ps. 55. 16, 17; 69. 13; Dan. 6. 10.
* This Psalm consists of portions of Ps. 57. 7—11; and Ps. 60. 5—12; with variations. ^a Ps. 57. 7—11. [†] or, will harp.	PSALM CVIII*. Praise to God for his love and faithfulness— (⁶) Prayer for his help; and (⁷) confidence in his promises. A Song or Psalm of David. ¹ O ^a GOD, my heart is fixed ; I will sing and give praise [†], even with my glory. ² Awake, O psalter and harp ! I will awake the morning-dawn:	⁶ Set thou a wicked man over him, And let an adversary * stand at his right hand. ⁷ When he is judged, let him be condemned, And let his prayer become sin. ⁸ Let ^e his days be few, Let ^f another take his office. ⁹ Let ^g his children be fatherless, And his wife a widow. ¹⁰ Let ^h his children continually wander and beg, And let them seek their bread far from their desolate places.[†] ¹¹ Let the extortioner catch all that he hath, And let strangers despoil his labour. ¹² Let there be none to extend mercy unto him, Neither let there be any to favour his fatherless children.	* or, Satan; see Zec. 3. 1. ^e Ps. 55. 23. ^f Ac. 1. 20. ^g Jer. 18. 18—21. ^h 2 Sam. 3. 29. [†] or, ruined homes.
^b Ps. 60. 5—12.	⁶ That ^b thy beloved ones may be delivered, Save with thy right hand, and answer me. ⁷ God spake in his holiness : I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, And mete out the valley of Succoth ; ⁸ Gilead is mine, Manasseh is mine, And Ephraim is the defence of my head, Judah is my ^c lawgiver ; ⁹ Moab is my washpot, Upon Edom will I cast out my sandal, Over Philistia will I triumph. ¹⁰ Who will bring me into the strong city ? Who will lead me into Edom ? ¹¹ Hast not thou, O God, cast us off ? And thou, O God, goest not forth with our armies. ¹² Do thou give us help from trouble ! For vain is man's deliverance. ¹³ Through God we shall do valiantly, And he will tread down our enemies.	¹³ Let ⁱ his posterity be cut off, In the next generation let their ^k name be blotted out. ¹⁴ Let ^l the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with the LORD, And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out ; ¹⁵ Let them be ^m before the LORD continually, And may he ⁿ cut off the memory of them from the earth ; ¹⁶ Because he remembered not to show mercy, But persecuted the poor and needy man, Even to slay the broken in heart. ¹⁷ And he loved cursing, and it came unto him, And he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him. ¹⁸ And he clothed himself with cursing as with his garment, And it came like water into his bowels, And like oil into his bones ; ¹⁹ Let it be unto him as the garment which he weareth, And for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually.	ⁱ Ps. 37. 28; Job 18. 19. ^k Deu. 29. 20; Pro. 10. 7. ^l Ex. 20. 5; Jer. 18. 23. ^m Hos. 7. 2. ⁿ Ps. 34. 16; Job 18. 17.
^c Ge. 49. 10. [†] or, sceptre.	PSALM CIX. Prayer against enemies; concluding with (30) thanksgiving for deliverance. For the Chief musician. A Psalm of David. ¹ O ^a GOD of my praise, keep not thou silence, ² For the mouth of the wicked, and the mouth of deceit, have they opened against me, They ^b have spoken against me with a lying tongue ;	¹⁹ Let it be unto him as the garment which he weareth, And for the girdle wherewith he is girded continually. ²⁰ This ^o is [†] the reward of mine adversaries from the LORD, And of them that speak evil against my soul.	^o Ps. 40. 14, 15. [†] or, Let this be.

²¹ But do thou for me, O God, the Lord,
for thy name's sake,
Because thy mercy is good, deliver thou
me.

²² For ^p I am poor and needy,
And my heart is wounded within me.

²³ I am gone, ^q like a shadow when it lengtheneth,
I am driven away as the locust.

²⁴ My knees are weak through fasting,
And my flesh faileth of fatness.

²⁵ And I ^r am become a scorn unto them,
They look upon me, ^s they shake their head.

²⁶ Help me, O LORD, my God,
Save me, according to thy mercy;

²⁷ That ^t they may know that this is thy hand;

Thou, LORD, hast done it.

²⁸ They ^u will curse, but thou wilt bless;
When they arise, they shall be ashamed,
But ^v thy servant shall rejoice.

²⁹ Let ^w mine adversaries be clothed with shame,
And let them cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle.

³⁰ I will thank the LORD greatly with my
mouth,
Yea ^x I will praise him among the multitude.

³¹ For he will stand at the right hand of the needy,
To ^a save him from those that condemn his soul.

PSALM CX.

A divine oracle, (1) assuring to the King of Zion a share in Jehovah's regal dignity, (4) a royal and eternal priesthood, and (5) victory over all his enemies.

A Psalm of David.

¹ THE ^a LORD said unto my Lord:
Sit thou at my right hand,
Until ^b I make thine enemies
A footstool for thy feet.

² The sceptre of thy might
Will the LORD send forth out of Zion;
Rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

³ Thy people are willing * in the day of thy power,
In the beauties of holiness;
From the womb of the morning,
Thou hast the ^d dew of thy young men.

⁴ The LORD hath sworn, and he will not repent;
Thou ^e art a priest for ever,
After the order of Melchizedek.

⁵ The Lord, at thy right hand,
Hath smitten kings ^g in the day of his wrath.

⁶ He ^h shall judge among the nations,
He ⁱ shall fill the land with dead bodies,
He shall ^k smite the head over a great land.

⁷ He shall drink of the brook in the way;
Therefore shall he lift up the head.

PSALM CXI*.

*The righteousness and goodness of Jehovah—
(6) His mighty deeds on behalf of his people—
(7) The excellency of his law.*

I ^a will give thanks unto the LORD with my whole heart,

In ^b the assembly of the upright and the congregation.

² The ^c works of the LORD are great, Sought out by all them that have pleasure therein.

³ His work is honourable and glorious,
And his righteousness endureth for ever.

⁴ He hath made a ^d memorial for his wonderful works;
The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.

⁵ He hath given food unto them that fear
him;
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

⁶ He ^e hath showed to his people the might of his works;
To give ^f them the heritage of the nations.

⁷ The works of his hands are ^g verity and judgment,
All his commandments are faithful;
⁸ They ^h stand fast for ever and ever
Done ⁱ in truth and uprightness.

⁹ He ^k sent redemption for his people;
He ^l hath established his covenant for ever:
Holy ^m and awful is his name.

¹⁰ The ⁿ fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom,
A ^o good understanding have all they that do his commandments;
His praise endureth for ever.

PSALM CXII.

The character and works of the godly man; and his happiness.

PSALM CXIV.

God's wonderful doings for his people while leading them from Egypt to the promised land.

1 WHEN Israel went out of Egypt,
 The house of Jacob from a people of strange language,

² Judah became his sanctuary,
 Israel his dominions.

³ The ^a sea saw, and fled,
 The Jordan ^b turned back;
⁴ The ^c mountains skipped like rams,
 The hills like lambs.

⁵ What ^d aileth thee, O sea, that thou fleest?
 Thou Jordan, that thou turnest back?
⁶ Ye mountains, that ye skip like rams,
 Ye hills, like lambs?

⁷ Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord,
 At the presence of the God of Jacob;
⁸ Who ^e turned the rock into a pool of water,
 The flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.*

Prayer that the Supreme Ruler will vindicate his own honour against the scoffs of the heathen—(9) Exhortation to Israel, to trust in him (12) whose past mercies are the pledges of future.

1 NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
 But unto thy name give glory,
 For thy mercy and for thy truth.
² Wherefore ^a should the heathen say,
 Where now is their God?
³ But ^b our God is in the heavens;
 He ^c hath done whatsoever he pleased.

⁴ Their ^d idols are silver and gold.
 The work of man's hands.

⁵ They have a mouth, but they speak not,
 Eyes have they, but they see not;
⁶ They have ears, but they hear not,
 A nose have they, but they smell not;
⁷ They have hands, but they handle not,
 Feet have they, but they walk not,
 They speak not through their throat.

⁸ Like unto them ^e are they that make them,
 Every one that trusteth in them.

⁹ O Israel, trust thou in the LORD:
 He ^f is their help and their shield.
¹⁰ O house of Aaron, trust ye in the LORD:
 He is their help and their shield.
¹¹ Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD:
 He is their help and their shield.

¹² The LORD ^g hath been mindful of us,
 he will bless us;
 He will bless the house of Israel,
 He will bless the house of Aaron;
¹³ He ^h will bless them that fear the LORD,
 Both small and great.
¹⁴ The LORD increase you more,
 You and your children.

16 The ^k heavens are the LORD's heavens,
And ^l the earth hath he given to the children of men.

17 The ^m dead praise not the LORD*,
Nor all they that go down into silence;

18 But ⁿ we will bless the LORD,
From this time forth even for evermore.

Praise ye the LORD *!

PSALM CXVI.

Thanksgiving to God for deliverance from peril of death, and other great mercies—(12) Grateful self-consecration to his service.

1 I ^a LOVE the LORD, because he heareth
My voice and my supplications;
2 For he hath inclined his ear unto me;
And I will call upon ^{him} as long as I live.

3 The ^b cords of death encompassed me,
And the pains of Sheol† gat hold upon
me;

4 I found trouble and sorrow.
5 Then called I upon the name of the LORD:

O LORD, I beseech thee, ^c deliver my soul!
6 Gracious is the LORD, and ^d righteous,
Yea, our God is merciful.

7 The LORD preserveth the simple;
I was brought low, and he helped me.

8 Return unto thy ^e rest, O my soul,
For ^f the LORD hath dealt bountifully with
thee.

9 For ^g thou hast delivered my soul from death,
Mine ^h eyes from tears, and ⁱ my feet from falling.

10 I will ^k walk before the LORD,
In the land of the living.

11 I ^l believed, therefore have I spoken;
As for me, I was greatly afflicted:

12 As for me, I ^m said in my haste,
All ⁿ men are liars.

13 What ^o shall I render unto the LORD
For all his benefits towards me?

14 I will take the cup of salvation,
And call upon the name of the LORD.

15 I ^p will pay my vows unto the LORD,
Yea, in the presence of all his people.

16 Precious ^q in the sight of the LORD
Is the death of his saints†.

17 O LORD, truly ^r I am thy servant,
I am thy servant, the son of thy hand-maid;

Thou hast loosed my bonds.

18 I will offer to thee ^s the sacrifice of thanksgiving,

And will call upon the name of the LORD.

19 I will pay my vows unto the LORD,

Yea, in the presence of all his people;

20 In the courts of the LORD's house,

In the midst of thee, O Jerusalem.

Praise ye the LORD *!

PSALM CXVII.

A call to all nations to praise Jehovah for his mercy and truth towards Israel.

1 PRAISE ^a the LORD, all ye nations,
Laud him, all ye peoples!

2 For his mercy is great towards us,
And ^b the truth of the LORD is for ever.

Praise ye the LORD †!

PSALM CXVIII.

Praise to (1) the ever-merciful Jehovah, for (5) hearing the prayers of his people, and (10) delivering them from their enemies.

1 GIVE thanks unto the LORD, for he is good,

For his mercy endureth for ever;

2 Oh let ^a Israel say,

That his mercy endureth for ever;

3 Oh let the house of Aaron say,

That his mercy endureth for ever;

4 Oh let them who fear the LORD say,

That his mercy endureth for ever.

5 I ^b called upon the LORD in distress;
The LORD answered me, and ^c set me in a large place.

6 The ^d LORD is for me; I will not fear;
What can man do unto me?

7 The ^e LORD is for me, among my helpers,
And I shall ^f see my desire upon them that hate me.

8 It ^g is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man;

9 It ^h is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.

10 All ⁱ nations compassed me about;
But in the name of the LORD I shall destroy them.

11 They ^k compassed me about, yea they compassed me about;

But in the name of the LORD I shall destroy them.

12 They compassed me about like bees,

They are quenched ^l as the fire of thorns;

For ^m in the name of the LORD I shall destroy them.

13 Thou didst thrust sorely at me, that I might fall,

But the LORD helped me.

14 The LORD ⁿ is ^o my strength and song,
And he is become my salvation.

15 The ^p voice of rejoicing and salvation
Is in the tents of the righteous;
The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly:

	And let me not be ashamed of my hope.	And upright are thy judgments.	i Ps. 19. 7 -9.
s Ps. 17. 5.	117 Hold ^s thou me up, and I shall be safe,	138 Thou hast commanded thy ⁱ testimonies in righteousness,
	And I shall have respect unto thy statutes continually.	And exceeding faithfulness.	k Ps. 69. 9; John 2. 17.
	118 Thou castest off all them that err from thy statutes,	139 My ^k zeal consumeth me,	l Ps. 12. 6.
	For their deceit is a lie.	Because mine enemies forget thy words.
t Eze. 22. 16-22.	119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth ^t like dross,	140 Thy ^l word is very pure,	m Ps. 22. 6.
u Hab. 2. 16.	Therefore I love thy testimonies.	And thy servant loveth it.
	120 My ^u flesh trembleth for fear of thee,	141 I am small ^m and despised ;	n Is. 51. 6.
	And I am afraid of thy judgments.	I forget not thy precepts.	o John 17. 17.
	▽ AIN.	142 Thy righteousness ⁿ is right for ever,	p Ps. 88. 3.
x Ps. 18. 20 -24; 2 Sam. 8. 15.	121 I ^x have done judgment and justice ;	And thy law is ^o the truth.
	Thou wilt not leave me to mine oppressors.	143 Trouble ^p and anguish have taken hold on me ;
	122 Be surety for thy servant for good ;	Thy commandments are my delights.
	Let not the proud oppress me.	144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is for ever ;
y Is. 58. 14.	123 Mine ^y eyes fail for thy salvation,	Give me understanding, and I shall live.
	And for the word of thy righteousness.	▷ KOPH.
	124 Deal with thy servant according to thy mercy,	145 I call with my whole heart ; answer me, O LORD ;
	And teach me thy statutes.	I will keep thy statutes.
	125 I am thy servant ; give me understanding.	146 I call unto thee ; save me,	q Ps. 5. 3; 88. 13.
	That I may know thy testimonies.	And I shall keep thy testimonies.	* or, wait for.
	126 It is time for the LORD to act ;	147 I ^q am before the morning-dawn, and cry,	r Ps. 63. 1. 6.
	They have made void thy law.	I hope in [*] thy word.
	127 Therefore I love thy commandments,	148 Mine ^r eyes are before the night watches,
	Above gold, yea above fine gold.	That I may meditate on thy word.
	128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right,	149 Hear my voice according to thy merey,
	I hate every false way.	O LORD, quicken me, according to thy judgment.
	▷ PE.	150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief,
	129 Thy testimonies are wonderful ;	They are far from thy law.
	Therefore doth my soul keep them.	151 Thou art ^s near, O LORD,	s Ps. 145. 18.

		That thou hast founded them ^t for ever.

	7 RESIL.
u Ps. 9, 13.	153 See thou ^u mine affliction, and deliver me, For I do not forget thy law.	174 I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD, And thy law is my delight.
x 1 Sam. 24, 15.	154 Plead ^x my cause, and deliver me, Quicken me, according to thy word.	175 Let my soul live, and praise thee, And ⁱ let thy judgments help me.	i Is. 26, 8.
y Job 21, 14, 15.	155 Salvation ^y is far from the wicked, For ^y they seek not thy statutes.	176 I ^k have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek ⁱ thy servant,	k Is. 53, 6; 1 Pet. 2, 25.
c Ps. 5, 1, 2; 25, 19.	156 Many are thy tender mercies, O LORD; Quicken me, according to thy judgments.	For I do not forget thy commandments.	i Lk. 19, 10.
a Ps. 44, 18.	157 Many ^a are my persecutors and mine enemies; I have not ^a declined from thy testimonies.
	158 I beheld the transgressors, and I was grieved, Because they kept not thy word.
b 2 Ki. 20, 5.	159 See ^b how I love thy precepts, Quicken me, O LORD, according to thy mercy.
	160 The sum of thy word is truth, And every one of thy righteous judgments is for ever.
	8 SCHIN.

		For I do not forget thy commandments.
		PSALM CXX.
		Prayer for deliverance from treacherous neighbours.
		A Song of ^u the goings up ^t .
		1 IN my distress I cried unto the LORD, And he answered me.
		2 Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, From a deceitful tongue.
		3 What shall be given unto thee, or what shall be done unto thee, Thou deceitful tongue?
		4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, With burning coals of juniper ^t .
		5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in ^a Mes- sech,
		I dwell near ^b the tents of Kedar?
		6 My soul hath long dwelt Near him that hateth peace.
		7 I am peace, But when I speak, they are for war.
		PSALM CXXI.
		Joyful assurance of safety under the care of the almighty Creator of heaven and earth, (5) who is the Keeper of Israel.
		A Song of ^u the goings up.
		1 I ^a WILL lift up mine eyes unto the mountains; From whence shall my help come?
		2 My ^b help is from the LORD, Who made heaven and earth.
		3 May he ^c not suffer thy foot to be moved, He ^d who keepeth thee, let him not slumber!
		4 Behold, he who keepeth Israel Doth not slumber or sleep.
		5 The LORD is thy keeper, The LORD is ^e thy shade at thy right hand.
		6 The ^f sun shall not smite thee by day, Nor the moon by night.
		7 The LORD ^g will preserve thee from all evil, He will preserve thy soul:
		8 The LORD will preserve ^h thy going out and thy coming in, From this time forth, even for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

The gladness of going up to the holy city for worship—(3) Her privileges and glory—(6) Prayer for her prosperity.

A Song of * the goings up. Of David.

1 I WAS ^a glad when they said† unto me,

Let ^b us go to the house of the LORD.

2 Our feet shall stand;

Within thy gates, O Jerusalem!

3 Jerusalem, which art built,

As a city that is compact together:

4 Whither ^c the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD,

An ordinance for Israel^{||},

To give thanks unto the name of the LORD.

5 For ^d there are set thrones for judgment, Thrones of the house of David.

6 Pray ye for the peace of Jerusalem;

They shall ^e prosper that love thee!

7 Peace be within thy walls,

Prosperity within thy palaces!

8 For my brethren and companions' sakes,

I will now say, Peace be within thee!

9 For the sake of the house of the LORD, our God

I will ^f seek thy good.

PSALM CXXIII*.

Prayer under scornful oppression.

A Song of† the goings up.

1 UNTO thee ^a do I lift up mine eyes,

O ^b thou who dwellest in the heavens!

2 Behold, as the eyes of servants are towards the hand of their masters,

As the eyes of a maid-servant towards the hand of her mistress;

So our eyes ^c are towards the LORD our God,

Until he have mercy upon us.

3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us,

For ^d we are exceedingly filled with contempt.

4 Our soul is exceedingly filled With the scorn of those that are at ease,

With the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXIV.

Thanksgiving for deliverance from imminent danger.

A Song of† the goings up. Of David.

1 IF it had not been ^a the LORD who was on our side—

Oh let Israel say—

2 If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,

When men ^b rose up against us;

3 Then they had ^c swallowed us up alive, When their wrath was kindled against us;

4 Then ^d the waters had overwhelmed us, The stream had gone over our soul;

5 Then the proud waters Had gone over our soul.

6 Blessed be the LORD,

Who ^e hath not given us a prey to their teeth.

7 Our soul is like ^f a bird escaped from the snare of the fowlers,

The snare is broken, and we are escaped.

8 Our ^g help is in the name of the LORD, The Maker of heaven and earth.

PSALM CXXV*.

The safety of those who trust in the Lord.

A Song of† the goings up.

1 THEY that trust in the LORD are as mount Zion,

Which shall not be moved, it abideth for ever.

2 The mountains are round about Jerusalem;

And ^a the LORD is round about his people, Henceforth, even for evermore.

3 For the rod† of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous,

Lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.

4 Do ^b good, O LORD, unto the good, And to them that are ^c upright in their hearts.

5 But ^d as for those that turn ^d aside unto their crooked ways,

The LORD will lead them away with the workers of iniquity.

Peace ^e be upon Israel.

PSALM CXXVI*.

Grateful joy of the returned exiles; and (4) prayer for complete restoration.

A Song of† the goings up.

1 WHEN ^a the LORD turned again the captivity of Zion,

We were like them that dream;

2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, And our tongue with singing.

Then ^b said they among the nations:

The LORD hath done great things for these!

3 The LORD hath done great things for us;

Whereof we are glad.

4 Turn again our captivity†, O LORD,

As streams in the south.

5 They that ^c sow in tears

Shall reap in joy.

6 He that ^d goeth forth weeping,

Bearing the seed for sowing,

Shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, Bringing his sheaves.

PSALM CXXVII.

Man's entire dependence upon God for safety and success.

A Song of* the goings up. Of Solomon.

¹ EXCEPT ^a the LORD build the house,
They labour in vain that build it;
Except ^b the LORD keep the city,
The keeper watcheth in vain.

² Vain is it for you who rise up early,
who sit up late,
Who ^c eat the bread of sorrows;
So he giveth to his beloved sleep†.

³ Lo, ^d children, are a heritage from the LORD,
The fruit of the womb is his reward.
⁴ As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
So are the sons of youth.

⁵ Happy is the man that hath filled his quiver with them,
They shall not be ashamed when they speak with enemies ^e in the gate.

PSALM CXXVIII.

The happiness of the man who fears and serves God.

A Song of|| the goings up.

¹ BLESSED § is ^a every one who feareth
the LORD,
Who ^b walketh in his ways.

² For ^c thou shalt eat the labour of thy hands;
Happy art thou, and it shall be well for
thee.

³ Thy wife shall be like a fruitful vine, in the inner part of thy house,
Thy children ^d like olive plants, round about thy table.

⁴ Behold, surely thus shall the man be blessed
That feareth the LORD.

⁵ May the ^e LORD bless thee out of Zion;
And ^f mayest thou behold the good of Jerusalem,
All the days of thy life;

⁶ Yea, mayest thou see thy children's children!

Peace ^g be upon Israel!

PSALM CXXIX.

Israel's many past deliverances an earnest of future mercies and final victory.

A Song of* the goings up

¹ MANY a time ^a have they oppressed me from my youth—
Oh let Israel say—

² Many a time have they oppressed me from my youth,
Yet ^b they have not prevailed against me.

³ Plowers ^c plowed upon my back,
They made long their furrows.
⁴ The LORD is righteous,
He hath cut asunder the cords of the wicked.

⁵ They shall ^d be confounded and turned back,
All that hate Zion.

⁶ They shall be like ^e the grass upon the house-tops,

Which withereth before it is plucked up;
⁷ Wherewith the mower filleth not his
hand,

Nor he that bindeth sheaves his bosom;
⁸ Nor do the passers-by say:

The blessing of the LORD ^f be upon you,
We bless you in the name of the LORD.

PSALM CXXX.

Prayer (1) in deep distress, (3) for the forgiveness of sin—(5) Patient waiting upon God and hope in his word.

A Song of* the goings up.

¹ OUT ^a of the depths I call unto thee,
O LORD,

² Lord, hear my voice,
Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications.

³ If thou, LORD†, shouldst ^b mark ini-quities,

O Lord, who shall stand?

⁴ But there is ^c forgiveness with thee,
That ^d thou mayest be feared.

⁵ I ^e wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait,

And ^f in his word do I hope.

⁶ My soul waiteth for the Lord
More than they that watch for the morning,

More than they that watch for the morning.

⁷ Let ^g Israel hope in the LORD;
For ^h with the LORD is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption,

⁸ And ⁱ he will redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

PSALM CXXXI.

Humble submission to Divine discipline.

A Song of† the goings up. Of David.

¹ LORD, my heart is not haughty,
Nor mine eyes lofty;

Neither have I exercised myself|| in great matters,

And in things too ^a wonderful for me.

² But I have calmed and quieted my soul,
Like a child that is weaned by his mother,
My soul within me is even as a weaned child.

PSALM CXXXII*.

A prayer (1) recording David's holy zeal and war, and (2) supplicating God's presence in the place prepared for his worship; (11) in fulfilment of his promises to David and his people.

A Song of ^c the goings up.

1 LORD, remember for David All his trouble;
2 How ^a he swore unto the LORD,
And vowed unto the mighty One of Jacob;
3 Surely I will not come into the tent of my house,

Nor go up into the couch of my bed;
4 I will not give sleep to mine eyes,
Slumber to mine eyelids
5 Until I ^b find a place for the LORD,
Tabernacles for the mighty One of Jacob.

6 Lo, we heard of it at Ephratah,
We found it in the fields of the wood:
7 Let us go into his tabernacles,
Let us worship at his footstool.

8 Arise, ^c O LORD, into thy resting-place,
Thou, and ^d the ark of thy strength.
9 Let thy priests ^e be clothed with righteousness,

And let thy saints shout for joy.
10 For thy servant David's sake,
Turn not away the face of thine anointed.

11 The LORD ^f sware truth unto David,
He will not turn back from it;
Of ^g the fruit of thy body will I set upon thy throne.

12 If ^h thy sons will keep my covenant,
And my testimony, that I shall teach them,
Their sons also, for evermore,
Shall sit upon thy throne.

13 For ⁱ the LORD hath chosen Zion,
He hath desired it for his habitation.
14 This is ^k my resting-place for ever,
Here will I dwell, for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her provision,
I will satisfy her poor with bread.

16 And I will clothe her priests with salvation,
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
17 There will I ^l make a horn to shoot forth for David;
I have prepared a ^m lamp for mine anointed.

18 His enemies will I ⁿ clothe with shame,
But upon him shall his crown flourish.

PSALM CXXXIII.

The blessedness of brotherly love and unity.

A Song of ^o the goings up. Of David.

1 BEHOLD, how good it is, and how pleasant,

For brethren to dwell together in unity!
2 It is like ^a the precious oil upon the head,

Descending upon the beard, Aaron's beard,
That descended to the border of his garments;

3 Like the dew of ^b Hermon,
That descendeth upon the mountains of Zion:
For ^c there the LORD hath commanded the blessing,
Life for evermore.

PSALM CXXXIV.

The people's salutation to the Levites keeping watch by night in the temple, and (3) their responsive benediction.

A Song of ^c the goings up.

1 BEHOLD, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD,
Who ^d stand by night in the house of the LORD;

2 Lift ^b up your hands in the sanctuary,^t
And bless ye the LORD.

3 The LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth,
Bless ^e thee out of Zion.

PSALM CXXXV.

Praise to God for his power manifested (5) in creation, and (5) in his great doings for his people; (15) contrasted with the nothingness of idols.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD!!

Praise ye the name of the LORD,
Praise, ^a ye servants of the LORD!

2 Ye ^b that stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God!

3 Praise ye the LORD, for ^c the LORD is good;
Sing praises ^d unto his name, ^e for it is pleasant.

4 For ^f the LORD ^g hath chosen Jacob for himself,
Israel for his ^h peculiar treasure^e.

5 For I know that ⁱ the LORD is great,
And our Lord ^j is above all gods.

6 All that ^k the LORD pleased, he hath done,

PSALM CXXXIX.

The omniscience and omnipresence of God devoutly contemplated—(13) Prayer for the overthrow of the wicked, and (23) for real separation in character from them.

For the Chief musician. A Psalm of David.

a 1 Chr.
28. 9.

1 O LORD, ^a thou hast searched me, and thou knowest me,

2 Thou knowest my down-sitting and mine
up-rising,

Thou ^b understandest my thought afar off.

3 Thou ^c examinest my path and my lying
down,

And ^d art acquainted with all my ways.

4 For there is not a word in my tongue,

But lo, O LORD, ^e thou knowest it all.

5 Behind and before thou hast beset me,

And laid thy hand upon me.

6 Knowledge ^f too wonderful for me!

It is high, I cannot attain unto it.

7 Whither shall I go from thy Spirit?

Or ^g whither shall I flee from thy presence?

8 If ^h I ascend up into heaven, thou art

there,

If I make my bed in Sheol*, behold ⁱ thou art there.

9 If I take the wings of the morning,

And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,

10 Even there shall thy hand lead me,

And thy right hand shall hold me.

11 And if I say, ^k Surely the darkness shall cover me,

And the light around me be night;

12 Even ^l darkness will not hide from thee,

But the night will shine as the day;

Darkness is as light ^{to thee}.

13 For thou didst form my reins,

Thou ^m didst cover ^t me in my mother's womb.

14 I will praise thee, for I am fearfully, wonderfully, made:

Wonderful are thy works,

And my soul knoweth it well.

15 My substance* was not hidden from thee,

When I was made in secret,

When I was curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.

16 Thine eyes saw my unformed substance:

And in thy book all ⁿ my members were written,

In the days they were fashioned, when there was none of them.

17 And how precious are thy thoughts unto me, O God!

How ⁿ great is the sum of them!

18 If I recount them, they are more in number than the sand;

When I awake, I am still with thee.

19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O
God!

Depart from me therefore, ye bloody men.

20 For they ^o speak against thee wickedly,

Thine enemies take thy name in vain!

21 Shall not I hate them, O LORD, that hate
thee?

And shall I not be grieved with those that rise up against thee?

PSALM CXLIII.

Prayer for (1) pardoning mercy, (3) for deliverance from enemies, and (5) for Divine teaching and guidance.

A Psalm of David.

1 HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
Oh give ear to my supplications ;

In ^athy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.

2 And enter not into judgment with thy servant,

For ^bin thy sight no one living is righteous.

3 For ^cthe enemy hath persecuted my soul,

He hath smitten my life down to the ground,

He hath made me dwell in darkness, like those that have been long dead.

4 And ^dmy spirit fainteth within me,
My heart within me is desolate.

5 I ^eremember the days of old,
I meditate on all thy doing,
I muse on the work of thy hands.

6 I ^fstretch forth my hands unto thee,
My ^gsoul, thirsting for thee, is as a parched land. Selah.

7 Answer ^hme speedily, O LORD,
My spirit faileth.

Hide ⁱnot thy face from me,

Lest I become like ^kthem that go down into the pit.

8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning,
For in thee do I trust.

Cause me ^lto know the way wherein I should walk,

For ^munto thee do I lift up my soul.

9 Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies ;

Unto thee I flee for refuge.

10 Teach ⁿme to do thy will,

For thou art my God ;

Let thy ^ogood Spirit lead me in the land of uprightness *.

11 For thy name's sake, O LORD, quicken me,
In thy righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.

12 And, in thy mercy, ^pcut off mine enemies,

And destroy all them that afflict my soul ;
For I am thy servant.

PSALM CXLIV.

The King's thanksgiving for Divine help in battle and in distress—(3) Man's frailty and nothingness contrasted with God's greatness—(5) Prayer for deliverance from treacherous enemies, and (12) for national prosperity.

A Psalm of David.

1 BLESSED * be the LORD, my rock,
Who ^ateacheth my hands for the fight,
My fingers for the war ;

2 My ^bmercy and my fortress,
My high tower and my deliverer,
My shield, and ^{he}in whom I trust ;
Who ^csubdueth my people under me.

3 LORD ^d, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him,
The son of man, that thou takest thought of him !

4 Man ^eis like to vanity ^f,
His days are ^gas a shadow that passeth away.

5 Bow ^hthy heavens, O LORD, and come down,

Touch ⁱthe mountains, that they smoke.

6 Cast ^jforth lightning, and scatter them,
Shoot out thine arrows, and discomfit them.

7 Send ^kthy hand from above,
Rescue me and ^ldeliver me out of great waters,

From the hand of aliens ^m ;

8 Whose mouth ⁿspeaketh deceit,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

9 I will ^osing a new song unto thee, O God,
Upon a ten-stringed psaltery will I harp unto thee.

10 It is ^phe who giveth victory ^qunto kings,
Who ^rdelivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of aliens ^s,
Whose mouth speaketh deceit,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.

12 That ^tour sons may be like plants,
Grown up in their youth ;
Our daughters like corner-pillars,
Sculptured in the style of a palace ;

PSALM CXLVII.

Praise to God for his works and ways in creation and in providence, and (12) especially for his deliverance and restoration of Israel.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD ! *

For ^a it is good to sing praises † unto our God,
For it is pleasant, and ^b praise is comely.

2 The LORD doth ^c build up Jerusalem,
He ^d will gather together the outcasts of Israel.

3 He ^e healeth the broken in heart,
And bindeth up their wounds.

4 He ^f counteth the number of the stars,
He calleth them all by their names.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great power,
His ^g understanding is infinite.

6 The LORD ^h raiseth up the lowly,
He casteth the wicked down to the ground.

7 Sing ye unto the LORD with thanksgiving,
Sing praise upon the harp † unto our God :

8 Who ⁱ covereth the heaven with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.

9 He ^k giveth to the cattle their food,
And to ^l the young ravens which cry.

10 He ^m delighteth not in the strength of the horse,
He taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.

11 The LORD ⁿ taketh pleasure in them that fear him,
In them that hope in his mercy.

12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem,
Praise ^o thy God, O Zion !

13 For ^p he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates,
He hath blessed thy children within thee.

14 He ^q maketh thy border peace,
He ^r satisfieth thee with the finest of the wheat. ||

15 He ^s sendeth his commandment to the earth,
His word runneth very swiftly.

16 He ^t giveth snow like wool,
He scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes ;

17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels ;
Who can stand before his cold ?

18 He ^u sendeth out his word, and melteth them,
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.

19 He ^v declareth his word unto Jacob,
His ^w statutes and his judgments unto Israel.

20 He ^x hath not dealt so with any nation,
And as for his judgments, they know them not.

Praise ye the LORD ! *

PSALM CXLVIII.

A call to all creatures, (1) in the heavens and (7) on earth, to praise their almighty Creator and Preserver.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD !

Praise ye the LORD ^a from the heavens,
Praise him in the heights.

2 Praise him, ^b all his angels,
Praise him, all his hosts !

3 Praise him, sun and moon,
Praise him, all ye stars of light !

4 Praise him, ^c ye heavens of heavens,
And ^d ye waters that are above the heavens !

5 Let them praise the name of the LORD ;
For ^e he commanded, and they were created ;

6 And he established ^f them for ever and ever,
He set a bound, which none shall pass over.

7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
Ye ^g sea-monsters, and all deeps !

8 Fire and hail, snow and vapours,
Stormy wind, ^h fulfilling his word !

9 Ye mountains ⁱ and all hills,
Fruit-trees and all cedars ;

10 Wild beasts and all cattle,
Creeping things and winged birds !

11 Kings of the earth and all peoples,
Princes, and all judges of the earth ;

12 Both young men and maidens,
Both old men and children !

13 Let them praise the name of the LORD ;
For ^k his name alone is exalted,
His majesty is above earth and heaven.

14 And he ^l hath lifted up a horn for his people,

A praise for all his saints ;
For the children of Israel,
The people ^m near unto him.

Praise ye the LORD !

PSALM CXLIX.

Praise to the God of Israel, for (2) his mercies to his people, and (5) judgments on their enemies.

1 PRAISE ye the LORD !

O sing ^a unto the LORD a new song,
His praise in the congregation of saints.

2 Let Israel rejoice in his Maker,
Let the children of Zion ^b be joyful in their King.

PROVERBS, I.—III.

	She uttereth her voice in the broadways ; 21 She crieth in the chief place of con- course, At the entrance of the gates, In the city, she uttereth her words : 22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity, And scorners delight themselves in scorn- ing, And fools hate knowledge ? 23 Turn ^b ye at my reproof ; Behold, ^c I will pour forth my spirit unto you, I will make known to you my words.	5 Then ^d shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, And find the knowledge of God. 6 For ^e the LORD giveth wisdom, Out of his mouth come knowledge and un- derstanding. 7 He layeth up succour for the upright, A shield for ^f them that walk uprightly ; 8 To ^g keep the paths of judgment ; And ^h he preserveth the way of his saints. 9 Then ⁱ shalt thou understand righteous- ness and judgment, And equity, yea every good way. 10 When wisdom entereth into thy heart, And knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul ; 11 Discretion shall preserve thee, Understanding ^k shall keep thee : 12 To deliver thee from the way of evil, From the man that speaketh perverse things ; 13 Who leave the paths of uprightness, To ^l walk in the ways of darkness ; 14 Who rejoice to do evil, And ^m delight in the perverseness of the wicked : 15 Whose paths are crooked, And they are perverse in their ways : 16 To deliver thee from the strange woman, From ⁿ the stranger who flattereth with her words ; 17 Who forsaketh the friend of her youth, And forgetteth ^o the covenant of her God ; 18 For ^p her house sinketh down unto death, And her paths unto the dead ; 19 None ^q that go unto her return again, And they attain not to the paths of life.	d 2 Chr. 1. 10—12. e 1 Ki. 4. 29 ; Dan. 1. 17 ; 2. 23 ; Jam. 1. 5. f Ps. 84. 11. g ch. 8. 20. h 1 Sam. 2. 9. i John 7. 17. k ch. 6. 22. l ch. 4. 19 ; John 3. 19, 20. m Ro. 1. 32. n ch. 5. 3. o Ge. 2. 24. p ch. 6. 26 —35 ; 7. 26, 27. q Ecc. 7. 25.

PROVERBS, VIII,—X.

	27 When he prepared the heavens, I was there, When he drew a circle* over the face of the deep;	10 The f fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom, And the knowledge of the Holy is understanding.	f ch. 1. 7; Job 28. 28.
* or, set a canopy.		11 For by me o thy days shall be multiplied, And the years of thy life shall be increased.	g ch. 3. 2, 16; Deu. 6. 2.
m Ge. 1. 6, 7.	28 When he m established the skies above, When the fountains of the deep waxed strong;	12 If h thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself; But if thou scornest, i thou alone shalt bear it.	h Job 22. 2.
n Ge. 1. 9; Job 38. 10, 11; Ps. 104. 9; Jer. 5. 22.	29 When he n gave to the sea its bound, That the waters should not pass their border;	13 The k foolish woman is clamorous, She is simple, and knoweth nothing.	i see Eze. 18. 1—22.
o Job 38. 4—7.	When he o appointed the foundations of the earth;	14 And she sitteth at the door of her house, On a seat, in the high places of the city;	k ch. 7. 11.
p John 1. 1—3, 18. † or, architect. ‡ or, Disporting.	30 Then p I was by him, as the builder†, And I was daily in delights, Rejoicing‡ always before him; 31 Rejoicing‡ in his habitable earth, And my delights were with the sons of men.	15 To l call passengers, Who go right on their ways: 16 Whoso is simple, let him turn hither; And as for him that lacketh understanding, she saith to him:	l ch. 7. 13—15.

PROVERBS, X, XI.

	But he that perverteth his ways shall be known.	27 The fear of the LORD prolongeth days ; But ^b the years of the wicked shall be cut short.	y Ps. 55. 23.
k ch. 6. 13, 14.	10 He that ^k winketh with the eye causeth sorrow ; And a prating fool shall be overthrown.	28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness ; But ^z the expectation of the wicked shall perish.	z Job 11. 20 ; Ps. 112. 10.
l ch. 15. 14 ; 18. 4. * or, But violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.	11 The ^l mouth of the righteous is a well of life ; But the mouth of the wicked covereth violence.*	29 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright ; But it is destruction to the workers of iniquity.	a Ps. 112. 6. b Ps. 57. 9, 10. * or, the land. c Ps. 57. 30.
m ch. 17. 9 ; 1 Cor. 13. 4 ; 1 Pet. 4. 8.	12 Hatred stirreth up strifes ; But ^m love covereth all transgressions.	30 The ^a righteous shall never be removed ; But ^b the wicked shall not inhabit the earth*.
n ch. 20. 3 ; 1 Ki. 12. 1—15.	13 In the lips of him that hath understanding wisdom is found ; But ⁿ a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.	31 The ^c mouth of the just bringeth forth wisdom ; But the perverse tongue shall be cut off.
o ch. 14. 7 ; Ecc. 10. 12.	14 The wise lay up knowledge ; But ^o the mouth of the foolish is destruction near at hand.	32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable ; But the mouth of the wicked speaketh perverseness.
p ch. 18. 11 ; 1 Tim. 6. 17.	15 The ^p rich man's wealth is his strong city ; The destruction of the poor is their poverty.	11. A ^d false balance is an abomination to the LORD ; But a full weight is his delight.	d ch. 20. 25 ; Deu. 25. 13—16.

	17 He that heedeth correction is in the way of life ; But he that refuseth reproof goeth astray.	13 The integrity of the upright guideth them ; But the perverseness of transgressors destroyeth them.	f Eze. 7. 19 ; Zeph. 1. 38.
q Ecc. 5. 1 —7.	18 He that hideth hatred hath lying lips, And he that sendeth forth slander is a fool.	14 Riches ^f profit not in the day of wrath ; But ^g righteousness delivereth from death.	g Ge. 7. 1.
r Ps. 39. 1 ; Jam. 3. 2.	19 In the ^q multitude of words there wanteth not transgression ; But ^r he that restraineth his lips is wise.	15 The righteousness of the upright maketh his way even ; But the wicked shall fall by his wickedness.
	20 The tongue of the just is as choice silver ; The heart of the wicked is of little worth.	16 The righteousness of the upright delivereth them ; But ^h the treacherous are taken in their mischief.	h Ecc. 10. 8.
s ch. 5. 23.	21 The lips of the righteous feed many ; But ^s fools die for lack of understanding.	17 When a wicked man dieth his hope ⁱ shall perish, And the expectation of unjust men perisheth.	i ch. 10. 28 ; 1 Ki. 12. 16 —20.
t Ge. 26. 12 ; Deu. 8. 17, 18.	22 The ^t blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, And he addeth no sorrow with it.	18 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, And ^k the wicked cometh in his stead.	k ch. 21. 18 ; Est. 7. 9, 10.
* or, And nothing addeth sorrow with it.	23 It is as sport to a fool to do mischief, But the man of understanding hath wisdom,	19 A hypocrite ^t , with his mouth, ⁱ destroyeth his neighbour ; But through knowledge shall the just be delivered.	* or, An impious man. t Ps. 55. 20, 21. z or, But through the knowledge of the just shall they (i. e. others) be delivered. m ch. 28. 12 ; Est. 8. 15, 16. n 2 Ki. 11. 13—20 ; Job 27. 25.
u Job 15. 24, 21.	24 The ^u fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him ; But ^z the desire of the righteous shall be granted.	20 When it goeth well with the righteous ^m the city rejoiceth, And ⁿ when the wicked perish there is shouting.
v Mt. 5. 6 ; Lk. 2. 25 —20.	25 As the whirlwind passeth, so the wicked is no more ; ; But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.	21 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted ; But it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
z or, When the whirlwind passeth, the wicked is not.	26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, So is the sabbard to them that send him.

PROVERES, XII, XIII.

r ch. 18. 7.	13 In the ^t wickedness of the lips is an evil snare ;	But the desire of the treacherous is violence.
u 2 Pet. 2. 9.	But ^u the just shall go forth out of trouble.	3 He that ^u keepeth his mouth keepeth his life * ;	n ch. 21. 23 ; Jam. 3. 2.
x ch. 18. 20.	14 A man ^x shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth,	But destruction shall be to him that openeth wide his lips.	^x or, his soul.
y Is. 3. 10, 11 ; Mt. 16. 27.	And ^y the recompence of a man's hands shall return to him.	4 A sluggard's soul craveth, and there is nothing ;
	15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes ;	But the soul of the diligent is made fat.
	But a wise man hearkeneth to counsel.	5 The ^o righteous hateth lying speech ;	o 1 Ki. 22. 13, 14.
z ch. 20. 11.	16 A ^z fool's resentment is presently made known ;	But the wicked is loathsome, and causeth shame.
	But a prudent man hideth the affront.	6 Righteousness ^p keepeth him that is upright in the way ;	p ch. 11. 3.
	17 He that breatheth out truth showeth forth righteousness ;	But wickedness overthroweth the sinner.
	But a false witness deceit.	7 There is that maketh himself rich, and there is nothing ;
a ch. 25. 18 ; Ps. 64. 3.	18 There is ^a a prating like the piercings of a sword ;	Also that ^q maketh himself poor, and there is great wealth.	q ch. 11. 24.
	But the tongue of the wise is health.	8 The ^r ransom of a man's life is his riches ;	r Job 2. 4.
	19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever ;	But the poor heareth not rebuke.
	But ^b a lying tongue is but for a moment.	9 The ^s light of the righteous shall rejoice ;	s Ps. 97. 11.
b 2 Ki. 5. 25-27 ; Ps. 52. 4. 5 ; Ac. 5. 3-10.	20 Deceit is in the heart of them that devise evil ;	But the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.	t Job 18. 5, 6 ; 21. 17.
	But to the counsellors of peace there is joy.	10 By pride cometh only contention ;
	21 There shall ^c no evil happen to the just ;	But with the well-advised is wisdom.
c Ro. 8. 28.	But the wicked shall be filled with mischief.	11 Wealth gotten by vanity diminisheth ;
	22 Lying ^d lips are abomination to the LORD ;	But he that gathereth by labour ^t shall increase.	^t Heb. in hand.
d ch. 6. 16, 17.	But ^e they that deal truly are his delight.	12 Hope deferred maketh the heart sick ;
e ch. 11. 20 ; Num. 12. 7, 8.	23 A ^f prudent man concealeth knowledge ;	But ^u the desire that cometh to pass is a tree of life.	u Ge. 21. 3 —8 ; Lk. 2. 28-32.
f ch. 13. 16.	But ^g the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness.	13 Whoso ^x despiseth the word shall be destroyed ;	x 2 Chr. 36. 16.
g ch. 15. 2 ; Ecc. 10. 3.	24 The ^h hand of the diligent shall bear rule ;	But ^y he that feareth the commandment shall be rewarded.	^y or, shall be held accountable for it.
h ch. 22. 28 ; Ge. 39. 4, 22.	But the slothful shall be under tribute.	14 The ^z law of the wise is a fountain of life.	z Ps. 19. 11.
i ch. 15. 13.	25 Heaviness ⁱ in the heart of man maketh it stoop ;	To turn away from the snares of death.	a Dan. 6. 3.
	But a good word maketh it glad.	15 Good understanding ^a giveth favour ;	b Jer. 2. 19 ; Jon. ch. 2.
	26 The righteous guideth his friend ;	But ^b the way of transgressors is hard .	or, rocky.
	But the way of the wicked leadeth them astray.	16 Every prudent man acteth with knowledge ;
	27 The slothful roasteth not that which he took in hunting * ;	But a fool dealeth out his folly.
[*] or, doth not once his game.	But a precious treasure to a man is diligence.	17 A wicked messenger falleth into mischief ;
k ch. 10. 16.	28 In ^k the way of righteousness is life,	But ^c a faithful ambassador is healing.	c ch. 25. 13.
	And in her pathway there is no death.	18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction ;

Precepts concerning righteousness and practical wisdom.

17 INCLINE thine ear and hear the words of the wise,
And apply thy heart unto my knowledge;
18 For it is pleasant if thou keep them within thee;
If they are ready, all of them, upon thy lips.
19 That thy trust may be in the LORD,
I this day teach thee, even thee.
20 Have not I written for thee ^aexcellent things,
In counsels and knowledge?

PROVERBS, XXIII, XXIV.

	12 Apply thy heart to instruction, And thine ears to the words of knowledge.	33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women*, And thy heart will utter perverse things : 34 And thou shalt be as one that lieth sleep- ing in the midst of the sea, Or as one that lieth upon the top of a mast.	* or, strange things.

It is not good ^a to have respect of persons in judgment.

24 He ^b that saith to the wicked, Thou art
righteous,

Him shall the peoples curse,
Nations shall abhor him;

25 But to them that rebuke him, there sayings.*

25. THESE also are Proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, copied out^{*}.

2 It is ^a the glory of God to conceal a thing:

But the glory of kings, to search out a thing.

3 The heaven for height, and the earth for depth,

And the heart of kings, are unsearchable.

4 Take away the dross from the silver,
And there shall come forth a vessel for the silversmith;

5 Take ^b away the wicked from before the king,

And ^c his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 Honour not thyself in the presence of the king,

And stand not in the place of the great;

7 For it is ^d better that it be said to thee,
Come up hither,

Than that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the prince,

Whom thine eyes have seen.

8 Go not forth hastily to strive[†],
Lest in the end thereof, thou know not what to do,

When thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 Debate ^e thy cause with thy neighbour,
But discover not the secret of another;

10 Lest he that heareth put thee to shame,
And thine infamy turn not away.

11 A ^f word fitly spoken
Is like apples of gold in pictures; of silver.

12 As a gold ring, and an ornament of fine
gold,

So is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.

13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest,

So is ^g a faithful messenger to them that send him;

For ^h he refresheth the soul of his masters.

14 Whoso boasteth himself of a false gift
Is like clouds and wind without rain.

15 By ⁱ long forbearing is a prince persuaded,
And a gentle tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found honey? ^j Eat so much

Concerning God's word as the source of wisdom—
Proverbal sayings and admonitions.

30. THE words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the prophecy: the utterance of the man, for Ithiel, even for Ithiel and Ucal:

PROVERBS, XXX, XXXI.

o ch. 20. 20;
1. 20. 9.

17 The eye that mocketh at the father,
And despiseth to obey the mother,
The ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
And the young eagles shall eat it.

18 These three things are too wonderful for me,
Yea, four which I know not:
19 The way of an eagle in the heavens,
The way of a serpent upon a rock,
The way of a ship in the midst of the sea,
And the way of a man with a maid.
20 So is the way of an adulterous woman;
She eateth, and wipeth her mouth,
And saith, I have done no wickedness.

21 Under three things the earth is disquieted,
And under four it cannot bear up.
22 Under h a servant when he reigneth,
And a fool when he is filled with food, 23 Under an odious woman when she is married,
And a maid-servant when she is heir to her mistress.

24 These four things are little upon the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:
25 The ants q are a people not strong.
Yet they prepare their food in the summer:
26 The r conies are but a feeble folk,
And they make their house in the cliff:
27 The s locusts have no king,
Yet they all go forth by bands:
28 The lizard taketh hold with the hands,
And it is in kings palaces.

29 These three things go well,
Yea four are comely in going:
30 The t lion, strongest among beasts,
And he turneth not away from any,
31 The war-horse u, or the he-goat,
And the king against whom none doth stand v.

32 If thou hast done foolishly in lifting up thyself,
Or if thou hast thought evil,
*W*ay w thy hand upon thy mouth:
33 For as the pressing of milk bringeth forth cheese,
And the pressing of the nose bringeth forth
blood,
So the pressing of wrath bringeth forth strife.

Maxims of wisdom for a king.

31. THE words of king Lemuel, the prophecy: that his mother taught him.

2 What, my son,
And what, the son of my womb!

3 Give b not thy strength unto women,
Nor thy ways c to that which destroyeth kings.
4 It is not for kings, Lemuel,
It is not for kings to drink wine,
Nor for princes is the desire for strong drink;
5 Lest they drink, and forget the law,
And pervert the judgment of all the sons of affliction.
6 Give d strong drink to him that is perish-
ing,
And wine to those whose soul is in bitter-
ness;
7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
And remember his misery no more.
8 Open thy mouth for the dumb,
For the cause of all the sons of deser-
tion:
9 Open thy mouth, e judge righteously,
And f plead the cause of the poor and needy.

16 She considereth a field and buyeth it,
With the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard.
17 She girdeth her loins with strength,
And strengtheneth her arms.
18 She perceiveth that her earning is good,
Her lamp goeth not out by night.
19 She k putteth her hands to the distaff.
And her hands l hold the spindle.
20 She stretcheth out her hands to the poor m,
Yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy.

ECCLESIASTES;

OR,

THE PREACHER.

Introduction, (1) describing the writer and the subject of the book—(1) The vanity of earthly things illustrated by the incessant round of changes in nature and in human life.

1. THE words of the Preacher*, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.

2 VANITY of ^a vanities! saith the Preacher; vanity of vanities! All is vanity.

³ What profit hath man of all his labour which he laboureth under the sun?

⁴ One generation goeth, and another generation cometh; but ^b the earth abideth for ever.

⁵ The ^c sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, and hasteth to his place where he arose†.

⁶ The ^d wind goeth towards the South, and turneth about unto the North, turning about continually; and the wind returneth to its turnings about.

⁷ All ^e the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; unto the place from whence the rivers come, thither they return again.

⁸ All words fail†, man cannot tell it. ^f The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

¹¹ There is no remembrance of the former things; ^h neither shall there be remembrance of the later things¹, among those that shall be afterwards.

The disappointment attending all human labour, and (17) even the pursuit of wisdom.

12 I THE Preacher was king over Israel, in Jerusalem. ¹³ And ⁱ I gave my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven. This sore travail hath God given to the sons of men to travail therewith.

¹⁶ I communed with my own heart, saying: Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten ^l wisdom above all that have been before me over Jerusalem; yea, my heart hath seen much of wisdom and knowledge. ¹⁷ And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. ¹⁸ For in much wisdom is much grief, and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

The unsatisfactoriness of (1) sensual pleasure and (4) worldly magnificence.

2. I SAID in my heart: Go to now, ^b I will prove thee with mirth; therefore enjoy good. And behold, this also is vanity; ² I said of ^a laughter, It is mad; and of mirth, What doeth this?

For my heart rejoiced in all my labour, and ^h this was my portion from all my labour.	²⁰ And I turned to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labour which I laboured under the sun. ²¹ For there is a man whose labour is in wisdom and in knowledge, and in prosperity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. ²² For what hath the man of all his labour, and of the desire of his heart, for which he hath laboured under the sun? ²³ For all his days are f sorrows and his travail grief; even in the night his heart resteth not. beginning. Better is the patient in spirit than the proud in spirit.

⁹ Be ^e not hasty in thy spirit to be angry, for anger resteth in the bosom of fools.

¹⁰ Say not thou, Why was it that the former days were better than these? For thou dost not inquire wisely concerning this.

¹¹ Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and it is gain to them that see the sun.

¹² For ^f wisdom is a defence, as ^g money is a defence. But ^h knowledge is gain: wisdom giveth life to them that have it.

¹³ See the work of God; ⁱ for who can make straight what he hath made crooked?

¹⁴ In the day of prosperity be joyful, but behold the day of adversity: God also hath made this as well as that, to the end that man should find out nothing after him.

¹⁵ The whole have I seen in the days of my vanity. There is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there is ^k a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness.

¹⁶ Be ^l not righteous over much, neither make thyself over wise. Why shouldest thou ruin thyself? ¹⁷ Be not over much wicked, neither be thou foolish. Why shouldest thou die before thy time?

¹⁸ It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this, but also from that withdraw not thy hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth from them all.

¹⁹ Wisdom ^m strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men who are in the city.

²⁰ For ⁿ there is not a just man upon earth who doeth good and sinneth not.

²¹ Also take no heed unto all words that are spoken, lest thou hear thy servant curse thee. ²² For also thine own heart knoweth that oftentimes thou thyself likewise hast cursed others.

²³ All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me. ²⁴ ^o It is far off, what is it? and exceeding deep, who can find it out?

²⁵ I applied my heart to know and to search and to seek out wisdom and reason, and to know that wickedness is folly, and foolishness madness. ²⁶ And I find ^p more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands are bands; whose pleaseth God shall escape from her, but the sinner shall be taken by her.

²⁷ Behold, this have I found, saith the Preacher, putting things one by one, to find out the reason; ²⁸ which yet my soul

seeketh, but I have not found: One man among a thousand have I found, but a woman among all those have I not found. ²⁹ Lo, this only have I found, that ^q God made man upright, but ^r they have sought out many devices.

8. WHO is as the wise? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the holdness* of his face shall be changed.

² I say ^a Keep the king's commandment, even on account of the oath of God. ³ Be ^b not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. ⁴ Where the word of a king is, there is power; and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

⁵ Whoso keepeth the commandment shall know no evil thing; and ^c a wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment; ⁶ for to every purpose there is time and judgment. For the misery of man is great upon him; ⁷ for he knoweth not that which shall be; for who shall tell him how it shall be?

⁸ There is ^d no man that hath power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither is there power over the day of death; and there is no discharge in the war; nor ^e shall wickedness deliver him that is given to it.

⁹ All this have I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun. There is a time wherein man ruleth over man to his hurt. ¹⁰ And so I saw the wicked buried; and they had entered and gone from the place of the holy; and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. This is also vanity.

¹¹ Because ^f sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. ¹² Though a sinner doeth evil a hundred times, and also liveth long, yet I know that ^g it shall be well with them that fear God, who fear before him; ¹³ but it shall not be well with the wicked, ^h neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow, because he feareth not before God.

I saw.

¹¹ I turned and saw[†] under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, nor yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of knowledge; but time and chance happeneth to them all.

¹² For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in a snare, like them the sons of men ^rare snared in an evil time, when it falleth suddenly upon them.

r Job 18. 8;
Pro. 29. 5;
1 Thes. 5. 3.

¹³ This wisdom have I seen also under the sun, and it seemed great to me: ¹⁴ A little city, and few men in it; and there came a great king against it and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: ¹⁵ and there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered the city; yet no man remembered that poor man.

s ch. 7. 19;
Pro. 24. 5.

¹⁶ And I said: Wisdom ^sis better than strength; and yet the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. ¹⁷ The words of the wise are heard in quiet, more than the shouting of him that ruleth among fools. ¹⁸ Wisdom is better than the weapons of war; but ^tone sinner destroyeth much good.

Proverbial maxims, (1) setting forth, chiefly in contrast, various characteristics of wisdom and of folly; and (ch. 11. 1) enjoining beneficence, industry, and truthfulness.

¹⁰. DEAD flies cause the ointment of the perfumer to send forth a stinking savour: so a little folly is weightier than wisdom and honour.

² A wise man's heart is at his right hand, but a fool's heart at his left. ³ Yea even when the fool walketh by the way, his heart[†] faileth, and ^ahe saith to every one that he is a fool.

c Pro. 25. 15.

⁵ There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: ⁶ Folly is set in great dignities, and the rich sit in low place. ⁷ I have seen ^dservants^{||} upon horses, and princes walking as servants on the ground.

⁹ Whoso removeth stones is cut by them; he that cleaveth wood is hurt thereby.

¹⁰ If the iron be blunt, and one do not whet the edge, then must he put forth more strength; but wisdom is profitable to give success.

¹¹ If ^f the serpent bite without enchantment, then the charmer hath no advantage.

¹² The ^g words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but ^h the lips of a fool swallow up himself. ¹³ The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is mischievous madness; ¹⁴ the fool also ⁱ multiplieth words.

Man knoweth not what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him?

¹⁵ The labour of the foolish wearieth every one of them, who knoweth not how to go to the city.

¹⁶ Woe ^k to thee, land, when thy king is young, and thy princes eat in the morning! ¹⁷ Happy art thou, land, when thy king is the son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength and not for drunkenness*!

¹⁸ By much slothfulness the building[†] decayeth; and through idleness of the hands the house drippeth.

¹⁹ A feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh life merry; and money answereth the while.

²⁰ Curse ^l not a king, not even in thy thought; and curse not a rich man in ^m thy bedchambers; for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

¹¹. Cast thy bread upon the waters, for thou shalt find it after many days. ² Give ⁿ a portion to seven, and also to eight, for thou knowest not what evil shall be upon the earth t.

³ If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth. And if the tree fall toward the south or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, there it shall be.

⁴ He that observeth the wind will not sow, and he that regardeth the clouds will not reap.

⁵ As ^o thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit[‡], ^p nor how the bones grow in the womb of her that is with child, even so ^q thou knowest not the works of God, who maketh all.

⁶ In ^r the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thy hand; for thou knowest not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.

Exhortations to early piety, as the best preparation for old age, death, and judgment.

⁷ TRULY the light is sweet, and it is pleasant for the eyes to behold the sun: ⁸ and if a man live many years let him rejoice in them all; yet ^a let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many: all that cometh is vanity.

⁹ Rejoice, young man, in thy youth, and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth; and walk in the ways of thy heart, and in the sight of thine eyes; but know thou, that for all these ^b God will bring thee into judgment. ¹⁰ Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh; for childhood and youth are vanity. ¹². And remember thy Creator in the days of thy youth, before the evil days come and the years draw nigh ^c of which thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; ² before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain; ³ in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders shall cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows shall be darkened, ⁴ and the doors shall be shut in the streets; when the sound of the grinding is low, and they shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of song shall be brought low; ⁵ also they shall be afraid of what is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond-tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper* shall be a burden, and the desire[†] shall fail; because man goeth to his long home, and ^d the mourners go about the streets; ⁶ before the silver cord be loosed, and the golden bowl be broken, and the pitcher be broken at the fountain, and the wheel broken at the well. ⁷ And ^e the dust shall return to the earth, as it was; ^f and the spirit shall return unto God ^g who gave it.

In conclusion, (8) the Preacher repeats his first proposition; (9) describes his work and authority as a teacher, and (13) briefly sums up the whole by an emphatic declaration of the way of true happiness.

⁸ VANITY ^a of vanities! saith the Preacher; All is vanity.

⁹ And moreover, because the Preacher was wise, ^b he still taught the people knowledge; yea he proved and sought out and ^c set in order many proverbs. ¹⁰ The Preacher sought to find out acceptable

SOLOMON'S SONG, V,—VII.

The Shulamite.

¹⁰ My beloved is bright and ruddy,
The chiefest among ten thousand.

¹¹ His head is as the finest gold,
His bushy locks are black as a raven ;

¹² His ¹ eyes are as doves by streams of waters,

Bathing in milk, sitting on fulness* ;

¹³ His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet flowers,

His ² lips are like lilies, dropping liquid
myrrh ;

¹¹ His hands are as golden rings, set with chrysolite,

His belly is as bright ivory overlaid with sapphires :

¹⁵ His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon bases of fine gold,

His appearance is as Lebanon, excellent as the cedars :

¹⁶ His ³ mouth is most sweet :

Yea, he is altogether lovely.

This is my beloved, and this is my friend,

Ye daughters of Jerusalem !

Daughters of Jerusalem.

6. Whither is thy beloved gone,

Thou fairest among women,

Whither hath thy beloved turned aside ?

That we may seek him with thee.

The Shulamite.

² My beloved is gone down to his garden,
to the beds of spices,

To feed ⁴ his flock in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

³ I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine :

He feedeth his flock among the lilies.

Solomon.

⁴ Thou art fair, my love, as ⁵ Tirzah,

Comely ⁶ as Jerusalem,

Terrible as hosts with banners.

⁵ Turn away thine eyes from me,

For they overcome me.

Thy hair is ^{7a} like a flock of goats,

That lie down on Gilead ;

⁶ Thy teeth are like a flock of ewes,

Which go up from the washing,

Which, all of them, bear twins,

And none is barren among them :

⁷ As a piece of pomegranate are thy cheeks behind thy veil.

⁸ There are ^{7b} sixty queens,

And eighty concubines,

And maidens without number :

⁹ One is my dove, my perfect one ;

She is the one of her mother,

She is the choice one of her that bare her.

The ⁸ daughters behold her and call her happy,

Yea, queens and concubines, and they call her happy.

PART V. (10) The king and the bride, and daughters of Jerusalem ; (ch. 7. 6) the king and the bride alone.

Daughters of Jerusalem.

¹⁰ WHO is this that looketh forth as the dawn,

Fair as the moon, bright as the sun,

Terrible as hosts with banners ?

The Shulamite.

¹¹ I went down into the garden of nuts,

To look at the green plants of the valley,

To ¹² see whether the vine is budding,

And the pomegranates are blossoming.

¹² Or ever I was aware

My soul set me in the chariots of the prince's people¹³.

Daughters of Jerusalem.

¹³ Return, return, O Shulamite,

Return, return, that we may look upon
thee.

The Shulamite.

What will ye gaze at in the Shulamite ?

Daughters of Jerusalem.

As the dance of Mahanaim¹⁴.

7. How beautiful are thy foot-steps in the sandals, ¹⁵ thou prince's daughter !

The roundings of thy thighs are like jewels,
The work of the hands of an artist ;

² Thy navel is like a round goblet,

In which mixed wine is not wanting.

Thy belly is like a heap of wheat surrounded with lilies ;

³ Thy ⁶ two breasts are like two young roes,
the twins of a gazelle ;

⁴ Thy ^d neck is like the tower of ivory ;

Thine eyes are like the pools in ^e Heshbon,

By the gate of Bath-rabbim :

Thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon,

Which looketh toward Damascus :

⁵ Thy head upon thee is like ^f Carmel,

And the flowing locks of thy head like purple ;

The king is enchained by thy ringlets.

Solomon.

⁶ How ^g fair art thou, and how pleasant,
O love, in thy charms !

⁷ This thy stature is like a palm-tree,

And thy breasts, grape clusters.

⁸ I said, I will go up on the palm-tree,

I will take hold of its boughs ;

And let thy breasts be as clusters of the vine ;

And the fragrance of thy nose like the apples ;

SOLOMON'S SONG, VII, VIII.

^h ch. 5. 16.	⁹ And ^h the roof of thy mouth like the best wine— The Shulamite. For my beloved—that goeth down smoothly, Causing the lips of those asleep to speak.	There she that bare thee brought thee forth. The Shulamite.
ⁱ ch. 6. 3.	¹⁰ I ⁱ am my beloved's, And his desire is for me. ¹¹ Come, my beloved, let us go forth to the field, Let us ^k lodge in the villages; ¹² Let us get up early to the vineyards, Let us ⁱ see whether the vine putteth forth leaves: Whether the tender vine-blossom is opening, And the pomegranates are blooming: There will I give thee my loves.	⁶ Set me as the seal upon thy heart, As the ^b seal upon thine arm. For love is strong as death, Jealousy ^c is cruel as the grave ^d ; Its flames are flames of fire, A most vehement flame ^e . ⁷ Many waters cannot quench love, Nor can the floods drown it; If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love, It would utterly be contemned. ⁸ We have a little sister, And she hath no breasts. What shall we do for our sister, In the day when she shall be spoken for?	^b I s. 49. 16; Mag. 2. 23. ^c Pro. 6. 34, 35. ^{* Heb.} as Sheol. ^{† Heb.} The flash of Jan.
^k ch. 2. 10 —13. ⁱ ch. 6. 11.	¹³ The ^m love-apples yield fragrance, And at our doors are all choice fruits, new and old, Which I have laid up for thee, my beloved. ^{8.} Oh that thou wert as my brother, That sucked the breasts of my mother! Should I find thee out of doors ⁿ I would kiss thee, And they would not despise me. ^o ch. 3. 4. ² I would lead thee, I would ^o bring thee into my mother's house; Thou shouldest instruct me. I would cause thee to drink of the spiced wine, Of the juice of my pomegranate.	⁹ If she be a wall, we will build upon her a tower of silver; And if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar. The Shulamite's brothers. ¹⁰ I was a wall, and my breasts like the towers: Then was I in his eyes as one that findeth favour. ¹¹ Solomon ^d hath a vineyard at Baal-hamon, He hath let out the vineyard to keepers; Every one bringeth a thousand pieces of silver for its fruit. ¹² My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: The thousand be to thee, Solomon, And two hundred to the keepers of its fruit. Solomon. ¹³ Thou that dwellest in the gardens, The ^e companions hearken to thy voice; Cause I me to hear it. The Shulamite. ¹⁴ Flee, my beloved, And ^g be thou like a gazelle or a young hart, Upon the mountains of spices.	^d Ecc. 2. 4 5. ^e John 3. 29. ^f ch. 2. 14.
^m Ge. 30. 14. ⁿ ch. 1. 2. ^o ch. 3. 4. ^p ch. 2. 6. ^q ch. 2. 7; 3. 5. ^{* or, nor awake love until it please.}	¹⁴ The ^m love-apples yield fragrance, And at our doors are all choice fruits, new and old, Which I have laid up for thee, my beloved. ^{8.} Oh that thou wert as my brother, That sucked the breasts of my mother! Should I find thee out of doors ⁿ I would kiss thee, And they would not despise me. ^o ch. 3. 4. ² I would lead thee, I would ^o bring thee into my mother's house; Thou shouldest instruct me. I would cause thee to drink of the spiced wine, Of the juice of my pomegranate. ³ His ^p left hand is under my head, And his right hand embraeeth me. ⁴ I ^q adjure you, ye daughters of Jerusalem, That ye stir not up, nor awake the beloved, until he please ^r . PART VI. Visit to the Shulamite's home. Inhabitants of the country. ⁵ WHO ^a is this that cometh up from the wilderness, Leaning herself upon her beloved? Solomon. I awoke thee under the apple-tree: There thy mother brought thee forth,

^t Ge. 19. 24.	We should have been as ^t Sodom, We should have been like unto Gomorrah.	²³ Thy ^r princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves, Every ^r one loveth a gift and followeth after rewards; They ^t judge not the fatherless, Nor doth the cause of the widow come unto them.	^r 2 Chr. 28, 22; 11os. 5. 15. ^s Mic. 7. 3.
^u Jer. 23. 14; Rev. 11. 8.	¹⁰ Hear the word of the LORD, ye rulers of ^u Sodom! Give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah!	²⁴ Therefore saith the LORD, the LORD of hosts, The Mighty One of Israel: Ah, I will ease me of mine adversaries, And avenge me of mine enemies.	^t Jer. 5. 23.
^x 1 Sam. 15. 22; Jer. 6. 20.	¹¹ To ^x what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? Saith the LORD. I am satiated with the burnt-offerings of rams and the fat of fed beasts, And I delight not in the blood of bullocks and of lambs and of he-goats.	²⁵ And I will turn my hand upon thee; And I will [] purely [] purge away thy dross, And take away all thy alloy.
^y Ex. 23. 17; Mic. 6. 6-8.	¹² When ye come ^y to appear before me, Who hath required this at your hand, to trample my courts?	²⁶ And ^z I will restore thy judges, as at the first, And thy counsellors, as at the beginning; Afterwards ^y thou shalt be called The City of Righteousness, Faithful City.	^u Mal. 3. 3; Mt. 5. 12. ^{* Heb.} like the alkali.
^z Eze. 20. 39.	¹³ Bring no more ^z vain oblations; Incense is an abomination unto me, New moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies— I cannot endure iniquity and the solemn meeting:	²⁷ Zion shall be redeemed by judgment, And her returning ones ^t by righteousness.	^x Jer. 33. 7, 15-17. ^y Jer. 31. 23; ^z Zec. 8. 3.
^a Le. ch. 23; Num. 28. 11-31. ^b Am. 5. 21.	¹⁴ Your ^a new moons and your festivals ^b my soul hateth; They are a trouble unto me, I am weary to bear them.	²⁸ But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, And ^t they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.	^t or, her penitents.
^c Jer. 14. 12.	¹⁵ And ^c when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you, Yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear; Your ^d hands are full of blood.	²⁹ For they shall be ashamed of ^a the terebinth-trees which ye have desired, And ye shall blush for the gardens that ye have chosen.	^a Eze. 6. 13; Hos. 4. 13.
^d ch. 59. 2, 3; Mic. 3. 9-11. ^e Jer. 4. 14. ^f Eze. 18. 30, 31.	¹⁶ Wash ^e you, make yourselves pure, Put ^f away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes;	³⁰ For ye shall be as a terebinth-tree whose leaf fadeth, And as a garden that hath no water.
^g Am. 5. 15.	¹⁷ Cease ^g to do evil: Learn to do well;	³¹ And the strong shall be for tow, And his work for a spark; And ^b they shall both burn together, And none shall quench them.
^h Jer. 22. 3.	¹⁸ Seek ^h judgment, relieve the oppressed; Judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.	Zion's future glory as the centre of God's kingdom of righteousness and peace—(5) Judgments upon Israel for their sins, (16) especially upon the women of Jerusalem, for their luxury and pride—(ch. 4. 2) Promise of future purity, peace and honour.	^b Mal. 4. 1.
ⁱ ch. 43. 25, 26; Mic. 6. 2, 3.	¹⁹ Come now, and ⁱ let us reason together, saith the LORD; Though your sins be as scarlet, They ^k shall be white as snow; Though they be red like crimson, They shall be as wool.	2. THE word that Isaiah, the son of Amoz, saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
^j ch. 3. 10.	²⁰ If ^j ye be willing and obedient, Ye shall eat the good of the land;	² And ^a it shall come to pass in the end of the days, That ^b the mountain of the LORD's house Shall be established on the top of the mountains,	^a see parallel, Mic. 4. 1-3. ^b Zec. 8. 3, Rev. 21. 10, 27.
^m 2 Chr. 33. 14-16.	²¹ But ^m if ye refuse and rebel, Ye shall be devoured by the sword; For ⁿ the month of the LORD hath spoken it.	³ And many peoples will go, and say, Come ^d ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, To the house of the God of Jacob; And he will teach us his ways,	^c ch. 27. 13; Jer. 31. 12.

⁸ For ⁿ Jerusalem stumbleth, And Judah falleth;
 Because ^o their tongue and their doings are against the LORD,
 To provoke the eyes of his glory*.
⁹ The ^p show of their countenance† doth witness against them,
 And they ^q declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not.
 Woe unto their soul!
 For they reward evil unto themselves.
¹⁰ Say ye, that the righteous ^r is happy;
 For ^s they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
¹¹ Woe unto the wicked! ^t Miserable is he,
 For ^u the reward of his hands shall be given him.
¹² As for my people, children are their oppressors,
 And women rule over them:
 My people, ^x thy leaders cause thee to err,
 And they destroy the way of thy paths.
¹³ The LORD setteth himself up ^y to plead,
 And standeth to judge the peoples.
¹⁴ The LORD will enter into judgment
 Against the ancients of his people, and their princes.
 For ^z ye have eaten up the vineyard,
 The spoil of the poor is in your houses.
¹⁵ What mean ye that ye ^a beat my people to pieces,
 And grind the faces of the poor?
 Saith the Lord, the God of hosts.
¹⁶ Moreover the LORD saith:
 Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
 And walk with stretched forth neck and wanton eyes,
 Walking and mining they go,
 And they wear anklets on their feet;
¹⁷ Therefore the Lord will ^b make bald the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion;
 And the LORD will ^c discover their secret parts.
¹⁸ In that day the Lord will take away the ornament of the anklets,
 And the nettings and the crescents,

²⁰ The turbans and the foot-chains and the girdles,
 The perfume-bottles and the amulets,
²¹ The signets; and the nose-rings,
²² The robes and the cloaks,
 And the mantles and the purses ‡,
²³ The mirrors and the fine linen garments,
 And the head-bands and the flowing veils.

²⁴ And it shall come to pass
 That instead of sweet smell there shall be rottenness,
 And instead of a girdle, a rope,
 And instead of ringlet-work, ^d baldness,
 And instead of a flowing robe*, a girding of sackcloth,
 And a brand instead of beauty.

²⁵ Thy ^e men shall fall by the sword,
 And thy mighty in the war.
²⁶ And ^f her gates shall lament and mourn;
 And desolate ^g she shall sit upon the ground.

^{4.} And in that day ^h seven women shall take hold of one man, saying:
 We ⁱ will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel;
 Only let us be called by thy name;
 Take thou away ^k our reproach.

² In that day shall ^l the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious,
 And the fruit of the land excellent and comely.

For them ^m that are escaped of Israel.
³ And it shall come to pass,
 That he that is left in Zion,
 And he that remaineth in Jerusalem,
 Shall ⁿ be called holy;
 Every one that is ^o written among the living in Jerusalem;

[†] When ^p the Lord shall wash away the filth of the daughters of Zion,
 And shall cleanse the blood† of Jerusalem from the midst thereof;
 By the spirit of judgment and by ^q the spirit of burning.

⁵ And the LORD will create over every dwelling place† of mount Zion,
 And over her assemblies,
 A ^r cloud by day, and smoke,
 And ^s the shining of a flaming fire by night;

For over all the glory shall be a covering;
⁶ And there shall be ^t a tabernacle,
 For shade in the daytime from the heat,
 And ^u for refuge, and for shelter from storm and from rain.

Take heed ^e and be quiet,
Fear ^f not, nor be fainthearted,
Because of the two tails* of these smoking
firebrands,
Because of the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.

⁵ Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah,

Have counselled evil against thee, saying:

⁶ Let us go up against Judah, and terrify it,
And let us make a breach therein for us;
And set a king in the midst of it, the son of Tabeal:

⁷ Thus saith the Lord GOD;

It ^g shall not stand,
Nor shall it come to pass.

⁸ For the head of Syria is ^h Damaseus,
And the head of Damascus is Rezin;
And within sixty and five years shall ⁱ Ephraim be broken,

That it be not a people:

⁹ And ^k the head of Ephraim is Samaria,
And the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.

If ^l ye will not believe,
Surely ye shall not be established.

¹⁰ And the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying: ¹¹ Ask ^m thee a sign from the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above. ¹² But Ahaz said:
I will not ask, nor will I tempt the LORD.
¹³ And he said:

Hear now, ye house of David!
Is it too little for you to weary men?
But will ye weary my God also?

¹⁴ Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign;

Behold, the ⁿ virgin shall conceive, and bear a son,

And shall call his name ^o Immanuel.

¹⁵ Butter; and honey shall he eat,
Until he know to refuse the evil and choose the good.

¹⁶ For ^p before the child shall know to refuse the evil and choose the good,
The land shall be forsaken, which thou fearest, because of her two kings.

¹⁷ The ^q LORD will bring upon thee,
And upon thy people, and upon thy father's house,

Days that have not come,
Since the day that ^r Ephraim turned away from Judah;

(Even the king of Assyria).

¹⁸ And it shall come to pass in that day,
The LORD ^s will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt,

And for the bee that is in the land of Assyria:

¹⁹ And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys,
And ^t in the holes of the cliffs;
And upon all the thorn-hedges, and upon all the pastures.

²⁰ In that day will the Lord shave by ^u a razor that is hired,
Namely by the regions beyond the river^v,
(By the king of Assyria),
The head and the hair of the feet;
And it shall also remove the beard.

²¹ And it shall come to pass in that day,

That a man shall nourish a young cow and
two sheep;

²² And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk they shall give, that he shall eat butter^w;

For butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the land.

²³ And it shall come to pass in that day,
That every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines, at ^z a thousand sil-verlings,

It shall be for briars ^y and thorns.

²⁴ With arrows and with bow shall they come thither,

Because all the land shall become thorns
and briars;

²⁵ And on all the hills that should be digged with the mattock,

Thou shalt not come thither, for fear of thorns and briars;

But it shall be for the sending forth of oxen,

And for the treading of small cattle.

Another prophecy of the speedy fall of Syria and Israel; and (5) the subsequent conquest of Judah by Assyria—but (11) those who trust in Jehovah shall be preserved; and (ch. 9, 1) these calamities shall be followed by deliverance, and (6) by the everlasting reign of the divine Prince of Peace.

8. AND THE LORD said unto me: ^a Take thee a great tablet, and write on it with a man's pen concerning Maher-shalal-hash-baz [i. e. Plunder speedeth, spoil hasteneth].
² And I will take to witness for me credible witnesses; ^b Uriah the priest, and Zechariah
the son of Jeberechiah.

³ And I went unto the prophetess: and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz [i. e. Plunder speedeth, spoil hasteneth].

⁴ For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father and my mother, ^c the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the king of Assyria.

³ Bring in counsel, do judgment,
Make thy shadow as the night in the midst of noonday;

Hide the outcasts,
Betray not the wanderer.

⁴ Let mine outcasts dwell with thee,
Be thou, Moab, a covert to them from the face of the destroyer.

For the extortioner is at an end,
The destruction ceaseth,

The ^d oppressors are consumed out of the land.

⁵ And by mercy shall the throne be established,

And there shall sit upon it, in truth, in the tabernacle of David,

One judging, ^e and seeking judgment, and hastening righteousness.

⁶ We have heard of the ^f pride of Moab, he is very proud,

His haughtiness and his pride and his wrath; his pratings are not right*.

⁷ Therefore shall Moab ^g howl for Moab, Every one of them shall howl;

For the foundations† of ^h Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn, surely stricken.

⁸ Because the fields of Heshbon languish; The vine of ⁱ Sibmah,

Whose noble plants intoxicated the lords of the nations;

They reached even unto Jazer, They wandered in the wilderness;

Its branches were stretched out, they went across the sea.

⁹ Therefore ^k I will bewail the vine of Sibmah with the weeping of Jazer, I will water thee with my tears, Heshbon and Elealeh!

For the war-cry falleth upon thy fruit-gathering and upon thy harvest;

¹⁰ And joy and gladness are taken away from the fruitful field,

And in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting;

The treaders shall tread out no wine in the presses;

I have made vintage-shouting to cease.

¹¹ Wherefore ^l my bowels shall sound like a harp for Moab, And mine inward parts for Kir-hareseth.

¹² And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab hath wearied himself on the high place,

That he will come to his sanctuary to pray, But ^m he shall not prevail.

¹³ This is the word that the LORD spake formerly concerning Moab. ¹⁴ But now the LORD speaketh, saying:

Within three years, ⁿ as the years of a hireling,

And the glory of Moab shall be contemned, With all the great multitude;

And ^o the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

Concerning Damascus-Syria, and the allied kingdom of Israel—(1) Both countries shall be ravaged and desolated; (6) but in Israel a remnant turning to God shall find mercy.

17. THE burden of ^p Damascus.

Behold, ^q Damascus is taken away from being a city,

And it shall be a ruinous heap.

² The cities of ^b Aroer are forsaken;

They shall be for flocks, Which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.

³ And the ^c fortress shall cease from Ephraim,

And the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria;

They shall be as the glory of the children of Israel,

Saith the LORD of hosts.

⁴ And in that day it shall come to pass, The glory of Jacob shall be made thin,

And the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean.

⁵ And it shall be as when the reaper gathereth the corn,

And reapeth the ears with his arm;

And it shall be as one that gleaneth ears in ^d the valley of Rephaim.

⁶ And ^e gleanings shall be left in it, like the shaking of an olive-tree;

Two or three berries on the top of the uppermost bough,

Four or five in the fruitful branches thereof,

Saith the LORD, the God of Israel.

⁷ At that day man will ^f look to his Maker,

And his eyes will have respect to the Holy One of Israel;

⁸ And he ^g will not look to the altars, the work of his hands;

Nor ^h will he respect that which his fingers have made,

Either ⁱ the Asherim† or the images.

⁹ In that day his strong cities shall be Like the forsaken wood and the tree-top;

² In that day sing ye about ^bher,
The vineyard of wine*.

³ I, ^cthe LORD, do keep it,
I ^dwater it every moment;
Lest it be harmed,
I keep it night and day.

⁴ Fury is no more in me:

Who will set ^ethe briers and thorns against me in battle?

I will rush upon them,
I will burn them up together.

⁵ Or let him take hold of my strength†;
Let him ^fmake peace with me,
Yea let him make peace with me.

⁶ In the coming days Jacob shall ^gtake root,

Israel shall blossom and bud;
And they shall fill the face of the world with fruit.

⁷ Hath ^hHe smitten him? as He smote
those that smote him?

Is he slain according to the slaughter of his slain ones?

⁸ In ⁱmeasure, when sending her away, dost thou contend with her;
He taketh her away with his rough wind in the day of the East wind.

⁹ By ^jthis therefore shall the iniquity of Jacob be expiated;

And this is all the fruit, to take away his sin;

When he hath made all the stones of the altar

Like chalkstones that are crushed to pieces;
The Asherim^k and the Sun-images shall not stand.

¹⁰ For the fortified city shall be desolate,
A habitation forsaken and deserted, like the wilderness.

There ^lshall the calf feed,
And there shall he lie down, and consume its branches.

¹¹ When its boughs are withered, they shall be broken off,

Women shall come and burn them.
For ^mit is a people of no understanding;

Therefore he who made them will not have mercy on them,

And ⁿhe who formed them will show them
no favour.

¹² And it shall come to pass in that day,
That the LORD will beat out^q,
From the channel of the river^r unto the stream of Egypt;

And ^oye shall be gathered, one by one, ye children of Israel!

¹³ And it shall come to pass in that day,
That ^pa great trumpet shall be blown;
And ^qthey who were perishing in the land
of Assyria,

And ^rthe outcasts in the land of Egypt,
Shall ^scome and shall worship the LORD,
In the holy mountain, at Jerusalem.

28. WOE to the crown of pride of ^athe drunkards of Ephraim,

And to the fading flower of his glorious beauty,

Which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine.

² Behold, the Lord ^bhath a mighty and strong one;

Like a tempest of hail and a destroying storm,

Like a flood of mighty waters overflowing,
He will cast down to the earth, with might^c.

³ The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim

Shall be trodden under feet;

⁴ And the fading flower of his glorious beauty,
Which is on the head of the fat valley,
Shall be like ^ean early fig, before the summer;

Which he that seeth it looketh at,
While it is yet in his hand he catcheth it up.

⁵ In that day will the LORD of hosts be
For a crown of glory and for a diadem of beauty,

Unto the residue of his people;

⁶ And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in judgment,

And ^dfor strength to them that turn back
the battle to the gate†.

⁷ But even these stagger through wine,
And reel through strong drink:

Priest ^eand prophet stagger through strong
drink,

They are swallowed up by wine,
They reel through strong drink;

They stagger in vision,
They stumble in judgment.

⁸ For all tables are full of filthy vomit;
There is no place†.

⁹ Whom ^fdoth he teach knowledge?
And whom doth he make to understand instruction?

Those withdrawn from the breasts.

⁴ For his* princes were at ^f Zoan,

Speak ^p unto us smooth things,
Prophecy deceits ;

¹¹ Turn ye out of the way,
Turn aside out of the path,
Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.

¹² Therefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel :

Because ye despise this word,
And trust in oppression and perverseness,
And stay yourselves thereon ;

¹³ Therefore this iniquity shall be to you

As a breach ready to fall,
Swelling out in a high wall,
Whose breaking cometh suddenly, in an instant ;

¹⁴ And ^q it is broken, like the breaking of a potters' vessel,
That is broken in pieces ^r unsparingly ;
So that there is not found among its fragments* a sherd,
To snatch fire from a burning hearth,
Or to take water out of a cistern.

¹⁵ For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy
One of Israel :

In turning ^t and rest shall ye be saved,
In ^u quietness and in confidence shall be your strength ;
But ye would not.

¹⁶ But ye say, No, for ^v we will flee upon horses ;

Therefore ye shall flee :

And, We will ride upon the swift.
Therefore shall ^w your pursuers be swift :

¹⁷ A ^x thousand shall flee at the rebuke of one,

At the rebuke of five shall ye flee ;
Till ye are left like a beacon upon the top of a mountain,
And like an ensign on a hill.

¹⁸ And therefore will the LORD ^y wait to be gracious unto you,
And therefore will he be exalted, to have mercy upon you :

For the LORD is the God of judgment,
Blessed : are all ^z they that wait for him.

Assyrian invasion of Judah, and capture of all the fortified places except Jerusalem—(2) Sennacherib's attempt to obtain the surrender of the city—(ch. 37. 1) Hezekiah's appeal to God ; and (16) the Lord's message through the prophet.

36. AND ^a it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah that Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.

² And ^b the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, unto king Hezekiah, with a great army. And he stood by ^c the conduit ; of the Upper Pool, in the highway of the Fuller's Field.

³ Then came forth unto him ^d Eliakim, Hilkiab's son, who was over the household, and ^e Shebna the scribe, and Joah, Asaph's son, the recorder.

And Rabshakeh said unto them : Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria : What confidence is this wherein thou trustest ? ⁵ I say, sayest thou (but they are only vain words) I have counsel and strength for the war. Now ^f on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me ? ⁶ Lo, thou trustest upon ^g the staff of this bruised reed, on Egypt, whereon if a man lean it will go into his hand and pierce it ; such is Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, to all that trust in him. ⁷ But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God ; is it not he whose ^h high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and to Jerusalem, ⁱ Ye shall worship before this altar ? ⁸ But now give pledges, I pray thee, to my master, the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to set riders upon them. ⁹ And how wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants ; and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen ? ¹⁰ And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it ? The LORD said unto me, Go up against this land and destroy it.

¹¹ Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh : Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian* language ; for we understand it ; and speak not to us in the Jews† language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall. ¹² But Rabshakeh said : Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee, to speak these words ? Is it not to the men who sit upon the wall, to eat their own dung and drink their own water ; with you ?

¹³ And Rabshakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews‡ language, and said : Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria : ¹⁴ Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you ; for he shall not be able to deliver you : ¹⁵ neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying : The LORD will surely deliver us ; this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹⁶ Hearken not to Hezekiah ; for thus saith the king of Assyria : Make peace with me, and come out to me, and ^k eat ye every one of his own vine and every one of his own fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern ; ¹⁷ until I come and take you away to a land like ^l your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards ; ¹⁸ lest Hezekiah incite you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria ? ¹⁹ Where are the gods of ^m Hamath and Arpad ? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim ? And ⁿ have they delivered Samaria out of my hand ? ²⁰ Who ^o are they among all the gods of these lands that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand ?

²¹ But they held their peace, and answered him not a word ; for the king's commandment was, saying : Answer him not.

²² Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiab, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah, with rent clothes, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

37. And ^p it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard ^{it}, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into ^{the} house of the LORD. ² And ⁷ he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. ³ And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah: This day is a day of trouble and of ⁸ rebuke and of reproach; for children are come to the birth and there is no strength to bring forth. ⁴ It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to blaspheme the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard. Wherefore lift up ^{thy} prayer for the remnant that is left.

⁵ And the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. ⁶ And Isaiah said unto them: Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD: Be not afraid because of the words which thou hast heard, wherewith the servants of the king of Assyria have reproached me. ⁷ Behold, I will ⁸ send a blast upon him*, and ^a he shall hear a rumour, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

⁸ And Rabshakeh returned; and he found the king of Assyria warring against ² Lihnah; for he had heard that he had departed from ⁹ Lachish.

Sennacherib's second demand of the surrender of Jerusalem—(14) Hezekiah's prayer, and (21) God's answer—(36) Destruction of the Assyrian army.

⁹ AND ^a he¹ heard say concerning Tirhakah, the king of Ethiopia: He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he heard ^{it}, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying: ¹⁰ Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah, the king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. ¹¹ Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? ¹² Have the gods of the nations which my fathers have destroyed, delivered them; ^b Gozan and ^c Haran and Rezeph, and the children of ^d Eden who were in Telassar? ¹³ Where ^{is} the king of ^e Hamath and the king of Arphad and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena and Ivah?

¹⁴ And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. ¹⁵ And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD saying: ¹⁶ O LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, who sittest ^f on the cherubim! ¹⁷ Thou art the God, thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. Thou hast made the heavens and the earth. ¹⁷ Incline ^h thine ear, O LORD, and hear; ⁱ open thine eyes, O LORD, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which he hath sent to blaspheme the living God. ¹⁸ Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations and their countries, ¹⁹ and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were not gods, but ^k the work of men's hands, wood and stone; so they have destroyed them. ²⁰ And now, O LORD our God, save us from his hand; that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that ^l thou, thou only, art the LORD.

²¹ And ^m Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, ²² this is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him:

The virgin, the daughter of Zion. Despiseth thee, she laugheth thee to scorn; The daughter of Jerusalem Shaketh her head at thee.

there, nor shall shield come before it: nor shall he cast a mound against it. ³⁴ By the way that he came, by it shall he return, and he shall not come into this city, saith
the LORD. ³⁵ For ³⁶ I will defend this city, to save it; for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.

³⁶ And ³⁷ the angel of the LORD went forth and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand;
and when they arose early in the morning, behold, they were all dead corpses.

³⁷ And Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. ³⁸ And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword: and they escaped into the land of Armenia.
And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.

Hezekiah's (1) sickness, (2) prayer, and (3) miraculous recovery—his thanksgiving psalm, (10) describing his sufferings; (15) gratefully celebrating God's mercy; and (19) dedicating his restored life to God.

³⁸ IN ^a those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came unto him, and said unto him: Thus saith the LORD: ^b Set thy house in order, for thou shalt die and not live.

² Then Hezekiah turned his face towards the wall, ³ and prayed unto the LORD and said: ^c Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and ^d with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in thy sight. And Hezekiah wept sorely.

⁴ Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, saying: ⁵ Go and say to Hezekiah.
Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father: I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. ⁶ And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city.
⁷ And this is the ^e sign unto thee from the LORD that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; ⁸ Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees which is gone down in the sun-dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun returned ten degrees by which degrees it was gone
down.

⁹ The writing* of Hezekiah, the king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness:

¹⁰ I said, in the quiet of my days I shall go to the gates of the grave,

I am deprived of the residue of my years.

¹¹ I said, I shall not see the LORD†,
The LORD‡, in the land of the living;

I shall behold man no more,
Amongst the inhabitants of the sepulchre.

¹² My dwelling§ is broken up, and it is removed from me,

Like a shepherd's tent;

I have cut off like a weaver my life.

He will cut me off from the warp§;

From day to night thou makest an end of
me.

¹³ I kept still till morning;

As a lion, so he breaketh all my bones:

From day to night thou makest an end of
me.

¹⁴ Like ^f a twittering swallow, so did I chatter,

I ^g mourned like a dove.

Mine ^h eyes failed with looking upward,

LORD, I am oppressed! Undertake for me.

¹⁵ What shall I say?

He hath both spoken unto me, and he himself hath done it.

I shall ⁱ go softly all my years,

Because of ^k the bitterness of my soul.

And in all these things is the life of my spirit;
And thou recoverest me, and makest me to live.

¹⁷ Behold, for peace I had great bitterness,
But Thou hast in love delivered my soul from the pit of corruption;
For ^m thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back.

¹⁸ For ^a the grave* doth not praise thee,
Nor death celebrate thee,
They that go down into the pit do not hope for thy truth.

¹⁹ The living, ^o the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day;
The ^p father to the children shall make known thy truth.

²⁰ The LORD purposed to save me:
And we will strike ^q my stringed instruments,

All the days of our life,
In the house of the LORD.

²¹ And Isaiah had said: ^r Let them bring a cake of figs and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. ²² And Hezekiah said: What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

Embassy from Babylon, and its reception by Hezekiah; (3) giving occasion to the prediction of the Babylonian captivity.

³⁹ AT ^a that time Merodach-baladan, the son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick and was recovered. ² And ^b Hezekiah was glad because of them; and he showed them the house of his precious things, the silver and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures; there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not show them.

³ Then came Isaiah the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him: What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said: They are come from a far country unto me, from Babylon. ⁴ And he said: What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah answered: All that is in my house have they seen; there is nothing among my treasures that I have not showed them.

⁷ And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, whom thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and ^d they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

⁸ Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah: ^e Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover: For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

Israel is summoned to prepare for a new manifestation of God's saving power—(6) Though all men perish, His word is eternal and omnipotent—(9) He is coming as the conqueror of his enemies and the Shepherd of his people.

⁴ Let every ^e valley be exalted,

And every mountain and hill be made low;

And the rough places plain.

Let the inhabitants of the rock sing,
Let them shout from the top of the moun-

I will cry like a travailing woman,

I will destroy and devour at once.

¹⁵ I ^v will make waste mountains and hills,

And dry up all their herbs ;

And ^w I will make rivers, islands,

And pools I will dry up.

¹⁶ And I will bring the blind by a way they

I will lead them in paths they know not ;

I will make darkness light before them,

And ^x crooked things straight.

These things will I do unto them,

And I will ^y not forsake them.

17.

And they are hidden in prison-houses ;
They are for a prey, and none delivereth,
For a spoil, and none saith, Restore.

²³ Who among you will give ear to this ?
²⁴ Who will hearken and hear for the future ?

²⁴ Who gave Jacob for a spoil,
And Israel to the robbers ?
Did ^g not the LORD,
He against whom we have sinned ?
For they did not choose to walk in his ways,
Nor did they obey his law.

²⁵ And ^h he hath poured upon him the fury of his anger,
And the strength of battle ;
And it hath set him on fire round about,
yet ⁱ he knew not,
And it burned him, yet ^k he laid it not to heart.

The prophecy continued—(1) Jehovah's sovereign grace and mercy towards his people, (s) who are his witnesses to all nations.

43. AND now thus saith the LORD, who created thee, Jacob,
And who formed thee, Israel :

Fear not, for ^l I have redeemed thee,
^l I ^b have called thee by thy name, thou art
mine.

² When ^e thou passest through the waters,
^d I ^{will} be with thee,

And through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee ;

When ^e thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned,
Nor shall the flame kindle upon thee.

³ For I ^{am} the LORD, thy God,
The Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour :

^l I gave Egypt for thy ransom,
Ethiopia* and Seba for thee.

⁴ Because thou art ^g precious in my sight,
Thou art honourable, and ^h I love thee ;
And I give men for thee,
And peoples for thy life.

⁵ Fear not, for I am with thee ;
^l I ^{will} bring thy seed from the East,

And gather thee from the West ;
⁶ I will say to the North, Give up,

And to the South, Keep not back ;
Bring ^k my sons from far,
And my daughters from the end of the
earth ;

⁷ Every one that is ^l called by my name ;
For I ^{am} have created him for my glory,
I have formed him, yea I have made
him.

⁸ Bring ⁿ forth the blind people that have eyes,
And the deaf that have ears.

⁹ Let all the nations be gathered together,
And let the peoples be assembled.
Who ^o among them declareth this,
And maketh us hear former things ?

Let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified,

Or let them hear and say, Truth !

¹⁰ Ye are ^p my witnesses, saith the LORD,
And ^q my servant, whom I have chosen ;
That ^r ye may know, and believe me,
And understand that I am He.
Before me there was no God formed,
Neither shall there be after me.

¹¹ I, even I, ^s am the LORD ;
And besides me there is no saviour.

¹² I have declared, and have saved, and have showed,

And there was no ^t strange god among
you ;

And ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD,
that I am God.

¹³ Yea ^u, ever since the day I am He,
And there is ^x none that can deliver out of my hand ;

I work, and ^y who shall hinder it ?

The prophecy continued—(14) Jehovah's mercy towards his people manifested in their deliverance from Babylon—(22) Israel's ingratitude, (ch. 41. 1) contrasted with God's mercy and grace.

14 THUS saith the LORD,
Your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel :
For your sake ^a I send to Babylon,
And bring down all of them as fugitives,
Even the Chaldeans, whose joyous cry is in the ships.

¹⁵ I, the LORD, am your Holy One,
The Creator of Israel, your King.

¹⁶ Thus saith the LORD,
Who ^b maketh a way in the sea,
And ^c a path in mighty waters :

¹⁷ Who ^d bringeth forth chariot and horse,
Army and power ;

(They shall lie down together, they shall not rise,

They are extinct, they are quenched as tow.)

¹⁸ Remember ^e ye not former things,
Neither consider ye things of old.

¹⁹ Behold, I do a new thing,
Now it springeth forth, shall ye not know
it ?

^l I will even make a way in the wilderness,
And rivers in the desert.

²⁰ The beast of the field shall honour
me,

The wild dogs and the ostriches ;
Because I give waters in the wilderness,
Rivers in the desert ;

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

JEREMIAH.

1. THE words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, among the priests who were at ^aAnathoth, in the land of Benjamin; ² to whom the word of the LORD came, ^b in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, the king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign: ³ it came also in the days of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, unto ^c the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, unto ^d the carrying away of Jerusalem captive, in the fifth month.

Jeremiah's (4) call, and (9) consecration, to the prophetic office.

4 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ⁵ Before I ^a formed thee in the belly I ^b knew thee, and before thou camest forth from the womb I ^c sanctified thee; I gave thee for a prophet unto the nations.

6 Then said I: ^d Ah, Lord GOD, behold, I cannot speak, for I am a youth. ⁷ But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a youth; for thou shalt go to ^e whomsoever I shall send thee, and ^f whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak. ⁸ Be ^g thou not afraid of their faces; for ^h I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

9 And the LORD put forth his hand and ⁱ touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me: Behold, I ^j put my words in thy mouth. ¹⁰ See, I this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to ^k root out and to pull down, and to ruin and to destroy, to build and to plant.

Two symbolical visions, confirming Jeremiah's divine commission; and representing (11) the nearness of coming judgments, and (13) the quarter whence they will burst forth.

11 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said: I see a branch of an almond tree. ¹² Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will watch over my word to perform it.

13 And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying: What seest thou? And I said: I see ^a a seething-pot, and its face is from the North.

14 Then the LORD said unto me: Out of ^b the North an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land. ¹⁵ For lo, I will ^c call all the families of the kingdoms of the North, saith the LORD. And they shall come, and ^d they shall set every one his throne ^e at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls round about, and ^f against all the cities of Judah. ¹⁶ And I will utter my judgments against them, for all their wickedness; in that they have ^g forsaken me, and have ^h burned incense unto other gods, and ⁱ worshipped the works of their hands.

17 Thou therefore, ^j gird up thy loins, and arise and speak unto them all that I shall command thee. Be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them. ¹⁸ For behold, I make thee this day into a ^k defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen ^l walls, against the whole land; against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land. ¹⁹ And ^m they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

A discourse, setting forth the Lord's mercy and faithfulness, and Israel's ingratitude and obstinate persistence in idolatry in spite of warnings and judgments; with threatenings of further chastisements.

2. AND the word of the LORD came to me, saying, ² Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD:

I remember for thee ^a the kindness of thy youth, The ^b love of thine espousals; When ^c thou wentest after me in the wilderness, In a land not sown. ³ Israel is ^d holiness unto the LORD, The ^e first fruits of his increase: All ^f that devour him are guilty, Evil shall come upon them, saith the LORD.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, ye house of Jacob! And all the families of the house of Israel!

5 Thus saith the LORD :
 What ^o iniquity did your fathers find in me ?
 That they went far from me,
 And ^a walked after vanity, and became vain.
 6 And they said not, Where is the LORD,
 Who ^b brought us up out of the land of Egypt,
 Who ^c led us through the wilderness,
 Through the land of desert and of pits*,
 Through the land of drought and of ^d death-shade,
 Through a land that no man passed through,
 And where no man dwelt ?
 7 And I brought you into ^m a plentiful country,
 To eat its fruit and its goodness.
 And when ye entered, ye ⁿ defiled my land,
 And made my heritage an abomination.
 8 The ^o priests said not, Where is the LORD ?
 And ^p they that handle the law knew me not,
 And the ^q shepherds transgressed against me ;
 And ^r the prophets prophesied by Baal,
 And walked after things that do not profit.
 9 Wherefore ^s I will yet contend with you,
 saith the LORD,
 And with your children's children will I contend.
 10 For pass ye over to ^t the isles : of Chittim, and see,
 And send to Kedar, and consider diligently ;
 And see if there be such a thing.
 11 Hath a nation changed its gods ?
 Yet they are no gods :
 But ^u " my people have changed their glory
 For what doth not profit.
 12 Be astonished, ye heavens, at this,
 And shudder, be horrified,
 Saith the LORD.
 13 For my people have committed two
 * evils ;
 They ^v have forsaken me,
^w The fountain of living waters,
 To hew out for themselves cisterns,
 Broken cisterns, that hold no water.
 14 Is Israel a servant, or a homeborn slave ?
 Why is he become a spoil ?
 15 The ^x young lions roar upon him, they give forth their voice.
 And they make his land waste,
 His cities are burned, without inhabitant.

16 Also the sons of Neph* and ^b Tahan-panes
 Have broken the crown of thy head.
 17 Did ^c not this cause it unto thee,
 Thy forsaking the LORD thy God,
 When he led thee in the way ?
 18 And now what hast thou to do ^d with the way of Egypt,
 To drink the waters of Sihor ?
 Or ^e what hast thou to do with the way of Assyria,
 To drink the waters of the river ?
 19 Thy ^f wickedness chastiseth thee,
 And thy backslidings punish thee ;
 Know then and see that it is evil and ^h bitter,
 That thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God,
 And my fear is not in thee,
 Saith the Lord, the GOD of hosts.
 20 For of old time thou didst break thy yoke,
 Didst burst thy bands,
 And saidst, I will not serve.
 For ⁱ upon every high hill,
 And under every green tree,
 Thou bowest down, ^k playing the harlot.
 21 But I had ^l planted thee a noble vine,
 Wholly a right seed :
 And how art thou turned Into ^m the wild shoots of a strange ⁿ vine unto me ?
 22 For though thou wash thee with nitre,
 And take thee much soap,
 Thine ^o iniquity is marked before me,
 Saith the Lord God.
 23 How ^p sayest thou : I am not polluted,
 I have not gone after the Baals ?
 See ^q thy way in the valley,
 Know what thou hast done ;
 Thou swift dromedary traversing her ways !
 24 A ^r wild ass used to the wilderness,
 That snuffeth up the wind in her desire !
 In her occasion who can turn her away ?
 All ^s they that seek her will not weary themselves,
 In her month they will find her.
 25 Withhold thy foot from bareness,
 And thy throat from thirst.
 But ^t thou saidst, There is no hope ;
 No, for I love ^u strangers,
 And after them will I go.
 26 As a thief is ashamed when he is found,
 So ^v " the house of Israel are ashamed,
 They, their kings, their princes,
 And their priests and their prophets ;

They go into the thickets,
And climb up upon the crags;
All the city is forsaken,
And no man dwelleth therein.

³⁰ And thou spoiled one, what wilt thou do?

Though thou clothest thyself with crimson,
Though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold,

Though thou rendest* thine eyes with ^A paint,

In vain dost thou make thyself fair;

Thy lovers ^ddespise thee,

They ^kseek thy life.

³¹ For I hear a voice as of a woman in travail,

Anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first-born:

The voice of the daughter of Zion;

She bewaileth herself, she ^tstretcheth forth her hands,

Woe ^mnow to me!

For my soul fainteth before the murderers.

The prophecy continued.—(1) The universal impiety, idolatry and moral corruption of the people, to be punished (15) by invasion of a barbarous nation.

5. RUN ye to and fro in the streets of Jerusalem,

And see now, and know, and seek in her broad places,

If ^a ye can find a man,

If ^b there be any that doeth judgment, that seeketh after truth;

And ^c I will pardon her.

² Even when they say, As the LORD liveth; Surely they ^dswear falsely.

³ LORD, are not thine eyes upon truth?

Thou ^esmitest them, but they are not pained, Thou consumest them, but ^f they refuse to receive correction;

They make ^g their faces harder than a rock, They refuse to return.

⁴ Therefore I said,

Surely these are the poor, they are foolish, For ^h they know not the way of the LORD, The judgment of their God:

⁵ I will get me to the great, and will speak unto them,

For ⁱ they know the way of the LORD, The judgment of their God:

But these have altogether broken ^k the yoke, And burst the bonds.

⁶ Therefore ^l a lion out of the forest slayeth them,

A ^m wolf of the evenings ^t spoileth them;

A ⁿ leopard watcheth against their cities,

Every one that goeth out thence is torn in pieces;

Because their transgressions are many, Their backslidings are numerous.

⁷ How shall I pardon thee for this?

Thy sons have forsaken me,

And ^o they swear by no-gods*;

And ^p I fed them to the full,

And they have committed adultery,

And they troop to the harlot's house.

⁸ They are like well-fed horses in the morning ^t,

Every one ^u neigheth after his neighbour's wife.

⁹ Shall ^v I not visit for these things? saith the LORD,

And shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

¹⁰ Go ye up on her walls and destroy,

But make not a full end;

Take away ^w her tendrils,

For they are not the LORD's.

¹¹ For ^x the house of Israel and the house of Judah

Deal very treacherously against me, saith the LORD.

¹² They deny the LORD,

And say, He is not;

And ^y evil shall not come upon us,

Nor shall we see sword or famine.

¹³ And the prophets are become wind,

And he that speaketh is not in them;

Thus shall it be done unto them.

¹⁴ Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts:

Because ye speak this word;

Behold, ^z I will make my words in thy mouth fire,

And this people wood,

And it shall devour them.

¹⁵ Lo, I will bring ^a a nation upon you from afar,

Ye house of Israel, saith the LORD;

It is ^b a mighty nation,

It is a nation from of old;

A nation whose language thou knowest not, Neither understandest thou what they say.

¹⁶ Their quiver is as an open sepulchre,

They are all mighty men.

¹⁷ And ^c they shall eat up thy harvest and thy bread,

They shall eat up thy sons and thy daughters,

They shall eat up thy flocks and thy herds,

They shall eat up thy vines and thy fig-trees;

They shall break down thy defenced cities, Wherein thou trustest, with the sword.

And they cannot hearken :
Behold, ^o the word of the LORD is unto them for a reproach,
They have no delight in it.
¹¹ But I am full of the fury of the LORD,
I am ^p weary with holding it in.
Pour it out ^q upon the children in the street,
And upon the assembly of young men together ;
For both the husband and the wife shall be taken,
The aged with the full of days.
¹² And their houses shall be turned unto others,
With their fields ^r and wives together.
For ^s I will stretch out my hand against the inhabitants of the land,
Saith the LORD.
¹³ For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them,
Every one is ^t given to covetousness ;
And ^u from the prophet even unto the priest,
Every one dealeth falsely.
¹⁴ And they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly,
Saying, ^x Peace, peace !
And there is no peace*.
¹⁵ They ^y are put to shame, because they have committed abomination ;
Nay, they are not at all ashamed,
Neither can they blush,
Therefore they shall fall among them that fall,
At the time I visit them, they shall stumble, saith the LORD.
¹⁶ Thus saith the LORD :
Stand ye in the ways, and look,
And ask for ^z the ancient paths,
Where is the good way ?
And walk ye therein,
And ye ^a shall find rest for your souls ;
But they say, We will not walk therein.
¹⁷ Also I set ^b watchmen over you ;
Hearken ye to the sound of trumpet ;
But they say, ^c We will not hearken.
¹⁸ Therefore hear, ye nations !
And know, thou congregation, what is

¹⁹ Hear, ^d O earth !

For the fowl of the heaven, and for the beast of the earth;
And none shall fray them away.

Doth one turn away, and not return?
⁵ Why doth this people, even Jerusalem,
back-slide,

With ^b a perpetual back-sliding?
Why do they hold fast deceit,
And refuse to return?

⁶ I hearkened and heard,
But they speak not aright;

⁸ How do ye say, ^h We are wise,
And the law of the LORD is with us?
Lo certainly the lying pen of the scribes
hath made it a lie,

⁹ The ⁱ wise men are put to shame,
They are dismayed and taken;
Lo, they have rejected the word of the
LORD,
And ^j what wisdom is in them?

¹³ THUS saith the LORD unto me: Go and buy thee a linen girdle, and put it upon thy loins; and put it not in water.

² And I bought the girdle, according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins.

³ And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying: ⁴ Take the girdle that thou hast bought, which is upon thy loins, and arise, ^a go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock.

⁵ So I went and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me.

⁶ And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me: Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence which I commanded thee to hide there. ⁷ And I went to the Euphrates; and I digged, and took the girdle from the place where I hid it; and behold, the girdle was spoiled, it was good for nothing.

⁸ Then the word of the LORD came unto me saying: ⁹ Thus saith the LORD:

After this manner ^b will I spoil the pride of Judah,

And the great pride of Jerusalem.

¹⁰ This ^c evil people, who refuse to hear my words,

Who ^d walk in the stubbornness of their heart,

And have gone after other gods,

To serve them and to worship them,

Shall even be as this girdle,

Which is good for nothing.

¹¹ For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man,

So have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel,

And the whole house of Judah,

Saith the LORD,

That ^e they might be unto me for a people,

And ^f for a name and for a praise and for a glory;

But ^g they would not hear.

¹² And thou shalt speak unto them this word, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Every bottle is filled with wine. And they will say unto thee, Do we not certainly know that every bottle is filled with wine? ¹³ Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD:

Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land,

Even the kings that sit upon David's throne,

And the priests and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem,

With ^h drunkenness.

¹⁴ And ⁱ I will dash them one against another,

Even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD;

I ^k will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, So as not to destroy them.

¹⁵ Hear ye and give ear, be not proud;

For the LORD speaketh:

¹⁶ Give ^l glory to the LORD your God,

Before it groweth ^m dark,

And before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains;

And while ye ⁿ look for light,

He turn it into ^o the shadow of death,

And make it gross darkness.

¹⁷ And if ye will not hear it,

My soul shall weep in secret places for ^p your pride;

And ^q mine eye shall weep sore and run down with tears,

Because the LORD's flock is carried away captive.

¹⁸ Say to ^r the king and to the queen*:

Sit ye down low;

For from your heads falleth down the crown of your magnificence.

¹⁹ The cities of the South are shut up,

And no one openeth;

All Judah ^s is carried away,

It is wholly carried away.

²⁰ Lift up your eyes, and behold

Them ^t that come from the North.

Where is the flock that was given to thee,

Thy beautiful flock?

²¹ What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee;

And ^u thou thyself hast taught them to be captains in chief over thee?

Shall not ^v sorrows take thee,

As a woman in travail?

²² And when thou sayest in thy heart,

Wherefore ^w come these things upon me?

For ^x the greatness of thine iniquity

Are ^y thy skirts uncovered,

And thy heels treated with violence.

27 But to the land whereunto they long to return,
Thither shall they not return.

28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel,

A ^b vessel wherein is no delight?

Wherefore are they flung out, he and his seed,

And are cast into a land which they know not?

29 Earth, ^c earth, earth!

Hear thou the word of the LORD!

30 Thus saith the LORD:

Write ye this man ^d childless,

A man that shall not prosper in his day;

For no man of his seed shall prosper,

Sitting ^e upon the throne of David,

And ruling any more in Judah.

The prophecy continued—(1) The flock which has been ruined and scattered by wicked shepherds shall be gathered, saved, and abundantly blessed by a righteous branch of the house of David.

23. WOE ^a be unto the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! saith the LORD. ² Therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds that feed my people:

Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away,
And have not visited them.

Behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD.

3 And ^b I will gather the remnant of my flock

Out of all countries whither I have driven them;

And I will bring them again to their pastures,

And they shall be fruitful and increase.

4 And ^c I will set up over them shepherds,

And they shall be fed;

And they shall no more fear, or be dismayed,

Neither shall they be missing,

Saith the LORD.

5 Behold, ^d the days come, saith the LORD,

That I will raise unto David a righteous branch;

And he shall reign, as King, and shall do wisely,

And ^e shall execute judgment and justice in the land.

6 In ^f his days Judah shall be saved,

And Israel ^g shall dwell safely;

And this is his name whereby he shall be called:

The ^h LORD our righteousness.

7 Therefore behold, ⁱ the days come, saith the LORD;

That they shall no more say,

As the LORD liveth,

Who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt:

8 But, As the LORD liveth,

Who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the North country,

And from ^k all the countries whither I had driven them;

And they shall dwell in their own land.

Against the false prophets—(9) They shall be judged for their immorality, deceit and profanity—(16) The people are warned against their deceits, (23) which shall be punished, (33) especially their mockery at God's messages by his prophet.

9 CONCERNING the prophets:

My heart within me is broken,

All my bones shake;

I am ^a like a drunken man,

And like a man whom wine hath overcome;

Because of the LORD,

And because of the words of his holiness.

10 For ^b the land is full of adulterers;

For because of swearing ^c * the land mourneth,

The ^d pastures of the wilderness are dried up;

And their course is evil,

And their might is not right.

11 For ^e both prophet and priest are profane;

Even ^f in my house have I found their wickedness,

Saith the LORD.

12 Therefore ^g their way shall be unto them as slippery places in the darkness,

They shall be driven on, and fall therein;

For ^h I bring evil upon them,

The year of their visitation,

Saith the LORD.

13 Also in the prophets of Samaria have I seen impiety;

They ⁱ prophesied by Baal,

And ^k caused my people Israel to go astray.

11 And in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen a horrible thing;

They ^l commit adultery, and walk in lies;

And they ^m strengthen the hands of evil-doers,

That none turneth from his wickedness.

They are all of them unto me as ⁿ Sodom,

And the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.

24. THE ^a LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs, ^b set before the temple of the LORD; after ^c Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, had carried away captive ^d Jeconiah, the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and the smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. ² One basket had very good figs, like the figs first ripe; and the other basket had ^e very bad figs, which could not be eaten, for badness.

³ Then said the LORD unto me: What seest thou, Jeremiah? And I said: Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad very bad, which cannot be eaten, for badness.

⁴ Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ⁵ Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I regard for good the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans. ⁶ And I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I ^f will bring them again to this land. And ^g I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. ⁷ And I will give them ^h a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be ⁱ my people, and I will be their God; for ^k they shall return unto me with their whole heart.

⁸ And as to the ^l bad figs, which cannot be eaten, for badness, surely thus saith the LORD: So ^m will I give Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and ⁿ them that dwell in the land of Egypt; ⁹ yea I will give them for vexation ^t, for trouble, unto all the kingdoms of the earth, for ^a a reproach and for a proverb, for a taunt and for ^b a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them. ¹⁰ And I will send among them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, till they are consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

25. THE word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, ^a in the fourth year of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah—(that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon)—² which Jeremiah the prophet spake to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:

³ From ^b the thirteenth year of Josiah, the son of Amon, the king of Judah, even unto this day, these three and twenty years, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking^c; but ye have not hearkened. ⁴ And ^c the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear. ⁵ They said, ^d Turn ye now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell ye in the land that the LORD hath given to you and to your fathers for ever and ever. ⁶ And go ye not after other gods, to serve them and to worship them; and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and I will do you no hurt. ⁷ Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might ^e provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, to your own hurt.

⁸ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts: Because ye have not heard my words, ⁹ behold, I will send and take ^f all the families of the North, saith the LORD, and Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, ^g my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and ^h against all these nations round about; and I will utterly destroy them, and ⁱ make them an astonishment and a hissing and perpetual desolations. ¹⁰ And I will cause to perish from them ^k the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the mill-stones and the light of the lamp. ¹¹ And this whole land shall become a desolation, and an astonishment ^t.

Jeremiah's public predictions of the destruction of the city and temple.—(8) The accusation of the priests and false prophets against him. (12) Jeremiah's defence, and (16) acquittal.—(20) The fate of another faithful prophet.—(24) Jeremiah's preservation.

26. IN the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim, the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying: ² Thus saith the LORD: Stand in ^a the court of the LORD's house, and speak unto ^a all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, ^b all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; ^c diminish not a word. ³ Perhaps ^d they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way; that ^e I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do unto them, because of the badness of their doings.

⁴ And thou shalt say unto them; Thus saith the LORD: ^f If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law which I have set before you, ⁵ to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, ^g whom I sent unto you, both rising early and sending, but ye have not hearkened; ⁶ then will I make this house like ^h Shiloh, and I will make this city ^a a curse to all the nations of the earth.

⁷ And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD.

⁸ And it came to pass when Jeremiah made an end of speaking all that the LORD commanded him to speak unto all the people, that ^k the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold of him, saying: Thou shalt surely die. ⁹ Why hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying: This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD.

¹⁰ And the princes of Judah heard these things; and they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD; and they sat down in the entry of ^l the new gate of the LORD's house. ¹¹ Then spake the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying: This man is worthy to die; ^m for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.

¹² Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the people, saying: ⁿ The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. ¹³ Therefore now ^o amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD ^p will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. ¹⁴ As for me, behold,

^q I am in your hand; do with me as seemeth good and right unto you. ¹⁵ But know ye for certain, that if ye put me to death, ye will surely bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon its inhabitants. For of a truth the LORD hath sent me unto you to speak all these words in your ears.

¹⁶ And the princes and all the people said unto the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy to die; for in the name of the LORD our God hath he spoken to us.

¹⁷ Then ^r rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying: ¹⁸ Micah ^s the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah, the king of Judah; and he spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts:

Zion shall be ploughed like a field, And Jerusalem shall become heaps, And the mountain of the House like the high places of a forest [Mic. iii. 12].

¹⁹ Did Hezekiah, the king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? ^t Did he not fear the LORD, and supplicate the LORD? And the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them. Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.

²⁰ And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah, of ^u Kirjath-jearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land, according to all the words of Jeremiah. ²¹ And Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words; and the king sought to put him to death. And when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt. ²² And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt; ^v Elnathan the son of Achbor and men with him, into Egypt; ²³ and they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.

²⁴ Nevertheless the hand of ^w Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, so that ^x they did not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

Judah, came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying:

² Thus saith the LORD to me: ^a Make thee bonds and yokes, and put them upon thy neck, ³ and ^b send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers who are come to Jerusalem, unto Zedekiah, the king of Judah. ⁴ And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say unto your masters; ⁵ I ^c have made the earth, the man and the beast that are upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and I ^d have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. ⁶ And now ^e have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, ^f my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. ⁷ And ^g all nations shall serve him, and his son and his son's son, ^h until the time of his land also come: and then many nations and great kings shall exact service of him. ⁸ And it shall come to pass that the nation and kingdom that will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword and with the famine and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.

⁹ But ⁱ hearken ye not to your prophets, nor to ^k your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanter, nor to your sorcerers, who speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon. ¹⁰ For ^l they prophesy falsehood unto you, ^m in order to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. ¹¹ But the nation that bringeth its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serveth him, even it will I let remain in its own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.

¹² I spake also to ⁿ Zedekiah, the king of Judah, according to all these words, saying: Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. ¹³ Why ^o will ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? ¹⁴ And hearken ye not unto the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy falsehood unto you. ¹⁵ For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, and they prophesy falsely in my name; in order that I should drive you out, and ye should perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you.

¹⁶ Also I spake to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD: Harken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy falsehood unto you. ¹⁷ Harken not unto them: serve the king of Babylon, and live: wherefore should this city become a desolation?

¹⁸ But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD and the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. ¹⁹ For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning ^p the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, ²⁰ which Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, took not, when he carried away captive ^q Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; ²¹ yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD and ^r in the house of the king of Judah, and in Jerusalem: ²² To Babylon shall they be ^r carried, and there shall they be until ^s the day that I visit them, saith the LORD, that ^t I may bring them up, and restore them to this place.

In reply to the contradiction of a false prophet (5) Jeremiah appeals to the event to prove the truth or falsehood of the predictions—(12) Judgment upon the false prophet.

28. AND it came to pass in that year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah, the king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah, the son of Azur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spake unto me, in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying: ² Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken ^a the yoke of the king of Babylon. ³ Within ^b two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house that Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, took away from this place, and carried them to Babylon; ⁴ and

I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, saith the LORD; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.

⁶ And the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah, in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of the LORD, ⁶ even the prophet Jeremiah said: ⁶ Amen, So may the LORD do; may the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied; to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon unto this place. ⁷ Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people. ⁸ The prophets that have been before me and before thee from of old prophesied also concerning many countries and concerning great kingdoms, of war and of calamity and of pestilence. ⁹ The ^d prophet who prophesieth of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, shall be known to be the prophet whom the LORD hath sent.

¹⁴ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ^f I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon; and they shall serve him; and ^g I have given him the beasts of the field also.

¹⁵ And the prophet Jeremiah said unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear, I pray, Hananiah! The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou ^h makest this people to trust in falsehood. ¹⁶ Therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will cast thee from off the face of the earth. This year thou shalt die, because thou hast spoken ⁱ rebellion against the LORD. ¹⁷ And Hananiah the prophet died, in that year, in the seventh month.

A letter to the Jewish exiles, (1) directing them to settle peaceably in Babylon, (8) warning them against the flatteries of false prophets. (15) foretelling severe calamities upon the people remaining in Jerusalem, (21) and condemning two wicked prophets in Babylon.

29. NOW these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon, ² (after ^a Jeconiah the king, and the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), ³ by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, whom Zedekiah, the king of Judah, sent unto Babylon, to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, saying:

⁸ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets and your diviners, that are in the midst of you, ^e deceive you; neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed. ⁹ For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name; I have not sent them, saith the LORD.

¹⁰ For thus saith the LORD: After ^f seventy years are accomplished for Babylon ^g I will visit you, and perform my good word towards you, in causing you to return to this place. ¹¹ For I know the thoughts that I think towards you, saith the LORD, ^h thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you a latter end and hope. ¹² And ⁱ ye shall call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. ¹³ And ^k ye shall seek me and find me, when ye shall search for me ^l with all your heart. ¹⁴ And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will restore your captives; and ^m I will gather you from all the nations and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will restore you to the place whence I caused you to be carried away captive.

¹⁵ Because ye say, The LORD hath raised us up prophets in Babylon; ¹⁶ yea, thus saith the LORD, of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity; ¹⁷ thus saith the LORD of hosts: Behold, ¹⁸ I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence; and I will make them like ^a the shocking figs, that cannot be eaten, for badness. ¹⁹ And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence; and ²⁰ I will give them for vexation* to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be ^a a curse and an astonishment and a hissing and a reproach, among all the nations whither I have driven them: ²¹ because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which ²² I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending; but ye obeyed not, saith the LORD.

²⁰ Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon:

²¹ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Koliaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy falsehood unto you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; ²² and ²³ of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; ²⁴ because ²⁵ they have committed folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken a word in my name in falsehood, which I did not command them. But ²⁶ I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

A false prophet at Babylon having written to the chief officer of the temple at Jerusalem to restrain Jeremiah, (30) the sentence of God is pronounced upon him.

²⁴ AND thou shalt speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, ²⁵ Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: Because thou hast sent letters in thy name to all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to ^a Zephaniah, the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, ²⁶ The LORD hath made thee priest instead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man mad and making himself a prophet, that thou shouldst put him in the stocks and in the prison*; ²⁷ and now why hast thou not reproved Jeremiah of Anathoth, who maketh himself a prophet to you? ²⁸ For therefore he sent unto us, to Babylon, saying, It is long; build ye houses and settle, and plant gardens and eat the fruit of them.

²⁹ And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.

³⁰ Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, ³¹ Send to all the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD, concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he hath caused you to trust in falsehood; ³² therefore thus saith the LORD: Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; ³³ because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

The deliverance and restoration of Israel, and judgments upon her oppressors.

30. THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ² Thus speaketh the LORD, the God of Israel, saying: Write thee in a book all the words that I have spoken unto thee. ³ For lo, the days come, saith the LORD, that ^a I will restore the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD; and ^b I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. ⁴ And these are the words that the LORD hath spoken concerning Israel and concerning Judah.

⁵ For thus saith the LORD:

We ^c hear the voice of trembling, Of alarm, and not of peace.

⁶ Ask ye now, and see, whether a male doth travail with child?

Wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins,

Like ^d a woman in travail;

And all faces are turned into paleness*?

⁷ Alas! ^e for that day is great, So ^f that none is like it:

It is even the time of trouble to Jacob, But he shall be saved out of it.

⁸ For it shall come to pass in that day, Saith the LORD of hosts, I will break his yoke from off thy neck, And will burst thy bonds; And strangers shall no more exact service of him:

The ^c Habitation of righteousness, the Mountain ^u of holiness!
24 And there shall dwell in Judah itself, And ^z in all its cities together, Husbandmen, and they ^{that} go about with the flock.

25 For ^v I refresh the weary soul, And I will satisfy every languishing soul.

26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld, And my sleep was sweet unto me.

Promise of a new, spiritual, and everlasting covenant.

27 BEHOLD, the days come, saith the LORD,
That ^a I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah,
With the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.

28 And it shall come to pass ^{that} as I have ^b watched over them,
To ^c pluck up and to break down,
And to overthrow and to destroy and to crush;

So will I watch over them,
To ^d build and to plant, saith the LORD.

29 In those days they shall no more say,
The ^e fathers have eaten sour grapes,
And the children's teeth are set on edge*:
30 But ^f every one shall die for his own iniquity;
Every man that eateth the sour grapes,
His teeth shall be set on edge†.

Behold, ^g the days come, saith the LORD,
That I will make a new covenant,
With the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:

32 Not like the covenant that I made with their fathers,
In the day ^h I took them by the hand,
To bring them out of the land of Egypt;
Which ⁱ my covenant they brake,
Although I was ^k a husband† unto them,
saith the LORD:

33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel,
After those days, saith the LORD;
I ^l will put my law in their inward part,
And write it in their hearts;
And ^m I will be their God,
And they shall be my people.

34 And they shall no more teach every man his neighbour,
And every man his brother,
Saying, Know the LORD;
For ⁿ they shall all know me,
From the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD;

For ^o I will forgive their iniquity,
And their sin I will remember no more.

35 Thus saith the LORD,
Who ^p giveth the sun for light by day,
And the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for light by night;
Who ^q stirreth up the sea, and its waves roar;
The LORD of hosts is his name:
36 If ^r these ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD,
The seed of Israel also shall cease from being a people before me for ever.
37 Thus saith the LORD:
If heaven above can be measured,
And the foundations of the earth searched out beneath;
I will also cast off all the seed of Israel,
For all that they have done, saith the LORD.

38 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That the city shall be built for the LORD,
From ^s the tower of Hananeel unto the Corner-gate.

39 And ^t the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it, upon the hill Gareb,
And shall turn towards Goah.

40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes,
And all the fields unto the brook of ^u Kidron,

Unto the corner of ^v the Horses' Gate toward the East,
Shall be ^w holiness unto the LORD;
It shall not be plucked up nor thrown down any more for ever.

2 For then the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up ^b in the court of the prison*, which was in the king of Judah's house.
3 For Zedekiah, the king of Judah, had shut him up, saying: Wherefore dost thou prophesy and say, Thus saith the LORD: Behold, ^c I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; ^d and ^d Zedekiah, the king of Judah, shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but he shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Baby-

35 And now therefore, thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, by the sword and by the famine and by the pestilence; ³⁷ Behold, I will ⁸ gather them out of all the countries whither I have driven them, in mine anger and in my fury and in great wrath; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them ⁹ to dwell safely. ³⁸ And they shall be ⁸ my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ And ⁴ I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them and of their children after them. ⁴⁰ And ⁴ I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. ⁴¹ Yea, ² I will rejoice over them to do them good, and ⁷ I will plant them in this land assuredly, with my whole heart and with my whole soul.

42 For thus saith the LORD: ² As I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. ⁴³ And fields shall be bought in this land whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast, it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. ⁴⁴ Men shall buy fields for money, and shall subscribe writings and seal them, and take witnesses, in ⁴ the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill-country, and in the cities of the lowlands, and in the cities of the South. ⁵ They ^f come to fight with the Chaldeans, And to fill them with the dead bodies of men,

Whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury;

And for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city.

⁶ Behold, I ^g will bring it healing and cure, and I will cure them,

And will reveal unto them an abundance of peace and truth.

⁷ And I ^h will restore the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel,

And I ⁱ will build them, as at the first.

And in the places about Jerusalem,
And in the cities of Judah,
Shall the flocks ⁴ again pass under the hands of him that counteth them,
Saith the LORD.

¹⁴ Behold, the days come, saith the LORD,
That ⁴ I will perform the good word,
Which I promised to the house of Israel and to the house of Judah.

¹⁵ In ² those days and at that time,
Will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David ;
And he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land.

¹⁶ In those days shall Judah be saved,
And Jerusalem shall dwell securely ;
And this is what she shall be called :
The LORD our righteousness.

¹⁷ For thus saith the LORD :
To David shall ⁹ never be wanting a man,
To sit upon the throne of the house of Israel ;

¹⁸ Neither ² to the priests, the Levites, shall be wanting a man before me,
To offer burnt-offerings and to burn meal-offerings,
And to do sacrifice continually.

¹⁹ And the word of the LORD came unto
Jeremiah, saying :

²⁰ Thus saith the LORD :
If ye can break ⁶ my covenant of the day,
and my covenant of the night,
So that there should not be day and night
in their season ;

²¹ Then also ⁶ my covenant shall be broken
with David my servant,
That he should not have a son reigning
upon his throne ;
And with the Levites, the priests, my ministers.

²² As ⁶ the host of heaven cannot be numbered,
Nor the sand of the sea measured ;
So will I multiply the seed of David my servant,
And ⁴ the Levites that minister unto me.

²³ And the word of the LORD came to
Jeremiah, saying :

²⁴ Seest thou not what this people speak,
saying,

The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off ?
Thus they despise my people,
That they should be no more a nation before them.

²⁵ Thus saith the LORD :
If my covenant be not with day and night,
If I have not ⁶ appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth ;

²⁶ Then ⁷ will I also reject the seed of Jacob,

And David my servant,
So as not to take of his seed as rulers
Over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob :

For ⁹ I will restore their captivity, and ⁴ have mercy on them.

*Message to Zedekiah announcing (2) the fruit-lessness of resistance to the Chaldeans, and (4)
his own captivity and death.*

34. THE word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, ^a (when Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and all his army, and ^b all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the nations, were fighting against Jerusalem and against all its cities), saying :

² Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel : Go and speak to Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD : Behold, ^c I give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. ³ And ^d thou shalt not escape out of his hand ; but thou shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand ; and ^e thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and his mouth shall speak with thy mouth ; and thou shalt go to Babylon.

⁴ Yet hear the word of the LORD, thou Zedekiah, king of Judah ; Thus saith the LORD concerning thee : Thou shalt not die by the sword, ⁵ thou shalt die in peace ; and with ^f the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings who were before thee, so shall they make a burning for thee ; and ^g they will lament for thee, Ah lord ! For I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD.

⁶ And Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah, the king of Judah, in Jerusalem, ⁷ while the king of Babylon's army were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left ; against Lachish, and against Azekah ; for these ^h fortified cities remained among the cities of Judah.

Condemnation of the king and people, for reducing again to bondage Hebrew servants who had been liberated, as required by the law.

⁸ THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; ⁹ that ^a every man should set free his manservant, and every man his maid-servant, a Hebrew or a Hebrewess; that ^b no man should exact service of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother.

¹⁰ And all the princes and all the people, who had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should set free his manservant, and every one his maid-servant; that none should exact service of them any more; and they obeyed, and let them go. ¹¹ But afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids whom they had set free to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.

¹² And the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, ¹³ Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondmen, saying, ¹⁴ At the end of ^c seven years let ye go every man his brother, a Hebrew, who hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years thou shalt let him go free from thee. But your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither inclined their ear. ¹⁵ And ye, this day, were turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name. ¹⁶ But ye have turned and have polluted my name; and ye have caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom he had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return; and ye have brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

¹⁷ Therefore thus saith the LORD: Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour; behold, I proclaim liberty against you, saith the LORD, ^d for the sword, for pestilence, and for famine, and I will give you ^e for vexation* to all the kingdoms of the earth. ¹⁸ And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when ^f they cut the calf in twain and passed between the parts thereof, ¹⁹ the princes of Judah and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf—²⁰ I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and ^g their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls of the heaven and to the beasts of the earth. ²¹ And Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and his princes, will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, ^h which are gone up from you. ²² Behold, ⁱ I command, saith the LORD, and I cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and ^k take it, and burn it with fire; and ^l I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

The filial obedience of the Rechabites tested, and (12) presented as an example to the disobedient Jews, (17) upon whom the threatened calamities shall fall; but (18) the Rechabites' obedience shall be rewarded.

³ Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habaziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites, ⁴ and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the chamber† of the sons of Hanan, the son of Iglaliah, a man of God; which was by the chamber† of the princes, which was above the chamber† of Maaseiah the son of Shalum, ^e the keeper of the door. ⁵ And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites goblets full of wine, and cups; and I said unto them: Drink ye wine.

⁶ But they said: We will drink no wine: for ^d Jonadab the son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, ye and your sons for ever; ⁷ neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor shall ye have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye sojourn. ⁸ And ^e we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters; ⁹ and not to build houses for us to dwell in; and not to have vineyard, or field, or seed: ¹⁰ but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed and ¹⁴ And all the princes sent Jehudi, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying: The scroll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, take it in thy hand, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. ¹⁵ And they said to him: Sit down now, and read it in our ears. And Baruch read it in their ears.

¹⁶ And it came to pass, when they heard all the words, they were afraid, before one and other*; and they said to Baruch: We will surely report to the king all these words. ¹⁷ And they asked Baruch, saying: Tell us now, how didst thou write all these words from his mouth? ¹⁸ And Baruch said to them: He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. ¹⁹ Then said the princes unto Baruch: Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye are.

²⁵ Yet ²⁶ they were not afraid, nor did they rend their garments, the king and all his servants who heard all these words. ²⁷ And even though Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah intreated the king not to burn the scroll, yet he hearkened not to them. ²⁸ And the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech‡, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but ²⁹ the LORD hid them.

³⁰ And after the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying: ³¹ Take thee again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the former scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned. ³² And concerning Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD: Thou hast burned this scroll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from it man and beast? ³³ Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim, the king of Judah: ³⁴ He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be ³⁵ cast out in the day to the heat and in the night to the frost. ³⁶ And I will punish him and his seed and his servants, for their iniquity; and ³⁷ I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I pronounced against them, but they hearkened not.

³⁸ And Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein, from the mouth of Jeremiah, all the words of the book which Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, had burned in the fire; and there were added to them besides many words like them.

³ And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal, the son of Shelemiah, and ^c Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying: ⁴ Oh! pray thou unto the LORD our God for us. ⁵ Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. ⁶ And Pharaoh's army came forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans who were besieging Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they rose up from Jerusalem.

⁷ And the word of the LORD came to the prophet Jeremiah, saying: ⁸ Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel: Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, who sent you unto me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt, into their own land. ⁹ And ¹⁰ the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. ¹¹ Thus saith the LORD: Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart. ¹⁰ For though ye smite the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remain but wounded men among them, they will rise up, every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.

¹¹ And it came to pass, that when the army of the Chaldeans had risen up from Jerusalem, because of Pharaoh's army, ¹² Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem, to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive a portion* there among the people. ¹³ And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, the captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying: Thou art falling away to the Chaldeans. ¹⁴ Then said Jeremiah: False! I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. ¹⁵ And the princes were wroth against Jeremiah; and they smote him, and put him in the place of confinement, in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they made that the prison. ¹⁶ Yea, Jeremiah entered into ^f the dungeon, and into the cells; and Jeremiah remained there many days.

¹⁷ But Zedekiah the king sent and took him out. And the king asked him secretly, in his house, and said: Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said: There is; for, said he, ^g thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.

¹⁸ And Jeremiah said to the king Zedekiah: Wherein have I sinned against thee, or against thy servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in the prison? ¹⁹ Where are ^h your prophets who prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? ²⁰ And now hear, I pray thee, my lord the king; let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.

²¹ And Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison*, and that they should give him daily a loaf of bread out of the Bakers' Street, ^k until all the bread in the city was spent. And Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison*.

Jeremiah is cast into a miry pit, and (7) is rescued by Ebed-melech—(14) The king asks for a Divine oracle, and (17) the prophet repeats his former message.

38, AND Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and

^a Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and ^b Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah spake to all the people, saying, ² Thus saith the LORD: ^c He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword by the famine and by the pestilence; but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall have his life for a prey, and shall live. ³ Thus saith the LORD: ^d This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, which shall take it. ⁴ And the princes said to the king: We beseech thee, ^e let this man be put to death; for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking to them according to these words; for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the hurt. ⁵ And Zedekiah the king said: Behold, he is in your hand; for the king prevaileth nothing against you.

⁶ Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the pit* of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison†: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the pit there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.

¹¹ So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went to the house of the king, under the Treasury. And he took thence rags of torn and worn-out clothes; and he let them down by cords into the pit, to Jeremiah. ¹² And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah: Put now the rags of torn and worn-out clothes under thine arm-holes, under the cords; and Jeremiah did so. ¹³ And they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and brought him up out of the pit. And the king said unto Jeremiah: I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. ¹⁵ Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah: When I declare it to thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? And when I give thee counsel, thou wilt not hearken unto me. ¹⁶ And Zedekiah the king swore secretly unto Jeremiah, saying: As the LORD liveth, who made us this soul*, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life.

¹⁷ Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: ^o If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto ^a the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thy house. ¹⁸ But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and ^t thou shalt not escape out of their hand.

¹⁹ And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah: I am afraid of the Jews that have fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. ²⁰ But Jeremiah said: They shall not deliver thee. Obey, ^k I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. ²¹ But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath showed me: ²² And behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say:

Thy friends have set thee on,
And have prevailed against thee;
Thy feet are sunk in the mire,
And they† are turned away back.

²³ And they shall bring out all thy wives and thy ⁱ children to the Chaldeans; and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but thou shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon; and thou shalt cause this city to be burned with fire.

²⁴ Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah: Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not die. ²⁵ And if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come to thee, and say to thee, Declare to us now what thou hast said to the king; hide it not from us, and we will not put thee to death; also what the king said to thee; ²⁶ then thou shalt say unto them, ^m I presented my supplication before the king that he would not cause me to return to ⁿ Jonathan's house, to die there.

²⁷ Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.

²⁸ And Jeremiah remained in ^o the court of the prison* until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

Capture of Jerusalem by the Chaldeans; (2) destruction of the city; and (9) transportation of the people—(11) Liberation of Jeremiah—(15) Divine promise to Ebed-melech.

39. AND it came to pass, when Jerusalem was taken, in the ^a ninth year of Zedekiah, the king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, and all his army, against Jerusalem, and they besieged it. ² In the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth of the month, the city was broken into. ³ And ^b all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat† in the middle gate; Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Chief of the Eunuchs, Nergal-sharezzer, Chief of the Magi, and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

⁴ And it came to pass, when Zedekiah, the king of Judah, and all the men of war, saw them, that ^c they fled, and went forth out of the city, by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two walls: and he went out the way of the plain. ⁵ And ^d the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and ^e overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho. And they took him, and brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, to ^f Riblah, in the land of Hamath, where he gave judgment upon him. ⁶ And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes; also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. ⁷ And ^g he put out Zedekiah's eyes; and he bound him with chains, to bring him to Babylon. ⁸ And ^h the Chaldeans burned with fire the king's house, and the houses of the people; and they brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

⁹ And ⁱ Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the body-guard, carried away captive to Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and the deserters that fell away to him, with the rest of the people that remained. ¹⁰ But Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the body-guard, left of the people, the poor who had nothing, in the land of Judah; and he gave to them vineyards and ploughed fields at the same time.

¹¹ And Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the body-guard, saying: ¹² Take him, and look well to him, and ^k do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall say unto thee. ¹³ So Nebuzar-adan the captain of the body-guard sent, and Nebushasban, Chief of the Eunuchs, and Nergal-sharezer Chief of the Magi, and all the king of Babylon's princes, ¹⁴ even they sent and took Jeremiah out of the court of the prison², and committed him unto ^l Gedaliah, the son of ^m Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should send him away to his home. So he dwelt among the people.

¹⁵ And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison^t, saying, ¹⁶ Go and speak to ^u Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying:

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be before thy face in that day. ¹⁷ But I will deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD; and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid; ¹⁸ for I will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword; but ^v thy life shall be for a prey unto thee; because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

Jeremiah, (1) being set at liberty, (6) joins the remnant of the nation at Mizpah—(7) Many Jews who had fled to neighbouring countries return, to dwell under the governor appointed by the king of Babylon.

40. THE word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzar-adan, the captain of the body-guard, had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him, being bound in chains, among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon.

² And the captain of the body-guard took Jeremiah, and said unto him: ^a The LORD thy God pronounced this evil against this place; ³ now the LORD hath brought it and done according as he hath said. ^b Because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, so this thing is come upon you. ⁴ And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which are upon thy hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me to Babylon, forbear. Behold, ^c all the land is before thee; whither it seemeth good and right for thee to go, thither go.

⁵ And while he had not yet answered, he said: Yea, go back to Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, ^d whom the king of Babylon hath appointed over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seemeth right unto thee to go. And the captain of the body-guard gave him provision for the way and a present, and sent him away.

⁶ Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to ^e Mizpah; and he dwelt with him, among the people that were left in the land.

⁷ And ^f all the captains of the forces who were in the fields*, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men and women and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon; ⁸ and they came to Gedaliah, to Mizpah; even ^g Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the ^h Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a ⁱ Maachathite, they and their men.

⁹ And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware to them and to their men, saying: ^k Fear not to serve the Chaldeans; dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. ¹⁰ And as for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans, who will come to us; but ye, gather ye wine and summer-fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye hold.

¹¹ And all the Jews that were ^l in Moab and among the Ammonites and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; ¹² and all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah; and they gathered wine and summer-fruits in great abundance.

¹³ AND ^a Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, ¹⁴ and said to him: Dost thou indeed know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonites, hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take thy life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. ¹⁵ Then Johanan the son of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying: Let me go, I pray thee, and I will smite Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it. Wherefore should he take thy life; and all the Jews who are gathered unto thee be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? ¹⁶ But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah: Thou shalt not do this thing, for thou speakest falsehood about Ishmael.

⁴¹ And it came to pass, in the seventh month, that ^b Ishmael the son of Nethaniah one of the princes* of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. ² Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and they smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword; and he killed him whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land. ³ Ishmael also smote all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, the men of war.

⁹ And the pit wherein Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had smitten by the side of: Gedaliah, was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha, the king of Israel; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with slain.

¹⁰ And Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah; ^d the king's daughters and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzar-adan the captain of the body-guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; so Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive; and he departed to go over to the Ammonites.

¹¹ But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and ^e all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, ¹² then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah; and they found him by ^f the great waters that are in Gibeon. ¹³ And it came to pass that when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad. ¹⁴ And all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and went back, and came to Johanan the son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from before Johanan, with eight men, and went to the Ammonites.

¹⁶ And Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, took all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; mighty men of war, and women and children and eunuchs, whom he had brought again from Gibeon; ¹⁷ and they went, and stayed at the sojourn-place* of ^g Chimham, which is near Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt, ¹⁸ because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had smitten Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon appointed in the land.

⁴ Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them: I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass that ^c whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare unto you; I will keep nothing back from you.

⁵ Then they said to Jeremiah: ^d The LORD be a true and faithful witness against us, if we do not even according to all things for which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. ^e Whether good or whether evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; ^f that it may be well with us because we obey the voice of the LORD our God.

⁷ And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. ⁸ And he called Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people, from the least even to the greatest: ⁹ and he said unto them: Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom ye sent me to lay your supplication before him:

¹⁰ If ye will still abide in this land, then ^f will I build you and not pull down, and I will plant you and not pluck up; for ^g I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. ¹¹ Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; he is not afraid of him, saith the LORD; for I am with you, to save you and to deliver you from his hand; ¹² and ^h I will grant mercies to you, so that he shall have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.

¹³ But if ye say, ⁱ We will not dwell in this land, so as not to obey the voice of the LORD your God, ¹⁴ saying, No, but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger for bread, and there will we dwell—¹⁵ now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: If ye ^k wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; ¹⁶ then it shall come to pass that the sword ^l which ye fear shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine whereof ye are afraid shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. ¹⁷ So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there. They shall die ^m by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and ⁿ none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I bring upon them. ¹⁸ For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye enter into Egypt; and ^o ye shall be an execration and an astonishment* and a curse and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.

¹⁹ The LORD hath said to you, the remnant of Judah, ^p Go ye not into Egypt. Know certainly that I have admonished you this day. ²⁰ For ye erred against your own souls† when ye sent me to the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it. ²¹ And I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for which he hath sent me unto you. ²² And now know ye certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go, to sojourn.

^{43.} And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, ² then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud† men, saying unto Jeremiah: ³ Thou speakest falsehood; the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there; ⁴ but Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, in order to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.

⁵ So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. ⁶ But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took ^r all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all the nations whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah; ⁷ the men and the women and the children, and ^s the king's daughters, and ^t every person that Nebuzar-adan the captain of the body-guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; ⁸ and they entered the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD; and they entered as far as ^u Tahpanhes.

A prophecy delivered to the Jews in Egypt, warning them of the conquest of that country by the Chaldeans.

⁸ AND the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying: ⁹ Take great stones in thy hand, and hide them in the clay*, in the brick-kiln which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; ¹⁰ and say to them. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel:

Behold, ^a I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, ^b my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his pavilion over them. ¹¹ And ^c he shall come and smite the land of Egypt; ^d what is for death to death, and what is for captivity to captivity, and what is for the sword to the sword. ¹² And I will kindle a fire in the houses of ^e the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and shall carry them away captives. And he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. ¹³ And he shall break the images of Beth-shemesht, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall be burn with fire.

Messages addressed to the Jews in Egypt; rebuking their idolatry, and threatening punishment.

44. THE word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews who dwelt in the land of Egypt, who dwelt at ^a Migdol, and at ^b Tahpanhes, and at ^c Noph, and in the country of ^d Pathros, saying:

² Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: ^e Ye yourselves have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem and upon all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are ^f a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein; ³ ^g because of their wickedness which they have committed, to provoke me to anger, by going ^h to burn incense, to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers. ⁴ And I ⁱ sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. ⁵ But ^j they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. ⁶ And my fury and mine anger was poured forth and was kindled, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are become a waste, a desolation, as at this day.

⁷ And now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Wherefore commit ye great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; ⁸ to provoke me to wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods, in the land of Egypt, whither ye are gone to dwell; that ye should cut yourselves off, and that ye should be ^k a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? ⁹ Have ye forgotten ^m the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ They ⁿ are not humbled unto this day, neither have they feared, nor have they walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.

¹¹ Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, ^o I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. ¹² And I will take the remnant of Judah, who have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt, to sojourn there, and ^p they shall all be consumed; they shall fall in the land of Egypt; they shall be consumed by the sword, and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an execration, an astonishment*, and a curse and a reproach. ¹³ And I will punish those that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine and by the pestilence; ¹⁴ so that none of the remnant of Judah who are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return, to dwell there; for none shall return but fugitives.

¹⁵ Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying:

¹⁶ As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, ^q we will not hearken unto thee. ¹⁷ But we will certainly do everything that hath gone forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense to ^r the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and we had plenty of bread, and were well, and we saw no evil. ¹⁸ But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink-offerings to her, we have lacked all, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. ¹⁹ And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink-offerings unto her, did we make for her cakes, to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?

²⁰ Then Jeremiah spake to all the people, to the men and to the women and to all the people who had given him answer, saying: ²¹ The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, ²² did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his heart? ²³ So that the LORD ²⁴ could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, because of the abominations which ye have committed. Therefore is your land ²⁵ a desolation and an astonishment* and a curse, without an inhabitant* as at this day. ²⁶ Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies, ²⁷ therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day.

²⁸ And Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women: Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: ²⁹ Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying: Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her; ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows.

³⁰ Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, ³¹ I swear by my great name, saith the LORD, that ³² my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord God liveth. ³³ Behold ³⁴ I will watch over them for evil and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. ³⁵ Yet ³⁶ a small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah; and all the remnant of Judah that are gone into the land of Egypt, to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine or theirs.

³⁷ And this shall be the sign unto you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place; that ye may know that ³⁸ my words shall surely stand against you for evil: ³⁹ Thus saith the LORD: Behold, ⁴⁰ I will give Pharaoh-hophra, the king of Egypt, into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave ⁴¹ Zedekiah, the king of Judah, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, his enemy, and the seeker of his life.

Admonition and promise to Baruch.

⁴² THE ⁴³ word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book, from the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, the king of Judah, saying:

¹ Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, Baruch: ² Thou sayest, Woe is me now! For the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I am wearied with my sighing, and I find no rest. ³ Thus shalt thou say unto him: The LORD saith thus; Behold, ⁴ what I have built I myself overthrow, and what I have planted I pluck up, even this whole land; ⁵ and thou, seekest thou great things for thyself? Seek them not; for behold, ⁶ I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD; but I will give to thee ⁷ thy life for a prey, in all places whither thou goest.

And her high gates shall be burned with fire.

And peoples ^p labour for vanity,

And nations for the fire, and are weary.

The prophecy concerning Babylon (60) written by Jeremiah (61) is delivered to a Jewish exile to be read by him on the very spot (63) accompanied by a symbolical action.

⁵⁹ THE word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon, in the fourth year of his reign.

And Seraiah was chief over the resting-place^{*}.

⁶⁰ And Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, all these words that are written against Babylon.

⁶¹ And Jeremiah said to Seraiah; When thou comest to Babylon, then see that thou read all these words, ⁶² and say: O LORD, thou hast spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. ⁶³ And it shall be, when thou hast made an end of reading this book, thou shalt ^a bind a stone to it, and shalt cast it into the midst of the Euphrates: ⁶⁴ and thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise, because of the evil that I bring upon her; and they shall weary themselves.

Thus far the words of Jeremiah.

Historical appendix—(1) Siege and capture of Jerusalem (3) and fate of king Zedekiah; (12) burning of the city; (15) transportation of the people to Babylon; (17) plunder of the temple; (24) execution of the chief officers of the temple and city—(31) Jehoiachin's subsequent liberation and elevation to royal honours.

⁵² ZEDEKIAH was ^a one and twenty years old when he became king, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal, the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. ² And he did what was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. ³ For on account of the LORD's anger it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

⁶ And in the fourth month, on the ninth of the month, the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land. ⁷ And the city was broken into; and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden, (and the Chaldeans were by the city round about), and they went by the way of the plain. ⁸ And the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains^{*} of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

⁹ And ^c they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon, to Bבלah, in the land of Hamath; where he gave judgment upon him. ¹⁰ And the king of

* ELEGY I. Lamentation of Jerusalem over the destruction of the city, the nation, and the temple; with confession of sin and prayer for deliverance.

1. HOW doth the city sit solitary that was full of people!

How is she become as a widow that was a great among the nations!

A ^b princess among the provinces, ^c how is she become a vassal!

2 She ^d weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;

Among ^e all her lovers she hath no comforter;

All ^f her friends deal treacherously with her, they are become her enemies.

3 Judah ^g is gone into captivity, because of affliction and because of great servitude;

She ^h dwelleth among the nations, she findeth no rest;

All ⁱ her pursuers overtook her between the straits.

4 The ^j ways of Zion mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts;

All her gates are desolate, her priests sigh; Her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness.

5 Her ^k adversaries are chief, her enemies prosper;

For the LORD hath afflicted her ^m for the multitude of her transgressions;

Her children are gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed;

Her princes are become like harts that find no pasture.

And they are gone, without strength, before the pursuer.

7 In the days of her affliction and of her miseries, Jerusalem remembereth all her precious things that were in the days of old;

When her people fall into ⁿ the hand of the enemy, and there is none to help her;

The adversaries see her, they mock at her desolations.

8 Jerusalem ⁿ hath grievously sinned, therefore she is become an abomination;

All that honoured her despise her, because ^o they see her nakedness;

Yea she sigeeth, and turneth backward.

9 Her filthiness is in her skirts; she ^p remembered not her last end;

Therefore she hath come down wonderfully, she hath no comforter:

LORD, behold my affliction, for the enemy magnifieth himself.

10 The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her precious things;

For she seeth that the heathen have ^q entered into her sanctuary,

Whom thou didst command that ^r they should not enter into thy congregation.

11 All her people sigh, ^s they seek bread;

They give their precious things for food, to revive the soul*.

See, O LORD, and consider, for I am become despised.

12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by?

Behold and see ^t if there be any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done to me;

Wherewith the LORD afflicteth me in the day of his fierce anger.

13 From above he sendeth fire into my bones, and it prevaileth against them;

He ^u spreadeth a net for my feet, he turneth me back;

He maketh me desolate, and faint all the day.

14 The ^v yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand;

They are wretched, they come up upon my neck; he maketh my strength to fall;

The ^w LORD delivereth me into the hands of those I am not able to stand against.

15 The LORD hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in the midst of me;

He hath called an assembly against me, to crush my young men;

The LORD ^x hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a wine-press.

The sufferings of the various classes of the people—(13) the punishment of their sins—(21) Judgments on Israel's implacable enemies... 4. NOW is the gold become dim, the fine gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street. 2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as ^a earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter! 3 Even jackals draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones; The daughter of my people is become cruel, ^b like the ostriches in the wilderness. 4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst; The ^c young children ask bread, and no man breaketh it to them. 5 They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets; They that were ^d carried on scarlet embrace dunghills. 6 And the punishment [†] of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment [†] of the sin of Sodom; That was ^e overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were violently laid on her. 7 Her ^f Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than coral, their appearance was like sapphire. 8 Their visage is darker than blackness, they are not known in the streets; Their skin cleaveth to their bones, it is withered, it is become like a stick. 9 The slain with the sword are happier than the slain with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, without the fruits of the field. 10 The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children; They were ^g their meat, in the destruction of the daughter of my people.	13 For ^k the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests; Who have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her; 14 They ^l have wandered blind in the streets, ^m they have polluted themselves with blood; So that men could not touch their garments. 15 They cried unto them, Depart ye, it ⁿ is unclean; depart, depart, touch not! When they fled away and wandered; they said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn there. 16 The anger of the LORD hath dispersed them, he will no more regard them; They respected not the persons of the priests, they had no pity on the aged. 17 As for us, our eyes still waste away, looking for ⁿ our vain help; In our watching we watched for a nation that did not save. 18 They hunt our steps, that we cannot walk in our streets; Our end is near, our days are fulfilled, for ^o our end is come. 19 Our pursuers are ^p swifter than the eagles of heaven; They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. 20 The breath of our nostrils, ^q the anointed of the LORD, ^r was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations. 21 Rejoice and be glad, thou daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land of Uz! The ^s cup shall pass also unto thee; thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked. 22 The ^t punishment of thine iniquity is accomplished, thou daughter of Zion! ELEGY V. Complaints of disgrace and misery with confessions of sin as their cause, and prayer for mercy and restoration.

5, REMEMBER, LORD, what is come upon us,

Consider, and behold ^a our reproach.

² Our inheritance is turned to strangers, Our houses to aliens.

³ We are orphans, without a father, Our mothers are as widows.

⁴ We drink our water for money, Our own wood is sold to us.

⁵ By our necks are we driven;

We ^b labour, we have no rest.

⁶ We have given the hand ^c to the Egyptians,

And to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

⁷ Our fathers have sinned, and they are not,

And ^d we bear their iniquities.

⁸ Slaves rule over us,

There is no deliverer out of their hand.

⁹ We bring in our bread at the risk of our lives.

Because of the sword of the wilderness,

¹⁰ Our skin is black like an oven,

Because of the fevers of the famine.

¹¹ They have humbled the women in Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah.

¹² Princes are hanged up by their hand; The ^e faces of elders are not honoured.

¹³ The young men carry the millstones, And the children fall under the wood.

¹⁴ The elders cease from the gate, The young men from their music.

¹⁵ The joy of our heart is ceased, Our dance is turned into mourning.

¹⁶ The crown ^f of our head is fallen;

Woe indeed unto us, because we have sinned!

¹⁷ Because of this our heart is faint,

Because of these things our eyes are dim:

¹⁸ Because of mount Zion, which is desolate;

The ^g jackals walk upon it.

¹⁹ Thou, LORD, ^h remainest for ever,

Thy throne is from generation to generation.

²⁰ Wherefore ⁱ dost thou forget us for ever, Dost thou forsake us so long time?

²¹ Turn ^j thou us unto thee, O LORD, and we shall be turned,

Renew ^k our days as of old.

²² But thou hast utterly rejected us,

Thou art very wroth against us.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

Prophecies respecting the Jews, before the destruction of Jerusalem—(1) Introductory visions—(4) A storm-cloud from the north; (5) the cherubim and (15) the wheels; and (22) above the whole, the throne of Jehovah.

1. NOW it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, on the fifth of the month, when I was among the captives, ^a by the river Chebar, ^b the heavens were opened, and I saw ^c visions of God. ² On the fifth of the month (which was the fifth year of ^d king Jehoiachin's captivity), ³ the word of the LORD verily came unto Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans, by the river Chebar; and ^e the hand of the LORD was there upon him.

⁴ And I looked, and behold, ^f a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself ^g; and it had brightness round about, and out of the midst thereof as the appearance ^h of burnished metal, ⁱ out of the midst of the fire. ⁵ And

^j out of the midst thereof I saw the likeness of four living creatures; and ^k this was their appearance. They had the likeness of a man; ⁶ and every one had four faces, and every one had four wings; ⁷ and their feet were upright feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled ^l like the appearance ^m of polished brass. ⁸ And ⁿ they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides. And they four had their faces and their wings. ⁹ Their wings were joined one to another; ¹⁰ they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward. ¹¹ As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man and the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle: ¹² thus ^o were their faces. And their wings were stretched upward; two of every one were joined one to another,

^m Is. 6, 2. and ^m two covered their bodies. ¹² And ⁿ they went every one straight forward: ⁹ whither the spirit was to go, they went; they turned not when they went. ¹³ As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like ^p burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches; it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. ¹⁴ And the living creatures ran and returned, like the appearance of lightning.

¹⁹ And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. ²⁰ Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went; thither the spirit was to go, and the wheels were lifted up along with them; for the spirit of the living creatures was in the wheels. ²¹ When those went, they went; and when those stood, they stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up along with them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.

²² And over the heads of the living creatures was the likeness of a firmament; like the appearance of the wonderful crystal, stretched forth over their heads above. ²³ And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one towards the other; every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. ²⁴ And ^t when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the voice of many waters, like ^u the voice of the Almighty; the voice of a throng, like the noise of a host. When they stood, they let down their wings. ²⁵ And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads. When they stood they let down their wings.

²⁶ And ^v above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, ² as the appearance of a sapphirestone; and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance of a man above upon it. ²⁷ And ^a I saw as the appearance of burnished metal, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward; and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. ²⁸ As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was ^c the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD.

And when I saw, ^d I fell upon my face, and I heard the voice of one that spake. ² And he said unto me: ^e Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak with thee. ² And ^g when he spake unto me the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and I heard him that spake unto me.

Ezekiel's call to the prophetic office: (10) his commission to the exiled Jews in Chaldaea.

³ AND he said unto me: Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to the rebellious nation, that hath rebelled against me: ^a they and their fathers have transgressed against me unto this very day; ^b and the sons are impudent; and stiff-hearted. I send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. ⁵ And they, whether they will hear or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet ^b shall know that there hath been a prophet among them.

⁹ And I looked, and behold, ^e a hand stretched out towards me; and lo, ^f a scroll of a book therein. ¹⁰ And he spread it before me: and ^g it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations and mourning and woe.

³ And he said unto me: Son of man, eat what thou findest, ⁱ eat this scroll; and go, speak unto the house of Israel. ² And I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that scroll. ³ And he said unto me:

Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this scroll that I give thee. And I ate; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.

⁴ And he said unto me: Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. ⁵ For thou art sent not to a people of strange speech and of hard language, but to the house of Israel; ⁶ not to many peoples of strange speech and of hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, ⁷ had I sent thee to them, they would have hearkened unto thee. ⁸ But the house of Israel will not hearken unto thee, for ⁹ they will not hearken unto me; for ¹⁰ all the house of Israel are impudent and hard-hearted*. ¹¹ Behold, I make thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead† strong against their foreheads: ¹² like ¹³ adamant, stronger than flint, I make thy forehead. Fear ¹⁴ them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, for they are a rebellious house.

¹⁵ And he said unto me: Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee, receive in thy heart, and hear with thine ears. ¹⁶ And go, get thee to the Captivity‡, to the children of thy people; and speak to them and tell them: Thus saith the Lord God; whether they will hear or whether they will forbear.

Symbolical vision of Jehovah's presence and glory—(16) Warning of the responsibility of the prophet's office.

¹⁷ AND ¹⁸ the spirit|| took me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be ¹⁹ the glory of the LORD, from his place! ²⁰ Also ²¹ the sound of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the sound of ²² the wheels along with them, and the sound of a great rushing. ²³ And the ²⁴ spirit§ lifted me up and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and ²⁵ the hand of the LORD was strong upon me.

²⁶ Then I came to the Captivity at Tel-abih, that dwelt by the river Chebar; and ²⁷ I sat where they sat; and I remained there, ²⁸ astonished*, among them, seven days.

²⁹ And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying: ³⁰ Son of man, I have made thee ³¹ a watchman upon the house of Israel: and thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and ³² give them warning from me.

³³ When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die, and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, ³⁴ to save his life; that wicked ³⁵ man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at thy hand.

³⁶ But if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness and from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity, but ³⁷ thou hast delivered thy soul.

³⁸ Again, when ³⁹ the righteous turneth from his righteousness and committeth iniquity, and ⁴⁰ I lay a stumbling-block before him, he shall die; because thou hast not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteousness which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thy hand. ⁴¹ But if thou warnest the righteous not to sin, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; and ⁴² thou hast delivered thy soul.

Prophecies concerning Jerusalem—(22) Introductory vision of the glory of the Lord.

²³ AND ²⁴ the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me: Arise, go forth into the valley, and I will there speak with thee. ²⁵ Then I arose, and went forth into the valley; and behold, ²⁶ the glory of the LORD stood there, like the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. ²⁷ And the ²⁸ spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet.

And he spake with me, and said unto me: Go, shut thyself within thy house. ²⁹ And thou, son of man, behold, ³⁰ they will put bands upon thee, and will bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them. ³¹ And ³² I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, so that thou shalt be dumb, and ³³ shalt not be to them a reprover; for ³⁴ they are a rebellious house. ³⁵ And ³⁶ when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord God: ³⁷ He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear; for they are a rebellious house.

Four symbolical representations of the siege of Jerusalem, the sufferings of the people, the death of many, and the captivity of the remnant.

¹ AND thou, son of man, take thee a tile*, and lay it before thee, and engrave upon it a city, Jerusalem. ² And lay siege against it, and build a siege-tower against it, and cast up an embankment against it; and place encampments against it, and set ³ battering rams against it round about. ⁴ And do thou take thee an iron pan, and place it for a wall of iron between thee and the city; and set thy face against it, that it may be besieged, and thou shalt besiege it. ^b This is a sign to the house of Israel.

⁴ Lie thou also upon thy left side, and set the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt ^c bear their iniquity. ⁵ And I lay upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days; so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. ⁶ And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again, on thy right side; and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days. I appoint thee each day for a year.

⁹ Take thou also unto thee wheat and barley and beans and lentiles and millet and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make thee bread thereof. The number of the days that thou shalt lie upon thy side, three hundred and ninety days shalt thou eat thereof. ¹⁰ And thy food which thou shalt eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day; from time to time shalt thou eat it. ¹¹ Thou shalt also drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin; from time to time shalt thou drink. ¹² And thou shalt eat it as barley-cakes; and thou shalt bake it in their sight with dung that cometh out of man.

¹³ And the Lord said: Even thus ^a shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the nations whither I will drive them.

¹⁴ Then said I: ^e Ah Lord God, behold, my soul hath not been polluted; for from my youth up even till now I have not eaten of ^f that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; neither hath there come ^g unclean flesh into my mouth. ¹⁵ Then he said unto me: Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, and thou shalt prepare thy bread thereon.

¹⁶ Moreover he said unto me: Son of man, behold, I will break ^h the staff of bread in Jerusalem; and they shall ⁱ eat bread by weight, and with anxiety; and they shall drink water by measure, and with dismay; ¹⁷ that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed, one with another, and ^k consume away, for their iniquity.

⁵ Thus saith the Lord God: This is Jerusalem. I have set it in the midst of the nations and countries round about her; ⁶ and ^o she hath rebelled against my judgments in wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her. For they have refused my judgments; and my statutes, they have not walked in them. ⁷ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye have been tumultuous more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgment ^p and have not done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you; ⁸ therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold I, even I, am against thee, and ^q I will execute judgments in the midst of thee, in the sight of the nations. ⁹ And ^r I will do in thee that which I have not done, and the like of which I will not do any more, because of all thine abominations. ¹⁰ Therefore the fathers ^s shall eat the sons in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee; and the whole remnant of thee will I ^t scatter to all the winds.

¹¹ Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord God, surely, because thou hast ^u defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also cut thee off; ^v and mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have any pity. ¹² A third ^w part of thee shall die with the pestilence, and with the famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and ^x I will scatter a third part to all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them.

¹³ Thus shall ^y mine anger be accomplished, and ^z I will cause my fury to rest even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel, the whole of it, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem say, Get you far from the LORD; unto us is this land given in possession.

¹⁶ Therefore say, thus saith the Lord GOD: Although I have cast them far off among the nations, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet ^awill I be to them for a little sanctuary* in the countries whither they are come.

¹⁷ Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; ^bI will even gather you from the nations, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. ¹⁸ And they shall come thither, and they ^cshall take away from thence all its detestable things and all its abominations. ¹⁹ And ^dI will give them one heart, and I will put ^ea new spirit within you; and I will take ^fthe heart of stone out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; ²⁰ that they may walk in my statutes, and keep mine ordinances, and do them. 	²³ And it came to pass after all thy wickedness—(Woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord GOD)— ²⁴ that thou didst also build for thee an eminent place*, and ²⁵ didst make thee a high place in every street; ²⁶ thou ²⁷ didst build thy high place ²⁸ at the head of every way; and thou didst make thy beauty to be abhorred, and didst open thy feet to every one that passed by, and didst multiply thy whoredoms. ²⁹ And thou didst commit fornication with ³⁰ the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and didst increase thy whoredom, to provoke me to anger. ³¹ And lo! I stretched out my hand over thee, and diminished thy portion; and I ³² delivered thee unto the pleasure of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of thy lewd way. ³³ Thou ³⁴ didst play the harlot also with the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea thou didst play the harlot with them, and yet thou wast not satisfied. ³⁵ And thou didst multiply thy fornication with the land of merchants, in Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. ³⁶ How weak is thy heart, saith the Lord GOD, in that thou doest all these things, the doings of a harlot without restraint; ³⁷ in that thou didst build thy eminent place† at the head of every way‡, and didst make thy high place in every street! And thou hast not been as a harlot, in that thou scornedst hire; ³⁸ but as a wife that committeth adultery, who taketh strangers instead of her husband. ³⁹ To all harlots they give gifts; but ⁴⁰ thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers and hirest them, that they may come unto thee from every side for thy whoredoms; ⁴¹ and thou art contrary to other women in thy whoredoms; whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms; and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary. ⁴² Wherefore, thou ⁴³ harlot, hear the word of the LORD: ⁴⁴ Thus saith the Lord GOD: Because thy money hath been poured out, and thy nakedness uncovered, through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and for all the idols of thy abominations; and because of ⁴⁵ the blood of thy children which thou hast given unto them; ⁴⁶ behold therefore, ⁴⁷ I will gather together all thy lovers to whom thou hast been pleasant, and all whom thou hast loved, with all whom thou hast hated, I will even gather them round about against thee, and will uncover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. ⁴⁸ And I will judge thee, as ⁴⁹ adulteresses and ⁵⁰ the shedders of blood are judged;

and I will give thee blood, in wrath and jealousy. ³⁰ And I will also give thee into their hand, and they shall destroy thine eminent place*, and shall break down thy high places. And they shall ^h strip thee of thy clothes, and shall take thy fair jewels, and shall leave thee naked and bare.

⁴² So ⁿ will I appease my fury against thee; and my jealousy shall depart from thee; and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. ⁴³ Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast been excited against me in all these things; behold therefore, I also ^o will recompense thy way upon thy head, saith the Lord God, and thou shalt not commit the crime besides all thine abominations.

⁴⁴ Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use a proverb against thee, saying, Like ^p the mother is her daughter. ⁴⁵ Thou art thy mother's daughter, that loatheth ^q her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children. Your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. ⁴⁶ And ^q thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand; and thy younger sister, that dwelleth at thy right hand ^r, is Sodom and her daughters. ⁴⁷ Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done according to their abominations; but as if ^s that were only a little thing, ^t thou wast corrupt more than they in all thy ways.

⁴⁸ As I live, saith the Lord God, ^u Sodom thy sister hath not done, she or her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and thy daughters. ⁴⁹ Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom; pride, ^v fulness of bread and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, ^w and she did not strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. ⁵⁰ And they were haughty, and ^x committed abomination before me; and therefore ^y I took them away, when I saw it.

⁵¹ Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but ^z thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and ^a hast justified thy sisters by all thine abominations which thou hast done. ⁵² Thou also, who hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame: by the sins whereby thou hast committed abomination more than they, they are justified more than thou; yea be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, because thou hast justified thy sisters.

⁵³ And I will restore ^c their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and ^d the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them; ⁵⁴ that ^e thou mayest bear thy shame, and mayest be confounded for all that thou hast done, when thou comfortest them. ⁵⁵ And thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, and thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. ⁵⁶ Yet thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth, in the day of thy pride, ⁵⁷ before thy wickedness was discovered, as at the time of the ^f disgrace of the daughters of Syria, and all round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, who despise thee round about. ⁵⁸ Thou ^g bearest thy crime and thine abominations, saith the Lord.

⁵⁹ For thus saith the Lord God; ^h I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, who ⁱ hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. ⁶⁰ Nevertheless I ^k will remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee ^l an everlasting covenant. ⁶¹ Then thou ^m shalt remember thy ways, and be ashamed, ⁿ when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger; and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant. ⁶² And ^o I will establish my covenant with thee, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord: ⁶³ that thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and ^p never open thy mouth any more, because of thy shame, when I forgive thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord God.

just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD.

¹⁰ But if he beget a son who is a robber, a shedder of blood, and doeth the like to* any of those wrongs, ¹¹ and doeth not any of those duties; but even eateth upon the mountains, and defileth his neighbour's wife; ¹² oppresseth the poor and needy; spoileth by violence, restoreth not a pledge; lifteth up his eyes to the idols, and committeth abomination; ¹³ giveth forth upon usury and taketh increase; shall he then live? He shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; ¹⁴ his blood shall be upon him.

²¹ But ye say, Why, doth not ²² the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son doeth judgment and justice, keepeth all my statutes and doeth them, he shall surely live. ²³ The soul that sinneth, it shall die. ²⁴ The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, nor shall the father bear the iniquity of the son. The ²⁵ righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. ²⁶ But ²⁷ if the wicked turneth from all his sins that he hath committed, and keepeth all my statutes, and doeth judgment and justice, he shall surely live, he shall not die. ²⁸ All ²⁹ his transgressions that he hath committed shall not be mentioned against him; ³⁰ in his righteousness that he doeth he shall live.

³¹ Have ³² I any pleasure at all in the death of the wicked, saith the Lord GOD; is it not ³³ in his turning away from his ways, that he may live?

³⁴ And if ³⁵ the righteous turneth away from his righteousness and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked doeth, shall he live! All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned; for his treachery that he hath committed, and for his sin that he hath sinned, for them shall he die.

³⁶ Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, ye house of Israel; Is ³⁷ not my way equal? Are not your ways unequal? ³⁸ If the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth therein; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. ³⁹ And ⁴⁰ if the wicked turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth judgment and justice, he shall keep his soul alive. ⁴¹ Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.

⁴² Yet ⁴³ saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. Ye house of Israel, Are not my ways equal? Are not your ways unequal? ⁴⁴ Therefore, ye house of Israel, ⁴⁵ I will judge you, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD.

Repent and ⁴⁶ turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. ⁴⁷ Cast ⁴⁸ away from you all your transgressions whereby ye have transgressed, and make you ⁴⁹ a new heart and a new spirit. And ⁵⁰ why will ye die, ye house of Israel? ⁵¹ For ⁵² I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD. Wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

^o Jer. 52. 27-30.	¹⁷ And ^z I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; ¹⁶ because they rejected my judgments, and walked not in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths; for ^v their heart went after their idols. ¹⁷ Nevertheless ^z mine eye spared them from destroying them, and I did not make an end of them in the wilderness.

	²⁰ AND it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth of the month, that ^a certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD; and they sat before me. ² And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ³ Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Are ye come to inquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ^b I will not be inquired of by you. ⁴ Wilt thou ^c judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers.
^a ch. 14. 1.
^b ch. 14. 3.
^c ch. 22. 2; 23. 36.

¹⁸ And I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, nor observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: ¹⁹ I am the LORD your God; ^a walk in my statutes, and keep my judgments and do them; ²⁰ and ^b hallow my sabbaths, that they may be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. ²¹ But ^c the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, nor kept my judgments to do them, which a man shall do, that he may live by them; they profaned my sabbaths. And I thought to pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. ²² But I withdrew my hand, and I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth.

²³ And I lifted up my hand unto them in the wilderness, that ^d I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; ²⁴ because they had not executed my judgments, but had despised my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. ²⁵ And also ^e I gave them statutes not good, and judgments whereby they should not live; ²⁶ and I defiled them by their own gifts, in that ^f they caused every firstborn* to pass through the fire; that I might make them desolate; to the end that they might know that I am the LORD.

²⁷ Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them:

Thus saith the LORD God: Moreover in this your fathers blasphemed me, in that they committed treachery against me. ²⁸ When I brought them into the land ^g for ^h which I lifted up my hand to give it to them, then ⁱ they saw every high hill and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out there their drink offerings. ²⁹ Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Baal-hazan^t unto this day.

³⁰ Wherefore say thou unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the LORD God: Do ye pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers, and commit ye whoredom after their abominations; ³¹ for when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day; and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? ^a As I live, saith the LORD God, I will not be inquired of by you. ³² And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, ⁱ We will be like the nations, like the families of the countries, to minister unto wood and stone.

³³ As I live, saith the LORD God, surely with a mighty hand and ^k with a stretched out arm and with fury poured out will I rule over you. ³⁴ And ^l I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand and with a stretched out arm and with fury poured out. ³⁵ And ^m I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there ⁿ will I contend with you face to face. ³⁶ Like ^o as I contended with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I contend with you, saith the LORD God. ³⁷ And I will cause you to ^p pass under the rod, and ^q I will bring you into the bond of the covenant. ³⁸ And ^r I will purge out from among you the rebels and the transgressors against me; I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn; and ^s they shall not enter into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

³⁹ And as for you, house of Israel, thus saith the LORD God: ^t Go ye, serve ye every one his idols; but hereafter ye will hearken unto me, and ye will ^u pollute my holy name no more, with your gifts and with your idols. ⁴⁰ For ^v on my holy mountain, on the high mountain of Israel, saith the LORD God, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me. There ^w will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. ⁴¹ I will accept you with your sweet savour, ^x when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and ^y I will be sanctified in you, before the nations.

⁴² And ^b ye shall know that I am the LORD when I bring you into the land of Israel, into the country ^z for which I lifted up my hand to give it to your fathers. ⁴³ And ^c there shall ye remember your ways and all your doings, whereby ye have defiled yourselves; and ^d ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. ⁴⁴ And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have wrought with you, ^e for my name's sake; not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, ye house of Israel, saith the LORD God.

Desolating judgments on Jerusalem and on the whole nation, represented by the images of (47) a burning forest and (ch. 21. 8) an unsheathed sword.

45 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

46 Son of man, ^a set thy face towards the South*

And drop words towards the South,
And prophesy to the forest of the south field;
47 And say to the forest of the south,
Hear the word of the LORD;
Thus saith the Lord GOD :

Behold, ^b I will kindle a fire in thee,
And it shall devour every green tree in thee,
and every dry tree;
The flame of the conflagration shall not be quenched,
And all faces shall be scorched thereby
From the south to the north.

48 And ^c all flesh shall see
That I the LORD have kindled it;
It shall not be quenched.

49 Then said I: Ah Lord GOD! They say of me, Doth he not speak parables?

21. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

2 Son of man, set thy face towards Jerusalem,

And ^d drop words towards the holy places,
And prophesy against the land of Israel;

3 And say to the land of Israel :
Thus saith the LORD :

Behold, I am against thee,
And ^e I will draw forth my sword out of its sheath,

And will cut off from thee ^f the righteous and the wicked.

4 Seeing that I will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked,
Therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh,
From the south to the north.

5 And all flesh shall know
That I the LORD have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath;
It shall not return any more.

6 Sigh therefore, thou son of man;
With the breaking of loins, and with bitterness,
Sigh before their eyes.

7 And it shall be, when they say unto thee,
Wherefore sighest thou?

That thou shalt answer:
For the tidings, ^g because it cometh.

And ^h every heart shall melt,
And all hands shall be feeble,
And every spirit shall faint,
And all knees shall be weak as water.

Behold it cometh and shall be brought to pass, saith the Lord GOD.

8 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying :

9 Son of man, prophesy and say,
Thus saith the LORD :

Say, ⁱ A sword, a sword!
It is sharpened, and also whetted!

10 It is ^k sharpened to make a sore slaughter,
It is whetted that it may glitter.

Or shall we make mirth, saying,
The sceptre of my son contemneth all wood?

11 And he hath given it to be whetted,
That it may be handled;

The sword is sharpened and it is whetted,
To give it into the hand of the slayer.

12 Cry and howl, son of man!
For it shall be upon my people,

It shall be upon all the princes of Israel;
They are delivered to the sword with my people:

Therefore ^l smite upon thy thigh.

13 For it is a trial;
And what if even the sceptre that contemneth shall be no more?

Saith the Lord GOD.

14 And thou, son of man, prophesy,
And ^m smite thy hands together,

And ⁿ let the sword be doubled the third time*,

The sword of the slain,
It is the sword of the great one that is slain,
Which surroundeth them.

15 I have set the point ^o of the sword against all their gates,

That their heart may faint,
And their stumbling-blocks be multiplied.

Ah! it is made bright, sharp for slaughter.

16 Collect thyself to the right,
Turn thyself to the left,

Whithersoever thy face is set.

17 I will also ^p smite my hands together,
And I ^q will cause my fury to rest.

I the LORD have said it.

The prophecy continued—(18) Nebuchadnezzar's mission of judgment against Jerusalem, and (28) against the Ammonites.

18 THE word of the LORD came unto me again, saying :

19 And thou, son of man, set thee two ways for the coming of the sword of the king of Babylon;

both shall come forth out of one land; and make thou a hand, make it at the head of the way to the city.

20 Set a way, for the coming of the sword, to ^a Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in ^b Jerusalem the fortified.

21 For the king of Babylon standeth at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination. He shaketh the

22. AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ² Now thou, son of man, ^a wilt thou judge, wilt thou judge ^b the bloody city? Yea, thou shalt show her all her abominations; ³ and thou shalt say, Thus saith the Lord God: The city sheddeth blood in the midst of it, ^c that her time may come; and maketh idols against herself, to defile herself. ⁴ Thou art become guilty by thy blood that thou hast shed; and thou hast defiled thyself with thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come to the end of thy years.

Therefore ^d I make thee a reproach unto the nations, and a mocking to all the countries. ⁵ Those that are near and those that are far off from thee shall mock at thee, the infamous, the full of confusion.

⁶ Behold, ^e the princes of Israel, every one, were in thee according to their power to shed blood. ⁷ In thee have they ^f set light by father and mother; in the midst of thee have they ^g dealt by oppression with the stranger; in thee have they vexed the fatherless and the widow. ⁸ Thou hast despised my holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths. ⁹ In thee are ^h men that carry tales to shed blood; and in thee ⁱ they eat upon the mountains. In the midst of thee they commit lewdness; ¹⁰ in thee have they ^k discovered their fathers' nakedness; in thee have they humbled her that was ^l set apart for uncleanness. ¹¹ And one hath committed abomination with ^m his neighbour's wife, and another hath ⁿ lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law, and another in thee hath humbled ^o his sister, his father's daughter. ¹² In thee ^p have they taken gifts to shed blood. Thou hast ^q taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and ^r thou hast forgotten me, saith the Lord God.

²³ AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ²⁴ Son of man, say unto her, Thou art a land that is not cleansed nor rained upon, in the day of indignation.

²⁶ Her ^c priests violate my law, and ^d profane my holy things; they put no ^e difference between the holy and profane, nor do they distinguish between the unclean and the clean; and they hide their eyes from my sabbaths; and I am profaned among them.

²⁷ Her ^f princes in the midst of her are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. ²⁸ And ^g her prophets daub for them with plaster, ^h seeing vanity, and divining deceit unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord God; when the LORD hath not spoken.

²⁹ The ⁱ people of the land use oppression and commit robbery, and vex the poor and needy, and oppress the stranger wrongfully.

³⁰ And I ^k sought among them for a man who should repair a wall, and ^l stand in the breach before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. ³¹ Therefore I pour out mine indignation upon them, I consume them with the fire of my wrath: their ^m own way do I recompense upon their heads, saith the Lord God.

An allegorical representation of the idolatries and heathenish alliances, (5) first of the Ten Tribes, and (11) then of Judah with still greater aggravations—(36) Further recital of the sins of both nations, and (46) judgment thereon.

23. THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying: ² Son of man, there were ^a two women, the daughters of one mother. ³ And ^b they committed whoredom in Egypt, they committed whoredom in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there they handled the teats of their virginity. ⁴ And the names of them were Aholah [i. e. Her tabernacle^c] the elder, and Aholibah [i. e. My tabernacle in her^d] her sister: and ^e they became mine, and they bare sons and daughters. And as to their names, ^f Samaria is Aholah, and Jerusalem, Aholibah.

⁵ And Aholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on ^g the near Assyrians, ^h clothed in purple, captains^g and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses. ⁷ Thus she committed her whoredom with them, with all them that were the choice men of Assyria, and with all on whom she doted; with all their idols she defiled herself. ⁸ And she did not give up her whoredom brought ^h from Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the breasts of her virginity, and poured their whoredom upon her.

¹⁷ And the Babylonians came to her, into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them; but her soul was alienated from them. ¹⁸ And she uncovered her whoredoms, and uncovered her nakedness. And ^p my soul was alienated from her, as my soul was alienated from her sister. ¹⁹ And she multiplied her whoredoms, calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt. ²⁰ For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is the flesh of asses, and whose issue is the issue of horses. ²¹ Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in the handling of thy teats by the Egyptians, for the breasts of thy youth.

²² Therefore thou Aholibah, thus saith the Lord God: Behold, ²¹ I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy soul is alienated, and ²² I will bring them against thee on every side; ²³ the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, ²⁴ Pekod and Shoa and Koa*, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. ²⁴ And they shall come against thee, with chariots; wagons and wheels, and with a multitude of peoples; they shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about. And ²⁵ I will set the judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments. ²⁵ And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee. They shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy residue shall fall by the sword. They ²⁶ shall take thy sons and thy daughters, and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. ²⁶ They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. ²⁷ Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more.

²⁸ For thus saith the Lord God: Behold, ²⁸ I will deliver thee into the hand of those whom thou hatest, into the hand of those from whom thy soul is alienated. ³² And ²⁹ they shall deal with thee in hatred, and shall take away all thy labour^f, and shall leave thee naked and bare; and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be uncovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. ³⁰ I will do these things unto thee, because thou ² hast gone a whoring after the nations, because thou art polluted with their idols.

³¹ Thou ^a hast walked in the way of thy sister; and I will give her cup into thy hand.

³² Thus saith the Lord God: Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup, deep and large; ^b thou shalt be laughed to scorn, and had in derision, in large measure. ³³ Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of terror and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. ³⁴ Thou ^c shalt even drink it, and suck ^d it out, and thou shalt lick clean its sherds, and thou shalt tear thine own breasts. For I have spoken ^{it}, saith the Lord God. ³⁵ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; because ^d thou hast forgotten me and ^e cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy lewdness and thy whoredoms.

³⁶ The Lord said moreover unto me: Son of man, wilt thou ^f judge Aholah and Aholibah? Yea ^g declare unto them their abominations; ³⁷ that they have committed adultery, and ^h blood is on their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery; and also ⁱ their sons whom they bare unto me have they devoted to be consumed. ³⁸ Moreover they have done this unto me; in the same day they have defiled my sanctuary, and ^k profaned my sabbaths. ³⁹ For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to pollute it; and lo, ^l thus have they done in the midst of my house. ⁴⁰ And furthermore, ye sent for men to come from far; to whom a messenger was sent, and lo, they came; for whom thou didst wash thyself, ^m thou didst paint thine eyes, and ⁿ deck thyself with ornaments. ⁴¹ And thou satest upon ^o a stately bed; and a table was prepared before it, ^p whereupon thou didst set mine incense and mine oil. ⁴² And the voice of a multitude ^q being at ease was with her; and, besides men of the common sort, were brought Sabaeans from the wilderness, who put bracelets upon their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.

⁴³ And I said concerning the worn-out adulteress, Will they now commit whoredoms with her, even her? ⁴⁴ Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot; so went they in unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women. ⁴⁵ And righteous men, they shall ^r judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is on their hands.

⁴⁶ For thus saith the Lord God: ^s I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to vexation* and pillage; ⁴⁷ and the company shall stone them with stones, and pierce them with their swords; they ^t shall slay their sons and their daughters, and ^u burn up their houses with fire. ⁴⁸ Thus ^v will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. ⁴⁹ And ^w they shall recompense your lewdness upon you; and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord.

A Divine announcement to the exiles in Chaldaea of the siege of Jerusalem being begun on that day; and (4) a parabolical representation of the judgment.

24. AND in ^a the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ² Son of man, write thee the name of the day, of this very day: the king of Babylon hath set himself against Jerusalem this very day.

³ And ^b utter thou a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD: Set ^c on the pot, set it on, and also pour water into it. ⁴ Gather its pieces into it, every good piece, the thigh and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. ⁵ Take the choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, make it boil well, and let them scethe the bones of it therein.

⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Woe ^k to the bloody city! Even I make the pile great. ¹⁰ Heap on wood, kindle the fire, cook thoroughly the flesh, and spice it well, and let the bones be burned. ¹¹ And set it empty on its coals, that its brass may be hot and may burn, and its ^l filthiness may be melted in it, that its rust may be consumed. ¹² She ^m wearieth herself with toils and ⁿ her great rust goeth not forth out of her; her rust shall be in the fire! ¹³ In thy filthiness is lewdness; because ^o I have purged thee, and thou art not pure, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more ^p till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee. ¹⁴ I the ^q LORD have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, ^r nor will I spare, nor will I repent. According to thy ways and according to thy doings shall thy judge thee, saith the Lord GOD.

A symbolical instruction to the Jewish exiles respecting God's judgments upon their nation.

15 AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ¹⁶ Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes with a stroke, yet thou shalt not mourn or weep, nor shall thy tears run down. ¹⁷ Forbear to cry, ^a make no mourning for the dead, ^b bind the tire^s of thy head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and ^c cover not thy beard, and ^d eat not the bread of men.

¹⁸ So in the morning I spake unto the people; and in the evening my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. ¹⁹ And the people said unto me, ^e Wilt thou not tell us what these things are to us that thou doest so? ²⁰ Then I answered them, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ²¹ Say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, ^f I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and your soul's longing; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left shall fall by the sword. ²² And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover the beard, nor eat the bread of men: ²³ and your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet; ye shall not ^g mourn nor weep; and ye ^h shall pine away for your iniquities, and mourn one towards another. ²⁴ Thus ⁱ Ezekiel is unto you a sign; according to all that he hath done shall ye do; and when ^k it cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

²⁵ And thou, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and the care of their soul, even ^l their sons and their daughters, ²⁶ that ^m in that day a fugitive shall come unto thee, to cause ⁿ thine ears to hear? ²⁷ In ^o that day shall thy mouth be opened with the fugitive, and thou shalt speak and be no more dumb; and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25. AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ² Son ^a of man, set thy face against ^b the Ammonites and prophesy against them; ³ and say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD: thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because ^c thou saidst, Aha! Against my sanctuary when it was profaned, And against the land of Israel when it was desolate, And against the house of Judah when they went into captivity;

⁴ Therefore behold, I will deliver thee to the men of the East for a possession; And they shall set their forts in thee, And make their dwellings in thee;

⁵ And I will make ^d Rabbah a ^e stable for camels,

And the Ammonites a couching-place for flocks.

And ye shall know that I am the LORD.

⁶ For thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because thou ^f hast clapped hands,
And stamped with the feet,

And ^g rejoiced in heart with all thy despite,
Against the land of Israel;

⁷ Therefore behold, I ^h will stretch out my hand upon thee,

And will deliver thee for a spoil to the nations;

And I will cut thee off from the nations,
And I will cause thee to perish out of the countries;

I will destroy thee.

And thou shalt know that I am the LORD.

⁸ Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because Moab and Seir say,
Behold the house of Judah is like all the nations;

⁹ Therefore behold, I will open the side of Moab, from the cities,

From his cities on his frontiers,

The glory of the country;

Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon and Kiria-thaim;

¹⁰ Unto the men of the East, with the Ammonites,

And I will give it for a possession;

That the Ammonites ⁱ may not be remembered among the nations.

¹¹ And I ^k will execute judgments upon Moab.

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

¹² Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because ^j Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance,

And hath greatly offended,

And hath revenged himself upon them;

¹³ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD:

I ^m will also stretch out my hand against Edom,

And I will cut off man and beast from it;

And I will make it desolate from ⁿ Teman, And unto Dedan they shall fall by the sword.

¹⁴ And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom, By the hand of my people Israel:

And they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury.

And they shall know my vengeance,

Saith the Lord GOD.

¹⁵ Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Because ^o the Philistines have dealt by revenge,

And have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart,

To destroy, for ^p the old hatred;

¹⁶ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, I ^q will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines,

And I will cut off ^r the Cherethim,

And ^s destroy the remnant of the sea-coasts.

¹⁷ And I will execute ^t great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes.

And they shall know that I am the LORD,

When I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

The judgment of Tyre—(1) Her selfish avarice; her (3) destruction, and (7) the instruments of its execution; (15) its effect on other nations.

²⁵ AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying:

² Son of man, because Tyre hath said concerning Jerusalem,

^a Aha, she is broken, that was the gate of the peoples!

She is turned unto me;

I shall be replenished; she is laid waste;

³ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, ^b I am against thee, Tyre, And I will cause many nations to come up against thee,

As the sea causeth its waves to come up.

⁴ And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, And break down her towers.

And I will scrape her dust from her,

And make her like the bare rock.

⁵ It shall be for the spreading of nets, ^d in the midst of the sea;

For I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD:

And it shall become a spoil to the nations.

⁶ And her daughters* which are in the field shall be slain by the sword.

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

⁷ For thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold,

^e I will bring upon Tyre from the North Nebuchadrezzar, the king of Babylon, ^f the king of kings, with horses and with chariots, and with horsemen and companies, and much people.

⁸ He shall slay with the sword thy daughters ^g in the field: and he shall make a siege-tower against thee, and cast up a mount ^h against thee, and lift up buckler against thee.

⁹ And he shall set the stroke of his battery against thy walls, and with his axes ⁱ he shall break down thy towers.

¹⁰ By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee; thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen and of the wheels and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter into a city wherein is made a breach.

¹¹ With the hoofs of his horses shall he

And will ^k cast up dust upon their heads,
They will ^l roll themselves in ashes;

31 And they will ^m make themselves utterly bald for thee,

And gird themselves with sackcloth,
And they will weep for thee with bitter-

	4 By thy wisdom and by thine understanding Thou hast gotten thee riches, And hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures; 5 By ^b thy great wisdom, and by thy traffic Thou hast increased thy riches; And thy heart is lifted up because of thy riches: 6 Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Because thou settest thy heart as the heart of God, 7 Therefore behold, I will bring strangers against thee, The ^c most violent of the nations; And they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, And they shall defile thy brightness. 8 They shall bring thee down ^d to the pit, And thou shalt die the deaths of the slain, In the midst of the seas. 9 Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God; When thou art man and not God, Under the hand of him that slayeth ^e thee. 10 Thou shalt die the deaths of ^e the uncircumcised, By the hand of strangers: For I have spoken it, saith the Lord God. 11 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: 12 Son of man, ^f take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyre, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord God: Thou seal of perfection, Full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty! 13 Thou wast in Eden, ^g the garden of God. Judgments on Egypt—(3) The ruin and desolation of the country, and (12) dispersion of the people for forty years—(14) The future feeble and degraded state of the nation.

29. IN the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ² Son of man, set thy face against Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and ³ against all Egypt: ³ speak and say, Thus saith the Lord God:

Behold, ^b I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt,

The great ^c crocodile that lieth in the midst of his rivers;

Which saith, My river ^{*} is mine own, And I have made it for myself.

⁴ But ^e I will put hooks in thy jaws, And I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick to thy scales,

And I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, And all the fish of thy rivers shall stick to thy scales.

⁵ And I will cast ^f thee into the wilderness, Thee and all the fish of thy rivers:

Thou shalt fall upon the face of the field; Thou ^g shalt not be lifted up, nor gathered together,

I ^h give thee for food To the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven.

⁶ And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD.

Because they have been a ⁱ staff of reed to the house of Israel;

⁷ When ^k they took hold of thee by thy hand, Thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder;

And when they leaned upon thee, Thou brakest, and madest all their loins to tremble;

⁸ Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Behold, ^l I will bring a sword upon thee, And cut off man and beast out of thee;

⁹ And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and waste.

And they shall know that I am the LORD.

Because he hath said, The river is mine, and I made it;

¹⁰ Therefore behold, I am against thee and against thy rivers;

And ^m I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste, and a desolation,

From ⁿ Migdol to Syene, Even unto the border of Ethiopia.

¹¹ No ^o foot of man shall pass through it, Nor shall foot of beast pass through it, Nor shall it be inhabited, forty years.

¹² And I will make the land of Egypt desolate ^p in the midst of desolate countries, And her cities, among cities laid waste, shall be desolate, forty years.

And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, And will disperse them through the countries.

¹³ For thus saith the Lord God: At the end of forty years

I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples whither they were scattered;

¹⁴ And I will restore the captivity of Egypt, And ^q I will cause them to return to the land of Pathros,

To the land of their nativity. And they shall be there ^r a base kingdom.

¹⁵ It shall be the basest of the kingdoms, And it shall not ^s exalt itself any more above the nations;

And I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.

¹⁶ And it shall no more be ^t the confidence of the house of Israel,

Bringing iniquity to remembrance, in their turning after them:

And they shall know that I am the Lord God.

The judgment of Egypt continued—(15) Nebuchadnezzar's invasion, and plundering of the country—(21) The restoration of Israel.

¹⁷ AND it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying:

¹⁸ Son of man, ^u Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.

¹⁹ Therefore thus saith the Lord God: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.

²⁰ I give him the land of Egypt, for his labour wherewith he served against it; because they wrought for me, saith the Lord God.

²¹ In that day ^v will I cause a horn to bud forth for the house of Israel, and I will give thee ^w the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

The judgment of Egypt continued—(3) Terrible slaughter and desolation by the Chaldeans.

30. THE word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, ² Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord God:

Judgment of Egypt continued—(2) A warning from the example of mighty Assyria, cast down from her greatness and glory.

31. AND it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, on the first of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ² Son of man, speak to Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, and to his multitude:

To whom art thou like in thy greatness?

⁴ Dan. 4.
10, 12.

Behold, ^a the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon,

With fair branches and with a forest shade,
and high of stature;

And his top was among the thick boughs*.

* or, the clouds;
and in vers. 10, 14.

⁴ The waters made him great,

The deep set him up on high,

With its streams running round about his plantations,

And it sent out its channels unto all the trees of the field.

⁵ Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field,

And his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long,

Because of the multitude of waters, when he spread forth.

⁶ All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs,

And under his branches all the beasts of the field brought forth,

And under his shadow dwelt all the many nations.

⁷ Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of his branches,

For his root was by many waters.

^b ch. 28,
14; Ge. 2,
8; 13, 10.

⁸ The cedars in ^b the garden of God could not hide him,

The yppresses were not like his boughs,

And the plane-trees were not like his branches;

Nor was any tree in the garden of God like unto him in his beauty.

⁹ I made him fair by the abundance of his branches,

And all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him.

¹⁰ Therefore thus saith the Lord God:

Because thou hast lifted up thyself in thy height,

And he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs,

And ^c his heart is lifted up by his height;

^c Dan. 5.
20.

¹¹ So I have delivered him into the hand of ^d the mighty one of the nations;

^d ch. 32,
11, 12;
Jer. 25, 9;
Dan. 5,
18, 19.

He shall surely deal with him;

I have driven him out for his wickedness.

¹² And strangers, ^e the most violent of the nations,

^e ch. 28, 7;
Hab. 1, 6,
7.

Have cut him off, and have left him.

His branches are fallen upon the mountains and in all the valleys,

And his boughs are broken, in all the rivers*
of the land;

* or, the bottoms.

And all the peoples of the earth are ^f gone down from his shadow,

^f Dan. 4.
12—14.

And have left him.

¹³ Upon ^g his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven settle,

^g ch. 29, 5;
Is. 18, 6.

And all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches.

¹⁴ To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their height,

Nor shoot up their top among the thick
boughs,

And that all the trees that drink water stand not up in their height;

For they are all delivered unto death,

To ^h the lower parts of the earth,

^h ch. 32, 18
—20.

In the midst of the children of men,

With them that go down to the pit.

¹⁵ Thus saith the Lord God:

In the day when he went down to the graveⁱ,
I caused a mourning, I covered the deep for
him;

ⁱ Heb.
Sheol.

And I restrained its floods,

And the great waters were stayed.

And I caused Lebanon to mourn for him,

And all the trees of the field fainted for him.

^j or,
many.

¹⁶ At the sound of his fall, I made the nations ^k to shake,

^k ch. 26, 15.

When I ^l cast him down to the grave^l,

^l Is. 14, 15.

With them that descend into the pit.

^m Heb.
Sheol.

And ^l all the trees of Eden,

^l Is. 14, 8
—10.

The choice and best of Lebanon,

All that drink water,

Were comforted, in the lower parts of the earth.

¹⁷ They also went down to the graveⁿ with him,

ⁿ Heb.
Sheol.

To the slain by the sword;

And ^o they that were his arm^o,

^o or, helpers.

Who dwelt under his shadow, in the midst of the nations.

¹⁸ To whom art thou thus like in glory and in greatness

Among the trees of Eden?

Yet shalt thou be brought down, with the trees of Eden,

Unto the lower parts of the earth;

Thou^o shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised;

^o ch. 28.

With the slain by the sword.

This is Pharaoh and all his multitude,

Saith the Lord God.

	Judgment of Egypt continued—A song of lamentation over Pharaoh, (2) compared to a lion on dry land or a crocodile in the river, (3) hunted, captured and slain; (9) to the dismay and terror of other kings and nations—(11) The instruments of the destruction.	¹¹ For thus saith the Lord GOD: The ^m sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon thee.	m Jer. 43. 10—13.

e ch. 12. 13; Hos. 7. 12.	⁴ Then ^f will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth on the face of the field; And will cause all the fowls of the heaven to settle upon thee, And I will fill the beasts of the whole earth with thee.	¹⁵ When I make the land of Egypt desolate, And the country shall be despoiled of its fulness, When I smite all that dwell therein, Then ^r shall they know that I am the LORD.	r ch. 6. 7; Ex. 14.
f ch. 23. 5.	⁵ And I will lay thy flesh upon the mountains, And fill the valleys with thy carcases.	¹⁶ This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her; The daughters of the nations shall lament her; They shall lament for her, for Egypt and for all her multitude, Saith the Lord GOD.
g Is. 54. 3, 7. * or, which thy river inundateth.	⁶ And I ^g will water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest*, Even unto the mountains, And the rivers shall be full of thee.	A funeral dirge over Egypt, (17) which is represented as taken to the mouth of a vast pit containing the carcases of other nations conquered by Nebuchadnezzar, to whom Pharaoh and his people shall be joined.
	⁷ And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, And will make its stars dark; I ^h will cover the sun with clouds, And the moon shall not give her light; ⁸ All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, And I will set darkness upon thy land; Saith the Lord GOD.	¹⁷ AND it came to pass in the twelfth year, on the fifteenth of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ¹⁸ Son of man, Wail for the multitude of Egypt; And ^a cast them down, Her and the daughters of the powerful nations, Unto the lower parts of the earth, With them that go down to the pit.
h Is. 13. 10.	⁹ And I will vex the hearts of many peoples, When ⁱ I bring thy destruction among the nations, Into countries which thou hast not known.	¹⁹ Whom ^b dost thou surpass in beauty? AND the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, ² Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them : When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man from the midst of them and set him for their watchman ; ³ if when he seeth the sword coming upon the land, he blow the trumpet and warn the people ; ⁴ then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet and taketh not warning, if the sword come and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. ⁵ He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning ; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. ⁶ But if the watchman see the sword coming, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned ; and the sword come and take a soul from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand.

²³ And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying: ²⁴ Son of man, ^f they that inhabit those wastes in the land of Israel shall speak, saying, ^g Abraham was one, and he inherited the land; but we are many, the land is given us for a possession.

²⁵ Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Ye ^h eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes towards your idols, and ye ⁱ shed blood; and shall ye possess the land?

wounded, nor have ye brought back the driven away, nor have ye sought the lost: but with force and with cruelty have ye ruled them. ⁵ And ^d they were scattered because there was no shepherd; and they became food to every beast of the field, when they were scattered. ⁶ My flock wandered on all the mountains and on every high hill, yea my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after them.

⁷ Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD! ⁸ As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became food to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, and my shepherds searched not for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; ⁹ therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of the LORD. ¹⁰ Thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and ¹¹ I will require my flock at their hand, and will cause them to cease from feeding the flock; and the shepherds shall not feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.

¹¹ For thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep and seek them out. ¹² As a shepherd seeketh out his flock, in the day that he is among his scattered sheep, so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered ^o in the cloudy and dark day. ¹³ And ¹⁴ I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries; and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel, in the valleys, and in all the inhabited places of the country. ¹⁴ I will feed them in a good pasture; and upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold ¹⁵ be; ¹⁶ there shall they lie in a good fold ¹⁷, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.

¹⁵ I myself will feed my flock, and ¹⁶ I will cause them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. ¹⁶ I will seek the lost, and bring back what was driven away, and will bind up the wounded, and will strengthen the sick: but I ¹⁷ will destroy the fat and the strong, I will feed them with judgment.

¹⁷ And as for you, my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD: Behold, ¹⁸ I judge between sheep and sheep, between the rams and the he-goats. ¹⁸ Is it too small a thing to you to have eaten up the good pasture, but ye tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures; and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye foul the residue with your feet? ¹⁹ And as for my flock, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.

²⁰ Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD unto them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. ²¹ Because ye have thrust with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the sickly with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; ²² therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. ²³ And I will set up one ²⁴ shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even ²⁵ my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. ²⁴ And I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David ²⁶ shall be prince among them. I the LORD have spoken it.

²⁵ And ²⁷ I will make with them a covenant of peace; and I ²⁸ will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land; and ²⁹ they shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. ²⁶ And ²⁷ I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and ²⁸ I will cause the rain to come down in its season; there shall be ²⁹ showers of blessing. ²⁷ And the tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and ³⁰ the earth shall yield its increase. And they shall be safe in their land. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I ³¹ break the bands of their yoke, and deliver them out of the hand of those who ³² exacted service from them. ²⁸ And they shall no more be ³³ a prey to the nations, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but ³⁴ they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid. ²⁹ And I will raise up for them a ³⁵ plantation of renown; and they shall be ³⁶ no more consumed by famine in the land, nor shall they ³⁷ bear the reproach of the nations any more.

³⁰ And they shall know that ³¹ I, the LORD, their God, am with them, and ³² that they, the house of Israel, are my people, saith the Lord GOD. ³¹ And ye, ³² my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men; and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.

will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

39. And thou, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD:

Behold, I am against thee, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal! ² And I will turn thee back and lead thee, and ³ will cause thee to come up from the sides of the North, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel. ⁴ And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. ⁵ Upon the mountains of Israel thou shalt fall, thou and all thy hordes, and the peoples that are with thee. I ⁶ will give thee to the ravenous birds of every sort and to the beasts of the field, to be devoured. ⁷ Thou shalt fall upon the face of the field. For I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD.

⁸ And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that dwell in security in the isles*. And they shall know that I am the LORD. ⁹ And I will make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let my holy name be polluted any more; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. ¹⁰ Behold, ¹¹ it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord GOD. This is the day whereof I have spoken.

¹² And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shield and the buckler, the bow and the arrows, and the hand-pike and the spear; and they shall burn them with fire seven years. ¹³ So that they shall take no wood out of the field, nor cut down out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire. ¹⁴ And ¹⁵ they shall spoil those that spoiled them, and plunder those that plundered them, saith the Lord GOD.

¹⁶ And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place of graves there in Israel, the valley of the passers-by on the East of the sea; and it shall stifle¹⁷ the passers by. And there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog. ¹⁸ And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, in order to cleanse the land; ¹⁹ and all the people of the land shall be burying. And it shall be to them for a name in the day that ²⁰ I am glorified, saith the Lord GOD. ²¹ And they shall set apart men going continually through the land, who, with the passers-by, shall bury, those that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it. After the end of seven months shall they search; ²² and the passers by shall pass through the land; and when ²³ any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a mark by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog. ²⁴ And also the name of the city* shall be Hamonah†. So shall they cleanse the land.

²⁵ And thou, son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD: ²⁶ Say to every feathered fowl and to every beast of the field: Assemble yourselves and come, gather yourselves from every side to my sacrifice that I sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice, upon the mountains of Israel; eat ye flesh and drink ye blood. ²⁷ Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth; rams, lambs, and goats, bullocks, all of them ²⁸ fatlings of Bashan. ²⁹ And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I sacrifice for you. ³⁰ Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses and charioteers, with mighty men and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD.

³¹ And ³² I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I execute, and ³³ my hand that I lay upon them. ³⁴ And ³⁵ the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. ³⁶ And ³⁷ the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity, because they trespassed against me; therefore ³⁸ hid I my face from them, and ³⁹ gave them into the hand of their enemies: so that they all fell by the sword. ⁴⁰ According to their uncleanness, and ⁴¹ according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hidden my face from them.

⁴² Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD: Now ⁴³ will I restore the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon ⁴⁴ the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. ⁴⁵ And ⁴⁶ they shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwell safely in their land, and none maketh afraid; ⁴⁷ when ⁴⁸ I bring them again from the peoples, and gather them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of the many nations. ⁴⁹ And ⁵⁰ they shall know that I am the LORD their God, who caused them to be led into captivity among the nations, when I shall have gathered them unto their own land, and ⁵¹ have left none of them any more there.

Vision of a new city in the land of Israel; and (3) a Divine messenger commissioned to instruct the prophet.

40. IN the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after ^a the city was smitten, on the selfsame day, ^b the hand of the LORD was upon me, and he brought me thither; ² in ^c the visions of God he brought me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain; and upon it was ^d as the building of a city, on the South. ³ And he brought me thither, and behold, a man whose appearance was ^e like the appearance of brass*, ^f with a flax-cord in his hand, and a ^g measuring-reed; and he was standing in the gate.

⁴ And the man said unto me: ^h Son of man, behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thy heart upon all that I shall show thee; for in order that they be shown unto thee art thou brought hither. Declare ⁱ all that thou seest to the house of Israel.

The vision continued—(5) The new temple—its boundary wall, outer court, gates, porches and chambers.

⁵ AND behold, ^a a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring-reed of six cubits, by the cubit and a hand breadth. And he measured the breadth of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. ⁶ And he came to the gate which looketh towards the east, and he went up its stairs, and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. ⁷ And every chamber was one reed long and one reed broad and between the chambers were five cubits. And the threshold of the gate, by the side of the porch of the gate within, was one reed. ⁸ And he measured the porch of the gate within, one reed. ⁹ And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was within. ¹⁰ And the chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side and three on that side; they three were of one measure; and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. ¹¹ And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. ¹² And the barrier before the chambers was one cubit on this side, and the barrier was one cubit on that side; and the chambers were six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side. ¹³ And he measured the gate from the roof of one chamber to the roof of another; the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door over against door. ¹⁴ And he made posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the court round about the gate. ¹⁵ And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty cubits. ¹⁶ And there were ^b closed windows to the chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and so to the arches*; and the windows were round about inwards; and upon each post were palm-trees.

¹⁷ And he brought me into ^c the outer court, and lo, ^d chambers, and a pavement made for the court round about; ^e thirty chambers by the pavement. ¹⁸ And the pavement by the side of the gates, according to the length of the gates, was the lower pavement. ¹⁹ And he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner court without, a hundred cubits eastward and northward.

²⁰ And the gate of the outer court, that looked towards the north, he measured its length and its breadth. ²¹ And its chambers were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth five and twenty cubits. ²² And its windows and its arches and its palm-trees were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east. And they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. ²³ And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate towards the north and towards the east. And he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.

²⁴ And he brought me towards the South; and behold, a gate towards the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. ²⁵ And there were windows in it and in its arches round about, like those windows; the length, fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. ²⁶ And seven steps were its stairs, and its arches were before them. And it had palm-trees, one on this side and another on that side, upon its posts. ²⁷ And there was a gate in the inner court towards the south. And he measured from gate to gate towards the south, a hundred cubits.

The vision continued—(28) The inner court of the temple, with its gates, chambers and sacrificial arrangements—(48) The temple-porch.

28 AND he brought me into the inner court by the south gate; and he measured the south gate according to these measures; 29 and its chambers and its posts and its arches, according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in its arches round about: fifty cubits long and five and twenty cubits broad. 30 And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long and five cubits broad. 31 And its arches were ^a towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts. And its ascent was eight steps.

32 And he brought me into the inner court towards the east; and he measured the gate according to these measures; 33 and its chambers and its posts and its arches, according to these measures. And there were windows therein and in its arches round about: fifty cubits long and five and twenty cubits broad. 34 And its arches were towards the outer court; and palm-trees upon its posts, on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and he measured according to these measures; 36 its chambers, its posts, and its arches, and the windows to it round about: the length fifty cubits and the breadth five and twenty cubits. 37 And its posts were towards the outer court; and palm-trees were upon its posts, on this side and on that side. And its ascent was eight steps.

38 And a chamber* and its entry were by the posts at the gates, ^b where they washed the burnt-offering. 39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, to lay thereon ^c the burnt-offering and ^d the sin-offering and ^e the trespass-offering. 40 And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was the porch of the gate, two tables. 41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the sacrifices. 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone, for the burnt-offering, of a cubit and a half long and a cubit and a half broad and one cubit high; whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. 43 And within were hooks a hand broad, fastened round about; and upon the tables was the flesh of the offering.

44 And outside the inner gate were the chambers* of ^f the singers, in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their front was towards the south: one at the side of the east gate, fronting towards the north. 45 And he said unto me, This chamber ^g whose front is towards the south is for the priests, ^h the keepers of the charge of the house; 46 and the cell whose front is towards the north is for the priests, ⁱ the keepers of the charge of the altar. These are the sons of ^j Zadok, those who from the sons of Levi are near to the LORD to minister unto him.

47 And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare. And the altar was before the house.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the house; and he measured ^k each post of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side; and the breadth of the gate, three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side. 49 The ^l length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and there were steps by which they went up to it. And there were ^m pillars by the posts, one on this side and another on that side.

The vision continued—The temple itself.

41. AND he brought me to the temple. And he measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side and six cubits broad on the other side, the breadth of the tabernacle. 2 And the breadth of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side and five cubits on the other side; and he measured its length, forty cubits; and the breadth, twenty cubits.

3 And he went inside; and he measured the post of the door, two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. 4 And ^a he measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, in front of the temple. And he said unto me, ^b This is the most holy place.

5 And he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of the side-chambers, four cubits, round about the house on every side. 6 And ^c the side-chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which the house had for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold; but they had not hold in the wall of the house. 7 And ^d there was an enlarging and a winding about still upward to the side-chambers; for the winding about of the house went still upward, round about the house; therefore the house had width upward, and so ascended from the lowest chamber to the highest, by the middle.

⁸ And I saw the height of the house round about. The foundations of the side-chambers were ^a a full reed of six great cubits. ⁹ The width of the wall which the side-chamber had on the outside was five cubits; and what was left free was the place of the side-chambers which the house had. ¹⁰ And between the chambers* was the width of twenty cubits round about the house on every side. ¹¹ And the door of the side-chamber was towards what was left free; one door towards the north and another door towards the south. And the width of the place that was left free was five cubits round about.

¹² And the building that was in front of the area at the end towards the west was seventy cubits broad. And the wall of the building was five cubits in width round about, and its length ninety cubits. ¹³ And he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the area and the building, and its walls, a hundred cubits long; ¹⁴ also the breadth of the face of the house and of the area towards the east, a hundred cubits.

¹⁵ And he measured the length of the building over against the area which was behind it, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits. And the inner temple, and the porches of the court; ¹⁶ the door posts, and ^f the closed windows, and the galleries round about, the three of them, over against the door, were ceiled† with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows; and the windows were covered. ¹⁷ Above over the door, even to the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about, within and without, was by measure.

¹⁸ And it was made with ^g cherubim and palm-trees, a palm-tree was between cherub and cherub; and every cherub had two faces; ¹⁹ and ^h the face of a man was towards the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a lion towards the palm-tree on the other side; made through all the house round about. ²⁰ From the ground unto above the door were the cherubim and the palm-trees made, and on the wall of the temple. ²¹ The door-posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary had the same appearance.

²² The ⁱ altar was wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners and its length and its walls were of wood.

And he said to me, ^k This is the table that is before the LORD.

²³ And ^l the temple and the sanctuary had two doors. ²⁴ And the doors had two leaves, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door and two for the other. ²⁵ And on them were made, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, as they were made upon the walls. And there were thick planks* in front of the porch without. ²⁶ And there were closed windows and palm-trees, on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch and the side-chambers of the house, and the steps.

The vision continued—The chambers of the temple, and its boundary walls.

⁴² AND he brought me forth into the outer court, the way towards the north; and he brought me to ^a the chamber † that was over against the area, and which was in front of the building towards the north. ² Before ^b the length of the hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. ³ Over against the twenty cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the outer court, was ^c gallery against gallery, in the three stories. ⁴ And before the chambers; was a walk of ten cubits breadth; in the interior a way of one cubit; and their doors towards the north. ⁵ And the upper chambers were shorter (for the galleries encroached on them) than the lower and than the middlemost of the building. ⁶ For they were in three stories, but they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts; therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.

¹⁰ In the thickness of the wall of the court towards the east, over against the area and over against the building, were chambers*.

¹¹ And the way before them was like the appearance of the chambers* which were towards the north: as long as they, and as broad as they; and all their goings out were both according to their fashions and according to their doors. ¹² And according to the doors of the chambers§ that were towards the south was a door in the head of a way, a way directly in front of the wall towards the east, as one entereth into them.

¹³ And he said unto me, The north chambers* and the south chambers*, which are in front of the area, they are holy chambers*, ^d where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things. There shall they lay the most holy things, and ^e the meal-offering and the sin-offering and the trespass-offering; for the place is holy. ¹⁴ When ^f the priests enter therein, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court; but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister, for they are holy; and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to what is for the people.

¹⁵ And when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth towards the gate whose front is towards the east, and he measured it round about. ¹⁶ He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. ¹⁷ He measured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. ¹⁸ He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed. ¹⁹ He turned about to the west side, and he measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed; ²⁰ he measured it by the four sides. It had a wall round about, ²¹ five hundred† long and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the common place.

The vision continued—(2) The entrance of the glory of God into the temple—(6) Announcement of his merciful purposes towards his people upon their repentance.

^{43.} AND he brought me to the gate, a ^a gate that looketh towards the east. ² And behold, ^b the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and ^c his voice† was like a voice of many waters: and the ^d earth shone with his glory. ³ And it ^e was ^c according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, according to the vision that I saw when I came ^f to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw ² by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.

⁴ And ^h the glory of the LORD came into the house by the way of the gate whose front is towards the east. ⁵ And ⁱ the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and behold, ^k the glory of the LORD filled the house. ⁶ And ^l I heard one speaking unto me out of the house; and a ^m man was standing by me. ⁷ And he said to me:

Son of man, ⁿ the place of my throne, and ^o the place of the soles of my feet, ^p where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever; and my holy name, shall the house of Israel ^q no more defile, they nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor by the carcases of their kings in their high places. ⁸ In ^r their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their door-post by my door-posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name, by their abominations that they have committed. Wherefore I have consumed them in mine anger. ⁹ Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcases of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.

¹⁰ Thou, son of man, ^s make known the house to the house of Israel, ^t that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern. ¹¹ And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, show them the form of the house and its fashion, and its goings-out and its comings-in, and all its forms and all its ordinances, and all its forms and all its laws; and write it in their sight, that they may keep its whole form and all its ordinances, that they may do them.

¹² This is the law of the house: ^u "On the top of the mountain all its border round about is most holy*. Behold, this is the law of the house.

The vision continued—The order of Divine worship—(18) The altar of burnt-offering, and (18) its consecration.

¹⁸ And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord God: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, and to ^a sprinkle blood thereon. ¹⁹ And thou shalt give ^d to the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of Zadok, who approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord God, ^e a young bullock for a sin-offering. ²⁰ And thou shalt take of its blood, and put ^{it} on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and on the border round about: ^f thus shalt thou cleanse and make expiation for it. ²¹ And thou shalt take the bullock for the sin-offering, and ^g it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside the sanctuary. ²² And on the second day thou shalt offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin-offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed ^{it} with the bullock. ²³ When thou hast made an end of cleansing ^{it}, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. ²⁴ And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and ^h the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up, a burnt-offering unto the LORD. ²⁵ Seven ⁱ days shalt thou offer every day a goat for a sin-offering; they shall also offer a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. ²⁶ Seven days shall they make expiation for the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate themselves. ²⁷ And when ^k these days are expired, it shall be ^{that} upon the eighth day and forward the priests shall make your burnt-offerings upon the altar, and your peace-offerings; and ^l I will accept you, saith the Lord God.

The vision continued—Ordinances for (3) the prince, and (6) the priesthood.

44. AND he brought me back, the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looketh towards the east; and it was shut. ² And the LORD said unto me: This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; ³ because the LORD, the God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. ⁴ As for ^b the prince, the prince, ^c he shall sit in it ^d to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go out by the way of the same. ⁵ Then brought he me, the way of the north gate, to the front of the house; and I looked, and behold, ^e the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and ^f I fell upon my face.

⁶ And the LORD said unto me, ^g Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD and all its laws; and mark well the entering in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. ⁶ And thou shalt say to ^h the rebellious, to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God: Ye house of Israel, ⁱ let it suffice you of all your abominations, ^j in that ^k ye have brought in strangers ^{*}, ^l uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer ^m my bread, ⁿ the fat and the blood; and they have broken my covenant, besides all your abominations. ⁸ And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things; but ye have set ^o strangers for keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

⁹ Thus saith the Lord God: ^o No stranger, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel. ¹⁰ But ^p the Levites who went away far from me when Israel went astray, who went astray away from me after their idols, they shall even bear their iniquity; ¹¹ and they shall be ministers: in my sanctuary, officers at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: ^q they shall slay for the people the burnt-offering and the sacrifice, and ^r they shall stand before them to minister unto them. ¹² Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and ^s caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity, therefore ^t have I lifted up my hand against them, saith the Lord God; and they shall bear their iniquity. ¹³ And they ^u shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place; but they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have committed. ¹⁴ And I will make them ^v keepers of the charge of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein.

¹⁵ But ^w the priests the Levites, the sons of ^x Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and ^y they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord God; ¹⁶ they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to ^z my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge.

and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth ten thousand. It shall be holy in all the borders thereof round about. ² Of this there shall be for the sanctuary ^c five hundred by five hundred, square round about; and fifty cubits round about for the suburbs thereof. ³ And of this measure shalt thou measure the length of five and twenty thousand, and the breadth of ten thousand; and ^d in it shall be the sanctuary, the most holy *place*⁴. ⁴ The holy part of the land shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who shall come near to minister unto the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.

⁵ And five and twenty thousand of length and ten thousand of breadth shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers⁶. ⁶ And ^e ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad and five and twenty thousand long, alongside the holy oblation; it shall be for the whole house of Israel. ⁷ And ^l the prince shall have a part on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy part and of the possession of the city, in front of the oblation of the holy part and in front of the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward; and the length shall be alongside one of the parts, from the west border unto the east border. ⁸ For land, it shall be his possession in Israel. And ⁹ my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel, according to their tribes. ⁹ Thus saith the Lord GOD: ^k Let it suffice you, princes of Israel; ^l put ye away violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, remove your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. ¹⁰ Ye shall have ^k just balances and a just ephah and a just bath. ¹¹ The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, so that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer; its measure shall be according to the homer. ¹² And ^l the shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh^t. ¹³ This is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah for a homer of wheat; and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah for a homer of barley. ¹⁴ Concerning the allowance of oil, the bath of oil, ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is a homer of ten baths; (for ten baths are a homer). ¹⁵ And one sheep* out of the flock out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meal-offering, and for a burnt-offering, and for peace-offerings, ^m to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD.

¹⁶ All the people of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. ¹⁷ And it shall be ⁿ the prince's part to give the burnt-offerings and the meal-offering and drink-offering, in the feasts and in the new moons and in the sabbaths, in all the solemnities of the house of Israel; he shall offer the sin-offering and the meal-offering and the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel.

The vision continued—(18) The offerings to be presented by the prince and the people at the festivals and daily sacrifices—(16) The inalienableness of inheritances—(19) A provision for cooking the priest's portion of the sacrifices with due regard to ceremonial sanctity.

¹⁸ THUS saith the Lord GOD: In the first month, on the first of the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and ^a cleanse the sanctuary. ¹⁹ And ^b the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the door-posts of the gate of the inner court. ²⁰ And so thou shalt do, on the seventh of the month, ^c for every one that hath sinned, and for the simple: so shall ye make expiation for the house.

²¹ In ^d the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. ²² And on that day shall the prince offer for himself and for all the people of the land ^e a bullock for a sin-offering. ²³ And the ^f seven days of the feast he shall offer a burnt-offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily for the seven days, and ^g a he-goat daily for a sin-offering. ²⁴ And ^h he shall offer a meal-offering of an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and a hin of oil for the ephah. ²⁵ In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like, in ⁱ the feast of the seven days, according to the sin-offering, according to the burnt-offering, and according to the meal-offering, and according to the oil.

46. Thus saith the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that looketh towards the east ^k shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened. ² And ^l the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without; and he shall stand by the door-post of the gate; and the priests shall offer his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings; and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; and the gate shall not be shut until the evening. ³ Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this gate before the LORD on the sabbaths and on the new moons.

⁴ And the burnt-offering that ^m the prince shall offer unto the LORD on the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without blemish. ⁵ And the meal-offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal-offering for the lambs ⁿ as he shall be able to give, and a hin of oil, to the ephah. ⁶ And in the day of the new moon, a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish. ⁷ And he shall offer a meal-offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall afford, and a hin of oil to the ephah.

¹¹ And in the feasts and in the solemn assembly, the meal-offering shall be an ephah to the bullock and an ephah to the ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to the ephah. ¹² And when the prince shall offer a voluntary burnt-offering, or peace-offerings voluntarily, unto the LORD, then they shall open for him the gate that looketh towards the east; and he shall offer his burnt-offering and his peace-offerings as he doeth on the sabbath day; then he shall go forth, and after his going forth they shall shut the gate.

¹³ Thou ^p shalt daily offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD, a lamb of the first year without blemish; thou shalt do it every morning. ¹⁴ And thou shalt offer a meal-offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal-offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. ¹⁵ Thus shall they offer the lamb and the meal-offering and the oil, the continual burnt-offering, every morning.

¹⁹ And he brought me, through the entry which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers* of the priests, which looked toward the north; and behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. ²⁰ Then said he to me, This is the place where the priests ^cshall boil the trespass-offering and the sin-offering, where they ^dshall bake the meal-offering; that they bring them not out into the outer court, ^eto sanctify the people.

²¹ And he brought me forth to the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. ²² In the four corners of the court were courts enclosed, of forty cubits long and thirty broad; these four corner-courts were of one measure. ²³ And there was a row of building round about in them, round about those four, and there were boiling places made under the rows round about. ²⁴ Then said he unto me, These are the place of the cooks, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

The vision continued—(1) The river of life, issuing from the temple—(6) Its life-giving and fruitifying effects.

²⁵ AND he brought me back to the door of the house; and behold, ^awaters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; for the forefront of the house was eastward, and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, at the south of the altar. ²⁶ And he brought me by the way of the gate northward, and he led me round without to the outer gate, by the way that looketh eastward; and behold, there ran out waters on the right side.

²⁷ And when ^bthe man went forth eastward, he had the line in his hand; and he measured a thousand cubits; and he made me pass through the waters; the waters were to the ancles. ²⁸ Again he measured a thousand, and he made me pass through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and he made me pass through; the waters were to the loins. ²⁹ Again he measured a thousand; and there was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through. ³⁰ And he said to me, Son of man, seest thou this?

Then he led me and brought me back to the brink of the river. ³¹ And when I returned, behold, at the brink of the river were very many ^ctrees, on the one side and on the other. ³² And he said to me, These waters issue out towards the east country, and they go down into the plain ^d, and go into the sea; they are let out into the sea, that the waters may be healed. ³³ And it shall come to pass that every living thing which moveth, whithersoever the swollen river* shall come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed, and every thing shall live whither the river cometh. ³⁴ And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand upon it; from ^eEn-gedi even unto En-gelaim, shall be places to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of ^fthe Great Sea, exceeding many. ³⁵ But the miry places thereof and the marshes thereof shall not be healed; they ^gshall be given to salt. ³⁶ And by the river upon its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for food, ^hwhose leaf shall not fade, neither shall their fruit fail; it shall bring forth new fruit according to its months; because their waters flow forth from the sanctuary; and their fruit shall be for food, and ⁱtheir leaf for medicine.

Conclusion of the vision—(13) The boundaries and distribution of the Holy Land—(30) The holy city—its extent, its twelve gates, and its name.

³⁷ THUS saith the Lord GOD: This is the border whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel. For ^aJoseph shall be two portions. ³⁸ And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another,

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET

DANIEL.

The education of some Jewish captives of noble birth at the court of Babylon—(8) The religious fidelity of Daniel and three others; (15) the Divine blessing following thereupon; (17) the extraordinary progress of the four youths in knowledge and wisdom, and (19) their appointment to the service of the king.

1. IN the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, ^a came Nebuchadnezzar, the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem, and besieged it. ² And ^b the Lord gave Jehoiakim, the king of Judah, into his hand, with ^c part of the vessels of the house of God; which he carried into ^d the land of Shinar, to the house of his god; and ^e he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.

³ And the king spake unto Ashpenaz, the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring ^f of the sons of Israel, both of the king's seed and of the princes *, ⁴ youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and acquainted with knowledge, and understanding science, and who had ability in them to stand in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning† and the tongue of the Chaldeans. ⁵ And the king appointed them a daily provision of the king's food and of the wine which he drank, for nourishing them three years; that at the end thereof they might ^g stand before the king.

⁶ And among these were of the sons of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ⁷ And ^h the chief of the eunuchs gave to them names; ⁱ and to Daniel he gave the name Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, Shadrach; and to Mishael, Meshach; and to Azariah, Abednego.

⁸ And Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the king's food, nor with the wine which he drank; and he requested of the chief of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself. ⁹ And ^k God brought Daniel into favour and tender mercy with the chief of the eunuchs. ¹⁰ And the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniel : I fear my lord the king who hath appointed your food and your drink ; for why should he see your faces worse looking than the youths who are of your age ? And ye will endanger my head to the king.

¹¹ Then said Daniel to the steward whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah : ¹² Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days ; and let them give us pulse* to eat and water to drink ; ¹³ then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenances of the youths that eat of the portion of the king's food ; and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. ¹⁴ So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. ¹⁵ And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the youths who ate the portion of the king's food. ¹⁶ And the steward took away the portion of their food and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse†.

¹⁸ And at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. ¹⁹ And the king communed with them, and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael and Azariah ; therefore ⁿ stood they before the king. ²⁰ And in all matters of wisdom and understanding ^{||} that the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians† and enchanters that were in all his realm.

²¹ And ^o Daniel continued unto the first year of king Cyrus.

King Nebuchadnezzar, being anxious to learn the signification of a dream, (2) tests the ability of his wise men to interpret it, by requiring them to tell him the dream ; and on their failure to do this, condemns them to death as impostors ; but (14) in answer to prayer, (19) the secret is revealed to Daniel.

2. AND in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar ^a dreamed dreams, whereby his spirit was troubled, and ^b his sleep went from him. ² And ^c the king commanded to call the magicians[‡] and the enchanters and the sorcerers and the Chaldeans, to show the king his dreams. So they came and stood before the king. ³ And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream.

⁴ Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriac*, O king, live for ever ! Tell thy servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.

⁵ The king answered and said to the Chaldeans : The ^d word is gone forth from me : If ye will not make known unto me the dream and its interpretation, ^e ye shall be cut in pieces, and ^f your houses shall be made a dunghill. ⁶ But if ye show the dream and its interpretation, ^g ye shall receive from me gifts and rewards† and great honour. Therefore show me the dream and its interpretation.

⁷ They answered again and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show its interpretation.

⁸ The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain time, because ye see the word is gone forth from me. ⁹ But if ye will not make known to me the dream, there is one decree for you ; for ^h ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed. Therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can show me its interpretation.

¹⁰ The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said : There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter ; therefore no king, lord, or ruler, hath asked such things of any magician or enchanter or Chaldean. ¹¹ And the thing that the king requireth is hard, and there is none other that can show it before the king ⁱ except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.

¹² For this cause the king was angry and very furious ; and he commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. ¹³ And the decree went forth that the wise men should be slain. And they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain.

¹⁴ Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to Arioch ^k the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon ; ¹⁵ he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king ? And Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. ¹⁶ Then Daniel went in and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would show the king the interpretation.

19 Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel ^m in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. ²⁰ Daniel answered and said: ⁿ Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever! For ^o wisdom and might are his. ²¹ And he changeth the times and the seasons; he ^p removeth kings, and he setteth up kings. He ^q giveth wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding. ²² He ^r revealeth the deep and secret things; he ^s knoweth what is in the darkness, and ^t the light dwelleth with him. ²³ I thank thee, and praise thee, the God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might; and ^u now hast made known unto me what we desired of thee; for thou hast made known to us the king's matter.

²⁴ Then Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon, he went and said thus to him: Destroy not the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation.

Daniel tells the king (28) his dream, and (37) its interpretation; revealing a succession of four great empires—the Babylonian, Medo-Per-sian, Greek and Roman—with their several characteristics; and (44) the rise, growth and ultimate universality of God's everlasting kingdom.

²⁵ THEN Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him; I have found a man of the captives of Judah who will make known unto the king the interpretation.

²⁶ The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?

Thy dream and the visions of thy head upon thy bed are these: ²⁹ As for thee, O king, thy thoughts arose upon thy bed as to what should come to pass hereafter; and He who revealeth secrets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. ³⁰ But ^c as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation should be made known to the king, and that thou mightest know the thoughts of thy heart.

³¹ Thou, O king, sawest, and behold, a great image; this image was great, and its brightness excellent; it stood before thee; and its appearance was terrible. ³² This image's head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass*, ³³ its legs of iron, its feet part of iron and part of clay. ³⁴ Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out ^d without hands, which ^e smote the image upon its feet of iron and clay, and broke them to pieces. ³⁵ Then was the iron, the clay, the brass the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became ^f like chaff from the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, and ^g no place was found for them. And the stone that smote the image ^h became a great mountain, and ⁱ filled the whole earth. ³⁶ This is the dream, and its interpretation we will tell before the king.

³⁷ Thou, ^k O king, art the king of kings; for ^l the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power and strength and glory; ³⁸ and wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven, he hath given ^m them into thy hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. ³⁹ And after thee shall arise ⁿ another kingdom, inferior to thee; and another third kingdom of brass^t, which shall bear rule over all the earth. ⁴⁰ And ^o the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all ^p things, so, like iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. ⁴¹ And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. ⁴² And ^q as the toes of the feet were part of iron and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong and partly broken. ⁴³ And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of man, but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. ⁴⁴ And in the days of these kings, ^r the God of heaven will set up a kingdom ^s which shall never be destroyed; and the kingdom shall not be left to other people; ^t it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever; ⁴⁵ forasmuch as thou sawest that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver and the gold. God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter; and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure.

⁴⁶ Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours to him. ⁴⁷ The king answered unto Daniel and said, Of a truth ^r your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and the revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret.

⁴⁸ Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and ^s chief of the governors over all the wise men of Babylon.

⁴⁹ Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon; and Daniel ^t was in the gate of the king.

Daniel's three friends, (8) refusing to worship a golden statue set up by the king, (13) are cast into a furnace of fire, and (24) are miraculously preserved—(25) The impression made by this event on Nebuchadnezzar.

3. NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king made an image of gold, whose height was three-score cubits, and its breadth six cubits; he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.

² And Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors and the captains ^{*}, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. ³ Then the princes, the governors and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

⁷ Therefore at the very time when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, nations and languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.

⁸ Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans ^b came near, and accused the Jews. ⁹ They spake and said to the king Nebuchadnezzar: ^c O king, live for ever! ¹⁰ Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; ¹¹ and that whoso doth not fall down and worship, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. ¹² There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego; these men, O king, ^d do not regard thee; they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar, in rage and fury, commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. ¹⁴ Nebuchadnezzar spake and said to them: Is it of purpose, Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, that ye serve not my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? ¹⁵ Now if ye be ready that at the time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, well; but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. And ^e who is the God that shall ^f deliver you out of my hands?

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, answered and said to the king: O Nebuchadnezzar, ^g we have no need to answer thee in this matter. ¹⁷ If our God whom we serve is able to deliver us, from the burning fiery furnace, and out of thy hand, O king, he will deliver us; ¹⁸ but if not, he it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up.

¹⁹ Then was Nebuchadnezzar filled with fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. He spake and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was wont to be heated. ²⁰ And he commanded the mighty men who were in his army, to bind Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. ²¹ Then these men were bound in their coats, their tunics, and their mantles, and all their garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. ²² Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego. ²³ And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.

²⁴ Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished; and he rose up in haste, and spake and said unto his counsellors: Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king: True, O king. ²⁵ He answered and said: Lo, I see four men loose, ^a walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods.

²⁶ Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the door of the burning fiery furnace; and he spake and said: Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, came forth from the midst of the fire. ²⁷ And the princes, the governors and the captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, ⁱ upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was a hair of their head singed, neither were their coats* changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them.

²⁸ Nebuchadnezzar spake and said: ^k Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, who ^l hath sent his angel and delivered his servants that trusted in him; and they ^m have disobeyed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might not serve or worship any god except their own God. ²⁹ Therefore ⁿ I make a decree, that in every people, nation and language, he who shall speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, shall be ^o cut in pieces, and his house shall be made a dung-hill; ^p because there is no other God that can deliver after this sort.

³⁰ Then ^q the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach and Abed-nego, in the province of Babylon.

Another divine revelation, warning Nebuchadnezzar of a severe chastisement for his pride and tyranny—(28) Its fulfilment; and (34) the restored monarch's humble acknowledgment of God's supremacy, justice and truth.

4. NEBUCHADNEZZAR the king, ^a unto all the peoples, nations and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. ² I have thought it good to show the signs and wonders that the most high God hath wrought towards me. ³ How ^b great are his signs, and how mighty his wonders! His kingdom is ^c an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion from generation to generation.

⁴ I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. ⁵ I saw a dream, and it made me afraid, and ^d the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. ⁶ And I made a decree ^e to bring in before me all the wise men of Babylon, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. ⁷ Then came in the magicians*, the astrologers†, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known unto me its interpretation. ⁸ But at the last Daniel came in before me, ^f whose name is Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and ^g in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and before him I told the dream, saying:

⁹ O Belteshazzar, ^h chief of the magicians‡, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret is too hard for thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. ¹⁰ And ⁱ as to the visions of my head on my bed, I saw, and behold, ^j a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height ^k was great. ¹¹ The tree grew and was strong, and its height reached unto heaven, and the sight of it to the end of all the earth: ¹² its leaves were fair, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in its boughs, and all flesh was fed from it.

¹³ I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and behold, a watcher and ^k a holy one came down from heaven; ¹⁴ he cried aloud, and said thus: Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves and scatter its fruit; ^l let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches; ¹⁵ nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: ¹⁶ let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven ^m times pass over him. ¹⁷ This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living ⁿ may know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the lowest of men. ¹⁸ This dream, I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen; and thou, Belteshazzar, declare its interpretation, forasmuch as ^aall the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able, for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee.

¹⁹ Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was astonished for one moment, and ^bhis thoughts troubled him. The king spake and said: Belteshazzar, let not the dream or its interpretation trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said: My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and its interpretation to thine enemies.

²⁰ The tree that thou sawest, which grew and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight of it to all the earth; ²¹ whose leaves were fair and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the heaven had their habitation;—²² it ^cis thou, O king, who art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown and reacheth unto heaven, and ^dthy dominion to the end of the earth. ²³ And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying: Hew the tree down and destroy it; yet leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let ^ehis portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;—²⁴ this is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the Most High, which cometh upon my lord the king: ²⁵ That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and thou shalt be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and ^fgiveth it to whomsoever he will. ²⁶ And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree-roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after thou shalt have known that the heavens do rule.

²⁸ All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar. ²⁹ At the end of twelve months he was walking upon the royal palace of Babylon. ³⁰ The king spake and said: Is ^anot this great Babylon that I have built for the house of the kingdom*, by the might of my power, and for the honour of my majesty!

³¹ While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven: O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from thee; ³² and thou shalt be driven from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over thee; until thou know that the Most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will.

³⁴ And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned to me. And I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honoured ^cHim who liveth for ever, whose dominion is ^dan everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation; ³⁵ and ^eall the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and ^fhe doth according to his will among the army of heaven and the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, ^gWhat doest thou?

³⁶ At the same time my reason returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned to me; and my counsellors and my lords sought me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me.

concubines, might drink therein. ³ Then they brought the golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank in them. ⁴ They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold and of silver, of brass*, of iron, of wood and of stone.

⁵ In ^b the same moment came forth fingers of a man's hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace. And the king saw the part of the hand that wrote.

¹⁰ The queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house; and the queen spake and said: ^g O king, live for ever! Let not thy thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed. ¹¹ There ^h is a man in thy kingdom in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, even the king, thy father, made him ⁱ master of the magicians†, astrologers‡, Chaldeans, and soothsayers; ¹² forasmuch ^k as an excellent spirit and knowledge and understanding, interpreting of dreams and showing of hard sentences and solving of knotty questions, were found in the same Daniel, ^l whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.

¹³ Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spake and said unto Daniel: Art thou that Daniel who art of ^m the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judea? ¹⁴ I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. ¹⁵ And now the wise men, the astrologers*, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation: but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. ¹⁶ And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations and solve knotty questions. Now if thou canst read the writing and make known to me its interpretation, thou shalt be clothed with purple, and a chain of gold shall be about thy neck, and thou shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom.

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards† to another; yet I will read the writing unto the king, and make known to him the interpretation.

¹⁸ O thou king, ⁿ the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom and majesty and glory and honour. ¹⁹ And for the majesty that he gave him, ^o all the peoples, nations and languages, trembled and feared before him; whom he would he slew, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up, and whom he would he put down. ²⁰ But ^p when his heart was lifted up and his mind hardened in pride, he was deposed from the throne of his kingdom, and his glory was made to pass from him. ²¹ And he was driven from the sons of men; and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses; they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; ^q till he knew that the most high God ruleth in the kingdom of men, and appointeth over it whomsoever he will. ²² And thou, his son, Belshazzar, hast not humbled thy heart, though thou knewest all this; ²³ but thou hast ^r lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven. And they have brought the vessels of his house before thee; and thou and thy lords, thy wives and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them. And thou hast praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood and stone, ^s which see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God ^t in whose hand thy breath is, and ^u whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified.

²⁴ Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was written. ²⁵ And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. ²⁶ This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE, ^v God hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it; ²⁷ TEKEL, Thou art weighed in the balances, and art found wanting;

28 PERES², Thy kingdom is divided, and given to ^v the Medes and Persians.

29 Then Belshazzar commanded, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and a chain of gold was on his neck; and they made a proclamation concerning him that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.

6. IT pleased Darius to set over the kingdom† ^aa hundred and twenty princes; who should be over the whole kingdom†; 2 and over these, three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that the princes might give accounts to them, and the king should have no damage. 3 Then this Daniel ^bwas preferred above the presidents and princes, ^cbecause an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm^d.

4 Then the presidents and princes sought to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find no occasion or fault, forasmuch as he was faithful, and no error or fault was found in him. 5 Then said these men: We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.

brought those men who had accused Daniel; and they cast them into the den of lions, them, ^r their children and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces before they came at the bottom of the den.

^s Then the ^s king Darius wrote unto all the peoples, nations and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied unto you. ²⁵ I ^t make a decree, that in every dominion of my kingdom* men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and ^u endureth for ever; and his kingdom shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be unto the end. ²⁷ He ^x delivereth and rescueth, and ^y he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.

²⁸ And this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and ^z in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

A symbolical vision of four wild-beasts, representing successive great empires, of which the fourth is exceedingly strong and terrible; and ten other powers growing out of the fourth; also another, rising up amongst the ten, an oppressive, iniquitous and persecuting power; ending with the judgment of God, introducing his universal and everlasting kingdom.

7. IN the first year of Belshazzar, the king of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and ^a visions of his head upon his bed; then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters.

² Daniel spake and said: I saw in my vision by night, and behold, the four winds of the heaven burst forth upon the Great Sea; ³ and four great beasts ^b came up from the sea, diverse one from another.

⁴ The first was ^c like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld ^d till its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and was made to stand upon the feet like a man, and a man's heart was given to it.

⁵ And ^e behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear; and it raised up itself on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth, between its teeth; and they said thus unto it: ^f Arise, devour much flesh.

⁶ After this I beheld, and lo, ^g another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also ^h four heads; and dominion was given to it.

⁷ After this, I saw in the night visions, and behold, ⁱ a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible and exceedingly strong; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and ^k it had ten horns. ⁸ I considered the horns, and behold, ^l there came up among them another, a little horn, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots; and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and ^m a mouth speaking great things.

¹⁰ A ^r fiery stream issued and came forth from before him; ^s thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him. The ^t judgment was set, and the books were opened. ¹¹ I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake, ^u I beheld till the beast was slain, and his body destroyed and given to the burning flame. ¹² As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away; yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.

¹³ I saw in the night visions, and behold, ^x one like a son of man came, with the clouds of heaven; and he came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. ¹⁴ And ^y there was given to him dominion and glory and a kingdom, that all peoples, nations and languages, should serve him: his dominion is ^z an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

¹⁵ I Daniel was grieved in my spirit, in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. ¹⁶ I came near to ^a one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. And he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. ¹⁷ As to ^b these great beasts, which are four, four kings shall arise out of the earth: ¹⁸ but ^c the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and shall possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.

¹⁹ Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceedingly dreadful, whose teeth were iron and its nails brass*, devouring, breaking in pieces, and stamping the residue with its feet; ²⁰ and concerning the ten horns that were in its head; and, concerning the other which came up, and before which three fell; even that horn which had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things; and its aspect was greater than its fellows. ²¹ I beheld, and ^d that horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; ²² until the Ancient of days came, and ^e judgment* was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.

²³ Thus he said: The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down and break it in pieces. ²⁴ And as to ^f the ten horns, out of that kingdom ten kings shall arise; and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings; ²⁵ and ^g he will speak words against the Most High, and ^h wear out the saints of the Most High, and ⁱ think to change times and laws; and ^k they shall be given into his hand ^l until a time and times and the half of a time. ²⁶ But the judgment shall sit, and his dominion shall be taken away, and he consumed and destroyed unto the end. ²⁷ And the kingdom and dominion and the greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High; whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey Him.

²⁸ So far is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, ^m my thoughts much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter ⁿ in my heart.

Symbolical vision of a ram and a he-goat, denoting the Medo-Persian and Macedonian empires, and the division of the latter into four monarchies; out of one of which arises an exceedingly wicked and tyrannical power, persecuting God's people and profaning his temple, for an appointed time.

8. IN the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared unto me, even ^o Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first.

² And I saw in the vision, and while I saw it came to pass that I was in Shushan, the palace, which is in the province of ^b Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. ³ And I lifted up mine eyes and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns; and the two horns were high, but one ^p was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. ⁴ I saw the ram pushing westward and northward and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, and none could deliver out of his hand; but ^q he did according to his will, and became great.

⁵ And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the West over the face of the whole earth, without touching the ground: and the goat ^r had a notable horn between his eyes. ⁶ And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his strength. ⁷ And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was embittered against him, and he smote the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. ⁸ And the he-goat waxed very great; and when he was strong the great horn was broken; and in the place of it came up ^s four notable* ones towards the four winds of heaven. ⁹ And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceedingly great ^t towards the South and towards the East and towards the ^u glorious land. ¹⁰ And it waxed great even to ^v the host of heaven; and ^w it cast down to the ground ^x some of the host and of the stars, and ^y stamped upon them; ¹¹ yea, ^z it waxed great even to ^{aa} the prince of the host; and ^{ab} by it the daily sacrifice was taken away; and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. ¹² And a host was delivered up, with the daily sacrifice, by reason of transgression; and it cast the truth down to the ground, and it ^{ac} acted and prospered.

¹³ And I heard ^{ad} one holy one speak, and another holy one said to the one that had spoken: How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice and ^{ae} the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? ¹⁴ And he said unto me, ^{af} Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.

¹⁵ And it came to pass when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought for the meaning; and behold there stood before me as the appearance of a man. ¹⁶ And I heard a man's voice ^{ag} between the banks of the Ulai, which called and said, ^{ah} Gabriel, ^{ai} make this man to understand the vision. ¹⁷ And he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was afraid and ^{aj} fell upon my face; but he said unto me, Understand, thou son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end.

¹⁸ Now ^a as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep on my face toward the ground; and ^b he touched me, and set me upright. ¹⁹ And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall be in the last end of the indignation: for it is for the appointed time of the end.

²⁰ The ^a ram which thou sawest having the two horns are the kings of Media and Persia. ²¹ And the rough goat is the king of Grecia; and the great horn that is between his eyes is ^a the first king. ²² And that being broken, whereas four arose in its place, four kingdoms shall arise out of the nation, but not with his power. ²³ And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors^{*} are come to the full, a king ^b of fierce countenance and understanding dark sentences shall arise. ²⁴ And his power shall be mighty, ^c but not by his own power; and he will prosper and act, and ^d will destroy the mighty and the people of the holy ones. ²⁵ And ^e through his policy also he will cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he will be great in his heart, and in careless security will destroy many. Daniel's prayer for his people; and (20) the revelation made to him of the time appointed for the great atonement for sin and the bringing in of everlasting righteousness, by the work and suffering of Messiah; (26) to be followed by the destruction of the city and temple.

9. IN the first year of ^a Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who became king over the realm of the Chaldeans, ² in the first year of his reign, I Daniel understood by the books the number of the years^{||} whereof the word of the LORD came to ^b Jeremiah the prophet, that he would accomplish seventy years in the desolations of Jerusalem. ³ And ^c I set my face unto the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. ⁴ And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and ^d made my confession, and said:

O Lord, ^e the great and dreadful God, ^f keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him and to them that keep his commandments; ⁵ we ^g have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by departing from thy precepts and from thy judgments; ⁶ and ^h we have not hearkened to thy servants the prophets, who spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

⁷ Unto thee, Lord, ⁱ belongeth righteousness, but ^k unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, near and far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against thee. ⁸ O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee. ⁹ To the LORD our God belong mercies and forgivenesses; for we have rebelled against him, ¹⁰ and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. ¹¹ Yea, ^m all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, so as not to obey thy voice. And the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in ⁿ the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have sinned against him. ¹² And ^o he hath established his words, which he spake against us and against our judges who judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; which hath not been done ^p under the whole heaven as it hath been done in Jerusalem. ¹³ As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us. And ^q we have not made our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our iniquities, and give heed to thy truth. ¹⁴ And the LORD hath ^r watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he hath done; and we obeyed not his voice.

¹⁵ And now, O Lord our God, ^s who broughtest thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and ^t didst get thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. ¹⁶ O Lord, ^u according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, ^v thy holy mountain; because for our sins and for the iniquities of our fathers ^w Jerusalem and thy people are a reproach to all round about us. ¹⁷ And now hear thou, O our God, the prayer of thy servant and his supplications; and cause thy face to shine upon thy desolated sanctuary, ^x for the Lord's sake. ¹⁸ O my God, ^y incline thine ear and hear; open

²⁵ Know therefore and understand that from ^o the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto Messiah ^p, the Prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty two weeks; the street shall be built again, and the wall, ^q even in troublous times. ²⁶ And after the sixty two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself. And the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and ^r the end thereof shall be with a flood; and ^s unto the end shall be war, and decreed desolations. ²⁷ And he will confirm a covenant with many for one week; and in the midst of the week he will cause sacrifice and oblation to cease; and upon the wings of ^t abominations shall come a desolator, even until the decreed consummation shall pour itself upon the desolate.

Another prophetic vision—(7) The overpowering glory of the divine messenger; and (12) his introductory communications to Daniel, assuring him of heavenly help and protection to God's people against their enemies.

10. IN the third year of Cyrus, the king of Persia, a word was revealed unto Daniel,

^a whose name was called Belteshazzar; and ^b the word is truth, and ^c the warfare great; and ^d he understood the word, and had understanding in the vision.

² In those days I Daniel was mourning three whole weeks; ³ I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh or wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.

⁴ And on the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is ^e Hiddekel, ⁵ then I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold, ^f a certain man clothed in linen, ^g whose loins were girded with gold of ^h Uphaz, ⁶ and his body was like Tarshish-stone, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and ⁱ his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms ^j and ^k his feet like the appearance of burnished brass; and ^l the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.

⁷ And I Daniel ^m alone saw the vision; for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves; ⁿ and I was left alone, and saw this great vision. And ^o there remained no strength in me, for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. ⁸ But I heard the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I in a deep sleep on my face, and my face towards the ground.

⁹ And behold, ^p a hand touched me, and set me trembling on my knees and the palms of my hands. ¹⁰ And he said unto me: Daniel, the man greatly beloved, consider thou the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright; for unto thee am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling.

¹² And he said unto me: ^q Fear not, Daniel; for ^r from the first day that thou didst set thy heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy God, ^s thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. ¹³ But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days; but lo, ^t Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; and I remained ^u there at the side of the kings of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people ^v in the latter days; ^w for yet the vision is for many days.

¹⁵ And when he spoke such words unto me, ^x I set my face towards the ground, and I became dumb. ¹⁶ And behold, ^y one like the similitude of the sons of men ^z touched my lips. And I opened my mouth and spake, and I said unto him that stood before me: My lord, by the vision ^amy sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength; ¹⁷ and how now can the servant of my lord talk now with my lord? For as for me, straightway there remaineth no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me.

¹⁸ And there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. ¹⁹ And he said: Thou man greatly beloved, fear not; peace be unto thee, be strong, yea be strong. And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened; and I said: Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me.

²⁰ And he said: Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? And now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia; and when I am gone forth, lo, ^bthe prince of Grecia shall come. ²¹ But I will show thee that which is written in the book of truth. And there is none that strengtheneth himself with me against these but Michael your prince. ¹¹ And I, in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him.

The prophetic vision continued—(2) foretelling a succession of wars between great worldly powers, and persecutions of the people of God; closing with (ch. 12. 1) a time of unparalleled tribulation, before the final consummation.

² AND now will I show thee the truth. Behold, there will stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth will be far richer than they all; and by his strength through his riches he will stir up the whole against* the realm of Grecia.

* or, with.

³ And ^aa mighty king will stand up, who will rule with great dominion, and ^bwill do according to his will. ⁴ And when he shall stand up, ^chis kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided towards the four winds of heaven; and it shall not be to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, it shall be for others besides those.

⁵ And the king of the South will become strong, but one of his princes will even be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.

⁶ And at the end of years they will join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the South will come to the king of the North to make an agreement; but she shall not retain the power of the arm; and he shall not stand, nor his arm; and she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in the times.

⁷ And out of a branch of her roots will one stand up in his stead, who will come with an army, and will enter into the fortress of the king of the North; and he will deal against them, and will prevail.

⁸ And he will bring in captivity to Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold. And he will stand for years against the king of the North. ⁹ And he* will enter into the kingdom of the king of the South; and he shall return into his own land.

¹¹ And the king of the South ^ewill be embittered, and will go forth and fight with him, even with the king of the North; and he will set forth a great multitude; and the multitude shall be given into his hand; ¹² and the multitude shall be taken, and his heart will be lifted up, and he will cast down myriads; but he shall not prevail.

¹³ And the king of the North will anew set forth a multitude greater than the former, and will certainly come at the end of the times, the years, with a great army and with much riches. ¹⁴ And in those times many will stand up against the king of the South; and the most violent of thy people will exalt themselves, to establish the vision; but they shall fall. ¹⁵ And the king of the North will come, and cast up a mount, and take the city of defences. And the arms of the South shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, and there shall be no strength to withstand. ¹⁶ But he that cometh against him ^fwill do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he will stand in ^gthe glorious land, and destruction shall be in his hand.

²¹ And in his stead will stand up a despised person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom; and he will come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²² And the arms of the flood shall be swept away from before him, and shall be broken; ²³ yea also the prince of the covenant. ²⁴ And after the league with him he will work deceit; and he will go up, and will become strong with a small people. ²⁵ He will enter peaceably even into the fattest places of the province; and he will do what his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he will scatter among them the prey and spoil and substance; and he will devise his devices against the strong-holds, even till a time.

²⁹ Then will he return into his land with great riches; and his heart will be against the holy covenant; and he will act, and will return to his own land. ³⁰ At the time appointed he will return and come towards the South; but it shall not be in the latter time as in the former. ³¹ And the ships of Chittim will come against him; and he will be grieved, and will return, and will have indignation against the holy covenant; and he will act; and he will return, and will give heed to them that forsake the holy covenant. ³² And arms will stand on his part; and ^m they will pollute the sanctuary, even the strong-hold, and will take away the daily sacrifice; and they will set up ⁿ the abomination that maketh desolate.

³³ And such as violate the covenant will he seduce by flatteries. But the people that know their God, will be strong, and act; ³⁴ and ^o they that understand ^{*} among the people will instruct many. But they shall fall by sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, for days. ³⁵ And when they fall, they shall be holpen with a little help; and many will cleave to them with flatteries. ³⁶ And some of those who understand shall fall; ^p to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, to ^q the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.

³⁷ And the king will do according to his will; and he ^r will exalt himself and magnify himself against every god, and will speak monstrous things against the God of gods. And he shall prosper ^s till the indignation be accomplished; for ^t what is determined shall be done. ³⁸ And he will not regard the god of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he will magnify himself above all; ³⁹ but in his place he will honour the god of strong-holds; and a god whom his fathers knew not will he honour, with gold and silver and with precious stones and pleasant things. ⁴⁰ And he will act in the most strong-holds with a strange god. Whoever shall acknowledge him he will increase with glory; and he will cause them to rule over the many, and will divide the land for reward.

⁴¹ And at the time of the end the king of the South will push at him; and the king of the North will hurl himself against him like a whirlwind, with chariots and with horsemen and with many ships; and he will enter into the countries, and will overflow and pass over. ⁴² And he will enter into the glorious land; and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall escape out of his hand; Edom and Moab and the chief of the sons of Ammon. ⁴³ And he will stretch forth his hand upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape; ⁴⁴ but he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps ^{*}. ⁴⁵ But tidings out of the East and out of the North shall trouble him; and he will go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly ruin many. ⁴⁶ And he will plant the tents of his palace between the seas and ^u the glorious holy mountain. And ^v he will come to his end, and none shall help him.

^{12.} And at that time shall ^w Michael stand up, the great prince who standeth for the children of thy people. And ^x there shall be a time of distress, such as never was since there was a nation ^y even to that same time. And at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found ^z written in the book. ² And ^b many of them that sleep in the dust of the

The prophecy continued—(2) Chastisement of idolatrous Israel—(11) Their future conversion and restoration.

2 CONTEND ye with your mother, contend;

For ^ashe is not my wife,
Neither am I her husband.

Let ^bher therefore put away her whoredom from her face,
And her adulteries from between her breasts;

³Lest ^cI strip her naked,
And set her ^das in the day that she was born,

And make her ^eas a wilderness,
And set her like a dry land,
And slay her with ^fthirst.

⁴And I will not have mercy upon her sons,
For they are ^gthe children of whoredom.

⁵For ^htheir mother hath played the harlot,
She that conceived them hath done shamefully:

For she said, ⁱI will go after my lovers;
That ^kgive me my bread and my water,
My wool and my flax,
Mine oil and my drink.

⁶Therefore behold, ^lI will hedge up thy way with thorns,
And wall ^mher in with a wall;
And she shall not find her paths.

⁷And ⁿshe shall pursue her lovers, but she shall not overtake them,
And she shall seek them, but shall not find them.

And she shall say, ^oI will go and return to my ^pformer husband,
For ^qP then was it better with me than now.
⁸And she did not know that ^rI gave her
The corn and the wine and the oil,
And multiplied her silver and gold,
^{Which} ^sthey use for Baal.

⁹Therefore will I return and ^ttake away my corn in its time,
And my wine in its season,
And I will take away my wool and my flax,
That should cover her nakedness.

¹⁰And now will I discover her ^ushame,
In the sight of her lovers,
And none shall deliver her out of my hand.

¹¹And I ^vwill cause all her mirth to cease,

Her ^wfeast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths,
And all her solemn feasts.

¹²And I will destroy her vines and her fig-trees,
Whereof she saith, They are my hire,

That my lovers have given me;
And ^yI will make them a forest,
And the beasts of the field shall eat them.

¹³And ^zI will visit upon her ^athe days of the Baals,

Wherein ^bshe burned incense to them,
And ^cshe decked herself with her rings and her jewels,

And she went after her lovers,
And ^dforgot me, saith the LORD.

¹⁴Therefore behold, I will allure her,
And ^ebring her into the wilderness,
And ^fspeak to her heart.

¹⁵And ^gfrom thence^h I will give her her vineyards,
And the valley of Achorⁱ for a door of hope.

And she shall sing^j there,
As in ^kthe days of her youth,
And as ^lin the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.

¹⁶And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD,

That thou shalt call me ^mIshiⁿ,
And thou shalt no more call me Baali^o.

¹⁷And ^pI will turn away the names of the Baals out of her mouth,
And ^qthey shall no more be mentioned by their name.

¹⁸And in that day will I make ^rfor^s them,
A covenant with the beasts of the field,

And with the fowls of heaven,
And the creeping things of the ground;

And ^tI will break bow and sword and battle out of the land;

And I will make them ^uto lie down safely.

¹⁹And ^vI will betroth thee unto me for ever;
Yea I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness and in judgment,

And in lovingkindness and in mercies;

²⁰I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness;

And ^wthou shalt know the LORD.

²¹And it shall come to pass in that day,
I will answer, saith the LORD,

I will answer the heavens,

And they shall answer the earth;

²²And the earth shall answer

The corn and the wine and the oil;

And these shall answer ^xIezreel^y;

²³And I ^zwill sow her unto me in the land.

And ^aI will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy^b;

¹⁰ They shall walk after the LORD;
He ^y will roar like a lion.
Yea, he will roar, and the children will hasten trembling ^z from the West*;
¹¹ They will hasten trembling, like a bird,
^a out of Egypt,
And ^b like a dove, out of the land of Assyria:
And ^c I will cause them to dwell in their houses, saith the LORD.

Israel's unfaithfulness, contrasted with God's long-suffering mercy.

¹² EPHRAIM compasseth me about with lying,
And the house of Israel with deceit;
And Judah is yet inconstant with God,
With the faithful Holy One.

¹² Ephraim ^a feedeth on ^t wind, and fol-loweth after the east wind;
All the day he multiplieth lies and desola-
tion:

And ^b they make a covenant with the Assyrians,
And ^c oil is carried to Egypt.

² And the ^d LORD hath a controversy with Judah;
And he will punish Jacob according to his
ways,
According to his doings will he recompense
him.

³ In the womb he ^e took his brother by the heel,
And by his strength ^f he had power with
God;

⁴ Yea he had power over ^g the Angel, and prevailed,
He wept, and ^h made supplication unto
him.

At ⁱ Beth-el he found him,
And there he spake with us;
⁵ Even the LORD, the God of hosts;
The LORD; is his ^k memorial ||.
⁶ Therefore ^l turn thou to thy God:
Keep mercy and judgment,
And ^m wait on thy God continually.

⁷ Canaan, ⁿ in his hand are the ^o balances of deceit,
He loveth to oppress,

⁸ And Ephraim saith, ^p Surely I am become rich,
I have found me out substance;
In all my labours ^q no iniquity is found against me, which is sin*.

⁹ And ^r I am the LORD thy God,
From the land of Egypt;
I will ^s yet make thee to dwell in tents,
As in the days of assembly.
¹⁰ And ^t I have spoken to the prophets,

And I have multiplied ^u visions,
And use ^x similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets.

¹¹ Is ^y there iniquity* in Gilead?
Surely they are become vanity;
At ^z Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks;
Yea, ^a their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the fields.

¹² And Jacob ^b fled to the plain of Syria,
And Israel ^c served for a wife,
And for a wife he kept sheep.

¹³ And ^d by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt,
And by a prophet was he preserved.

¹⁴ Ephraim ^e provoked to anger most bitterly;
And his Lord will / leave his blood upon him,
And ^f will return unto him his reproach.

Israel's ruin, through obstinate persistence in idolatry—(14) Promise of future salvation.

13. WHEN Ephraim spake there was trembling ^g,
He exalted himself in Israel;
But ^h he made himself guilty by Baal, and he died.

² And now they sin more and more;
And ^b they make them molten images of their silver,
Idols according to their own understanding,
All of it the work of the craftsmen;
To them the men that sacrifice call;
They ^c kiss the calves!

³ Therefore they shall be ^d like the morning cloud,
And like the dew which early passeth away;
Like ^e the chaff that is whirled out of the threshing-floor,
And like the smoke out of the window ||.

⁴ Yet ^f I am the LORD thy God,
From the land of Egypt;
And thou shalt know no God but me,
And ^g there is no Saviour besides me.
⁵ I ^h knew thee in the wilderness,
In the land of great drought.

⁶ According ⁱ to their pasture, so were they filled,
They were filled, and their heart was lifted up;

Therefore ^k have they forgotten me.
⁷ And ^l I will be unto them as a lion,
As ^m a leopard by the way will I watch them:

⁸ I will meet them ⁿ as a bereaved bear,
And will rend the caul of their heart;
And there will I devour them like a lion,
The beast of the field shall tear them.

⁹ It hath destroyed thee, O Israel, that thou hast been against me,
Against thy Help.

JOEL.

1. THE word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.

Lamentation over the devastation of the country by (4) locusts and (8) drought; and (13) prayer to God for help.

2 HEAR this, ye old men,
And give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land!

Hath^a this been in your days,
Or in the days of your fathers?

3 Tell ye to your children concerning it,

And your children to their children,
And their children to the next generation.

4 What^b the palmerworm left

The locust hath eaten;
And what the locust left
The cankerworm hath eaten;
And what the cankerworm left
The caterpillar hath eaten.

5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep,
And howl, all ye drinkers of wine!
Because of the new wine,

Judgments on neighbouring heathen nations, viz. (3) Syria, (6) Philistia, (9) Tyre, (11) Edom, (13) Ammon, (ch. 2. 1) Moab; also on (4) Judah and (9) Israel.

1. THE words of Amos, ^a who was among the herdmen of ^b Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel, ^c in the days of Uzziah, the king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam, the son of Joash, the king of Israel, two years before ^d the earthquake.

2 And he said :

THE LORD ^e roareth from Zion, And uttereth his voice from Jerusalem. And the pastures of the shepherds mourn, And the top of ^f Carmel withereth.

3 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^g Damascus, and for four,

I will not reverse it * ; Because ^h they threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron.

4 And ⁱ I will send a fire into the house of ^k Hazael,

And it shall devour the palaces of ^l Benhadad.

5 And I will break the bar^l of Damascus, And cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven,

And the sceptre-holder from Beth-Eden : And ^m the people of Syria shall go into captivity, unto ⁿ Kir ; saith the LORD.

6 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^o Gaza, and for four,

I will not reverse it ; Because ^p they carried away captive a complete captivity,

To deliver ^q them up to Edom.

7 And I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,

And it shall devour the palaces thereof.

8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from ^r Ashdod,

And the sceptre-holder from Ashkelon ; And I will turn my hand against Ekron,

And ^s the remnant of the Philistines shall perish ; saith the Lord God.

9 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^t Tyre, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because they delivered up a complete captivity to Edom,

And remembered not ^u the brotherly covenant.

10 And ^v I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,

And it shall devour the palaces thereof.

11 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^x Edom, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because ^y he pursued his brother with the sword,

And cast off all pity ;

And his anger did tear perpetually,

And he kept his wrath for ever.

12 And I will send a fire upon Teman,

And it shall devour the palaces of ^z Bozrah.

13 Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^a the children of Ammon, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because they ripped up the women with child of Gilead,

In order to enlarge their own border.

14 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of ^b Rabbah,

And it shall devour the palaces thereof ;

With shouting in the day of battle, With a tempest in the day of the whirlwind.

15 And their king shall go into captivity,

He and his princes together, saith the LORD.

2. Thus saith the LORD :

For three transgressions of ^c Moab, and for four,

I will not reverse it ;

Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime.

2 And I will send a fire upon Moab,

And it shall devour the palaces of Kiri-oth ;

And Moab shall die in tumult,

With shouting ^d and with the sound of the trumpet.

3 And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof,

And ^e will slay all his princes with him, saith the LORD.

And ^o a man and his father go in unto the same maid, To ^p profane my holy name. ⁸ And they stretch themselves by every altar upon ^q pawned garments ; And they drink in the house of their God the wine of the condemned *. ⁹ Yet I destroyed ^r the Amorite from before them, Whose ^s height was like the height of the cedars, And he was strong as the oaks ; And ^t I destroyed his fruit from above, And his roots from beneath. ¹⁰ And ^u I brought you up from the land of Egypt ; And ^v led you forty years in the wilderness, To ^w possess the land of the Amorite. ¹¹ And I raised up of your sons for prophets, And of your young men for ^x Nazarites. Is it not even thus, ye children of Israel ? saith the LORD. ¹² But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink, And commanded the prophets, saying, ^a Prophecy not. ¹³ Behold, I press you down, As a full cart presseth sheaves. ¹⁴ Then flight shall perish from the swift ; And the strong shall not strengthen his force, ^b Neither ^b shall the valiant deliver himself ; ¹⁵ Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow, And the swift of foot shall not escape, Neither ^c shall the horse-rider deliver himself :	3. HEAR this word that the LORD speaketh concerning you, ye sons of Israel, Concerning the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying : ² You ^a only have I known of all the families of the earth, Therefore ^b I will visit upon you all your iniquities. ³ Will two walk together, Except they be agreed * ? ⁴ Doth a lion roar in the forest, When he hath no prey ? Doth a young lion cry out of his den, Unless he hath taken something ? ⁵ Doth a bird fall into a trap upon the earth, Where there is no gin for him ? Doth a trap rise up from the ground, And take nothing at all ? ⁶ Is a trumpet blown in the city, And the people not alarmed ? Is ^c there evil in a city, And the LORD hath not done it ? ⁷ Surely the Lord GOD doeth nothing Without ^d revealing his secret unto his servants the prophets. ⁸ The ^e lion roareth, who will not fear ? So shall the children of Israel be rescued,
That dwell in Samaria,
In the corner of a bed, and on the damask of a couch.

¹³ Hear ye, and testify against the house of Jacob,

Saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts:

¹⁴ That in the day when I visit the transgressions of Israel upon him,

I ¹ will also visit the altars of Beth-el;
And ^k the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and shall fall to the ground.

¹⁵ And I will smite ^l the winter-house with
^m the summer-house;

And ⁿ the houses of ivory shall perish,
And many houses shall have an end,
Saith the LORD.

*The prophecy continued—Judgments on (1) the women of Samaria, (2) who shall be carried into captivity; and (4) on the whole nation, still persisting in idolatry, after many chastise-
ments.*

⁴. HEAR this word, ye kine of ^a Bashan,
That are in the mountain of Samaria;
That oppress the poor, that crush the needy,
That say to their masters*, Bring thou, and let us drink.

² The ^b Lord GOD hath sworn by his holiness,
That lo, days are coming upon you,
When ye shall be dragged away ^c with hooks,

And your remnant with fish-hooks,
³ And ^d ye shall go out at the breaches,
each straight before her;
And ye shall be cast out to Harmon,
Saith the LORD.

⁴ Go ^e to Beth-el, and transgress,
At ^f Gilgal multiply transgression;
And ^g bring your sacrifices every morning,
Your ^h tithes every three days:
⁵ And ⁱ burn a thank-offering of leaven,
And proclaim ye, publish ye, ^k free offerings:
For so ye like, ye children of Israel,
Saith the Lord GOD.

⁶ And I, even I, have given you cleanness of teeth, in all your cities,
And ^l want of bread, in all your places.
Yet ^m have ye not returned unto me, saith
the LORD.

⁷ And ⁿ I, even I, have withholden the rain from you,
When there were yet three months to the harvest;
And I caused it to rain upon one city,
And caused it not to rain upon another
city;
One field was rained upon,

And the field whereupon it rained not withered;

⁸ And two or three cities wandered into one city, to drink water,
And they were not satisfied.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

⁹ I ^o have smitten you with blasting and mildew;
The produce of your gardens and your vineyards,
And your fig-trees and your olive-trees,
^p the locust devoured.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

¹⁰ I have sent among you pestilence,
^q after the manner of Egypt:
Your young men have I slain with the
sword,
And have ^r taken away your horses;
And I have made ^s the stench of your camps
to come up unto your nostrils.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

¹¹ I have overthrown among you,
As ^t God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah;
And ye were ^u as a fire-brand snatched out of the burning.
Yet have ye not returned unto me,
Saith the LORD.

¹² Therefore thus will I do unto thee,
Israel:
And because I will do this unto thee,
Prepare ^x to meet thy God, O Israel.
¹³ For lo, He who formeth the mountains and createth the wind,
And who ^y declareth unto man what is his thought,
Who ^z maketh morning, darkness,
And ^a treadeth upon the high places of the
earth,
The ^b LORD, the God of hosts, is his name.

The prophecy continued—(1) Lamentation over impending desolation; with warnings and calls to repentance.

⁵. HEAR ye this word which I take up against you,
A ^a lamentation, O house of Israel!

² The ^b virgin of Israel is ^c fallen,
She shall no more rise:
She is cast down upon her land,
There is none to raise her up.

³ For thus saith the Lord GOD:
The ^d city that went out a thousand
Shall have a hundred left;
And that which went forth a hundred
Shall have ten left, to the house of Israel.

	4 For thus saith the LORD unto the house of Israel: 1 Seek ^e ye me, and live. 2 And seek not ^f Beth-el, Nor go to Gilgal, And pass not to ^g Beer-sheba. For Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, And ^h Beth-el shall come to nought. 3 Seek ye the LORD, and live; Lest he break forth like fire upon the house of Joseph, 4 And it devour, and ⁱ there be none to quench it in Beth-el.	16 Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus: In all streets ^f wailing, And in all thy highways they shall say, Woe, woe! And they shall call the husbandman to mourning, And ^g such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing; 17 And ^h in all vineyards shall be wailing; For ⁱ I will pass through in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.	f ch. 8. 10. g Ecc. 12. 5; Jer. 9. 17. h Is. 16. 10. i Ex. 12. 12; Nah. 1. 12.

It is darkness, and not light. 19 As ^c when a man fleeth from a lion, And a bear meeteth him; Or goeth into the house, and leaneth his hand on the wall, And a serpent biteth him. 20 Is not the day of the LORD darkness, and not light, Even very dark, and no brightness in it? 21 I ^d hate, I despise your feasts, And ^e I will not smell in your assemblies. 22 Though ^f ye offer me burnt-offerings and your meal-offerings, I will not accept them; Neither will I regard the peace-offerings of your fatlings. 23 Turn away from me the noise of thy songs*, And I will not hear ^g the melody of thy viols. 24 But let judgment roll on like waters, And righteousness like a mighty stream. 25 Did ^h ye offer unto me sacrifices and offerings, In the wilderness, forty years, O house of Israel? 26 But ye bare the tabernacle of your king*, And Chiun [†] ; your image, The star of your god, Which ye made to yourselves. 27 And I will cause you ⁱ to go into captivity beyond Damascus, Saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts. 6. JONAH.

Jonah's mission from the land of Israel to the heathen city, Nineveh—(3) His disobedience and (4) punishment.

1. NOW the word of the LORD came unto ^aJonah the son of Ammittai, saying: ²Arise, go to ^bNineveh, the ^cgreat city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me. ³But Jonah ^drose up to flee unto Tarshish, from the presence of the LORD. And he went down to ^eJoppa, and he found a ship going to ^fTarshish: and he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish, ^gfrom the presence of the LORD.

⁴And ^hthe LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was likely to be broken. ⁵And the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god. And they ⁱcast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. And Jonah had gone down into the sides* of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. ⁶So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him: What meanest thou, sleeper? Arise, ^kcall upon thy God, ^lif so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.

⁷And they said every one to his fellow: Come and let us ^mcast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us. So they cast lots, and ⁿthe lot fell upon Jonah. ⁸And they said unto him: Tell us, we pray, for whose cause this evil is upon us. What is thine occupation, and whence comest thou? What is thy country, and of what people art thou? ⁹And he said unto them: I am a Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the sea and the dry land.

¹⁰And the men were exceedingly afraid, and they said unto him: What is this thou hast done? (For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them.) ¹¹Then said they unto him: What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? For the sea wrought and was tempestuous. ¹²And he said unto them: Take me up and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

¹³And the men rowed hard to return to the dry land; but they could not, for the sea wrought and was tempestuous against them. ¹⁴So they cried unto the LORD, and said: We beseech thee, O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and ^olay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, LORD, doest as it pleaseth thee. ¹⁵Then they took up Jonah and east him forth into the sea: and the sea ceased from its raging. ¹⁶And the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and vowed vows.

Jonah's deliverance, prayer, and thanksgiving.

¹⁷AND the LORD prepared ²a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And ^aJonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

². And Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's belly, ² and said:

I ^bcried out of my distress unto the LORD, And he answered me; Out of the belly of ^chell * cried I, And thou heardest my voice.

³ For ^dthou castedst me into the deep, In the midst of the seas; And the floods compassed me about; All ^ethy breakers and thy billows passed over me.

⁴ Then ^fI said, I am cast out of thy sight;

Yet I will look again ^gtowards thy holy temple.

⁵ The ^hwaters surrounded me about, to the soul;

The depth compassed me round about, The weeds were wrapped about my head.

⁶ I went down to the bottoms of the mountains,

The earth with her bars was about me for ever.

But ⁱthou hast brought up my life from ^kthe pit, O LORD my God.

⁷ When my soul fainted within me, I ^lremembered the LORD,

And ^mmy prayer came in unto thee, Into thy holy temple.

⁸ They that observe ⁿlying vanities Forsake ^otheir own mercy

⁹ But ^pI will sacrifice unto thee With the voice of thanksgiving,

I ^qwill pay what I have vowed. Salvation ^ris of the LORD.

¹⁰ And the LORD commanded the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

Jonah's renewed mission to Nineveh:—(5) The humiliation and repentance of the king and people:—(10) God's reversal of his sentence.

3. AND the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, saying, ² Arise, go unto Nineveh, the great city, and ^a preach unto it the preaching that I bid thee. ³ So Jonah arose and went unto Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD.

Now Nineveh was ^b an exceedingly great city, of three days' journey. ⁴ And Jonah began to enter into the city one day's journey; and he cried and said: Yet forty days, and ^c Nineveh shall be overthrown. ⁵ And the people of Nineveh ^d believed in God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them. ⁶ And the matter came unto the king of Nineveh; and he arose from his throne, and ^e laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and ^f sat on the ashes. ⁷ And ^g he caused it to be proclaimed and published in Nineveh, by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying: Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing; let them not feed, nor drink water; ⁸ but let man and beast be covered with sackcloth; and let them cry mightily unto God. And ^h let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that ⁱ is in their hands. ⁹ Who ^j knoweth but God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, that we perish not?

¹⁰ And ^k God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and ^l God repented of the evil that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

Jonah's discontent at the sparing of Nineveh:—(6) The means employed by God to reprove and instruct him.

4. AND it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry. ² And he prayed unto the LORD and said: I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore ^a I fled before unto Tarshish. For I knew that thou ^b art ^c a gracious and merciful God, slow to anger and of great kindness, and ^d repenting thee of the evil. ³ And now, LORD, ^e take, I beseech thee, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live.

⁴ But the LORD said: Doest thou well to be angry?

⁵ And Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city; and there he made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city. ⁶ And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his trouble. So Jonah was exceedingly glad of the gourd.

⁷ But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd, so that it withered. ⁸ And it came to pass, when the sun shone forth, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished himself dead ^{*}, and said: It is better for me to die than to live.

⁹ And God said to Jonah: Doest thou well to be angry for the gourd? And he said: I do well to be angry, unto death.

¹⁰ Then said the LORD: thou hast pity on the gourd, for which thou hast not laboured, neither madest it grow; which came up in a night and perished in a night: ¹¹ and should not I have pity on Nineveh, ^e that great city, wherein are more than sixscore thousand persons ^f that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand, and much ^g cattle?

¹¹ If a man ^p walking in vanity and falsehood do lie,
Saying, I will prophesy ^q unto thee of wine and of strong drink,
He ^q shall even be the prophet of this people.
¹² I ^r will surely assemble all of thee, Jacob,

3. AND I said:

Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob,
And ye princes of the house of Israel!
Is ^a it not for you to know judgment?
² Who hate good, and love evil;
Who pluck off ^b men's skin from off them,
And their flesh from off their bones;
³ And who ^b eat the flesh of my people,
And flay their skin from off them;
And they break their bones,

And ^c like flesh within the caldron.
⁴ Then ^d shall they cry unto the LORD,
But he will not answer them;
And he ^e will hide his face from them at that time,
As they have made evil their doings.

⁵ Thus saith the LORD concerning ^f the prophets that lead my people astray, that ^g bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; but as for him that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:

⁶ Therefore ^h night shall be unto you, without a vision,

And the day shall be dark over them.
⁷ And the ⁱ seers shall be ashamed,

Yea they shall all ^k cover their lips,

² And ^b many nations will go, and say:
Come, and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD,
And to the house of the God of Jacob;
And he will teach us of his ways,
And we will walk in his paths.
For ^c the law ^{*} shall go forth from Zion,
And the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
³ And ^d he will judge among many peoples,

Testify against me. ⁷ For ⁸ I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, And ⁹ redeemed thee out of the house of bondmen; And I sent before thee Moses, Aaron and Miriam. ¹⁰ My people, remember now what ¹¹ Balak, the king of Moab consulted, And what Balaam, the son of Beor, an- swered him, From ¹² Shittim unto Gilgal ; That ye may know the ¹³ righteous acts of the LORD. ¹⁴ Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, Bow myself before the high God ? Shall I come before him with burnt-offer- ings, With calves of a year old ?	⁷ Is ⁸ the LORD pleased with thousands of rams, With ten thousands of rivers of ⁹ oil ? Shall ¹⁰ I give my first-born for my trans- gression, The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul ? ¹¹ He hath told thee, O man, what is good ; And ¹² what doth the LORD require of thee, But ¹³ to do justly, and to love mercy, And to walk humbly with thy God ? ¹⁴ The LORD's voice crieth unto the city, And wisdom will see thy name* ; Hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. ¹⁵ Are there yet in the house of the wicked The treasures of wickedness, And the ¹⁶ abominable scant ¹⁷ ephah ? ¹⁸ Shall I be pure, with ¹⁹ the wicked balances, And with the bag of deceitful weights ? ²⁰ Her rich men are full of violence, And her inhabitants speak lies, And ²¹ their tongue is deceit in their month. ²² Therefore I also, even I, ²³ make thee sore by smiting, To make thee desolate, because of thy sins. ²⁴ Thou ²⁵ shalt eat, but not be satisfied, And thine emptiness shall remain within thee ; And thou shalt remove thy goods, but thou shalt not save them, And what thou savest will I give up to the sword. ²⁶ Thou ²⁷ shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap ; Thou shalt tread olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil, And new wine, but shalt not drink wine. ²⁸ For the statutes of ²⁹ Omri are kept, And all the works of the house of ³⁰ Ahab, And ye walk in their counsels ; That I should make thee ³¹ a desolation ; And the inhabitants thereof a hissing ; And ³² ye shall bear the reproach of my people. The true Israel's lamentation over universal corruption—(7) Penitent humiliation, combined with confidence in God—(14) Prayer to the Shepherd of Israel, (15) answered by his promise of a second great redemption—(18) Adoring praise for his pardoning mercy and covenant faithfulness. 7. NAHUM.

The Lord's glorious attributes and doings set forth for the consolation of his people. (9) Rebukes of the Assyrian oppressor. (12) The destruction of Nineveh and deliverance of Israel.

1. THE burden^a of ^aNineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.

2 THE LORD is ^ba jealous and ^cavenging God,

The LORD is an avenger and wrathful;
The LORD taketh vengeance on his adversaries,

And ^dhe reserveth anger for his enemies;

3 THE LORD is ^eslow to anger, and great in power,

And ^fhe will not at all acquit the wicked.

The ^gLORD—his way is in the whirlwind and in the storm,

And the clouds are the dust of his feet.

4 He ^hrebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry,

And he drieth up all the rivers.

Bashan ⁱand Carmel languish,

And the blossom of Lebanon languisheth.

5 The ^kmountains quake before him,

And ^lthe hills melt away;

And the earth ^mheaveth at his presence,

Yea, the world and all that dwell therein.

6 Who ⁿcan stand before his indignation?

And ^owho can abide in the fierceness of his anger?

His ^pwrath is poured out like fire,

And the rocks are rent asunder by him.

7 The ^qLORD is good, a strong-hold in the day of trouble;

And ^rhe knoweth them that trust in him.

8 And ^swith an overrunning flood will he make an end of her place,

And will pursue his enemies into darkness.

9 What ^tdo ye ⁱimagine against the LORD?
He will make an end;

Affliction shall not rise up twice.

10 Though ^uthey be tangled together like thorns,

And besotted in their settling,

They shall be devoured, ^vlike stubble fully dry.

11 From thee ^wcame forth one ^xmeditating evil against the LORD, Counselling wickedness.

12 Thus saith the LORD:

Though ^ythey be whole and likewise many,

Even so ^zshall they be cut down,

And ^{aa}each shall pass away.

Though I have afflicted thee^a,

I will afflict thee no more;

13 But now will I ^bbreak his yoke from off thee,

And will burst thy fetters.

14 And the LORD hath commanded concerning thee,

That ^cno more of thy name be sown.

Out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven and the molten image,

I ^dwill make thy grave, for thou art despised.

15 Behold ^eupon the mountains

The feet of him that bringeth good tidings,

That publisheth peace!

O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts,

Perform thy vows!

For the wicked shall no more pass through thee;

He ^fis utterly cut off.

The siege, capture, plundering and complete destruction of Nineveh.

2. HE that ^gdasheth in pieces cometh up against thy face:

Keep ^hthe fortress, watch the way,

Strengthen ⁱthy loins,

Fortify ^jthy power mightily.

3 For the LORD restoreth the excellency of Jacob,

As the excellency of Israel:

For ^kplunderers have plundered them,

And destroyed their vine-branches.

3 The shield of his ^lwarriors is made red,
The valiant men are in scarlet:

The chariots ^mshall be with flashing blades,

In the day of his preparation;

And the cypresses ⁿare brandished.

4 The chariots rush madly in the streets,

They jostle one against another in the broad ways:

Their appearance is like torches,

They flit about like lightnings.

5 He ^oremembereth his nobles:

They stumble in their courses.

They make haste to her wall,

And the defence ^pis prepared.

HABAKKUK.

Complaint of the Lord's delay to punish iniquity and violence—(5) Jehovah's answer, announce-ing the invasion of the land of Judah by the terrible Chaldeans.

1. THE burden* ^a which Habakkuk the prophet saw.

2 How long, LORD, do I cry,

And ^b thou hearest not!

I cry out unto thee, Violence!

And thou savest not.

3 Why dost thou cause me to see iniquity?

And why dost thou look upon grievance?

For ^c spoiling and violence are before me;

And there is strife, and contention lifteth itself up.

4 Therefore the law is slack,

And judgment doth never go forth †:

For ^d the wicked compasseth about the
 righteous;

Therefore perverted judgment goeth forth.

5 See ^e ye, among the nations, and observe,
 And wonder marvellously:

For I work a work ‡ in your days,
 Which ye believe not though it be told you.

6 For lo, ^f I raise up the Chaldeans,

The bitter and impetuous nation,

Which marcheth through the breadth of the land ‖,

To take possession of dwelling-places not their own.

7 Terrible and dreadful are they;

Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.

8 And their ^g horses are swifter than leop-ards,

And fiercer than ^h evening wolves;

And their horsemen prance about,

And their horsemen come from afar;

They ⁱ fly like an eagle hastening to devour.

9 They all come for violence:

The crowd* of their faces ^k is forwards;

And they collect captives, like the sand.

10 And they scoff at kings,

And princes are a laughing-stock to them:

They laugh at every strong-hold,

And they heap dust † and take it.

11 Then his spirit changeth ‡,

Yea, he passeth on, and offendeth;

He whose might is his god!

*The prophet's intercession for his people against their cruel and impious oppressors. (ch. 2. 1)
 The Lord's answer, (2) promising blessing to the patient believer, while the proud and unbelieving shall perish—(6) A five-fold woe on the Chaldeans for their (6) insatiable ambition,
 (9) covetousness, (12) cruelty, (15) treachery and (18) idolatry.*

12 ART thou not ^a from everlasting,

O LORD my God, ^b my Holy One?

We shall not die.

Thou ^c LORD, hast set him for judgment,

And thou, O ^d Rock, hast appointed him for correction.

13 Thou ^e art of purer eyes than to behold
 evil,

And thou canst not look upon iniquity.

Wherefore ^f lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously,

And ^g art silent when the wicked devoureth
 a more righteous man than he?

14 And thou makest men as the fishes of the sea,

As the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?

15 He ^h taketh up all of them with a hook,

He catcheth them in his net,

And gathereth them in his drag:

Therefore he rejoiceth and exulteth;

16 Therefore ⁱ he sacrificeth unto his net,

And burneth incense to his drag;

Because by them his portion is rich,
And his food fat.
17 Shall he therefore empty his net,
And not spare continually to slay nations?

2. I ^k will stand upon my watch,
And set me upon a tower,
And I will wait to see what He will speak
by me,
And what answer I shall have to my complaint.

2 And the LORD answered me, and said :
Write ^l the vision, and engrave it on tablets,
That he may run who readeth it.

3 For ^m the vision is for the appointed time,
And it hasteneth to the end,
And it deceiveth not :

Though it delay, ⁿ wait for it,
For ^o it will surely come, it will not tarry.

4 Behold, the proud, his soul within him
is not upright ;

But ^p the just shall live by his faith*.
5 And moreover ^q the wine is treacherous ;
He is a haughty man, and he retesth not ;
Who ^r enlargeth his desire like the grave†,
And he is like death, and cannot be satisfied ;
But he ^s gathereth unto himself all the nations,
And heapeth unto himself all the peoples.

6 Will not all these ^t take up a parable‡ against him,

And a taunting proverb against him ;
And say : Woe to him that increaseth what is not his own ! ^u How long !

And to him that loadeth himself with robbery||.

7 Will ^v not they that bite thee rise up suddenly,

And they that vex thee wake up ?
And thou shalt be for booties unto them.

8 Because thou hast plundered many nations,

All ^w the remnant of the peoples shall plunder thee ;

Because of men's blood, and the violence
done to the earth§,

To the city and to all that dwell therein.

9 Woe to him that ^z gaineth wicked gain for his house ;

That he may ^a set his nest on high,
That he may be delivered from the power of calamity !

10 Thou hast devised shame to thy house ;
Cutting off many peoples,

And sinning against thine own soul.

11 For the stone crieth out of the wall,
And the beam out of the timber answereth
it.

12 Woe to him that buildeth a town with ^b blood,

And foundeth a city by iniquity !

13 Behold, is it not from the LORD of hosts
That ^c the nations labour for the fire,
And the peoples weary themselves for very vanity ?

14 For ^d the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD,
As the waters cover the sea.

15 Woe unto him that ^e giveth his neighbour drink,

Pouring out thy bottle, yea even to make drunk,

That thou mayest look on their naked-
ness !

16 Thou art ^f filled with shame instead of glory ;

Drink ^g thou also, and let thy foreskin be uncovered.

The cup of the LORD's right hand shall be turned unto thee,

And contempt shall be on thy glory.

17 For the violence done to ^h Lebanon shall cover thee,

And the destruction of beasts, which
maketh them afraid ;

Because of men's blood, and the violence
done to the earth*,

To the city and to all that dwell therein.

18 What ⁱ profiteth the graven image,

That its maker hath graven it ?

Or the molten image, and ^k the teacher of falsehood,

That the maker of its form trusteth therein,

In making ^l dumb idols ?

19 Woe unto him that saith to the wood,
Awake,

To the dumb stone, Arise !

Shall it teach ? Behold it is overlaid with gold and silver,

And ^m there is no breath at all inside it.

20 But ⁿ the LORD is in his holy temple ;
Let ^o all the earth keep silence before
him.

accomplish his work, but show mercy while executing judgment ; (3) describing in imagery derived from former deliverances, His coming to subdue his enemies and save his people ;

expressing joyful confidence in God.*

1. IN ^a the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto ^b Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the governor* of Judah, and to Joshua the son of ^c Josedech, the high priest, saying, ² Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying:

This people say, The time is not come, the time that the LORD's house should be built.

³ And the word of the LORD came ^d by Haggai the prophet, saying:

⁴ Is ^e it time for you yourselves to dwell in your wainscoted houses, while this house is waste? ⁵ And now thus saith the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁶ Ye ^f have sown much, and brought in little; ye ^g eat, but ye have not sufficiency; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but ye are not made warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages for a bag with holes.

⁷ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Consider your ways. ⁸ Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the LORD.

⁹ Ye looked for much, and lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, ^h I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts: Because of my house that is waste, and ye run every man unto his own house. ¹⁰ Therefore ⁱ the heaven over you is restrained from dew, and the earth restraineth her fruit. ¹¹ And ^k I called for a drought* upon the land and upon the mountains, and upon the corn and upon the new wine and upon the oil, and upon what the ground bringeth forth; and upon men and upon cattle, and upon all the labour of the hands.

¹² Then ⁱ Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the rest of the people, hearkened to the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him; and the people feared before the LORD.

¹³ Then spake Haggai ^m the LORD's messenger, in the LORD's message, unto the people, saying: ⁿ I am with you, saith the LORD.

¹⁴ And the LORD stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people; and ^o they came and worked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, ¹⁵ on the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

Second message—The people, (3) discouraged on account of the inferiority of the second temple, (4) are reminded of the promises of God's covenant; and (6) assured that the second temple shall surpass the first in glory.

2. IN the seventh month, on the one and twentieth of the month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying: ² Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the rest of the people, saying:

³ Who ^a is left among you that saw this house in its former glory; and what do ye see it now? Is ^b it not in comparison of it as nothing in your eyes? ⁴ But now, ^c be thou strong, Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be thou strong, Joshua, the son of Josedech, the high priest, and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work. For ^d I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts, ^e according ^e to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt; and ^f my spirit remaineth among you; fear ye not.

⁶ For thus saith the LORD of hosts: Yet ^g once, it is a little while, and ^h I will shake the heavens and the earth, and the sea and the dry land: ⁷ and ⁱ I will shake all nations; and ^k the desire* of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. ⁸ The ^l silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD of hosts. ⁹ The ^m latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, saith the LORD of hosts. And in this place will I give ⁿ peace, saith the LORD of hosts.

Third message, accounting for past calamities—(10) No service or sacrifices offered by impure hands can be acceptable to God; but (15) obedience shall be assuredly followed by his blessing.

10 ON the four and twentieth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darins, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, ¹¹ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^a Ask now the priest concerning the law, saying, ¹² If one bear ^b holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread or pottage or wine or oil or any food, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. ¹³ Then said Haggai: If one ^c unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.

¹⁴ Then answered Haggai, and said: So ^d is this people, and so is this nation before me, saith the LORD, and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

¹⁵ And now, I pray you, ^e consider, from this day and backward*, from before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁶ Before these things were, one came to a heap of twenty measures, and there were ten. He came to the wine-vat, to draw out fifty buckets, and there were twenty. ¹⁷ I ^f smote you with blight and with mildew and with hail, in all the labours of your hands. Yet ^g ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. ¹⁸ Consider now from this day and backward†, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, from ^h the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider ye. ¹⁹ Is the seed yet in the barn? And as yet the vine and the fig-tree and the pomegranate and the olive-tree hath not borne fruit. From ⁱ this day will I bless you.

Fourth message—(20) Promise to a faithful representative of the true Israel, of Divine protection and favour amidst wars and convulsions of nations.

20 AND a second time the word of the LORD came unto Haggai, on the four and twentieth of the month, saying, ²¹ Speak to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah, saying: I ^a will shake the heavens and the earth; ²² and ^b I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations. And ^c I will overthrow the chariots and their riders: and the horses and their riders shall come down, every ^d one by the sword of his brother.

²³ In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will set thee as ^e a signet: for ^f thee have I chosen, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

Introduction—(2) Ancient calls to repentance repeated to the present generation; and (4) enforced by an appeal to their fathers' experience.

1. IN the eighth month, ^a in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto ^b Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying:

² The LORD hath been greatly displeased with your fathers; ³ and thou shalt say unto them: Thus saith the LORD of hosts:

^c Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^d I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. ⁴ Be ye not as your fathers, ^e unto whom the former prophets cried, saying: Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^f Turn ye now from your evil ways and your evil doings; but ^g they did not hear, and did not hearken unto me, saith the LORD.

⁵ Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live for ever? ⁶ But ^h my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake you fathers? And they turned and said: ⁱ Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways and according to our doings, so hath he done to us.

A series of symbolical visions, beheld in one night, representing future events, near and distant—(7) First vision—Messengers sent through the earth report that the whole world is at rest; but (14) the cities of Judah being still desolate, (16) the interceding Angel obtains a promise of their restoration.

⁷ ON the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, (which is the month Sebat), in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying:

⁸ I saw by night, and behold, ^a a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the shady place; And behind him were ^b red horses, speckled, and white. ⁹ And I said, My lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said unto me: I will show thee what these are. ¹⁰ And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said: ^c These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. ¹¹ And they answered the angel of the LORD that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said: We have walked through the earth, and behold, all the earth sitteth still and is at rest.

¹² And the angel of the LORD answered and said: ^d O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast had indignation ^e these seventy years? ¹³ And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me ^f good words, comforting words.

¹⁴ And the angel that talked with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying:

Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am ^g jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. ¹⁵ And I am very sore displeased with the nations at ease; for ^h I was a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.

¹⁶ Therefore thus saith the LORD: ⁱ I have returned to Jerusalem with mercies. ^k My house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. ¹⁷ Cry thou again, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^l My cities shall again overflow with prosperity. And ^m the LORD will yet comfort Zion, and ⁿ will yet choose Jerusalem.

Second vision—(18) Four horns and four smiths—representing the enemies of God's people, and the agents employed by Him for their defeat and overthrow.

¹⁸ AND I lifted up mine eyes and looked, and behold, four ^a horns. ¹⁹ And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me: These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel and Jerusalem.

²⁰ And the LORD showed me four smiths. ²¹ And I said: What come these to do? And he spake saying: These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head; but these are come to terrify them, to cast out the horns of the nations which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah, to scatter it.

Third vision—(1) The measuring of Jerusalem—(4) Promises of Zion's enlargement, safety and glory, through God's presence—(6) The Jewish exiles remaining in Babylon are summoned to return.

ed, and behold, ^aa man with a measuring-line in his hand. ²And I said, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me: ^bTo measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length.

³And behold, ^cthe angel that talked with me went forth; and another angel went out to meet him; ⁴and said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying:

Jerusalem shall abide as the country parts*, for the ^dmultitude of men and cattle therein. ⁵And I, saith the LORD, will be unto her ^ea wall of fire round about, and I will be ^fthe glory in the midst of her.

⁶Ho, ho! Come forth and ^gflee from the land of the North, saith the LORD. For I have ^hscattered you abroad, as the four winds of heaven, saith the LORD. ⁷Deliver thyself, O Zion, thou that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon!

⁸For thus saith the LORD of hosts: After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which plundered you; for he that ^ktoucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. ⁹For behold, I will ^lshake my hand over them, and ^mthey shall become a spoil to their own servants. And ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me.

¹⁰Sing aloud ⁿand rejoice, thou daughter of Zion! For lo, I come, and I ^owill dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD. ¹¹And ^pmany nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall become my people. And I will dwell in the midst of thee. And ^qthou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee.

¹²And the LORD ^rwill possess Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will yet choose Jerusalem.

¹³Be ^ssilent, all flesh, before the LORD! For ^the is risen up out of his holy habitation.

Fourth vision—(1) Israel's high priest, accused by Satan, (4) is freed by the Angel of the Lord from the symbols of sin and guilt, and clothed with those of pardon and purity; and (6) the priesthood is restored to its functions and privileges—(5) a pledge of the coming of Him whom it typified.

³, AND he showed me ^aJoshua the high priest standing before the Angel of the LORD, and Satan[†] standing at his right hand to resist! him. ²And the LORD said unto Satan: The ^bLORD rebuke thee, O Satan; even ^cthe LORD who hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee. Is not this ^da brand plucked out of the fire?

³And Joshua was clothed with ^efilyth garments, and he was standing before the Angel. ⁴And he answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying: Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said: Behold, ^fI have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and ^gI will clothe thee with festal garments. ⁵And I said, Let them set a clean ^hmitre upon his head. So they set a clean mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the Angel of the LORD was standing by.

⁶And the Angel of the LORD testified to Joshua, saying, ⁷Thus saith the LORD of hosts:

If thou wilt walk in my ways and if thou wilt ⁱkeep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts; and I will give thee goings among these that ^kstand.

⁸Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou and thy fellows who sit before thee; for ^lmen of wonder* are they. For behold, I will bring forth my servant the ^mBranch. ⁹For behold, the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone are ⁿseven eyes. Behold, I will engrave the engraving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts; and ^oI will remove the iniquity of this land in one day.

¹⁰In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye invite every man his neighbour, under ^pthe vine and under the fig-tree.

Fifth vision—(2) A seven-branched golden candlestick, with its two oil vessels—(6) The kingdom of God shall be established by his ever-watchful Providence and the power and grace of his Holy Spirit.

⁴, AND the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, ^aas a man that is wakened out of his sleep. ²And he said unto me: What seest thou? And I said: I have looked, and behold, ^ba lampstand all gold, with a bowl[†] upon the top of it, and ^cits seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps which are upon the top thereof; ³and ^dtwo olive-trees by it, one upon the right of the bowl and the other upon the left thereof.

⁴And I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying: What are these, my lord? ⁵And the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me: Knowest thou not what these are? And I said: No, my lord.

⁶And he answered and spake unto me, saying: This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying: Not ^eby might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. ⁷Who art thou, O ^fgreat mountain,

Behold, a man whose name is ^c the Branch; and he shall grow up out of his place, and ^d he shall build the temple of the LORD; ¹³ even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and ^e he shall bear majesty; and shall sit and rule upon his throne, and ^f he shall be a priest upon his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.

¹⁴ And the crowns shall be to Helem* and to Tobijah and to Jedaiah and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. ¹⁵ And ^g they that are afar off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD. And ^h ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

Reply to an inquiry from the people respecting the continuance of certain fast-days instituted during the captivity; (5) reproving the formalism of their religious observances, and (8) reminding them of the consequences of their fathers' disobedience.

7. AND it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, on the fourth of the ninth month, even in Chisleu; ² when Bethel sent Sher-ezer and Regem-melech and his men, to supplicate before the LORD, ³ to ^a speak unto the priests who were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying: Shall I weep in ^b the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?

⁴ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying: ⁵ Speak to all the people of the land and to the priests, saying: When ye fasted and mourned in ^c the fifth and ^d seventh month, even those seventy years, ^e did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? ⁶ And when ye did eat and when ye did drink, did ye not eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? ⁷ Know ye not the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity; and her cities round about her, and the south and the lowland, were inhabited?

⁸ And the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying: ⁹ Thus spake the LORD of hosts, saying: Judge ye true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother: ¹⁰ and ^g oppress not the widow and the fatherless, the stranger and the poor; and ^h let none of you think evil against his brother in your heart. ¹¹ But ⁱ they refused to hearken, and ^k offered a rebellious shoulder, and made heavy their ears, that they should not hear. ¹² And they made their hearts as an adamant, that they should not hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts sent by his spirit, by means of the former prophets: ¹³ so that there was great wrath from the LORD of hosts. ¹⁴ And it came to pass that as he called and they would not hear, so ^m they called and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts. ¹⁵ And ⁿ I scattered them with a whirlwind, among all the nations ^o whom they knew not. And ^p the land was made desolate behind them, so that no man passed through or returned; so they laid the pleasant land desolate.

The answer to the people's inquiry concerning the fast-days continued—(1) If they are faithful and obedient, God will greatly multiply and bless them, and (20) make them a blessing to the whole world.

8. AGAIN the word of the LORD of hosts came, saying:

² Thus saith the LORD of hosts: I am ^a jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great fury.

³ Thus saith the LORD: ^b I return to Zion, and ^c dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. And ^d Jerusalem shall be called the City of truth, and ^e the mountain of the LORD of hosts / the Holy Mountain.

⁴ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^g There shall yet old men and old women sit in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age; ⁵ and ^h the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in its streets.

⁶ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: Because it is marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, is ⁱ it also marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts.

⁷ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^k Behold, I will save my people from the East country and from the West country; ⁸ and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. ⁹ And they shall be my people, and I will be their God, ^m in truth and in righteousness.

of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built. ¹⁰ For before those days there was ^p no hire for man, nor any hire for beast; ^q neither was there peace to him that went out or came in, because of the distress; and I set all men every one against his neighbour. ¹¹ But now I am not unto the residue of this people as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. ¹² For there shall be ^r the seed of peace; the vine shall yield its fruit, and the ground shall yield its produce, and the heavens shall give their dew. And I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these. ¹³ And it shall come to pass that as ye were ^s a curse among the nations, ye house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and ^t ye shall be a blessing. Fear ye not, let your hands be strong. ¹⁴ For thus saith the LORD of hosts: As ^u I thought to do you evil when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and ^v I repented not; ¹⁵ so ^w again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Fear ye not. ¹⁶ These are the things that ye shall do: Speak ^x ye every man the truth to his neighbour; judge ye the judgment of truth and peace in your gates; ¹⁷ and ^y let none of you think evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love ye no false oath. For all these are things that I hate, saith the LORD. ¹⁸ And the word of the LORD of hosts came unto me, saying: ¹⁹ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: ^b The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of ^c the fifth, and the fast of ^d the seventh, and the fast of ^e the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness and cheerful feasts. Therefore love ye the truth and peace. ²⁰ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: It shall yet be that peoples shall come, and the inhabitants of many cities; ²¹ and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying: Let ^f us go speedily to pray before the LORD and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will go also. ²² Yea, ^g many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before the LORD. ²³ Thus saith the LORD of hosts: In those days it shall be that the ten men ^h out of all the languages of the nations shall take hold, yea, they ⁱ shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying: We ^k will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.

⁴ THUS saith the LORD my God: Feed the flock of slaughter; ⁵ whose ^a buyers slay them and ^b hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed ^c be the LORD, for I am becoming rich; and ^c their own shepherds spare them not. ⁶ For ^d I will no more spare the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD. But lo, I will deliver the men, every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king. And they shall smite the land; and I will not deliver out of their hand.
⁷ And I fed the flock of slaughter, even you, the poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty*, and the other I called Bands†; and I fed the flock. ⁸ And I cut off three shepherds ^e in one month.

And my soul was impatient with them; and their soul also abhorred me. ⁹ And I said: I will not feed you; ⁹ the dying, let it die; and the cut off, let it be cut off; and ^h the rest, let them eat every one the flesh of another.
¹⁰ And I took my staff, Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I made with all the peoples. ¹¹ And it was broken in that day; and so ⁱ the poor of the flock that gave heed to me knew that it was the word of the LORD.
¹² And I said unto them: If it be good in your eyes give ye my wages; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my wages ^k thirty shekels of silver. ¹³ And the LORD said unto me: Cast it to ^l the potter: the goodly price that I was prized at by them! And I took the thirty shekels of silver and cast them to the potter, in the house of the LORD. ¹⁴ Then I cut asunder my second staff, Bands, to break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

¹⁵ And the LORD said unto me: Take unto thee again the implements of ^m a foolish shepherd. ¹⁶ For lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land who will not visit the perishing, neither will he seek the straying, nor heal the wounded, nor feed the strong; but he will eat the flesh of the fat, and break off their hoofs. ¹⁷ Woe ⁿ to the worthless shepherd, ^o that forsaketh the flock! The sword shall be upon his arm and upon his right eye; his arm shall be utterly withered, and his right eye shall be utterly dimmed.
